A GREAT DEVICE FOR DELIVERING THE MAIL

From Friday's Daily. The Rainey Mail Exchange has given the first public test of the device, the invention of Floyd Rainey, a former Plattsmouth man, and a brother of W. H. Rainey and Chief of Police Ben Rainey of this place. The mail catcher is to be placed on mail cars and catches the pouches from the stands at small stations where the mail trains do not make stops. The tests that were made in Chicago were, according to the stories of eye witnesses at the test, most successful, and they were all very enthusiastic over the outcome of the tests made and their statements met fully the demand for a device that would exchange first-class mail bags from fast moving trains without mishap, mutilation to the mails or loss of time. Parties from Iowa and Nebraska, among them bankers and capitalists, were present at the test, going to Chicago in a private car over the Burlington. The Rainey Mail Exchange is largely a Nebraska company, and one in which a number of Plattsmouth people are interested. The officers are: Thomas H. Pratt, Lincoln, president; Henry F. Goos, Plattsmouth, vice president; Henry B. Gering, Omaha, treasurer and general manager; Samuel Orloff, Omaha, secretary.

Sells Number of Incubators. From Saturday's Daily. Oscar Wilson, the Sixth street barber, who in addition to his barber shop, is also the agent for the Rayo incubator, has been very successful in disposing of a number of machines and brooders to those interested in this line of work, and whoever has used the Rayo speaks in the highest terms of this excellent machine. Just a few days ago he sold an incubator and brooder to Mrs. Henry Horn of near Cedar Creek, and one to Mrs. C. F. Vallery of near this city, and these ladies will try out the machines on the spring crop of chickens. The machine is one of the most simple on the market and has been found very successful by those in this city who have secured them.

Gets Thirty Days in Jail.

From Saturday's Daily. Yesterday Jake Plybon, the gentleman from Nehawka, who was charged with drunkenness and disturbing the peace at that place on last Sunday, will have an opportunity to think over his shortcomings in the county jail, as he drew a prize of thirty days in jail. At a previous visit here on the same charge he was fined and the court concluded it would be a good thing to let him linger in the bastille for a few days until he could have an opportunity to realize the evil of his ways.

THE MAD DOG SCARE CAUSES THE KILLING OF NUMEROUS CANINES

From Saturday's Daily. The mad dog scare which for the past few days has been attracting attention, is still on in full blast and already several of the stray canines of the city have paid the penalty for being found running at large and all the others which are found on the streets will be executed without warning. It is time that a large percent of the useless animals that have been accumulating in the city be done away with, as they have become a nuisance on the streets, it being impossible to go up or down the street without seeing a large gathering of these useless animals engaged in fighting, and one place in particular that seems to have been selected for the animals to congregate is the court house lawn, where in the summer they flock in droves, both day and night, and it is not surprising that the authorities have become tired of this and started in on the slaughter. The danger from the spread of the rabies among the animals is one that cannot be overlooked and if you value your dog you would do well to keep him tied up.

Remember that the Cosmopolitan club will give another of their pleasant social dances on Saturday evening at Coates' hall, and as this will be the last dance before Lent, everyone should take advantage of the occasion to attend.

SUPREME COURT REVERSES THE MURDOCK SALOON CASE

From Saturday's Daily. The following from the World-Herald from Lincoln gives the substance of the opinion of the state supreme court in the much litigated case of G. G. Williamson of Murdock, who was granted a license to operate a saloon in that village after one attempt had been overruled by the district court and the last license was sustained by the district court, after the remonstrators had filed a petition alleging that there were not sufficient signers to the petition:

"Count of resident freeholders in the village of Murdock, Cass county, had to be made before justice could be meted out in the saloon remonstrance case brought against G. G. Williamson. The applicant contended that there were only fifty-seven; the remonstrators said there were sixty-two, while the court found an even fifty-eight of them. Under the law then requiring a majority of the residents to sign a petition for a saloon license, thirty names were on Williamson's petition, but the high bench found one of these to be Williamson's wife and it decided that she is not qualified to sign. Hence the twenty-nine names is not a majority of the fifty-eight resident freeholders and the court reverses the lower tribunal's judgment and says the Murdock village board was not with power to issue a license to Williamson."

Pays $5 for His Good Time.

From Saturday's Daily. This morning Levi Everett, claiming to be from the vicinity of South Bend, was brought before Judge Archer to answer to the charge of being in a state of intoxication, and was unable to persuade the stern representative of the law as to his innocence, and as a result, when he left the presence of the judge he left with him a $5 bank note to cover the outraged feelings of justice and went on his way rejoicing that he had fared no worse for his shortcomings in the line of overindulgence in drink.

ANDREW F. STURM OF NEHAWKA IS THE FIRST CANDIDATE TO FILE

From Saturday's Daily. The first man to get out into the open where the lightning of the voters of Cass county can strike him, is Colonel Andrew F. Sturm of Nehawka, who last evening filed his fee with County Treasurer W. K. Fox to entitle him to appear on the primary ballot as a candidate for the republican nomination for the office of state senator from the Second senatorial district, composed of Cass and Otoe counties. Mr. Sturm is one of the prominent men of Nehawka and has been quite active in politics for the past few years and is very well liked in his home, where he is prominently identified in the business life of the community. This is the first sign of the approaching campaign and doubtless other prospective seekers after the suffrages of the voters will get busy and shie "their hats into the ring," but as yet there has been little said or done in this direction, but it is a long time before the skirmish of the primary election and many will have time to think it over. With the filing of Mr. Sturm was a petition filed with the names of a large number of the voters of the county.

