THE CARNIVAL WILL BE HERE ALL NEXT WEEK

Big Allman Shows, the Greatest in the Land, Will Furnish Amusement.

The days are growing short now until the big Allman shows will be here to offer to the citizens of Plattsmouth a great, glittering street fair and carnival that will be one of the best ever seen in the city, if the reports from other localities where they have shown can be believed.

The company is this week showing at Council Bluffs, where they are meeting with great success, and the residents of that city pronounce the company one of the best seen there in years, being clean and up-to-date in every way, and the attractions offered are as fine as can be found in the amusement world today.

This company having just recently started out on its tour, is in the best of shape and its properties are such as to make a magnificent appearance, as they are set up on the carnival grounds, which will probably be on the old brick yard on Washington avenue, which has been secured by the committee for the purpose of a carnival ground.

The carnival company is scheduled to arrive here on next Sunday morning at 8 o'clock, and will at once start to setting up their different shows on the grounds in order to be ready for business on Monday evening. The fine twenty-piece military band which the Allman company carries with it is one of the best of any company on the road and it will be worth the admission to the carnival to hear this attraction alone. There has been quite a good deal of anticipation felt in our neighboring towns over the carnival and the prospects are good that there will be a very large sized crowd here to attend it.

A. O. U. W. ORDER PREPARING CAMPAIGN FOR INCREASED MEMBERSHIP

The A. O. U. W. lodges of this city are preparing to start in on a campaign to increase their membership and give as many as possible an opportunity to join their order, and to aid them in this object John R. Barton of Lincoln, a deputy of the order, came in last evening to take up the work for the order here, and the deputy and members will at once start in to hustle for a large class for the order. The A. O. U. W. is one of the oldest fraternal societies in the city and has always been one of the leaders in the lodge life of the city and has four different lodges here, all of whom will get into the race for the increase in membership. The A. O. U. W. has in the past few years come to the front with a plan of good, sound insurance at a very low rate, and as a result have met with much success in securing members, and the campaign will now be pressed for a still further increase. Mr. Barton is a very able worker and will add greatly to the upbuilding of the order in this city.

The Dagerdorfer family for several years resided in the vicinity of Plattsmouth, but for the past ten years have made their home in Oklahoma on a farm, and the death of this estimable lady will be learned of with much regret by her friends here. Mrs. Hennings will be joined in Omaha by her brother-in-law, Claus Ploehn, of Scribner, Neb., who will accompany her to Proscasset to attend the funeral.

CEDAR CREEK AGAIN DOWNS LOUISVILLE

Result of Game Played at Louisville Was 6 to 5 in Favor of Cedar Creek.

Cedar Creek again defeated Louisville in a well played game on the Louisville diamond, by a score of 5 to 6. The game started off like a flash, and the sides went down in one, two, three order until the third, when Cedar Creek put one across. Louisville came back with one score in the fourth. Then in the sixth inning Cedar Creek went into it with blood in their eyes and hammered out four scores, thereby getting a lead on the locals of three runs, only to be tied up in the last half of the same inning, when a misplay cost Cedar Creek two runs, coupled with two hits, for a total of three, and a tied score.

Nothing further resulted until the first half of the ninth inning, when again the visitors pushed one across, and again gained a lead which they held. This was another game where the visitors used only locals, and the larger end were youngsters, all of whom did creditable work. The locals did not rely wholly upon their own talent and secured the services of Cedar Creek's distinguished third baseman, Willie Gabelman, who did very well under the circumstances, but could not win from his old teammates. This looks rather puzzling, but when the fact is known that the Cedar Creek manager solicited the services of the third sacker and he refused to play with a bunch of dubs, it is with much pleasure the young aggregation brought home the bacon in so well a played game.

The game was featured by the fielding of Lute Likowise and Ralph Meisinger and the pitching of Keil in the pinches. The score by innings:

Cedar Creek . . . 0 0 1 0 0 4 0 0 1—6 Louisville . . . 0 0 0 1 1 3 0 0 0—5

Batteries—Louisville, Huff and Keckler; Cedar Creek, Keil and Wolf.

