Minford & Creamer shipped a car of hogs to South Omaha Monday.

James Brown had a car of fat cattle on the South Omaha market Tuesday.

Mrs. B. F. Brendel spent Wednesday as the guest of Mrs. Mira McDonald, northeast of town.

Ed Tutt was in Plattsmouth Wednesday evening between trains looking after some business affairs.

Does Murray need a high school? You know it does. It will do more to place Murray plainer on the map than anything else. Then get busy and you can have it.

We are pleased to note that our dear old friend, James A. Walker, has passed through the winter without serious illness of any nature, and is in the enjoyment of fairly good health for one of his age. Jim Walker is one of God's noblemen, and we trust he may live long to enjoy the best there is in the shape of all that is good and wholesome.

George Bergee slyly dropped in on his parents Saturday morning and paid them a visit. George brought a car of cattle to Kansas City, and thought it an opportune moment to slip up and see his father and mother, returning home Sunday night. George's many friends will be glad to learn that he is doing well in Kansas.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore and S. O. Pitman accompanied Mrs. Pitman to the hospital in Omaha Tuesday evening, where she will receive treatment for stomach trouble, from which she has been suffering for some time. It is the sincere hope of her many friends that she will soon return greatly improved and that she may resume her position in society, from which she is so sadly missed.

Alfred Gansemer shipped a car of hogs to the South Omaha market Monday.

Henry Heebner, manager of the Farmers' elevator, went to Lincoln Saturday morning on business, and in returning stopped off at Nehawka Saturday evening to spend Sunday with his children.

Road dragging seems to be the order in this vicinity. Go in, boys, and keep up your reputation for having the best roads in the county. The farmers hereabouts deserve credit for their grit-up-and-do.

Murray carpenters are as busy as bees already this spring, and the prospects are they will keep up the boom all summer. Billy Hamilton, the boss contractor, does his work well, and his reputation is well established as a man of honor and integrity. He deserves to succeed.

Dr. J. F. Brendel and Mr. Askins, the organizer of the W. O. W. camp at this place, drove to Plattsmouth Wednesday, going by the way of Mynard, where they were looking after some business connected with the camp there. Mr. Askins has met with great success here, and expects to increase the membership to at least fifty, which is considered quite a camp for a town the size of Murray.

William Schlichtemeier of near Nehawka died on Monday morning, and his funeral occurred Tuesday afternoon. The deceased had been ailing for some time, and his life had been despaired of for several weeks. Mr. Schlichtemeier was one of the well-to-do farmers of Cass county, and leaves a large estate to be divided up among his children. He had lived in this vicinity for many years and was an honorable, upright citizen in all his dealings with his fellowmen.

Miss Pauline Oldham was an Omaha visitor Friday.

H. C. Creamer went to Omaha Tuesday with a load of stock.

The Study club will meet at the Oldham home Tuesday, March 17. William Nickels was looking after business in the county seat Tuesday.

John Hobscheidt and family spent Sunday with F. L. Rhoden and wife.

Mrs. Charles Freeze was visiting her sister in Omaha Saturday and Sunday.

Al Bartlett and Guy Stokes were Plattsmouth visitors Saturday evening.

The infant child of Oscar Shrader has been real sick the past few days.

Alfee and Jean Nickels have been reported on the sick list the past few days.

F. L. Rhoden and Tony Klemm made a business trip to Plattsmouth Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Wolfe spent a few days with Mont Shrader at Nehawka this week.

Wayne Lewis and Earl Merritt were transacting business in Nebraska City Friday.

Charles Ratcliff of Union was visiting the Oldhams and other friends in Murray Sunday.

Robert Good had the misfortune to get a fine horse badly cut in the wire Tuesday.

Pearl Dugay spent Sunday evening and Monday in Union with R. H. Frans and family.

Charles Wolfe and Charles Tigner have new phones on the Murray exchange this week.

Mrs. James A. Walker was visiting in Omaha last week at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Bates.

Murray, according to reports, is the greatest grain and stock shipping point in Cass county.

E. G. Lewis and family, Pearl and Frank Dugay, Earl Merritt and Fritz Tigner were guests of J. D. Davis and family Sunday.

Miss Maude Rusterholtz came down from her school at Greenwood Friday evening to spend Saturday and Sunday with home folks.

Superintendent Elliott will speak Tuesday evening, March 17, at the school house on the advisability of a high school. Men and women are invited.

Mrs. T. F. Jameson of Weeping Water spent several days here this week visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Brendel, returning home Saturday morning.

Arthur Hansen, who has been spending the winter with his parents here, departed Thursday for LaPorte, Colorado, where he had previously made his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Copenhaver and Charles Swan accompanied Mesdames Copenhaver, Farris and Chappell as far as Omaha on their way to their new homes in Minnesota.

H. L. Oldham, who has been suffering for several weeks from grippe, while able to get around, lacks a great deal from being a well man yet. We hope, however, Lee will soon be his former self.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jenkins took their departure Wednesday for their new home near Rosalie, Nebraska. Their goods were shipped via the Burlington from Plattsmouth. These excellent people have many friends who regretted to see them go.

John Porter and family are arranging to take their departure next Monday for their new home in Minnesota. The friends and neighbors of this excellent family regret to see them depart, but wish them health, happiness and prosperity in their northern home.

Dr. Gilmore's talk on "Temperance From a Medical Standpoint," Sunday morning, was a very creditable effort, and was listened to with great interest by the large audience present. While the doctor makes no pretense on the oratorical line, yet he is a very smooth and interesting talker and his remarks were very much appreciated by those present.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. D. J. Pitman, who fell and injured himself nearly two weeks ago, is gradually improving, and that he can use the injured limb some. He is still confined to his room under the doctor's care, and it may be several weeks before he will be able to resume relations with his business affairs. The Journal is pleased to learn Mr. Pitman feels very cheerful under such sad circumstances, and can only hope for the best.

