

VERY BEAUTIFUL HOME WEDDING LAST EVENING

Jack Patterson and Charlotte Feltzer are United in Marriage.

From Wednesday's Daily.
Last evening at the home of Joseph Feltzer occurred the wedding of Charlotte Feltzer and Jack Patterson.

The home was beautifully decorated with red and pink Rambler roses and pink sweet peas. In the room where the ceremony took place were a number of bowls filled with pink roses, and the bay window was banked with ferns and roses, above which streamers of feathery ferns were interwoven to form an arched canopy of lacy green.

Before the wedding ceremony Miss Catherine Dovey sang "At Dawning" by Gaden. The song was especially appropriate, and sung as it was, beautifully and sympathetically, caused those present to feel the sweet solemnity of the occasion.

Immediately following this Mrs. George H. Falter played Mendelssohn's wedding march and the bridal party entered the rooms. The bridesmaid, Miss Jeanette Patterson, just preceded the bride accompanied by her father. These were met under the arch by the groom attended by his brother, Dwight Patterson. The ceremony performed by Rev. McClusky, of the Presbyterian church was impressive and the soft music played by Mrs. Falter during the service added to this effect.

After the closing words of the pastor, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Patterson received the congratulations and best wishes of their relatives and friends. During the reception the guests were invited to the dining room where refreshments were served. The color scheme of pink and green were artistically carried out in this room. In the center here was suspended a pink bell from which ribbons were draped and caught up on the walls by pink roses. A bouquet of pink sweet peas and sprays of asparagus fern was on each of the small tables. Mrs. Wayne Dickson was in charge of the serving in the dining room. Those serving were: Misses Marie Donnelly, Madeline Minor, Elizabeth Falter and Lucile Gase.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Patterson departed for Omaha, from which place they left by automobile for the west. They will be at home to their friends after August first in Union, Nebraska.

The groom and groomsmen wore dress suits. Miss Jeanette Patterson, the bridesmaid, had a dress of yellow crepe de chine and carried Mrs. Ward's roses.

The bride was lovely in her gown of white tulle. The waist was white shadow lace trimmed with pearls and fastened at the side with a large pearl butterfly. The drape of the skirt was caught with a long tassel of pearls. The veil, fastened with clusters of pearls to form a cap, fell to the end of the train. The bride carried bride's roses and a shower of lilies of the valley.

Miss Kathryn Windham received the guests and Miss Ellen Pollock assisted the bride.

It is unnecessary to say much concerning these popular young people who have always lived in Plattsmouth and have a large circle of friends. Last evening was the climax of an ideal romance which had its beginning when these two were children. The bride is a splendid young woman who, on account of her true worth has made many sincere friends. The groom is a successful young business man of whom Plattsmouth is exceedingly proud. He stands as a man among men for his fine principles and uprightness of character.

The best wishes of all follow this happy couple.

The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. George Wilcox and son, Byron; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilcox and son, Paul; Misses Mildred and Mabel Wilcox and Lloyd Myers, from Omaha; Mrs. Heitzhansen of Portland, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Godel and son, Leland, of Fairbury, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Feltzer of Louisville, Neb.; Miss Margaret Feltzer of Lincoln, Neb.; Mr. Howard Feltzer of Omaha; Mr. Charles A. Patterson of Arapahoe.

THE SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. HENRY INHELDER

Died Very Suddenly of Heart Failure and the Community Mourns Loss of an Excellent Lady.

From Tuesday's Daily.
The funeral of the late Mrs. Henry Inhelder, which was held at her late home in Cedar Creek Sunday afternoon, was one of the largest in the numbers of those gathered at the bier to pay their last tributes, that has been held in that locality, and it fully attested the deep feeling of regret felt at the untimely death of this grand good woman, who was called without warning from her family.