The standing of the teams in the Cass County league is as follows:

Table with 5 columns: Team, P, D, W, L, Pct. Cedar Creek: 2, 2, 0, 1000. Manley: 2, 2, 0, 1000. Louisville: 2, 0, 2, 000. Avoca: 2, 0, 2, 000. Eagle: 0, 0, 0, 000. Nehawka: 0, 0, 0, 000.

Next Sunday Schroeder will put his colts on the Manley lot for a clash with that fast aggregation, and a large attendance will be sure to be on hand, as each team has been successful in winning two games. Manley has a fine ball park and a good bunch of fellows, so you will make no mistake in taking in the game.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM ROUGH TREATMENT

Robbing of a Bunk Car Causes Great Excitement From Greek Laborers.

From Tuesday's Daily. There was a great deal of excitement created this morning at the camp of the Greek railroad laborers near Oreapolis when the startling discovery was made that some miscreant had entered one of the bunk cars and abstracted therefrom a pair of trousers and four shirts belonging to some of the men. As soon as the discovery was made the scene resembled greatly that of the Balkan war, with the remarks of the owners of the trousers an shirt coiled in the choicest of Greek, and the whole gang proceeded to go on the hunt for the person who committed the dastardly deed, armed with all kinds of weapons and vowing vengeance on the party or parties guilty of the outrage.

The parties discovered two specimens of the "Weary Willies" in the neighborhood and at once surrounded them and made a demonstration akin to that of their countrymen at Adriapolis toward the aforesaid hoboos, but this failed to produce the missing garments, which had once graced the forms of these children of Sunny Greece. The decision was finally reached to notify the authorities, and Sheriff Quinton was sent for, while the members of the gang stood guard over the two unfortunate hoboos who had fallen into their hands, and on the arrival of the sheriff the two men were turned over to him and brought to this city.

There is no doubt that these two hoboos were innocent of taking the clothes and were only unlucky in being found in the neighborhood by the Greeks. It is thought that a party seen lurking around in the locality of the bunk cars for the past few days is the guilty one, and efforts will be made to locate him and he be made to face the punishment of the law for his crime. The parties from whom the clothes were taken were greatly stirred by the affair and the two men brought in by the sheriff were lucky in not being roughly handled by the Greeks.

Among the features on the program will be papers and addresses. "Giving the Individual Member His Money's Worth." Robert H. Manley, commissioner Omaha Commercial club; "Commercial Clubs from a Farmer's Point of View." George Coupland, president Nebraska Farmers' Congress; "What This State Association Can Do." A. M. Connors, secretary Grand Island club; "One Year of the Nebraska Manufacturers' Association." C. B. Towle, Lincoln; "Work of the Agricultural Development Commission." Carson Hildreth, Franklin; "Unifying Town and Country Club in Work." Dr. E. C. Higbie, president Minnesota college.

GERMAN TURNERS TO MEET HERE MAY 17TH

The German Home in this city will be the scene of a gathering of quite a number of turners on May 17, the occasion being in the nature of turn day, when the representatives of the societies of Omaha, Fremont, Yutan and Millard will assemble to take part in the different drills and exercises prescribed by the national turnfest. These turn days will be held in the different towns in the eastern part of the state and the turners taking part in the meet will have their work judged by experts and at the close of the year receive prizes for their work in the athletic line. The society here will have a number to take part in the event, and with the visitors present it should be quite an entertaining meeting for those who are interested in this line of work. On Saturday evening, May 16, there will be a grand ball given at the hall by the local turners, and this delightful event will usher in the festivities of the gathering of the turners. The ball will be open for the public and all are cordially invited to be present and enjoy a good time.

Margaret Ptak Dies. Margaret Ptak, the daughter of Mrs. John Ptak, who had been so very low for the past few days, passed away yesterday at noon at the home of her mother on North Sixth street, after suffering for some time from a severe case of enlargement of the heart. The little girl, who was 13 years of age, was born in this city, and at the time of her death was a student in the Plattsmouth schools and was well liked by her many schoolmates and young friends. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from the St. John's Catholic church.

