POPULAR ELMWOOD COUPLE TO SOON UNITE IN HOLY WEDLOCK

County Judge Allen J. Beeson today issued a marriage license to Wright Ellis Gonzales and Miss Emily Irene Reeve, both of Elmwood, this county, where the young people will be wedded. Both of the contracting parties are well and favorably known in the locality where they have resided during their lifetime and their hosts of friends will be delighted to learn of their intention to enter the matrimonial state. The groom is the son of John P. Gonzales, one of the prominent farmers of Stove Creek precinct and is a young man of the highest character and one who possesses the esteem and respect of everyone who knows him. The bride is one of the most charming young ladies of that locality and has made a host of warm friends by her pleasing manner and cordial bearing toward everyone whom she numbers among her friends. It is expected that the young people will make their future home near Elmwood.

Colds, constipation and headache are three common afflictions and relieving the constipation helps the cold and stops the headache. Use Foley Cathartic Tablets because they are very prompt and thoroughly cleansing, with absolutely no unpleasant effects. A whole bottle full for 25 cents. For sale by all druggists.

MODERN WOMEN OF MURDOCK VERY MUCH ON "THE INSURING"

The members of the Modern Woodmen at Murdock are evidently very much on "the insuring" according to reports received from their meeting at that place last week. They adopted resolutions denouncing the Chicago rates, which was at first proposed only by the head officers of the lodge, and which it was decided later to submit to a vote of the members of the lodges throughout the country. A demand was also made for the change in the officers of the national organization at the next grand camp of the order, which will be held at Toledo, Ohio, in June. The members of the order throughout the country seem to be very much opposed to the retention of the present officers of the national organization, but the camp of the order in this city has adopted resolutions favoring their re-election. The question of rates seems to be the chief bone of contention, and several of the camps seem to favor a slight increase in rates, but are opposed to the raise as first proposed.

BUYING TO SAVE MONEY.
Buying Foley's Honey and Tar Compound saves money because just a few doses stops the cough and cold and one bottle lasts a long time. It quickly heals raw and inflamed surfaces, stops tickling throat, harsh, rasping coughs, croup, hoarseness, bronchial and la grippe coughs. For sale by all druggists.

"HIKERS" ENTERTAIN A NUMBER OF FRIENDS AT A VALENTINE PARTY

Saturday evening at the home of Sophie Hild the Hikers entertained a number of their friends at a valentine party. The rooms were daintily decorated with Cupids and hearts. The young folks joined heartily in the games which had been carefully planned beforehand. Each guest was given a heart, which told him where to look for his fortune. Each one in turn then read his fortune aloud. In the contest Will Richardson received first prize, which was a drawing by Vera Moore, and Major Hall received the booby prize, which was a stick of gum. The games were interspersed with readings and piano selections and the crowd especially enjoyed the readings by Elizabeth Hall and David Barnett. Blanche Sayles gave some pleasing selections on the piano, which were heartily applauded. At the proper hour dainty refreshments were served and the rest of the evening was spent in songs. Those present were: Elizabeth Hall, Blanche Sayles, May Glenn, Vera Propst, Vera Moore, Margaret Moore, Florence Egenberger, Norine Schulhof, Eleanor Schulhof, Myra Stenner, Anna Hiber, Ola and Mina Kaffenberger, Grace Mougney, Sophie Hild, Robbin Richardson, Mildred Snyder, Bess Handley, Coenna Handley, Elsie Roessler, Philip Campbell, John Kaffenberger, Paul Handley, Major Hall, Clifford Cecil Lewis Mougney, Leon Stenner, Wallace Hunter, George Snyder, Dewey

Zuckweiler, Arthur White, Will Richardson, Finer Hallstrom, Carl Roessler, David Barnett, Elmer Welenkamp, Fred Speck, Raymond Larson, Emil Hild, Dwight Propst.

Celebrates Eighteenth Birthday.
Yesterday the home of Claus Boetel, sr., and wife was the scene of a very pleasant gathering in honor of the eighteenth birthday of their daughter, Miss Ellen. The event was celebrated by the serving of a fine dinner to the company and the occasion will long be pleasantly remembered by all who were fortunate enough to be present as a most delightful one. Those who were present were: John Boetel and family, Claus Boetel, jr., and family, A. C. Tulene and family, Frank Boetel and family, Claus Boetel, sr., and wife, and Mrs. Oswald Guthmann.

THE SUCCESS OF THE CENTURY A Sweet Story of Yesterday in a Charming Play of Today. Louisa Alcott's Famous "LITTLE WOMEN"

WM. A. BRADY'S COMPLETE NEW YORK PLAYHOUSE PRODUCTION
At Parmele Theater, Wednesday, February 18th
WITH SPECIAL BARGAIN MATINEE. THE DRAMATIC TREAT OF THE SEASON.
Millions have read and endorsed the book. Millions more are now enjoying the Play.
RAN ALL LAST YEAR AT THE PLAYHOUSE NEW YORK CITY.
Read What the Magazines Have Said of "LITTLE WOMEN"
MUNSEY'S—"Smashing Hit."
COLLIER'S—"Little Women" makes grown people smile and men cry. The play is a source of real joy as the book has been so many years."
EVERYBODY'S—Miss DeForest has opened the covers of the book and allowed the well-beloved characters to step alive upon the stage."
HARPER'S BAZAR—"The joy of seeing their old friends before their eyes, hearing their voices and clapping and crying again over each madcap frolic was altogether too much."
Newspapers everywhere have joined clergymen and educators in pronouncing "Little Women" the most wholesome play of our time. Produced by arrangement with Miss Jessie Bonstelle through permission of surviving Alcott heirs.
What the Rev. Edward Day of Wichita Thinks of "Little Women"
My Dear Mr. Martling:
I am, I dare say, more familiar with the old town of Concord, Mass., than any other person living in our City. You may be interested to learn that I am to speak at my church—the First Unitarian—next Sunday morning on "The Author and Home of Little Women." If you have opportunity to do so, you may state the fact if you deem it worth while.
I certainly congratulate you over the fact that you have secured this attraction for the near future.
