WITHIN THE LAW

By MARVIN DANA FROM THE PLAY OF BAYARD VEILLER

CHAPTER XIX. Anguish and Bliss.

ARSON shouted his confession without a second of reflection. But the result must have been the same had he taken years of thought. Between him and her as the victim of the law, there could be no hesitation for choice. The prime necessity was to save her, Mary, from the toils of the law that were closing around her. For himself, in the days to come, there would be a ghastly dread, but there would never be regret over the cost of saving her. He had saved her from the waters-he would save her until the end, as far as the power in him might lie. The suddenness of it all held Mary voiceless for long seconds. She was frozen with horror of the event. When, at last, words came, they were a frantic prayer of protest. "No. Joe! No! Don't talk-don't.

"Joe has talked," Burke said, signifi-

"He did it to protect me," she stated,

The inspector disdained such futile argument. As the doorman appeared in answer to the buzzer, he directed that the stenographer be summoned at

"We'll have the confession in due form," he remarked, gazing pleasedly on the three before him.

"He's not going to confess," Mary insisted, with spirit. But Burke disregarded her completely, and spoke mechanically to Garson the formal warning required by the "You are hereby cautioned that anything you say may be used against tered, he went on with lively interest. "Now, Joe!" Yet once again, Mary protested, a little wildly.

"Don't speak, Joe! Don't say a word till we can get a lawyer for you!" The man met her pleading eyes steadily, and shook his head in refusal. "It's no use, my girl," Burke broke in harshly. "I told you I'd get you. I'm going to try you and Garson, and the whole gang for murder-yes, every one of you. And you, Gilder," he continued, lowering on the young man who had defied him so obstinately. "you'll go to the house of detention as a material witness." He turned hisgaze to Garson again, and spoke authoritatively: "Come on now, Joe!" Garson went a step toward the desk and spoke decisively. "If I come through, you'll let her go-and him?" he added as an afterthought, with a nod toward Dick Gil-"We'll get the best lawyers in the country." Mary persisted desperately. "We'll save you, Joe-we'll save you!" Garson regarded the distraught girl with wistful eyes. But there was no trace of yielding in his voice as he replied, though he spoke very sorrowully.

"No, you can't help me," he said simply. "My time has come, Mary. And I can save you a lot of trouble."

"He's right there," Burke ejaculated. "We've got him cold. So, what's the use of dragging you two into it?" "Then they go clear?" Garson exclaimed, eagerly. "They ain't even to be called as witnesses?" "You're on!" Burke agreed.

"Then, here goes!" Garson cried, and he looked expectantly toward the stenographer.

"My name is Joe Garson." "Alias?" Burke suggested.

"Alias nothing!" came the sharp retort. "Garson's my monaker. I shot English Eddie, because he was a skunk and a stool pigeon, and he got just what was coming to him." Vituperation beyond the mere words beat

"Now, now!" Burke objected, severe-"We can't take a confession like that."

Garson shook his head-spoke with ercer hatred.

Because he was a skunk and a stool pigeon." he repeated. "Have you got it?" And then, as tire stenographer nodded assent, he went on, less violently: "I croaked him just as he was going to call the bulls with a police whistle. I used a gun with smokeless powder. It had a Maxim silencer on it, so that it didn't make any noise."

Garson paused, and the set despair of his features lightened a little. Into his voice came a tone of exultation indescribably ghastly. It was born of the eternal egotism of the criminal, fat- Dick, who came forward. tening vanity in gloating over his ingenuity for evil. He stared at Burke with a quizzical grin crooking his lips.

one of them things! Ain't it?"

The inspector nodded affirmation. "Some class to that, eh?" Garson de-Boston," he explained "Say, that thing cost me $60, and it's worth every cent of the money. Why, they'll remember me as the first to spring one of them things, won't they?" "They sure will, Joe." the inspector

"Nobody knew I had it," Garson continued, dropping his braggart manner At the words, Mary started, and ber lips moved as if she were about to

"Nobody knew I had it-nobody in the world," he declared. "And nobody had anything to do with the killing but me." "Was there any bad feeling between you and Eddie Griggs?" "Never till that very minute. Then I learned the truth about what he'd framed up with you." The speaker's voice reverted to its former flexceness in recollection of the treachery of on' whom he had trusted. "He was a stool pigeon, and I hated him! That's all, and it's enough. And it's all true, so help me God!"

The inspector nodded dismissal to the stenographer, with an air of relief. "That's all, Williams," he said heavily. "He'll sign it as soon as you've transcribed the notes."

