

BURLINGTON BAND CONCERTS BEGIN JUNE 18

The Air Dome Has Been Secured for This Purpose, Where People Can Be Seated.

The Burlington band will be ready to open the series of summer concerts in this city on Thursday evening, June 18th, according to the present program of the committee in charge of the preliminary arrangements. The location of the concerts in the air dome will give them a more central location and one that will be thoroughly appreciated by the people who attend the band concerts, as there they will be able to sit down in comfortable seats to enjoy the excellent music furnished by the band. These concerts are perhaps the most pleasing amusement that can be devised for the summer months, and the committee that has been out soliciting the funds for the payment of the concerts during the coming three months has met with much success in their efforts, although they still lack a great deal of having the full amount desired for the use of the concerts, but there is little doubt that they will soon get the desired amount by the time the concerts are ready to start. The movement should be aided, as this is something that is enjoyed by young and old alike, and many a pleasant hour can be spent in listening to the music of the band. The opportunity of securing the air dome solves the question of seating the crowd and will furnish excellent lighting facilities for the band, as well as the audience to see where they are going and in locating their seats.

SOLOMON KECKLER ASKS $2,000 JUDGMENT FROM INSURANCE CO.

From Friday's Daily. A suit was filed this morning in the office of the district clerk, in which Solomon C. Keckler of Manley is the plaintiff and the Fidelity-Phenix Insurance Co. of New York are defendants. The plaintiff asks that judgment be given him in the sum of $2,000 to cover balance on an insurance policy issued by the defendant company, he claims, on the contents of the elevator at Manley, which was later destroyed by fire. The defendant company has already paid the sum of $1,000, which the plaintiff claims is not a sufficient sum for the loss sustained, and he should have the full value of the policy.

FINE PRESENT FROM MAX PLOEHN, AN INMATE OF STATE PRISON

James Higely of this city is the proud possessor of a fine watch fob which he values quite highly on account of its beauty, as well as the unique nature of it. The fob is constructed of beads and was woven into the form of a chain by Max Ploehn, one of the convicts at the Nebraska state prison, and it is certainly a very fine piece of work and shows great skill on the part of Max, who, since his confinement in the state prison, has improved wonderfully in his work and is considered one of the most reliable men in the whole prison.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heebner, June 3d, at 8 p. m., the second daughter, Ula Fair, was married to Mr. Jesse Westlake of Eagle.

The parlor and dining room were beautifully decorated in pink and white, with carnations and roses intermingled. Eight ribbon-bearers marched into the parlor, forming an aisle through which the bridal couple marched, taking their positions under a large white wedding bell and canopy of garlands.

Here Rev. J. F. Hedges spoke the words that united the happy couple.

The bride was dressed in white messaline trimmed with embroidered Irish net and pearls, while the groom wore the conventional black. The bride carried a bouquet of bride's roses.

Miss Matilda Heebner, sister of the bride, sang, "I Love You Truly." The wedding march was played by Miss Imo Heebner, sister of the bride. The ribbon-bearers were: Florence Knabe, Sylvia Gilmore, Matilda Heebner, Isabel Westlake, Lydia Clark, Rua and Juanita Fleming.

The ceremony was witnessed by about thirty guests, relatives and friends. A two-course luncheon was served. Miss Sylvia Gilmore presiding at the punch bowl.

The bride is well and favorably known, having grown to womanhood near Nehawka, while the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Westlake, prosperous farmers near Eagle.

The young couple will begin married life on a farm near Eagle. —Nehawka News.

S. J. REAMS' BARBER SHOP AT CEDAR CREEK STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

From Friday's Daily. This morning at about 4 o'clock the frame building at Cedar Creek which was occupied as a barber shop by S. J. Reams, was struck by lightning during the heavy electrical storm, and as a result it is a total ruin, as it was impossible to check the spread of the flames after the building was ignited by the lightning. The contents of the building were destroyed, as nothing of value could be saved. The loss will be partially covered by insurance, and will be in the neighborhood of $800. The storm was quite extensive through this section, and starting about 12 o'clock made a great electrical display, and the flashes of lightning and the crash of the thunder made the storm more awe inspiring than usual.

Run over the list of you friends, select the one whom you think would be the most likely to be interested, and send in their nomination, and by so doing you may be the means of winning for him or her one of the valuable rewards. The Campaign Department will be pleased to supply full information to all those who are interested and a representative will call and explain the plan of the enterprise to all whom are nominated.

The ballot is appearing in each issue of THE JOURNAL. Clip it out and save it, to be voted when the ballot box is in place, which will be shortly. Enter your name, let your friends know that you are out to win one of these prizes, and you will be surprised and gratified to see how cheerfully and enthusiastically they will rally to your support.