"S. S. S." MEMBERS ENJOY VALENTINE PARTY LAST THURSDAY EVENING

From Saturday's Daily. The members of the "S. S. S." enjoyed a delightful valentine party in their club rooms on Thursday evening. The rooms were tastefully decorated in hearts of numerous sizes in commemoration of the occasion. When all the members arrived the evening's festivities were opened by several vocal and instrumental selections. These were followed by games, one of which was a large white heart with a small red one placed in the center, and each person being blindfolded was given a pin with which to pierce the heart as near the center as possible. The winner was awarded a large valentine. Another interesting amusement was when each person was given a white heart with the word valentine written across it and told to derive as many words as possible from it in ten minutes. When the time was up it was found one member had fifty words and he was awarded a valentine also. At a late hour a delicious luncheon was served, after which all departed for their homes, hoping to have many more such enjoyable occasions.

PAST CHIEFS OF HONOR ARE ENTERTAINED BY MRS. J. C. PETERSON

From Saturday's Daily. The Past Chiefs of the Degree of Honor were entertained most pleasantly yesterday afternoon at the charming home of Mrs. J. C. Peterson on lower Main street, and the hostess was assisted in dispensing the gracious hospitality of the day by Mesdames George Thomas, F. G. Egenberger and James Donnelly, and the afternoon was pronounced one of the most edifying that the members of this organization have participated in for some time and the ladies, with their needlework and delightful social conversation, whiled away the passing hours in a very pleasant manner. A delicious and tempting three-course luncheon was served at an appropriate hour, which brought to a close one of the most enjoyable afternoons. There was a large number of the members present and all entered thoroughly into the delights of the occasion and were entertained in that pleasing manner that is so characteristic of the gatherings at the Peterson home.

A Great Production. From our many exchanges we find nothing but praise for the elegant production given by the Certified Amusement Enterprises in their presentation of Paul Armstrong's great story play, "The Deep Purple." This city is fortunate in securing this organization.

Returns Home Today. NEHAWKA IS THE FIRST CANDIDATE TO FILE

From Saturday's Daily. Mr. and Mrs. David Wyckman and son, John, who have been visiting here with friends and relatives for the past few weeks, returned to their home in Brainard, Minn., today. Mr. Wyckman is a brother of John Wyckman and Mrs. H. M. Soennichsen, and resided here up to ten years ago, when he moved to Minnesota, and of course has a great many friends who were much pleased to see him and family, all of whom exerted every effort to make the visit at the old home a pleasant one. They will long remember their visit back to the old home in Plattsmouth, and are certainly very thankful to the many friends for their excellent entertainment while here.

ASKS FOR APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIAN FOR HIS FATHER

From Saturday's Daily. In the county court a petition has been filed by John Murray asking for the appointment of a guardian for his father, Leonard C. W. Murray, who for the past few years has been blind and unable to transact matters as he should, and in view of his feeble condition the family have thought it necessary to take these steps to protect the old gentleman. The court has granted the prayer of the petition and named Frank Spangler as the guardian of the aged gentleman, and the court also in addition granted an order giving permission to the guardian to sell the personal property of Mr. Murray in order that the proceeds might be applied to his care and maintenance.

A petition has also been filed asking for the probating of the last will and testament of the late Mrs. Gertrude M. Wiley, of near Murray, who was for years a prominent resident of that locality. The instrument names Mrs. A. Dove Asch, William Van Buren and Emmet Purvinance as the administrators of the estate.

SUIT FOR EJECTMENT IS FILED IN DISTRICT COURT

From Friday's Daily. This morning in the office of Clerk of the District Court James Robertson a petition in ejectment was filed entitled James Ingwerson vs. Richard H. Ingwerson, et al. Today in the district clerk's office a suit was filed entitled Andrew Olso vs. Julia Haskins, Mary L. Foote, James Clark, David H. Clark, Charles O. Clark, Alvin Clark and Mary Clark. The suit is to quiet title to a piece of property which the plaintiff has had possession of for the past few years and to which the defendants have a claim owing to a mortgage given in 1883 by the then owner of the property. The plaintiff is represented in the suit by Attorney C. E. Tefft of Weeping Water.

Files Complaint. This morning complaint was filed in the office of Justice M. Archer by the county attorney against Sandy Andrews, charging him with drunkenness and also with having taken a team and buggy belonging to Floyd McCarty, and driven it around Saturday night while the owner was at a dance in the south part of the city. The young man will be arraigned probably on Wednesday before the justice of the peace.

Deserved Success.

Paul Armstrong's great play, "The Deep Purple," richly deserves the great success that has followed it ever since its initial performance. No play in the last fifty years has set people to thinking so deeply as has this one.

Frank Cloidt Sick.

This morning Frank A. Cloidt, the accommodating money order clerk at the postoffice, is reported on the sick list and he seems to be suffering from the fashionable gripe that has been afflicting so many of the residents of the city in the past few weeks. The many friends of Mr. Cloidt are trusting that he will soon recover from his indisposition and be able to resume his duties at the postoffice.