Then as the stenographer left the room Burke turned his gaze on the woman, who stood there in a posture of complete dejection, her white, anguished face downcast. There was triumph in the inspector's voice as he addressed her, for his professional pride was full fed by this victory over

"Young woman," Burke said briskly, "It's just like I told you. You can't beat the law. Garson thought he could-and now"- He broke off, with a wave of his hand toward the man who had just sentenced himself to death in the electric chair.

"That's right," Garson agreed, with somber intensity. His eyes were grown clouded again now, and his voice drag ged leaden. "That's right, Mary," he repeated dully, after a little pause. "You can't beat the law!" He hesitated a little, then went on, with a certain curious embarrassment. "And this same old law says a woman must stick to her man."

The girl's eyes met his with passionate sorrow in their misty deeps. Garson gave a significant glance toward Dick Gilder, then his gaze returned to her. There was a smoldering despair in that look. There were, as well, an entreaty and a command.

"So," he went on, "you must go along with him, Mary, Won't you? It's the best thing to do."

The girl could not answer. There you." Then, as the stenographer en- was a clutch on her throat just then, which would not relax at the call of

Of a sudden, an inspiration came to him, a means to snap the tension, to father. It sets her right. He's a just create a diversion wholly efficacious. He would turn to his boasting again, ther. He'll do all he can to make things would call upon his vanity, which he knew well as his chief foible, and make it serve as the foil against his

"You want to cut out worrying about me," he counseled, bravely. "Why, I ain't worrying any, myself-not a little bit! You see, it's something new I've pulled off. Nobody ever put over anything like it before."

He faced Burke with a grin of gloat-"I'll bet there'll be a lot of stuff in the newspapers about this, and my picture, too, in most of 'em! What?" The man's manner imposed on Burke, though Mary felt the torment that his vainglorying was meant to "Say," Garson continued to the inspector, "If the reporters want any pictures of me could I have some new ones taken? The one you've got of me in the gallery is over ten years old. I've taken off my beard since then. Can I have a new one?"

"Sure you can, Joe. I'll send you up to the gallery right now.' "Immense!" Garson cried boisterous-ly. He moved toward Dick Gilder, walking with a faint suggestion of swagger to cover the nervous tremor that had seized him.

"So long, young fellow," he exclaimed and held out his band. "You've been on the square, and I guess you always will be." Dick had no scruple in clasping that extended hand very warmly in his

"We'll do what we can for you," he said simply.

"That's all right," Garson replied, with such carelessness of manner as he could contrive. Then at last he turned to Mary. This parting must be bitter, and he braced himself with all the vigors of his will to combat the weakness that leaped from his soul.

As he came near the girl could hold herself in leash no longer. She threw herself on his breast. Her arms wreathed about his neck. Great sobs racked her.

"Oh, Joe, Joe!" The gasping cry was of utter despair. Garson's trembling hand patted the girl's shoulder very softly, a caress of infinite tenderness. "That's all right," he murmured huskily. "That's all right, Mary." There was a short silence, and then he went on speaking more firmly. "You know, he'll look after you.'

He looked up over the girl's shoulder and beckoned with his head to "Take good care of her, won't you?" He disengaged himself gently from the girl's embrace and set her within "Say," he exclaimed, "I'll bet it's the the arms of her husband, where she their nephew, H. H. Streeter, of deal for another eighty acres of reasonable; special privileges. first time a guy was ever croaked with rested quietly, as if unable to fight Buffalo Gap, S. D., who departed land that he had bought of his Correspondence invited. Comlonger against fate's decree.

"Well, so long!" manded, still with that grewsome air but turned blindly, and went, stum- dainty two-course luncheon was which he says is all good alfalfa Henry Bidg., Seattle, Washington.

"That's all right. That's all right, Mary."

inspector's call

Garson went on without ever a glance back. after Garson's passing. It was broup from his chair and advanced toward the husband and wife. In his sand he carried a sheet of paper, roughly scrawled. As he stopped before the two and cleared his throat, Mary with-from out her white face.

drew herself from Dick's arms and re-he husband. "There's a document," he said gruffly. "It's a letter from one Helen Morris, in which she sets forth the interesting fact that she pulled off a theft in the Emporium, for which your Mrs. Gilder here did time. You know, your father got your Mrs. Gilder sent up for three years for that same joband against the law too!"

Burke chuckled, as the young man took the paper, wonderingly.

