GO UNCLE SAM ONE BETTER-TAX YOUR INCOME YOURSELF!

PERHAPS you are not making $3,000 or $4,000 a year. The income tax doesn't affect you. Cheer up. You may make enough some day to pay Uncle Sam his small tax. Meanwhile TAX YOURSELF. Set aside a certain amount of your earnings and let us pay you for keeping it. This kind of taxes is not as sure as death, but it's a lot more pleasant. Meanwhile—

INVITE US TO HELP YOU TAX YOURSELF.

W. Holmes is this place is agent for southeast Nebraska, and Mr. Burg was here solely to see Mr. Holmes.
The Murray lumber yard is doing a big business these days. And there is a reason for this. Mr. Kikendall keeps the material the people want, and his prices and quality of lumber are such that they can do as well at home as the material can be bought for elsewhere. And Mr. Kikendall is a clever gentleman to do business with.

Old Comrades Meet.

Exciting Runaway.
A very exciting runaway occurred at the depot last Thursday morning. A young man by the name of Shepherdson had driven to the station with some cans of cream, and just about that time a freight from the north was coming in on the sidetrack to await the passing of the north bound local freight. The horse hitched to the vehicle began to rear and plunge, and getting loose from the buggy started down the railroad track to meet the incoming train from the south. In its attempt to cross the bridge it went through with all fours, and the trainmen had to stop and assist in relieving the frightened animal, which was done in a short time. Strange to say, with the exception of a few scratches, the animal was not injured, but the vehicle was considerably broken up. This dash afforded some excitement to those about the depot.

Old Resident Here.
Stephen Duer, a former pioneer resident of Rock Bluffs, came in from his home at Franklin, Neb., Friday to pay a short visit to his boyhood home. Mark White took charge of Mr. Duer and in his auto conveyed that gentleman to a number of the homes of those who knew Mr. Duer in the early days of the country. Among those whom they visited was D. A. Young, where they took dinner and spent several hours most pleasantly conversing about their younger days. They also met many other pioneer citizens, and Mark made Mr. Duer's visit as pleasant as possible. It has been over forty years since Mr. Duer left here, when a young man, and since that time he has become financially well fixed and is the possessor of many broad acres near Franklin. He departed for his home Monday night.

Change of Firm.
W. S. Smith, formerly of the firm of Holmes & Smith, but who has been on the road most of the time since the firm sold out, has purchased the stock of Joe Cook, and will hold forth in the McDaniel building in the future. Mr. Smith is now engaged in overhauling and arranging things to his notion, and will put in a nice clean stock of goods. Will is well known to the people of this vicinity, and being a nice clean gentleman and fully understanding the business in which he is engaged, the Journal bespeaks for him a liberal share of the public patronage.

Team for Sale.
Good young team, unbroke, for sale right, if taken soon. Also a Red Polled yearling bull.
Alf. Nickels.

Well Digging and Stump Pulling.
I am prepared to do stump pulling on contract and also to dig wells, and solicit work in this line. Satisfaction guaranteed in every instance. T. B. Smith.

For Sale or Rent.
The Berger cottage, consisting of 6 rooms, and elegantly located in Murray, is for sale or rent. For particulars call at the Berger hotel.

School Notes.
May 6 the visitors in the primary room were Lillian Adams, Mildred Snyder, Ola Kaffenberger and Mae Glenn of Plattsmouth.
School closes Friday, May 22. Both rooms are going to have a picnic.
Miss Adams spent Tuesday night with one of her pupils, Leona Davis.
The program held at the school for the benefit of the library and school, was very good, and those who were not there do not know what they missed. The proceeds were $14.95.

Library Notes.
Miss Foster spoke to the ladies of the Library association Tuesday afternoon on their work in the schools, especially on taking up the Crete plan of domestic science. The talk of Miss Foster was much appreciated and gave inspiration to the women for work.
A committee of three, consisting of Mrs. S. O. Pitman, Mrs. Lloyd Gopen and Pauline Oldham, was appointed to help in every way possible in the work on the new school building.

Mrs. James Loughbridge's name was recommended to fill the vacancy that will occur on the school board this year. Other names are expected to be mentioned at the Tuesday evening meeting. The plan of having a woman on the school board is being much talked of and is meeting with high approval.

PROMINENT LOUISVILLE PEOPLE ARE MARRIED

From Wednesday's Daily.
Yesterday afternoon County Judge Allen J. Beeson was called upon to pronounce the words that united for life the hearts and destinies of E. C. Twiss and Minnie McNeely, both of Louisville, which made a very good day for the aide of Cupid, as it made the second ceremony at which the genial judge was the officiating figure. Mr. Twiss is a prominent resident of Louisville, where he is engaged in the meat business, and is a man highly esteemed in his home town and a gentleman of excellent character. His bride has resided at Louisville for a number of years and is a lady possessed of a large circle of friends, who will extend to the newly wedded couple their heartiest best wishes for a long and happy wedded life.

The Murray Lumberman

Arrives From Fort Morgan.
From Wednesday's Daily.
L. B. Brown, who has been making his home near Fort Morgan, Colo., for the past few months, arrived in the city yesterday morning for an extended visit with his many friends and relatives at the old home, and went down near the old stamping grounds, south of Plattsmouth, this morning. Lig is looking hale and hearty, and while he says that he is well pleased with Colorado, he still has a mighty warm place in his heart for the old Cass county home and the many friends here, and a visit back to the old Cass home is a pleasure that he will always enjoy. Mr. Brown says he may remain several months.

Married Here Yesterday.
From Wednesday's Daily.
Yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Schluntz, in the north part of the city, occurred the wedding of Mr. Henry G. Roennan and Miss Emma Golka, both of Council Bluffs. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Steger of the St. Paul's church and was attended only by the contracting parties and Mr. and Mrs. Schluntz. Following the ceremony a very pleasing dinner was served to the bridal party, and the day was spent here visiting until time for the 4:40 Missouri Pacific, when the party returned to Council Bluffs, where they will reside in the future.