Charles Herren was a county seat visitor Tuesday of this week. Guy Keiser is on the sick list, but no serious results are entertained.

George Shrader and wife of Union visited friends and relatives in this community last week.

Mrs. Jennie Jenkins received word that her sister, Mrs. Slate-man, at Valparaiso, Neb., was very ill, and she departed Tuesday for the bedside of her sister.

Harry Tigner was quite seriously injured Tuesday in handling some machinery. As to the full extent of the injury we were unable to learn. He is on the improve.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Creamer entertained Sunday at dinner Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Creamer, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Creamer, William Werhein and family and Walt Sans and family.

A. M. Beveridge was looking after some business matters in the county seat Tuesday, and while there called at the Journal office and enrolled his name for the paper for one year.

Picture show and story-telling at the library Saturday afternoon, March 21, at 2:30. No charges, and every child is invited. Good behavior on the part of the child is all that is required.

E. J. Mouzey and wife were Plattsmouth visitors Monday of this week, and while there paid the Journal office a brief call.

They took their daughter, Grace, and son, Lewis, to the county seat, where they are attending school.

F. L. Rhoden was visiting with county seat friends in Plattsmouth last Saturday. This was Frank's first visit to the county seat for several months, and he seemed almost a stranger. He was a pleasant caller at the Journal office.

The New Hardware Firm.

Baker & Nickels are about the busiest men in town, arranging the postoffice building for their store room, while they have several men employed at their implement house setting up new farm machinery. They are so busy that they can hardly take time to answer questions, and they beg the indulgence of their friends until they get things in order, when no two men in Murray will be happier to greet their friends than Art Baker and George Nickels, both of whom are naturally sociable gentlemen and will rejoice to meet all comers.

Library Books.

A number of new books have been added to the library collection, among which are: "Lonesome Trail," "Red Pepper Burns," "The Least," "The Printer of Edell's," and a number of others. Any of these are well worth reading, and at the disposal of any member of the library.

Farm for Sale.

Farm of 124 acres, 5 1/2 miles northeast of Union; 14 acres hay land, 20 acres pasture timber, rest in cultivation; well improved. Price right if taken soon. Address Miss Elta Nickels, Murray, Neb.

Celebrate 30th Anniversary.

On Friday, March 6, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Creamer, near Murray, was the scene of one of the happiest events that ever occurred in Cass county. The occasion was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Creamer, and in order to make the celebration one long to be remembered, a few of the near friends and neighbors of this estimable couple were invited to assist in the undertaking. And to say that in the afternoon there was a happy crowd there assembled but half expresses it. All enjoyed a fine time, and one thing that was especially enjoyed was the lovely two-course lunch that Mrs. Creamer had prepared for her guests. When the time arrived for departure, all praised Mr. and Mrs. Creamer for their magnificent entertainment, with the wish that they might live to enjoy many more such happy events. Those who were present to take part in this happy event were: Mr. and Mrs. Glen Boedecker and little son, Ran Minford, William Werhein and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Good, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brendel, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tutt, Mr. and Mrs. Walt Sans, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Creamer, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Barrows, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Kiel, Mr. and Mrs. Doc Shrader, Mr. and Mrs. John Hobscheidt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Creamer, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Brendel, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brendel, Frank Reed, Lee Nickels, Willa Moore and Mrs. Frank Moore.

Farewell to Their Friends.

A large number of friends gathered at the depot Sunday evening to bid a long farewell to Mesdames Steve Copenhaver, John Farris and John Chappell, who, with their children, were taking their departure for their new homes near Borup, Minnesota, their husbands having preceded them several days before. These estimable ladies leave behind them many friends, as was evidenced by the immense crowd gathered to bid them an affectionate farewell and God-speed in their new homes. These ladies had, by their noble traits of character, won the love and esteem of all who knew them. Many eyes were bedimmed with tears as the train shoved out on their way to their northern homes.

Residence Property for Sale.

The I. S. White residence property in Murray is offered for sale. This is an excellent piece of property and will be sold right. For particulars call at the Murray State Bank, or Mark White.

Moves Near Mynard.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Lutz, who for the past few years have been living west of Murray, moved last week to the John Becker farm, five miles west of Mynard, where they will make their future home. Mr. and Mrs. Lutz are also rejoicing over the arrival of a fine baby girl, that arrived at their home on Sunday evening, March 1st.

Creamery Station.

The David Cole Creamery company has their cream station at Oldham's and is paying 28 cents for butter fat.

The librarians for next month are as follows: Saturday, January 31, Hannah Hansen; Wednesday, February 4, Mrs. Alvin Ramge; Saturday, February 7, Mrs. Mira McDonald; Wednesday, February 11, Ethel Dill; Saturday, February 14, Gertrude Long; Wednesday, February 18, Mrs. S. O. Pitman; Saturday, February 21, Clara Young; Wednesday, February 24, Mrs. Kennedy; Saturday, February 28, Fay Oldham.

The New Lumberman.

The more the people become acquainted with Mr. Kikendall, the better they like him, and besides he is just the kind of a gentleman they have been looking for to have charge of the lumber business in Murray. They find that he proposes to do the fair thing by them, and give them prices on building material that are bound to meet their approval. Take the Journal's advice and don't think of going elsewhere to buy your lumber until you have consulted Mr. Kikendall. He is here to make his home and he is one among us, and should receive the patronage of the people of Murray and surrounding country.

Seed Potatoes.

I have a fine lot of Earl Ohio seed potatoes for sale. Call on or address, William Sporer, half mile north of Murray.