"I don't know that I blame her much done. You give that document to your all the participants. man according to his lights, your faright for her, now he knows. Now, you two listen. I've got to go out a minute. When I get back, I don't want to find anybody here not anybody! Do you get me?"

When the official was gone, the two stood staring mutely each at the other hrough long seconds. What she read n the man's eyes set the woman's What he read in her eyes set the husand's pulses to bounding. He opened his arms in an appeal that was a command. Mary went forward slowly. without hesitation, in a bliss that forgot every sorrow for that blessed moment, and cast herself on his breast. THE T D.

ELMWOOD. Leader-Echo.

J. F. Hoover shipped a car of hogs to the Nebraska City market cousin, E. E. Day and family.

Wm. Fitch of Bogue Chitto Miss., arrived Tuesday for a visit with his son, F. J.

Jacob Schlauker has purchased lay and Sunday visiting her a bachelor, daughter, Mrs. Raiph Keckler, of near Manley.

Mrs. Adolph Mueller. Iowa, came Friday for a few days' there fine. visit with her old schoolmate and The friends of Miss Verna Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Viali left friend, Mrs. James Durbin.

zales' mother, Mrs. Rhine, of Lin- trying ordeals of an operation. | up there and have everything had the misfortune of falling off Brown, were over night visitors at wish them the best of success in a load of hay, breaking three the John Colbert home Wednes- their northern home. bones in his wrist. We are glad day night, leaving Thursday for to hear he is doing nicely at this their new home in Chase county.

entertained a company of young Mrs. John Colbert. Friday for his home. The even- father, Chas. Philpot. This eighty monwealth Securities Loan Coming was spent in playing progres- acres joins his land at Arnold, pany, R. 767 Gas and Electric He dared not utter another word, sive Some'R'Set, after which a which makes him 400 acres there, Bldg., Denver, Colorado. 749 manded, still with that grewsome and of boasting. "I got the gun and the bling a little, toward the doorman, served. The guests departed at land.

Maxim silencer thing off a fence in who had appeared in answer to the an early hour, voting Mrs. Cobb Mrs. Herbert Ratnour received la royal entertainer.

Ledger.

Dave A. Eaton went to South her. Omaha Monday evening, taking two carloads of his fat cattle.

W. B. Banning and wife and son, Hollis, went to Lincoln last Friday to make a visit with some of their friends.

Neb., arrived Wednesday to make a visit with C. F. Harris and family and other relatives near here. Mrs. Robert Eaton was taken to Omaha Wednesday evening for her mother, Mrs. Will Rakes.

Miss Jessie Todd departed last carload of hogs to Nebraska City Tuesday evening for Canada, in- the latter part of last week. tending to have charge of houseewned by Harry Todd near land. Strathmore, Canada.

vas here Wednesday afternoon to of tast week on account of the illvisit and attend to business af- ness of her mother, fairs. Mr. Dysart and family are located on the fine farm of "Billy" Neb., Tuesday for a couple of "To the gallery," Burke ordered H. Betts, who recently moved to days' visit with his daughter, Miss his large ranch in Holt county. -Robert Foster, who has been in the public schools there.

the south for some time, came in the first of the week and will hall last Thursday evening, Chas. There was a long silence in the room probably find suitable employ. Renner, Geo. Reitterr, jr., and ken at last by the inspector, who got forms us that he has spent most didates for village trustees to be of the time in Louisiana, but that voted on at the spring election. this part of Nebraska looks good garded the official with brooding eyes Rushville, Neb., for several years, thorne, Neb., which occurred Sathave been visiting relatives in urday morning of last week. Mrs. Burke extended the sheet of paper to this village, and will soon locate Statten was formerly a teacher in it the new home in Texas. Mr. the Eagle and Highland schools. reiburghouse went there two which she didn't do. That's why she them Thursday evening, March in the eleven years that March 16 had such a grudge against your father 19, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. has come on Monday. He has been guests were present, and a splen- ing lost any time during the endid supper was served, the affair tire eleven years, and for prompt_ a boy. for that grudge, when all's said and being one of great enjoyment for

> AVOID STUFFY WHEEZY BREATHING.

Take Foley's Honey and Tar + compound for an inflamed and ongested condition of the air + passages and bronchial tubes. A place of the passages and bronchial tubes. A old develops quickly if not checked and bronchitis, lagrippe and pneumonia are dangerous coughs weaken the system, but boy. heart to beating with a new delight. Foley's Honey and Tar is safe,

> WEEPING WATER. Republican.

