A CHECK BOOK THE BEST STABILIZER IN LIFE'S FLIGHT

YOU'VE read about Orville Wright's success with his aeroplane stabilizer, the balance wheel of flight. In life's flight you need several balance wheels. For instance, you need the balance wheels of honesty, of morality, of physical well being, of money. One might write a column about life's stabilizers. Instead we suggest that you THINK this sketch over.

THEN COME GET A CHECK BOOK. MURRAY STATE BANK

The signs of harvest and haying time are very much in evidence on the school grounds, where our implement dealers, Baker & Nickels, and assistants, are very busy setting up binders and mowers. While at Minco he met Mike Swortfisher, Mr. Baumeister, Mr. Dagendorfer and several other old Cass county people, who are well and prosperous. Jeff Brendel and wife had such good luck on their fishing excursion the road between Murray and the Missouri river has kept very warm ever since.

So a larger party was organized on the Thursday following, and one would have thought that they were intent on raking in several hundred tons of the finny tribe, and that the next party would stand no show at all. The party consisted of Dr. B. F. Brendel and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. J. F. Brendel, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tutt, Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Pitman, and Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel of Avoca. Of course they enjoyed the outing, and no one disputes their having a big time and they brought home about 100 pounds of fish, which was evidence of the fact that there was still plenty of them in the "Old Missouri," but the evidence was not sufficient that they had caught all these fish unless it was with silver hooks. We will not discuss this question any further, suffice to say, they were all well pleased with the trip and enjoyed the fish just the same.

Wouldn't Be Outdone. A party of our people, composed of both ladies and gentlemen, had arranged last Tuesday to take an excursion trip to the state fisheries to spend the day, but the drizzling rain all forenoon put a damper on this arrangement. Not to be outdone altogether, and the ominous clouds passing away after the dinner hour, they loaded in their autos with the many good things prepared for the occasion, and hid themselves to the mouth of Four Mile creek, on the Platte river, north of Plattsmouth, where they camped for the evening, and enjoyed the good things that the ladies had prepared for the day's outing, and when they returned home they all seemed to feel as well as if they had went to the fisheries. In going they stopped at Plattsmouth, where they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rawls.

Henry Heebner of the Farmers' elevator went to the home of his brother, Charles, three miles west of Nehawka, Tuesday afternoon to attend the wedding of the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heebner, that evening. Promptly at 8 o'clock Mr. Jesse Westlake and Miss Eula Heebner were united in wedlock by the pastor of the Lutheran church. After congratulations a sumptuous repast was served, of which all heartily partook. The bride is a daughter of Commission Heebner, and one of the attractive and highly esteemed young ladies in that section of Cass county, while the groom, who hails from Eagle, this county, is a young man who is held in high esteem by all his friends and neighbors. May peace and happiness reign supreme as these two young people down the pathway of Time tread, and the Journal wishes them prosperity for all time to come.