Judging from present indications The Journal's splendid offer of eight valuable awards to eight representative people from this section, seems destined to be a great success. As the exceedingly liberal nature of this most generous offer becomes more fully understood, more and more of the popular and prominent young men and women of Plattsmouth and the entire community are becoming interested in the enterprise and are entering the friendly contest with great enthusiasm. It is without doubt a rare opportunity for securing a high-class car. The fact that such a popular and worth-proven car as the 1914 Overland is offered as the Grand Prize in this campaign has caused added attention to be drawn toward this big gift enterprise. The Overland touring car will be awarded without discrimination or favor to the man or woman, married or single, who receives the largest number of votes polled in the whole campaign. It is a handsome beauty, fully equipped and ready for the road. The Overland is the king of the highway all over the United States and the reason is because it is the car that goes where you want it, when you want it and combines strength, beauty, and appearance with durability, speed and comfort.

The Schmolter & Mueller Piano, purchased from the manufacturers, will be awarded to the candidate who receives the second largest vote in the entire campaign. Words fail to describe the beautiful tone of this instrument. It is variant, subtle and charming, showing its unlimited powers in its wonderful shading and superb crescendo. The case is of finest walnut, massive, yet graceful. It is beautifully finished throughout. The unequalled and every increasing demand for the Schmolter & Mueller is the best proof of the complete satisfaction these pianos have given and are now giving in thousands of homes that are adorned and refined by their beauty and excellent tone. The two diamond rings will be awarded to those who stand highest in their respective districts after the Grand Prizes have been awarded. They are large stones, sparkling and beautiful. Mr. J. W. Crabill, from whom the diamonds were bought, is having them mounted in a solid gold mounting. They will indeed be worthy of your hardest efforts. The $30 merchandise order and the Elgin or Waltham Gold Watches will go to those standing second and third highest in their respective districts after the Grand Prizes have been awarded. All these prizes are worth more than the effort required to win them.

But this is not all. The Journal has further provided that there will be no losers in this contest. For every candidate who enters this campaign and works to the end and fails to win one of the big rewards or one of the prizes in his or her district, shall receive 10 per cent of all subscription moneys that have been placed to their credit during the contest. By this arrangement no one need work in vain.

Contest Absolutely Fair.

The campaign is to be conducted along lines of scrupulous fairness to each and every candidate who participates. The rules are at once comprehensive and concise, and a guarantee of a "square deal" to all, for they will be adhered to rigidly. There are to be no favorites and no one is under a handicap. Candidates living in the smaller towns and country will have exactly the same chance to win as those living in the larger ones, as there is one outside district and one in Plattsmouth, and just which district will win the car is at this time an unfolded secret of the future.

YOUNG AUGUST HAVIR VIRTUALLY ELECTROCUTED

Found Dead in Yard Near Motorcycle Upon Which He Had Been Making Repairs.

Saturday night about eleven o'clock the lifeless form of August Havir, a young man of some 20 years of age, was found in the yard at his home in the west part of the city, where he had apparently met his death by electrocution. August, who had recently purchased a motorcycle, had been working on it during the day, painting it up and getting it in first-class shape, and he had desisted from work shortly after 5 o'clock and had gone out to the platform dance, returning shortly after 10 o'clock and going to sleep. He remained asleep until about 14 o'clock, when he awoke and decided to make a few more repairs on the motorcycle, as he desired to use it Sunday, and accordingly secured an electric light extension, which he hooked on to one of the lights in the house and ran it out into the yard, where the motorcycle was standing. It was not until some time afterwards that his sister-in-law, Mrs. Joseph Havir, noticed that he had not returned to the house, and not hearing him at work, went out into the yard to see what had become of him, and here his lifeless body was discovered lying by the side of the machine with the electric light wire lying on his breast, and from all signs life had been extinct for some time. A physician was hurriedly summoned, but it was then too late to do anything for the young man, as he had been dead for some time. It is thought that he was running the machine or attempting to, and in some way received a shock from the engine, as well as the electric light wire that caused his death.

This makes the second tragedy in the family in a little over a year, as Joseph Havir, a brother, was killed about twelve months ago in the bursting of a fly wheel on a gasoline engine.