W. D. Bish of Kansas City was alling on his brother, C. W.

Wednesday night. Mr. Myron Kinney of Vermont arrived today for a visit with his Miss Myrtle Woods of Wabash who has been teaching school at Sheridan, Wyoming, was visiting her sister, Mrs. J. W. Staton, the last of the week.

the Harry Thomas farm. We ha Friday; from there she will Skow disc machine. He has the understand the consideration was visit relatives while George is only one in the county, and disc taking in the sights in Florida. Mrs. Harnsberger spent Satur- Ben has quite the appearance of the county to be charpened.

a Wednesday night visitor with children are all ready to leave Archie Mueller of Cedar Rapids, relatives here. He had been to Saturday for their new home in Iowa, arrived Monday evening for Kansas City with a load of fat Astoria, Ore., where Mr. Banning a visit with his parents, Mr. and cattle and was on his way home. has a lucrative position with the He says the family are all well S. P. railway. They have been Mrs. Josie Barr of Thurman, and they like the country out waiting several days for a part

Bates will be pleased to know that Monday afternoon for Mentor, Mr. and Mrs. John Gonzales she returned from the hospital at Minn., where they will make their entertained at a four-course din- Lincoln this afternoon and is home. The elder Mr. Viall and ner Friday in honor of Mr. Gon- much improved and escaped the Earl have established themselves

They were accompanied as far as siciological description of the land of th A Springs, Kansas, that her sister's husband, Chris Hunter, of Green, * Kansas, died Sunday morning and that she would attend the funeral and return to Waconda, as she thought the baths were helping > EAGLE. Beacon.

August Bergman shipped a carload of cattle to South Omaha Wednesday.

J. S. Dysart shipped a carload treatment in a hospital, being ac- of cattle to the South Omaha companied by her husband and market the fore part of the week. A. H. Vanlandingham shipped a

Miss Gladys Sharp left for hold affairs for her nephew. Hilger, Mont., last week with the Vance Todd, on a large ranch view of securing some homestead

Mrs. Bert Price was called to Jesse R. Dysart of near Avoca Coon Rapids, Iowa, the latter part

B, F. Judkins went to Tobias, Abbie Judkins, who is teaching in

At the caucus held in the town ment and remain here. He in- Geo, Oberle were selected as can-

Mrs. B. F. Judkins received word the fore part of the week of Mrs. Frank Freiburghouse and the death of Mrs. Grace Blodgett hildren, whose home has been at Statten at her home in Silvereeks ago with the household Anson Burdick commenced on his twelfth year as rural mail carrier One of the pleasant features in out of Eagle. It was on Monday ? onnection with the wedding of morning, March 16, 1903, that Massie was a reception given the route and this is the first time ness and courteous treatment, the patrons of his route say they could ask for none better.

> afanjanjanja njanjanjanjanja njanjanjanjanja ojanjanjanja NEHAWKA.

are rejoicing over the arrival at away a privilege for which some the purchase price was in the osibilities. Harsh, racking their home Monday of a fine baby women would tear their bonnets neighborhood of $35,000.

pure and certain in results. Con- the result of mistaking one of his Mrs. T. C. Amick is recovering ains no opiates. For sale by all toes for the limb of a tree he was from a serious attack of heart trimming.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knabe, for several weeks. George Hansen and Miss Gladys West were Nebraska City visitors Wednesday.

The many friends of Mrs. Tom Kivett will be glad to know that she is improved in health and is able to be up and around again.

From the looks of things Nehawka will have her share of candidates for the various offices this fall, and they are all good

C. A. Anderson left with his car Saturday for Park Roberts, Minnesota, where he will make his future home. The family will remain for a time at least.

Tom Fulton has been doing a Mrs. G. H. Olive went to Oma- lot of werk recently with his big plows are sent here from all over

Mrs. J. E. Banning and the

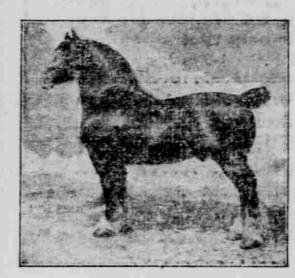

Mrs. George Colbert, son, ready to begin work. This family Verner Perry, of near Wabash Wiley, and her daughter, Mrs. leaves a host of friends here who Money Loaned.

