

THE Indian Motorcycle is the only machine with an international reputation

In 1913 the Indian went through every kind of test that could possibly be devised for a motorcycle.

The Indian made a clean sweep of the National 250-mile Road Race for strictly stock machines held at Elgin, Ill. Indian riders finished 1-2-3-4-5 out of a field of fifty-two starters mounted on all prominent makes of American machines.

In the great endurance run of 441 miles across the desert from San Diego, Cal., to Phoenix, Ariz., over boulder-strewn mountain trails and trackless sand wastes, Indian riders finished first, second and fourth, against a field of 19 experienced riders mounted on the most representative American machines. Official time shows the winning Indian to have arrived four hours ahead of the first machine of any other make.

Big events in England, Scotland, Ireland, France, Germany and India were also won by the Indian.

The Indian is continually in competition throughout the world—continually being put to the test.

Indian power, speed and durability are known factors. They are demonstrated often—they are relied upon often—they win almost invariably!

Let us demonstrate the international Indian to you

Carl Teckoff, aged 14 years, of Plattsmouth, picked up at the Union station by Officer Frank Williams, to whom he had complained of losing his purse and $14, was detained Friday evening at police headquarters, while the police investigated. A telegram to the boy's parents at Plattsmouth revealed that he had run away from home with the conviction that he would be admitted to the army, and sent to the front to subdue Mexico. His parents instructed the police to send him home on the next train, and he would receive all the war he wanted.—Omaha Bee.

AFTER "TRUFFLES" BENT DOWN IN OTOE COUNTY

This morning bright and early County Judge Allen J. Beeson brought out his faithful Ford automobile, and loading it up with a good supply of gasoline and provisions for the journey, gathered up Postmaster D. C. Morgan and Cashier H. N. Dovey of the First National bank and the party took up their way for Wyoming, in Otoe county, for the stated purpose of securing all the specimens of the truffle family that they could lay hands on. The party left fully equipped for the expedition and their friends are looking forward with great pleasure to enjoying a rare feast of these toothsome delicacies.

Frank Koufret and his force of workmen departed this morning for Pacific Junction, where they go to complete a job of carpenter work in that place.

A PIONEER OF LIBERTY
PRECINCT PASSED AWAY
WEDNESDAY NIGHT

From Friday's Daily.
On Wednesday night at his home in Union, George W. Garrison, one of the leading pioneer residents of Liberty precinct, passed away, after having suffered for several weeks with an illness due principally to heart trouble, as he had for several years been afflicted with this malady. Mr. Garrison was 79 years of age, having been born in Indiana in 1833, and came to Cass county in 1859, and settled in Liberty precinct, where he had become one of the most extensive land owners in that section, and his acres of land there are some of the finest in that section. The funeral of this worthy man was held this morning at the Baptist church in Union, and the interment made in the cemetery near that place.

LOOK AT THE ARRAY OF FISHERMEN WHO WILL
APPLY THEIR AVOCATION

From Saturday's Daily.
The past month has been quite a lively one in the county clerk's office here in the issuing of fishing and hunting licenses, as quite a number of our people have desired to start out to catch the elusive inhabitants of the Platte and Missouri rivers and it has kept quite a steady run on the little slips of paper that entitle the owners to the right to hunt and fish in Cass county. During the past month the following have secured licenses: J. C. McCrary, La Platte; N. C. Halmes, Weeping Water; J. R. Stanley, Cedar Creek; W. D. Jones, Joseph McCarthy, Gus Swanson, Richard Clement, W. P. Cook, Angelo Salerno, Plattsmouth; M. G. Churchill, Murray; D. L. Amick, Mynard; A. Hanson, Cedar Creek; Anton Kemenda, E. A. DeHarty, E. L. Finch, A. C. Bartlett, John Thieroff, Mike Palmiere, Toni Camilleri, A. O. Eggenberger, E. A. Platt and D. Ward Clark. With this array of fishermen it will certainly pay the fish to be wary or they will be snagged and consigned to the frying pan.

Motors Out to Havelock.
From Saturday's Daily.
Yesterday morning Jess Perry and mother, Mrs. E. B. Perry, and Mrs. Albert Funk motored out to Havelock, where they visited for the day and from where Mrs. Funk departed for Bradshaw, Neb., where she will make a visit there with her husband, who is engaged in bridge work near that place. The trip was one much enjoyed and the party reports the roads as being in good shape over the route traveled and that the crops look fine and that the wheat in this county will be immense from all indications. The trip was made in five hours and Jesse feels that it was one much enjoyed, as the day was fresh and bracing.