Anna Schneider was born June 19, 1856, near Davenport, Iowa, and here several years of her girlhood was spent and she received her education at the public schools of that place. She was married in 1874 at Cedar Creek to Mr. Henry Inhelder, and there this most estimable couple have made their home since that time and have been numbered among the most highly respected and esteemed residents of that locality. To the marriage of this couple four children were born, and with the husband two daughters are left to mourn the loss of this kindly and well-loved lady; the daughters are Mrs. Henry Baker and Mrs. Con Sears, both residing at Moorfield, Neb. Three brothers, George Schneider of Moorfield, and Jacob and William Schneider of Cedar Creek, and two half-brothers, Henry A. Schneider, residing in California, and John Schneider, who resides in Saunders county, are left to mourn her loss.

The news of the death of Mrs. Inhelder was a great shock to the community in which she had for so many years made her home and the suddenness of the blow seemed almost to great to be true. Mrs. Inhelder, in company with Mrs. Duff, drove from their home to Louisville on Friday morning and spent the forenoon there visiting, and Mrs. Inhelder seemed in the best of health. They started home in the afternoon and made a short stop at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gauer, and when leaving there the lady complained to Mrs. Duff of a pain in her head, and without warning sank to the bottom of the buggy, and it was at first supposed by Mrs. Duff that she had fainted, and the family of Mr. Gauer was notified and Mrs. Inhelder carried into the house, and medical assistance was summoned from Louisville, and Dr. Worthman responded to the call at once, but upon his arrival found that the death of Mrs. Inhelder had been almost instantaneous and that she had been stricken with heart failure.

It will be a hard matter to find one to take the place this lady has held in the community where for so many years she has made her home, and her friends will sadly miss her pleasant ways and helpful counsel in their daily life.

Platform Dance.
There will be another platform dance at the Koukal grove Saturday evening, June 20th. Everybody invited. 6-17-14d-14w

ANOTHER VERY HAPPY JUNE WEDDING

Mr. Frank Lorenz of Sheldon, Ia., and Miss Anna Kopia United in Marriage.

From Tuesday's Daily.
I saw two clouds in the morn,
Tinged by the rising sun,
And in the dawn they floated on
And mingled into one.

This morning at 9 o'clock, at the Holy Rosary Catholic church, was solemnized the nuptials of two of the best known and popular young people of this city, where the groom resided for a number of years and the bride was born and reared to beautiful womanhood. The ceremony that united the lives of Mr. Frank W. Lorenz and Miss Anna Kopia was performed by Rev. Father John Vleck, rector of the church, and was witnessed by only the immediate relatives and a few very intimate friends of the contracting parties.

The beautiful nuptial mass of the Roman church was performed by the priest, assisted by the choir, under the direction of Mr. Cyril Janda. As the wedding party entered the church the strains of the wedding march, played softly by Miss Clara Janda, floated through the auditorium of the church, as the groom, with his best man, Mr. George Wallace, of Sheldon, Iowa, and the bride, with Miss Marie Hiber, the bridesmaid, advanced to the altar, where the solemn words that were to unite their hearts and lives were pronounced by the priest. Little Alice Lorenz, niece of the groom, acted as flower girl for the bride.

The bride was gowned in a lovely costume of white crepe de chine, wearing the flowing bridal veil. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Hiber, was very charmingly gowned in pink voile, carrying a bouquet of pink roses. The gentlemen in the party were attired in the conventional black.

Following the wedding at the church the bridal couple were entertained at a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kopia, for a few hours and received the congratulations of a large number of friends. They departed on the afternoon Burlington train for Sheldon, Iowa, where they will make their home.

Both of these young people are possessed of a vast number of friends in this city and in their happiness will receive the heartiest best wishes for the happiness which they so well deserve. The bride is the charming and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kopia, and has been reared here to womanhood. She is a graduate of the Plattsmouth city schools and for the past two years has been one of the able members of the teaching force of the city schools, where she was universally loved and respected by her pupils.

The groom was for several years interested here with his brothers in the store on Sixth street, but has for the past few years been engaged in traveling for the Oliver Typewriter company, and has made a great success in this line of business and is one of the best men on the road for that company. He has his headquarters at Sheldon, Iowa, where he has a neat home prepared for his bride, and the young people will reside there in the future.

