

NEHAWKA MAN PAYS PENALTY SECOND TIME FOR MISDEMEANORS

Yesterday afternoon John Plybon was brought in from Nehawka charged by a number of citizens of that place with drunkenness and disturbing the peace in general. John, it seems from the reports from that locality, has a habit of getting "well lit up" and making himself generally very much of a nuisance to the residents of that section, and last Sunday, having an extra large cargo of firewater on board, he secured a shotgun, and getting out proceeded to have a celebration by discharging the weapon in the air and greatly alarming the residents of that section for fear that John would turn his artillery upon some of them, and they notified the authorities and the gentleman was taken into custody and brought here to answer to the charge. This is the second time that Plybon has been brought here on a charge of this nature, and he will be made to feel the effects of his undue celebrations and his over-indulgence in the flowing cup.

A MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER FOR MISS EMMA TSCHIRREN

A miscellaneous shower was given at the home of Miss Florence Rummel on Saturday, February 7, in honor of Miss Emma Tschirren. The afternoon was whiled away in listening to various musical selections. One feature of the afternoon that was thoroughly enjoyed was the mock wedding, in which Miss Ola Kaffenberger took the part of the groom, the bride-to-be taking the part of the bride, Miss Pheme Richardson as groomsman and Miss Vera Propst as bridesmaid, and Louise Rummel as train-bearer. A delicious two-course luncheon was served during the afternoon, to which everyone did ample justice. Those present were: Misses Katie and Maggie Kaffenberger, Josephine Vallery, Ella and Margaret Tritsch, Alice and Emma Tschirren, Mildred Snyder, Ola Kaffenberger, Benita Porter, Vera Propst, Mable and Louise Rummel, Pheme, Florence and Robin Richardson, Leta Lair, Mae Barker, Emma Tschirren, Jennie Batton and Florence Rummel.

Entertains St. Mary's Guild. St. Mary's Guild was very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. E. S. Austin, Mesdames Claude Smith and Austin being the hostesses, yesterday afternoon. There were a large number of the ladies in attendance. During the afternoon a very interesting and enthusiastic business meeting was held, after which the ladies devoted some time on work distributed by the directress. Light refreshments were served.

ANOTHER LANDMARK IS REMOVED TO MAKE ROOM FOR A MODERN COTTAGE

Another of the old landmarks that for years has greeted the travelers along Washington avenue has been doomed to removal and the cottage that has stood for all these years at the intersection of Oak and Eighth streets and Washington avenue, will be removed to North Ninth street, where Mr. Cluggy, the purchaser of the house, will have it placed on a vacant lot owned by him in that locality. This house was one of the earliest in the city and when new was considered a very handsome structure, but the years of usage has caused it to become run down and it was allowed to go from bad to worse and the new owner will have considerable work in putting it in shape to live in. On the site where the house stood, it is understood, that a handsome new cottage will be erected that will be a credit to that section of the city, and it is possible that on the adjoining lots other new and modern cottages will be constructed that will make fine homes for those who desire small and modern residence, and being close to the business part of the city will be in great demand for rental. This change will be another step in the advancement of the city and one that will be of lasting benefit. Let the good work go on!

A Great Mistake.

Professor Marcel Labbe of Paris says that we must take in consideration not only the quality of our food, but also the quantity, believing that the majority of indigestion cases is the result of over-eating. People think that perfectly healthy food cannot hurt them, no matter how much they eat of them. That is a great mistake. Besides belching and flatulence, such people have an enlarged liver, a distended stomach and a yellowish complexion, combined with nervousness, sleeplessness and other diseases. The best help is Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine, because it drives out of the body all waste matter and because it strengthens the digestive organs for their regular work. Excellent in diseases of the stomach, the liver and the intestines. At drug stores, Jos. Triner, 1333-1339 So. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill. In rheumatic and neuralgic pains you can rely on Triner's Liment.

Mr. Nelson Jeans called on the Herald last Saturday in our new office. Welcome, Jeans.

The Presbyterians and everyone else seem pleased with the new minister, Mr. Baird, Preach in earnest and you will win.

Mr. P. B. Murphy, the city marshal, called on the new Herald office last week to see how we get along. Very well, we thank you.

Hon. Church Howe, treasurer of the State Grange, came up to see us on Friday last, in order to consult with Boss Porter about aid in the way of early seed corn and other help for this county; and we guess they will succeed.

Mr. Babcock of Madison, Iowa, insurance inspector, visited us last week. He came to adjust and pay for the loss on the Rudolph Heisel house. Mr. Dan Wheeler introduced him about, and all the boys hope he may come again soon. His company (Wheeler & Bennett, agents) is the Home of Columbus, Ohio.

Senator Paddock was in town for a few moments on Friday last on his way to Lincoln. The Herald did not get to see him, but understood that he looks fat and hearty. He hadn't time to come "round and see such a "leettle fellow" as the Herald man. Well, the train would not wait, and we forgave him.

A fellow who has been peaking in windows lately, exhibiting himself for a show and so on, is fairly warned that he is known and that a coat of tar and feathers, if not severer treatment by the boys, await him if he don't leave town or leave off his tricks.

Wm. Eikenberry and sweet little twins were up to see the Herald last week! The twins are both girls, weigh just 30 pounds each, and look so much alike their own folks can scarcely tell them apart and have to tie a red ribbon around one to tell it from 'tother.

Fitzgerald is cleaning up and beautifying that "Forty" preparatory to putting up that $35,000 house, we see a notice of it in all our exchanges. We admire his enterprise and have great faith in Plattsmouth as long as "Fitz" lives and moves.

Mr. Holdrege of the B. & M. informs us that eight carloads of sheep passed west on Wednesday for the sheep farm of Mr. Jansen, near Beatrice. This is the 12th carload Mr. J. has sent out, and they are doing well. Jansen is a Russian, who came to this country to escape religious persecutions. He has settled near Beatrice and proposes to try the sheep experiment in Nebraska, fairly. We hope he may succeed and that the Herald will be able to chronicle his success.

Deutsche Wacht, was sold at sheriff's sale not long since. Sam Chapman, having studied German long ago (under Prof. d'Altenand) and ye editor of the Herald being "ily" on a number of Dutch words—such as "sa'te goot," "Shaney Lager," "Fraulien," etc., we concluded to go schnacks and buy the Wacht, which we did, greatly to Mr. Gutter's relief, he being anxious to get away to a pic nic (?) that day. Well, we got her pi and all, and ye Herald was just making arrangements to build a corral out of "Fitz" wood pile, shingle it mit straw, pile in the Dutch type and go ahead. "Here's your Daily Dutchman, only 5 cents." We means to build two stalls, with rails, one for us and one for Sam; who proposed to move his law office over on Vine street and stay in the Wacht office to keep the boys from stealing the Dutch hyphens and "etc.'s." Just as we got all these matters arranged and were about to open out, there swooped down on us from Glenwood a Mr. Riegel, and he bought the Deutsche Wacht and moves it to Council Bluffs, where it will be born over again as the Freie Presse, and we hope it may press onward to success, though it does knock Sam and ourself out of a summer's job.

John Tomian was a passenger this morning for Omaha, where he was called to consult a specialist in regard to his eyes, which have been troubling him greatly of late. A very severe cold has settled in one of his eyes, which, being weak, has become quite sore from the effects.