Falter, secretary of the local Commercial club, and Philip Thierolf, member of the board of directors, departed for Grand Island, where they will represent the Commercial club of this city at the eleventh annual convention of the State Association of Commercial clubs. The meetings of the association that opens today will be presided over by Ross L. Hammond, state president, and Secretary Willard F. Bailey of Kearney will read his report to the meeting. The Grand Island club has made big preparations for the meeting, as it is also the tenth anniversary of the club there, and the members will show the visitors a royal time.

On Wednesday evening there will be a showing, by moving picture films, of Nebraska's resources, by Professor Condra of the Nebraska State university, and a "get-together" meeting at the Liederkranz under the auspices of the Commercial club.

DISTRICT COURT IN SESSION FOR A FEW HOURS TODAY

This morning District Judge James T. Begley came down from Papillion to hold a short session of the district court, and the first matter taken up was that of the William J. O'Brien estate, and the matter was argued by the attorneys for the widow and the estate. The case is brought from the county court by the estate, where the widow was allowed her one-third of the estate. The estate claimed that she had received her full interest in the estate by a settlement made with Mr. O'Brien during his lifetime. There were also a number of other motions in different cases presented to the court by the attorneys.

M. W. A. STATE CONVENTION AT HASTINGS, NEB

Two Sets of Delegates From Cass Camp and a Hot Time Is Expected.

From Tuesday's Daily. The Modern Woodmen of the state are turning all eyes this week toward Hastings, where the state convention of the order will open its session there today for the purpose of selecting the delegates to the national head camp at Toledo, Ohio, in June. Cass county will be one of the storm centers of the meeting, as there are two sets of delegates elected from this county, on a Talbot and the other an anti-Talbot delegation, and it is over the question of seating these delegates that there will be much turmoil, and on this question will come the test between the regulars and the insurgents. The county convention here in April was one of the most bitter and exciting held by the order and the delegates from Cass camp of this city withdrew from the meeting and selected H. R. Gering, A. L. Tidd and E. W. Cook as delegates to the state camp, which the regular convention, which was strongly insurgent, elected Hon. W. B. Banister of Union, L. A. Tyson of Elmwood, and John Cory of this city as their representatives. The outcome of the state convention will have a great bearing on the result of the national gathering, as this is the home state of Head Consul A. R. Talbot, who is a candidate for re-election.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS AND ELECTS OFFICERS FOR THE ENSUING YEAR

From Tuesday's Daily. Last evening the school board held their regular monthly meeting and the old school board wound up its affairs and made the way clear for the starting out of the new year in the proper manner. Messrs. J. A. Schulhof and E. H. Wescott, the two retiring members of the board, who were re-elected at the recent city election, presented their credentials to the board and were sworn in to act for the next two years as members of the board, and their again assuming office will be the source of great pleasure to the patrons of the school, as they have been hard workers in the cause of the betterment of the schools, and with them the patrons can rest assured that the interests of the taxpayers and schools will be in safe hands. The board at once reassembled and proceeded to organize for the officers for the ensuing year as follows:

President—Dr. C. A. Marshall. Vice President—John Lutz. Secretary—E. H. Wescott.

The board also spent a few minutes in the discussion of matters in connection with the closing of the schools for the year.

From Wednesday's Daily. The condition of Gust Johnson, days ago by falling from a car days ago by falling from a car in the Burlington shop yards, is reported as being slightly improved, although he still suffers greatly from his broken limb, but all that can be done to ease his pain and suffering is being done. Does Little Landscape Gardening.

From Wednesday's Daily. The enterprising firm of Wescott's Sons are starting in a little landscape gardening stunt that will add greatly to the appearance of their building on Main and Fifth streets. They have had the open space between the building and walk on Fifth street sodded down and while the work is not yet completed it has added greatly to the appearance of the place and when the job is completed by McMaken & Son, who have the contract, it will make a most attractive spot, and located in the heart of the business part of town the little parkening will be a very handsome object with its refreshing greensward.

