JOHN W. CRABILL

Paul Wohlfarth Taken Sick.

From Friday's Daily.
 Yesterday Paul Wohlfarth was taken quite violently ill at his home in this city and it was necessary to summon a physician to his bedside and an examination of his case showed that he was apparently suffering from an attack of appendicitis. He was at once ordered packed in ice to check the inflammation and to await developments in the case as to whether an operation would be necessary or not. The illness of Paul will be the source of much regret to his host of friends here, and they will anxiously await favorable reports from his bedside.

SOME GRAND GOOD ROADS IN THE COUNTY

Road Overseer Coon F. Vallery Has a Right to Feel Proud of the Good Roads.

Through the courtesy of Major Hall, one of Cass county's greatest good roads enthusiasts, the Journal man was given a lively auto ride out to the west end of Plattsburgh precinct Saturday morning, passing over the main traveled road leading to Louisville. The trip was made for the purpose of looking at the road on which Road Overseer Coon F. Vallery, Commissioner Julius Pitz and Henry Hirz, jr., are doing some mighty good work. Mr. Vallery is at work with his team, plows and scrapers, and has one assistant, employing the same methods, while Commissioner Pitz is at the steering wheel of the big grader, and Henry Hirz, jr., pulling the same with his heavy traction engine, and for four days' work we must say that these four men have been doing some fast grading.

The grading was commenced at the extreme west end of the precinct, and when completed will extend right up to the Plattsburgh city limits. The dirt is being graded to the center, leaving a good deep gutter at each side, being made wider where needed, hills taken off to some extent, and the low places filled in. Where the road winds to the north across Four Mile creek, the road will be straightened, the two small wooden structure bridges will be removed, and one permanent concrete bridge placed in the center, filling in all the other approaches, making a straight line from hill top to hill top, entirely eliminating this dangerous point across the creek bottom. This is certainly one of the best locations for one of the numerous concrete bridges that the commissioners will place in during the coming summer, which we understand is something like thirty in all.

This piece of road is about six miles in length, and handled as it has been, the expense will be very light, which we suppose will be paid out of the commissioners' road fund, at least this is Mr. Vallery's wish, as he has a great deal more work that he wants to do in his district this summer. Through the efforts of good roads commissioners and good roads overseers Cass county will soon rank at the top on the good roads proposition. It will pay other road overseers to go over this piece of road and then follow suit.

A VERY BUM BASE BALL TEAM FROM OMAHA

Boosters Overwhelm Bourgeois Team of Omaha by a Score of 24 to 0 Yesterday.

The advent of the Bourgeois base ball team of Omaha at the Booster park yesterday afternoon was an experience that the players of that team will not soon forget, as before three innings were over they were overwhelmed by the deluge of hits made off the delivery of Hoffer, their twirler, and the rest of the team was even worse than the pitcher, as they were unable to stop the ball when knocked to them, and when they succeeded in getting their hands on it could not tell what to do with it and wildly threw the ball around the diamond, allowing the Boosters to trot around the bases at will, and the close of the tragedy it was found that the result was 24 to 0 in favor of the Plattsburgh boys, and the character of ball played by the visitors may be judged by the score.

In the first inning the Boosters secured six runs, and every member of the team batted once and Beal, the head of the list came up twice to face the visitors in this inning, and they were certainly a thoroughly demoralized organization and had evidently no business to try and play base ball, although they were a very pleasant bunch of young fellows and were fully aware of their inability to play the game as it should be. The inability of the visitors to connect with the ball caused the locals to fatten their stolen base record, and McCauley added to his laurels by stealing home while the pitcher was delivering the ball to the batter, and to accommodate his steal the catcher dropped the ball. The game was long drawn out and to add to the weariness of the contest the dust swept down in clouds into the grandstand and made it decidedly uncomfortable for the spectators who were present to witness the slaughter.

The only really sensational feature of the game was a catch made in the seventh inning by Mason in left field, when he annexed one of the drives of the visitors, making a long run for it and nailing it with one hand. Pike who was on the mound for the Boosters, was in the best of form and had the visitors under control at all stages of the game, and as a result they never grew in the least dangerous. The lineup of the teams was as follows:

HENRY MADSEN IS DOING WELL IN RED LODGE, MONTANA

The following taken from the Red Lodge, Montana, Pickel, will be of much interest here, as it contains information of Henry Madsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Madsen of this city, and who since leaving here has engaged in business in that state:
 The furniture and fixtures of the Globe cafe, closed last week by the Fromberg State bank under foreclosure of chattle mortgage, were sold under execution Wednesday by Sheriff W. H. Geho and were bid in by the bank for $110.

Henry Madsen, the pioneer restaurant man and proprietor of the lunch counter, has secured a lease on the cafe building from Charles Akin and will open an up-to-date eating house therein as soon as the new furniture and fixtures ordered by him from the eastern factory arrive.

The interior of the building will be renovated and fixed up in first-class condition. Mr. Madsen has ordered a 30-foot lunch counter and revolving stools and expects to open his new eating house in about 30 days. He will call it "Hank's Place."
