MANLEY STILL LEADS THE CASS COUNTY LEAGUE

Manly Boys Do Nehawka on Their Home Grounds by the Score of 6 to 2.

Manley still holds her lead in the race for the pennant in the Cass County league and takes one from her sister village, Nehawka.

On Sunday May 24, Manley again added to her string of victories by defeating Nehawka at the Manley base ball park by a score of 6 to 2.

The game started at 3 o'clock, with Miller on the mound for the locals, and Kimblom leading off for the visitors, he was safe at first by an error of the center fielder...

Williams, the first man up for the locals, failed to connect and was out at first, Rockwell followed with a clean single to left, stole second while the pitcher was getting ready to deliver the ball to the batter...

Nehawka had three men up in the second inning, Chapman took three good swings and retired, Wolfe hit a grounder to Miller, who heaved him out at first...

Fourth Inning—Nelson skyed out to center, Miller breezed three, Stoll rolled one to third and was thrown out at first.

Harry O'Brien safe on first by an error of shortstop, Murphy out, pitcher to first, Williams safe on first by fielder's choice, but Harry O'Brien out at third, Rockwell out catcher to first.

Fifth Inning—This inning began to look bad for the locals, when Miller walked the first two men, but he redeemed himself by striking out the next two batters and the third man was an easy out, Miller to Routh.

F. Maxwell lead off for the locals and singled to center, but got too far off first and was out, catcher to first, Routh struck out, Miller hit to second and was thrown out at first.

Sixth Inning—Balfour out, pitcher to first, Nelson struck out, but O'Brien dropped the ball and threw him out at first, Miller hit a long fly to third and Rockwell made the feature catch of the day, retiring the side.

Rugh O'Brien grounded out to first, R. Maxwell struck out, and Harry O'Brien went out by the sky route.

Stoll flew out to center, Chapman struck out and Wolfe grounded out, Murphy out, catcher to first, Williams singled, stole second, but out when he tried to steal third, Rocky beamed one for two sacks and scored on Maxwell's single, Rauth safe on the third baseman's error, Miller out, Stoll to Nelson.

Loberg made three swings and was out, Kimblom followed his example, Mason out, F. Maxwell to Rauth, Hugh O'Brien skyed out to left, R. Maxwell, pitcher to first, Peterson, who had taken H. O'Brien's place in the field, eased one down to second and was thrown out at first.

Ninth Inning—Balfour rolled one to Maxwell and was out, Nelson and Miller did the same. Game over. Manley, 6; Nehawka, 2. The line-up:

SCORE BY INNINGS. Manley ... 2 0 3 0 0 1 0 *6

Nehawka ... 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 *2

The score was 2 to 1 in their favor. A decision made by one of the umpires was questioned by Louisville, and they refused to resume play and the umpire gave the game to Eagle, 9 to 0.

Frank Maxwell, our worthy second baseman, is leading the Manley ball club in batting. Max has played in every game and is batting 533. Miller and Rockwell are close seconds. The team is batting close to the 300 mark.

THE FUNERAL OF THE LATE H. C. MITCHELL

Large Number of Old Friends Gather for the Last Sad Tribute.

From Wednesday's Daily.

The funeral of the late Howard Mitchell was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Travis, in this city and was attended by a large number of the old friends of the family, as well as a number of the friends and former companions of Howard from Omaha, Kansas City and here, where he made his home in his childhood days.

The services at the home were conducted by the Rev. George Mitchell of Courtland, Neb., an uncle of the departed young man, and the prayer was offered by Rev. H. G. McClusky of this city, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Rev. Mitchell gave a short sermon filled with words of comfort to the bereaved parents and brothers and sister, although at times his feeling of grief were almost overpowering. During the services a choir from the Presbyterian church rendered in a most touching manner two of the old well loved hymns, "Rock of Ages" and "Asleep in Jesus." At the close of the service the body was borne to its last resting place in Oak Hill cemetery, where it was laid to its last long rest in the family lot in the beautiful city of the dead. The pall-bearers were selected from the old friends of the young man and were: J. C. Ferguson, F. E. Dow, Omaha; John Weitzel, Kansas City; Fred W. Mann, Frank Smith and Clifford Forbes, Plattsmouth.

The death of this young man at the time when he was just passing into the enjoyment of life, has brought a pang of deep grief to the many friends in this city who knew him so well when he lived here, and his playmates and school friends recall well his many lovable traits of character, his thoughtfulness of those whom he loved and numbered in his circle of friends. While his circle of friends was not as large as some, still he held warmly those with whom he was associated. One of the beautiful things in his life was his warm, endearing love for his mother and his death comes as a most bitter blow to his immediate family.

Among those attending the funeral from out of the city were: L. C. Ferguson, C. H. Johnson, J. S. Pratt, F. E. Dow, Ben Stevens, Miss Eva Byrne, Miss Catherine Gavin, Mrs. R. Sketchley, Omaha; John Weitzel, Kansas City, and Mrs. A. D. Eigenbrodt, Lincoln.

Files Suit for $1,500.

A suit has been filed in the office of the clerk of the district court by S. C. Keckler, against the Fidelity-Phenix Co., an insurance organization, in which he asks judgment in the sum of $1,500 for losses sustained by him in the destruction of his elevator at Manley and for $500 attorney fees.

Henry Sanders of the vicinity of Cedar Creek was a visitor in this city yesterday and made this office a brief call.

Attorney A. L. Tidd was a passenger this morning for Omaha, where he will visit for the day in that city with friends.