MOTHER'S DAY IS DRAWING NEAR AT HAND

Next Sunday Is the Day Set Aside for Observation of This Laudable Event.

On next Sunday there will be observed throughout the United States a day made sacred to the mothers of the land, both those whose loving presence cheers their children and those whose lives are sweet and tender memories of an undying love since the mothers have been called away to their reward. It is fitting that a nation of sons and daughters should pay this tribute to the memory of one who for them has undergone privations and faced death itself that their children might enjoy life and their way be as easy as possible on their journey through the years when their tender age has had made this mother love a staff on which to lean and on this mother heart pour out their grief and tears, knowing that her love would comfort them and wipe away the tears of grief.

The observation of the day was first agitated by Anna Jarvis of Philadelphia, a few years ago, and the idea at once was taken up all over the country and the different churches and societies gave it hearty support and today the governors of forty-nine states have given the recognition of their offices to observation of the day in the United States.

The object of the day is to honor and uplift motherhood by each individual paying a tribute to their mother, if she is living, by a visit or letter, and if she has passed away, to her glorious memory, and to live on this day as your mother would have you. The day has been distinguished by the wearing of a carnation for the memory of mother—a white one for the mothers gone and a colored flower for those who still are with their children to comfort and cheer them.

In this city all of the different churches will have exercises suitable to the day, with addresses and sermons on this subject of a mother's love, and there will be a generous outpouring of the men and women of the city to pay their tributes to one to whom they owe their being and whom has been as a shield to and comfort to them in the years that have passed since first they saw the light of day.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS MIX WITH SHERIFF

Commissioners Instruct County Attorney to Start Suit to Recover Amount Claimed Due.

The controversy between the county commissioners and Sheriff Quinton arising out of the report of the expert accountants who examined the books of the different county officials, and who reported that there was due the county the sum of $689.61 from the sheriff for fees that he had not turned in, was taken up yesterday at a meeting of the board, when the following resolution was passed:

"Whereas, The county board of Cass county heretofore employed Malvin Thomas of Omaha, expert accountant, to go over the books of the different county officials, and whereas, said expert accountant has filed his report covering all the offices of said county and report shows that there is due to said county from Carroll D. $689.61, and which sum still remains unpaid.

"Therefore, be it resolved, By the board of commissioners of said county that the county attorney be instructed to proceed at once by suit in the court of said county against said Carroll D. Quinton, sheriff and his bondsmen to recover the amount due said county."

The matter has been in question for some time between the board and the sheriff, and that officer has claimed that there are several amounts placed in the fees that should belong to Deputy Sheriff Manspeaker before that officer was placed on a salary by the board, and the fees required to be paid in to the county. The matter will be threshed out in the courts and the officials find out exactly where they stand on the matter and whether the sheriff can be required to refund to the county the fees in question. The expert accountants who made the report will, it is claimed, appear and verify their figures, covering the fees, which they claim are correct, and that the sheriff is indebted to the county for the sum stated above.

INSURANCE MEN ACCOMPANIED BY STATE FIRE MARSHAL TO VISIT CITY

A letter has just been received by J. E. Barwick, the insurance man, of this city, from W. S. Harding, special agent of the Springfield Insurance Co., in which he informs Mr. Barwick that he, in company with a committee of six from the State Fire Preventative association, will visit the city to make a minute inspection of the business section of Plattsmouth as to the dangerous condition of the buildings in the business part of the city and make recommendations thereon. They also expect to have with them the state fire marshal, who will take the occasion to get a line on the general condition of things here. The party will make their headquarters at the Hotel Riley while in the city. This committee should be able to bring to the attention of the property owners most forcibly the need for the cleaning up of their premises if they desire to escape the censure of the committee who will look over the situation here and whose decision will be accepted generally by the leading insurance companies of the country.
