One O'Clock Bridge Luncheon.

A very pleasant 1 o'clock bridge luncheon was given at the charming home of Mrs. W. T. Cole Saturday afternoon by Misses Verma and Lillian Cole in honor of Mrs. W. C. Morrow of Cleveland, Ohio, who is here visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. O. C. Dovey. The Cole home was very prettily decorated with red Rambler roses placed throughout the rooms of the house and which added a very artistic touch to the delightful gathering. The ladies, some sixteen in number, passed the time most pleasantly in the playing of auction bridge until a suitable hour, when a very tempting and delicious three-course luncheon was served by the hostesses, that was thoroughly enjoyed by the guests present.

M. E. SUNDAY SCHOOL OBSERVES CHILDREN'S DAY

The Church Handsomely Decorated and the Program Rendered With Great Skill.

Last evening the Methodist Sunday school in this city observed in a splendid manner Children's day, and one of the most interesting and pleasing programs that has ever been given in the church was carried out by the young people. In honor of the event the church was very handsomely decorated, the platform being beautiful with large palms and vases of roses and the flowers of the season, while suspended from the arch of the church were two large silk American flags, not only showing the spirit of patriotism taught in the school, but honoring the flag day as well. The back of the church, as well as the large pillars, were very beautifully arranged with asparagus greens, interspersed with red crimson ramblers that made the auditorium of the church a most beautiful sight to the eye, and with the excellent program made the occasion one thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience present.

On the platform was seated the Sunday school choir of twenty-five young ladies, all garbed in white, who added greatly to the splendid music furnished. The program consisted of songs, duets and choruses, as well as a number of dialogues, and one of the most pleasing numbers given was that of little Miss Eleanor McCarthy, who seated on the platform in a rocking chair, with her doll, gave a lullaby song that carried the audience by storm and they broke into applause at its conclusion.

The whole program was of excellent quality and the fine work of the children of the primary and junior grades showed the careful training that they had been given by the committee in charge of the affair. The splendid success of the entertainment is largely due to the work done by Miss Ferris York, Mrs. E. C. Hill and Miss Violet Freese, who had charge of the instruction of the children and demonstrates the excellence of the large Sunday school of this church in taking up so earnestly the work laid out for them.

COMPANY I, I. N. G., OF GLENWOOD, HERE FOR A FEW DAYS

Yesterday morning, according to schedule, the members of Company I, Iowa National Guard, of Glenwood, arrived in this city. Owing to the extremely heavy rains that prevailed early Sunday morning it was necessary for the boys to come over by train instead of carrying out their first intention of "hiking" from the Mills county metropolis. The company, after their arrival, at once formed in marching order and paraded up Main street for several blocks, counter marching to the Burlington depot and thence out to the rifle range, where camp was pitched and preparations made for the work of shooting. The members of the company are a nice appearing bunch of young men and presented a very fine appearance marching up the street. There will be several of them that will be compelled to return home in a few days, but all will be here to take part in the shooting on the range for a few days at least.

Returns Home From School.

This morning James Jelinek returned home to this city from Washington, D. C., where he had been attending a school for the deaf in that city. He has progressed rapidly in the school work in the capital city and his success is the source of great pleasure to his family and friends in this city. James graduated last year from the school for the deaf in Omaha, being one of the most talented members of the class, and in his studies has shown great advancement.

The Contest Manager reserves the right to reject any nomination and to pass final judgment upon any question that may arise, not covered by these rules.

No statement or promise made by any solicitor, canvasser or agent, varying from these rules, will be recognized by THE JOURNAL. THE JOURNAL reserves the right to change the plan or to make any additions or alterations to the above conditions that may be decided necessary to the interest and welfare of the contest and its candidates.

In accepting nomination and in casting votes, all candidates must accept and agree to abide by the above rules and conditions. Old subscribers cannot transfer their subscription to other members of the family and be counted as new subscribers.

How Prizes Will Be Awarded.

The $400 Schmoller & Mueller Piano will be awarded to the contestant receiving the second largest number of votes during the campaign. After these grand prizes have been awarded, there will be three prizes awarded in each of the districts as follows:

The contestant receiving the highest vote in each district, regardless of the vote in any other district, and after the grand prizes have been awarded, will receive a gold watch, choice of Elgin or Waltham movement, purchased from J. W. Crabill, Plattsmouth, and on display at his store in this city.

SPECIAL.—To assure everyone who enters this campaign of absolutely fair and impartial treatment, we will pay to every contestant who enters and who remains active until the close of the campaign and who fails to win one of the splendid prizes offered, a cash commission of ten (10) per cent of the money which they have secured and turned into this office during the campaign.

MRS. WILL JEAN GETTING ALONG VERY WELL AT HOSPITAL IN OMAHA

The many friends of Mrs. Will Jean in this city will be pleased to learn that this lady is getting along nicely at the hospital in Omaha, where she was operated on a few days ago, for appendicitis, and that the brightest hopes are now entertained for her recovery from the effects of the malady. The case of Mrs. Jean was a very severe one, as peritonitis had developed and for several days her condition was very grave, but it is now thought that she will recover in good shape, as all indications point to that happy outcome of the case. Mr. Jean was a passenger this morning for the metropolis, where he will spend the day with his wife at the hospital.

DELIGHTFUL KENSINGTON AT THE HOME OF MRS. O. C. DOVEY

From Saturday's Dairies.

Yesterday afternoon the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Dovey was the scene of a most delightful gathering, the occasion being a Kensington given by Mrs. Dovey in honor of Mrs. W. C. Morrow of Cleveland, Ohio, a guest at the Dovey home. The ladies, some thirty in number, spent the afternoon very pleasantly in the making of dainty needlework and in pleasant social conversation that made the hours pass very swiftly. At an appropriate hour a very tempting three-course luncheon was served, which added greatly to the pleasures of the afternoon and the delight of the ladies at the gracious hospitality shown them, and it was with great regret that they departed from the scene of such a pleasant time.

Children's Day at Manley.

A large crowd attended the Children's day program given at the Union church in Manley Sunday night. Rev. and Mrs. Lambert, from Weeping Water, were present and gave an interesting talk on home and foreign missions. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers. The children performed their parts very successfully. Their superintendent, Mrs. J. I. Miller, to show her gratitude of the efforts put forth by the children treated each scholar to a sack of candy, which was appreciated by all. A missionary collection was taken at the close of the program. Those present from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. Wiles and daughter, Geneva; Mr. Embury and family, from Sunnyside; and Mrs. S. Reitor and Alma Branson of Weeping Water.