Very Pleading Sentiment.
The Plattsmouth Journal has issued a very creditable trade expansion edition, which shows the good points of Plattsmouth and tells why people should come to that town to do their trading, and why factories should locate there. It is an edition the people of Plattsmouth should be proud of. —Nebraska City News.

Sent to Insane Asylum.
From Tuesday's Daily.
The county board of insanity yesterday afternoon had before them Henry Cerrig or Cook as he first gave his name, being examined as to his sanity. This is the man who created so much trouble in the vicinity of Union a few days ago and who was brought here for examination. After hearing the facts of the case the board decided to send the man to Lincoln to be given treatment at the state hospital, and that the cost be transferred to Douglas county.

THE DEATH OF SILAS W. PALMER OLD ENGINEER

Commenced as Engine Wiper in Plattsmouth and Became One of Burlington's Best Engineers.

The following from the State Journal in regard to the death of Silas W. Palmer, one of the veteran engineers of the Burlington, will be of great interest in this city, where Mr. Palmer was well known and where he first entered the service of the Burlington:

Silas W. Palmer, who died Saturday afternoon at his home, 751 North Twelfth street, was one of the oldest and best known locomotive engineers in the employ of the Burlington, and he was held in the highest esteem by officials of the road. During his service of over thirty years he had handled the best runs on the system west of the Missouri river. For many years he has run passenger trains between Lincoln and Fairfield. It was only because of his poor physical condition that he accepted lighter work, August 27, 1912, his health declined so much that he was unable to follow continuous employment. About a year ago he was forced to quit work. Mr. Palmer suffered for a long time with gall stones and operations to which he submitted failed to overcome his malady.

He entered the service of the Burlington at Plattsmouth March 31, 1880, as an engine wiper in the round-house, and May 4 of the same year was promoted to locomotive fireman. August, 4, 1881, he was placed in charge of a switch engine in the Lincoln yards. Here he remained until he was promoted to road service October 1, 1882. With the exception of a few months during the strike of 1888, he continued running freight and passenger engines until his health broke down.

"Silas W. Palmer was one of the best and most reliable engineers in the service," said Master Mechanic Deitrich. "He was a careful runner and never had a serious accident. No man knew his engine better than Si, Palmer and he was a fine fellow and popular with his associates."

Silas W. Palmer was a member of the Masonic order, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and the A. O. U. W. The funeral will be held at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon from Roberts' chapel. Rev. P. M. Orr will have charge of the services at the chapel and the Masons at the grave. Interment will be in Wyuka.

Lodge Holds Decoration Day.
On Sunday morning the committees from the different A. O. U. W. lodges, as well as a delegation from the I. O. O. F. lodge, drove to the cemetery with a profusion of beautiful flowers, which were strewn over the graves of the departed members of these two orders. There was a large amount of flowers brought by the different members of the order and not one of the resting places of members was allowed to go without a floral remembrance on this occasion.

NO QUESTION ABOUT MANLEY PLAYING BALL

The Manley Base Ball Team Takes Another Fast Game From Eagle.

Sunday, June 14, Manley again clashed with Eagle on the latter's grounds, and took the long end of the 6 to 1 score.

Holmberg of the Western league pulled off the heaving stunt for Eagle, and they were confident of getting away with the bacon, but they had reckoned without the visitors.

Eagle scored one run in the fourth inning and had the best of the argument until the first of the seventh, when the Manley boys decided it was high time to start the ball rolling. DelesDernier, first up for the visitors, drew a pass, Miller bunted and was safe when Crabtree heaved the pill over first, letting Deles and Miller go to third and second, Hugh O'Brien was safe when the fielder dropped his long drive to deep center, Deles and Miller scoring on the play. Klopser followed with a clean two-bagger, scoring O'Brien. Klopser stole third and scored when A. Trumble missed an easy grounder. The next three up were easy victims for Holmberg.

Eagle could do nothing in their half and were put out in one, two three order. In the first of the eighth Manley again continued their bombardment. Maxwell hooked one of Holmberg's curves for two stations and Miller cinched his own game by loosing the ball over the right fielder's head and scoring Maxwell ahead of him.