MARSHAL SEYBERT COMES DOWN FROM LOUISVILLE WITH TWO PRISONERS

From Friday's Daily.
C. M. Seybert of Louisville came in this morning from his home, bringing with him Mike Morton and John Overlander, two prisoners, whom he captured yesterday at that place. The men yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock entered the store of W. F. Diers in Louisville and one of the men engaged the clerk in conversation, while the other one proceeded to "lift" five pairs of pants, which he concealed beneath a raincoat he was wearing, and after a short conversation the men departed, and it was then discovered that the pants were missing from the store and the marshal was notified, and he at once started out to discover the location of the articles of wearing apparel. The men were found near the river and were requested by Marshal Seybert to allow themselves to be searched, and the missing articles were then found. The men were brought back to Louisville and confined in the jail there over night, and this morning the marshal brought the men to this city to be arraigned by the county attorney.

MURRAY YOUNG PEOPLE
MARRIED IN NEB. CITY

From Saturday's Daily.
William H. V. Rice, 21, son of Mrs. James Rice, of Murray, and a young farmer, and Miss Ethel M. Dill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Dill, residing near the same place, came to this city yesterday afternoon and were married by Judge A. A. Bischof. They were accompanied by several relatives and returned home last evening.—Nebraska City News.

Both of the newly wedded people are among the most popular of the young people of near Murray and the groom is a very industrious young farmer, living a few miles southwest of the village, and is very highly esteemed by all who know him, while the bride, who was born and reared to womanhood in that locality, is one of the most charming of girls and will receive the best wishes of a large circle of friends on her new-found happiness. She is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Dill of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Rice will make their home near Murray.

THE SHERWOOD CASE
SETTLED BY JUDGE BEGLE
IN THE DISTRICT COURT

From Saturday's Daily.
The case of Nellie Sherwood vs. Thomas H. Sherwood, which occupied the attention of the district court at its last session, was again brought up yesterday afternoon at 1:30, when the matter was reopened in order to take up for final settlement and to dispose of the question of the custody of the minor daughter of the couple which the father sought to get custody of. The court has been looking into the matter for the past week or two and announced that it would hear the claims of the parents in the matter. It was arranged between the two parties and the court that the little girl shall be placed in some convent in the second judicial district, where the court can keep control over her and where she can be educated in a manner agreeable to both the parents. The court also ordered that the father pay for the care of the child in such institution, although the mother had expressed a willingness to pay for the child's care. The court also ordered that the defendant pay the costs in the case.

JAY WEINGARTEN,
FORMERLY OF THIS CITY
BECOMES A LAWYER

From Saturday's Daily.
Among the graduates of the Creighton college law school which appeared in the Omaha papers of yesterday appears the name of Jay Weingarten, who was for some time a resident of this city, being employed as a stenographer by Attorney Byron Clark, and on the appointment of that gentleman as Burlington attorney at Omaha he accompanied him there and took up the study of law and has completed his course in school. Mr. Weingarten is a very bright young man and possessed of marked ability along this line of work and will be heard from in the future in his chosen profession.

Married by County Judge.

From Friday's Daily.
Yesterday County Judge Allen J. Beeson was called upon to perform the ceremony that united for life the hearts and fortunes of Thomas A. Harland of Pacific Junction, Iowa, and Miss Birdie V. Johnson of Thurman, Iowa. The judge responded graciously to the request of the young people to have the matrimonial knot prepared and performed the wedding ceremony with all the dignity and beauty that has distinguished his weddings. Following the wedding the newly weds departed on the afternoon train for Alvo, where they expect to reside in the future.

THE SPIES HOME
THE SCENE OF A
JOLLY MAY DAY PARTY

From Saturday's Daily.
Last evening the pretty home of Miss Marie Louise Spies, president of the Jolly Seven club, was the scene of a very pleasant social affair, when the members of the Jolly Seven club delightfully entertained a number of their friends of this city and Murray at a May day party. For the occasion the spacious parlors of the Spies home had been handsomely decorated in the club colors, pink and green. In the dining room the table was made most attractive with decorations of pink flowers and foliage. A number of games had been planned for the amusement of the company and these took place on the lawn. In the strife for the candy, Walter Hamilton made the most strenuous effort and landed the prize. Vocal and instrumental music was another pleasing feature of the evening's entertainment, and was greatly enjoyed by all. A dainty two-course luncheon was served by Mrs. W. W. Moore and Miss Bernia Spies. At a late hour they departed for their homes, declaring the Jolly Seven splendid entertainers.

Daughter at E. C. Barger Home.
From Saturday's Daily.
This morning the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Barger was gladdened by the arrival there of a fine little daughter, who made her appearance at an early hour. The little lady received a hearty welcome from the proud and happy parents, being the first child in the family, and they are ready to vouch that she is about the finest little lady in the land and their happiness is most complete. The little one is of the regulation weight and size and is the best and sweetest little lady in the land in the opinion of her admiring relatives.

Adolph Rhode came down last evening from Omaha and visited here for the day with his mother and brother in this city.