The real story of the death of the young man will probably never be clearly known, as he was evidently stricken with sudden death before he could utter a cry of distress. Mrs. Havir states that noticing the lights in the house were out she started to investigate the cause, and found that August was not in the house and went out into the yard, only to find him dead and clasped in his hand the electric light globe attached to the extension. She attempted to rouse him and was startled to find that all signs of life was extinct, and as she touched the light to remove it from his grasp, saw that the lamp was apparently burned out, and she received a severe shock from the current which was still flowing through the lamp and was thrown to the ground, dropping the lamp, which broke. As soon as she was able Mrs. Havir ran to the home of Joseph Hiber, across the street, to inform them of the tragedy and to summon medical assistance for the young man. Mr. Hiber accompanied her to her home and he, too, received quite a shock from the electric current. The arm of August which had received the electricity was rapidly assuming a purple hue, and at different places on the body there was found marks of the manner in which he met his death. The sheriff was summoned as soon as the death of the young man was fully determined, and at once visited the scene of the terrible accident, but the case was so apparent that of accidental death that there was no question raised as to its cause.

The funeral was held this morning from the Holy Rosary Catholic church and was attended by a large concourse of the friends of the unfortunate young man, whose life had been terminated just when he was beginning to fully enjoy his manhood. The mass was performed by the Rev. Father John Vleck in the usual impressive manner of the Roman Catholic church. At the close of the services the pall-bearers, young friends of the departed, tenderly bore the body to its last resting place in Oak Hill cemetery. August was a member of the Modern Woodmen of American, in which he carried an insurance policy.

LOUISVILLE PARTIES ARE JOINED IN THE HOLY BONDS IN OMAHA

The marriage of Miss Alice Twiss and Virgil M. Haldon occurred at Omaha Sunday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Lillian Nelson, Rev. Charles Savidge officiating. These two young people represent two of Louisville's oldest and most respected families and they embark upon their new life followed by the best wishes of a host of friends. For the present they will occupy the E. Palmer residence on Cherry street.—Louisville Courier.

MARTIN FRIEDRICH AND CARL GORDER RETURN FROM CHICAGO

From Saturday's Daily. This morning Martin Friedrich and little Carl Gorder, who have been at Chicago taking treatment at the Pasteur institute in that city for the injuries they sustained by being bit by a dog suffering with the rabies, returned home to this city, after having taken the full treatment for the disease with which it was feared they might be afflicted. Both of the patients have gotten along fine and feel little or no effect from the course of treatment, and the friends feel very grateful that they have escaped all danger of being afflicted with the dread malady. That their cases were taken in hand at once is doubtless the reason that they escaped so easily from its results.

ELK'S WIND-UP DEDICATORY SERVICES

The Elks Finish Their Celebration With Numerous Visitors Saturday Night.

The Plattsmouth B. P. O. E. Saturday afternoon and evening completed their dedicatory exercises with a grand stag party at the new club house, and the members of the order certainly made it a red letter day in the history of the lodge and one that will long be remembered by the pleasant time enjoyed.

Invitations to the opening of the new home had been sent out to the different lodges in the state and quite a goodly number from the adjoining cities responded to the invitations by being present to enjoy the good fellowship which the B. P. O. E. is famous for. The Omaha visitors arrived on No. 2 Saturday afternoon and were in charge of Secretary Ike Miner of the Omaha lodge, one of the live wires of the Elks of the state, while other visiting brothers were present from different localities, especially large delegations being present from Nebraska City and Lincoln, while from the county there were many in attendance who are members of the lodge here.

The new home was the scene of merriment until a late hour in the jubilation of the members of the order over the completion of the building.

As a feature of the evening's entertainment several delightful musical numbers were furnished by the members in the lodge room on the second floor, while on the first floor the members enjoyed themselves at cards and in listening to the strains of music from the Victrola. A very tempting luncheon had been prepared for the occasion in the dining room on the second floor of the building, which was enjoyed to the utmost by the members and the visiting brothers.

The Elks are now fully at home in the new building and each day finds more pleasures in the enjoyment of the delightful quarters that have been erected by them for their use and which is a monument to the energy and push of the live members of the order.

THE EIGHTH GRADE GRADUATION EXERCISES AT WEEPING WATER

From Saturday's Daily. The eighth grade graduating exercises of the Cass county schools was held yesterday at the First Congregational church of Weeping Water, and of the 150 students to graduate from the eighth grade there were 100 present to take part in the exercises of the day. A most pleasing program had been arranged by the county superintendent, Mary E. Foster, and it was carried out in a most pleasing manner by the young people, and reflects much credit upon the splendid training they had received in schools of the county. The address of the exercises was delivered by Robert R. Elliott, deputy state superintendent, who took as his subject, "Education That Educates," and his remarks were clear-cut and to the point and were thoroughly enjoyed by the students graduating.