In their half it looked like Eagle might start something, when A. Trumble batted one for a safe hit and Maxwell failed to get Crabtree's easy roller; man on second and third and nobody out, but the boys had seen tight places before and were confident they could get out of this hole, which they did on the next play. Parsell took a good bit of time at bat and finally connected with Miller's delivery for what looked like a clean single over short, but "Billie" Williams, who was in the game to win, ran back and gathered it in, whipped it to Rocky on third in an attempt to catch the runner off third, but a little too late to get that man, so took Crabtree off second. Immediately things looked brighter and you could hear nothing of the Eagle rooters, who but a minute before had been making life miserable for the boys who wore the Manley uniforms. The lineup:

IS IT A HOAX OR IS IT A CASE OF SUICIDE?

Bottle Which Had Contained Car-bolic Acid Found Among Drift With Note Therein.

Yesterday afternoon while Carl Zavgren, bridge foreman of the Burlington, and his force of men were working at the Platte river bridge, near Oreadopolis, they made a discovery that points to the suicide of someone. The drift cast up there a bottle which had contained carbolic acid, and in bottle was a note which indicates that the party writing it had made away with themselves. The note was short, stating: "I've decided to end it all. Good-bye, everybody. God forgive me. Inquire D. B. C. World-Herald, Omaha."

The date on the note is May 17, 1914. This indicates that the bottle had been in the river a considerable length of time and what has become of the body of the unfortunate person who drowned their sorrows in the depths of the river is a mystery that perhaps the finding of the note may aid in solving.

The note is written on a small slip of paper, evidently torn from a leaf of a notebook, and the writing looks greatly like that of a girl. Mr. Zavgren states that in the bottle there was a few drops of the acid left which seems to give the suicide story strength, but the exact truth will never be fully known unless the body of some unknown person is washed up by the river.

The finder of the note will communicate with the World-Herald to learn if there is any clue there to the identity of the party placing the note in the bottle.

PLATTSMOUTH YOUNG PEOPLE ARE WEDDED

George O. Dovey and Hallie Parmele United in Marriage This Afternoon.

From Wednesday's Daily.
This afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Parmele, was performed the wedding of their daughter, Miss Hallie to George O. Dovey, the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. S. Leete of St. Luke's Episcopal church. The wedding came as a great surprise to the friends of the young people, as while their approaching wedding was known, the suddenness of the young people in having the nuptials performed completely took their friends by surprise. After the ceremony the young people departed on their honeymoon and will visit points of interest in the east for a short time.

Both of the contracting parties come of two of the oldest and most prominent families in the city, and having been born and reared here their wedding will be the object of much interest from a large number of friends, who have known them during all these years. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Parmele, and is a young lady of more than usual charm of character that has made her endeared to a large circle of friends, and this charming lady has the best wishes of these friends. The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Dovey and is a young man of much ability, and who for the past year has been engaged in the First National bank, of which his father is cashier. He is highly respected, but of these young people there is no need of adding words of praise, as they are both well known throughout the city and to them will be extended the best wishes of the entire community for their future happiness and good fortune during the years of their wedded life.

The wedding was a very quiet one, there being only the close relatives of the bride and groom present to witness the ceremony. The bride and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Parmele, arrived home last evening from a trip across the Pacific to Japan and the orient, and the decision to have the marriage performed so soon certainly took the friends of the young couple by surprise. The Journal desires to add its congratulations to the many friends on the happy event.

THE FUNERAL OF ANDREW BARRY WAS HELD THIS MORNING

From Wednesday's Daily.

The funeral of the late Andrew Barry was held this morning from the St. John's Catholic church and was attended by a large number of the sorrowing friends of the family, who gathered to pay their last tributes of respect to the departed friend. The beautiful requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Father M. A. Shine, rector of the church, in a most impressive manner and a most eloquent sermon delivered on the life of the departed. During the service Miss Opal Fitzgerald sang very sweetly "Face to Face," and "Nearer My God to Thee," after which the cortege wended its way to the cemetery west of the city where all that was mortal of this good man was laid to rest in the mother earth.