Six per cent loans on farms, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Cobb Lincoln by Grandma Colbert and orchard lands, city resident or business property, to buy, build, people at their home on Thursday Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Philpot were improve, extend or refund mortgevening of last week in honor of in town Wednesday and closed a lages or other securities; terms word from her mother, Mrs. Tur- Try the Journal Want Ads.

3 Good Breeding Stallions

BODENHAM MATCH-LESS 22132 is an English Shire and was foaled in 1903. Bred by Mrs. Medlicott, Bodenham, Leominster, England. He is bay in color, with white face, and weighs 2000 pounds. Bodenham is an excellent breed er and has many fine colts in Cass county that will prove this statement.

HERBERT is a sorrel horse weighing 1800 pounds and is a good foal getter and producer.

PRIZELANDER-A thoroughbred trotting stallion, is a jet black and weighs 1200 pounds. He was foaled in 1907, by Borolyptol 32229; dam Minaletta, by Wrestler 18754; grand dam Minola, by Alpine 9611; sire Borolyptol 32229, Electioneer, Jr.

The season of 1914 for these horses will be made at my farm one mile south of Mynard.

The Great Breeding Jack "Tom"

Tom is a black jack with white points and weighs 1000 lbs., good bone and a sure foal getter. He will also make the entire season at my farm.

For Herbert and Prizelander-$10 to insure colt to stand and suck. For Bodenham and jack Tom -$15 to insure colt to stand and suck. Care will be taken to prevent accidents but will not be held responsible should any occur. When parties dispose of mares or remove from the county service fee becomes due and payable immediately.

W. A. FIGHT, Owner.

LOUISVILLE. Courier.

Born-Tuesday, March 24, to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Taylor, a Ohio, several years ago, have had Ben F. Hoback. About forty a most faithful carrier, not hav-

Mrs. G. A. Pribble went to have decided to remain in the Omaha Monday to attend the west. Mr. Kilgore is engineer of funeral of her nephew's little the steam shovel at the National child. She returned home Tues- stone quarry, her brother, C. A. Richey and Greenwood, paying $25,000 for to accomplish. John Griffith is using crutches. We are pleased to report that Special "Health Warning" for trouble which kept her bedfast

Miss Rose Rathbun has rethe old hen to go shead shelling out eggs while lice and mites are sapping her very life. We have counted over 2000 dead lice under a row of ten hens, on a roost board painted the night before with Lee's Lice Killer. This greatkiller does double duty—contact kills mites, lice, bedbugs, etc. about the roosts; the vapor kills lice on the chickens sitting over it. Put up only in airtight cans. For sale at over 10,000 towns

Three sizes-35 cts., 60 cts., $1.00. Poultry Book free.

For Sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Kilgore, who came here from Columbus, which would indicate that they as the millienary season has home of her mother, Mrs. C. F.

as the millinary season has

+ vacation in Louisville, at the

In an item in last week's Miss May Richey returned to Courier we stated that our old her home in Plattsmouth Wed- friend, Geo. L. Berger, of Elmnesday after a ten days' visit with wood, had purchased a farm near 240 acres. The information as to If you neglect to vote Tuesday, price was derived from an ex-Mr. and Mrs. George Sheldon April 7, you will have thrown change, but we are informed that

March is a trying month for the very young and for elderly people. Croup, bronchial colds, lagrippe and pneumonia are to be feared and avoided. Foley's Honey and Tar is a great family 300 LCE Or More medicine that will quickly stop a cough, check the progress of a is by no means uncommon. No one would expect | cold, and relieve inflamed and congested air passages. It is safe, pure and always reliable.

For sale by all druggists.

mouth, Neb. 'Phone 305-J.

Horses for Sale. 25 head of horses and mares for sale. Mostly broke and ready to go to work. Prices and terms are right. Frank Vallery, Platts-

The Celebrated Young Jack Sandors

in the week.

Sandors is an excellent young Jack, coming 3 years old, weighing 900 pounds, plenty of extra heavy bone, black with mealy points.

Sandors (5298) was foaled June 2, 1911; his sire was San Salvador, 2nd, by Salvador, imported from Spain. Sandors was bred and owned by Frank Busch of Villa Ridge, Mo. He has been inspected this spring by the State Inspector and is sound in every way. Sandors will make the season of 1914 at our home, six miles west of Murray, and six miles east of Manley, every day

TERMS

$15 to insure colt to stand up and suck. Parties disposing of mares or removing from the locality, service fee becomes due and must be paid immediately. All care will be taken to prevent accidents, but owners will not be responsible should any occur.

SCHAFER BROS.