

HAROLD SMITH IS SUFFERING FROM AN INFECTION OF HIS HAND

From Tuesday's Daily. Harold, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Smith, is wearing his left hand in a bandaged condition as the result of an infection he received a few days ago. Harold was helping do some cement work around the house and in doing so wore a blister in his hand, which he later opened and he thought nothing of the matter until a soreness appeared in the arm and hand and he was sent to consult a physician in regard to the matter, with the result that it was discovered that he was suffering from a severe abscess in the hand occasioned by the infection. The injury was dressed and the young man will be forced to wear his left wing tied up for the next few days, at least until it heals up.

ANDREW BARRY PASSES AWAY AT THE HOME OF MR. AND MRS. A. G. BACH

From Tuesday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. August Bach, jr., in this city Andrew Barry passed away at 4 o'clock after an illness covering several months, and which compelled him to undergo untold suffering. Mr. Barry was 78 years of age, having been born in Ireland February 20, 1846, and when a young man came to America, later locating in Nebraska, where he resided for a number of years at Omaha, and then purchased a small farm south of this city, where he made his home up to the time of his being taken to the hospital last November to undergo an operation for what seemed to be the paralysis of one of his feet, but the operation was not as successful as it had been hoped for and he was compelled to suffer the amputation of one of his feet. He was later brought back to this city and taken to the home of his daughter, where he gradually grew worse, suffering from hardening of the arteries until death finally relieved his sufferings. Besides his wife he leaves seven children—Mrs. August Bach and Mrs. J. N. Jordan of Plattsmouth; Mrs. John Kearney, Robert Barry, George Barry, Ed Barry and Mrs. Ed Vovorial, all of Omaha, to mourn his loss.

The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 9:30 from the St. John's Catholic church in this city.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury

no mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescription from reliable physicians as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by E. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by E. J. Cheney & Co., Terminal Building, Toledo, Ohio.

DATES HAVE BEEN ARRANGED FOR THE OLD SETTLERS' RE-UNION

The energetic citizens of the village of Union have already begun preparations for the holding of their annual Old Settlers' reunion, and at a meeting held in that city last Saturday decided upon Friday and Saturday, August 14 and 15, as the dates for holding the events. The association also elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: Elmer Chapman, president; G. W. Cheney, vice president; A. L. Anderson, secretary; J. R. Pierson, treasurer; J. T. Reynolds, J. B. Roddy and J. D. Bramblet, executive committee.

The festival has become an event that is looked forward to with the greatest of pleasure by the people of Cass county, as it is an occasion when the old pioneer residents of the county can gather together and exchange stories of when the country was wild and given over to the Indians and buffalo. The people of Union have always given the reunion their fullest efforts in the way of providing amusement and caring for the old people and the young as well. The Old Settlers' reunion was first proposed in 1889, and the first reunion being such an unqualified success, it has been continued each year since and has constantly grown in popularity.

A FINE PIANO IS OFFERED AS A PRIZE

The Journal Has Given a Rare Opportunity to Those Wanting Pianos.

The beautiful Schmoller & Mueller Art Style Piano illustrated in another part of this issue, which we are offering our subscribers, is a piano of more than average quality. It is the product of one of the oldest piano concerns in the country, for the Schmoller & Mueller Piano Co. of Omaha has been continuously in business for over fifty-five years. This firm handles high-grade, guaranteed instruments ranging in price from $175 to $1,200. They represent many eastern manufacturers, notably, Steinway & Sons, Steger & Sons, Peck & Co., the Aeolian Co., and a number of others. In addition they control the manufacture and sale of the celebrated Schmoller & Mueller pianos—instruments possessing a sweet tone and very popular in all sections of the country.

Schmoller & Mueller pianos are guaranteed for twenty-five years against any defect in material or workmanship, and they are all shipped on thirty days' trial with the understanding that if the purchaser does not find the instrument entirely satisfactory or exactly as represented the instrument can be returned at the expense of the Schmoller & Mueller Piano Co. This means the ideal way of trying a piano before deciding to keep it. The guarantee issued by the Schmoller & Mueller Piano Co. is the strongest ever written to cover the material and workmanship of an absolutely high-grade instrument. This guarantee means that the Schmoller & Mueller Piano Co. stands back of their pianos for twenty-five solid years. This is practically a lifetime—as far as pianos are concerned.

If you will notice the graceful design of the piano, illustrated and described elsewhere in this issue, we are sure you will agree that it is all the Schmoller & Mueller Piano Co. claim it to be. It is what is known as the Empire style—massive in appearance, with round corners, heavy pilasters and full Empire top. The keys are genuine ivory—the strings imported Poehlmann wire, made in Germany—the finest that can be found. The action of the Schmoller & Mueller piano is noted for being very responsive to the touch.

A VERY INTERESTING SERVICE AT MASONIC HOME LAST SUNDAY

A very pleasant and impressive service was held at the Masonic Home in this city on Sunday afternoon, and one that was heartily appreciated by the members of the Home. Mr. M. S. Briggs was present and gave a very inspiring address, taking as his subject "The Credentials of the Master," and his remarks, filled as they were with thoughtfulness and uplifting sentiment that found a responsive answer in the hearts of his hearers. Rev. H. O. McClusky gave a most pleasing vocal number during the service that was most thoroughly enjoyed, while Philip Rhin rendered a very pleasing cornet solo, "The Ninety and Nine," in a very able manner. The different churches of the city have established the custom of holding these services at the Home and they are found to be very comforting to the aged persons residing there, who are shut out by their feeble condition from the enjoyment of attending the services.

MISS OPAL COLE CELEBRATES HER FOURTEENTH BIRTHDAY

Last Tuesday afternoon there was a scene of much merriment when a crowd of boys and girls gathered at the S. O. Cole home to help celebrate Miss Opal's fourteenth birthday. The afternoon was spent in playing various games and music by Helen Livingston. A candy heart chase caused much amusement, the lucky one being Earl Livingston, who received from each one a candy heart. After each one had read their candy hearts they found their partner by matching pictures. The young folks then went to the dining room, where a luncheon of ice cream, cake and lemonade was served. After lunch the children departed for their homes. Miss Opal received many nice presents which she can keep to remind her of the joyful occasion. Those present were: Helen Livingston, Nellie Wiles, Opal Cole, Delores Wiles, Lora Snyder, Esther Ficht, Loretta Probst, Mattie Gopen, Oscar Gopen, Earl Livingston, Virgil Perry, Russell Perry, Jacob Adams.

The handsome Range home was decorated in a very tasteful manner and the dining room especially was very charming in the decorations of American beauty and climbing roses, interspersed with green foliage. At a suitable hour a very delicious three-course luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Herman Spies, Misses Marie Spies, Essie Buttery and Edith Range. The event was a most pleasant one and all present feel deeply indebted to the hostess for her splendid hospitality.

ALBERT SCHAFER IS TAKEN TO CHICAGO FOR TREATMENT

From Wednesday's Daily. This morning Sam Pittman and wife and Albert Schafer and wife and Mrs. Hennings motored to this city from Murray, bringing the little 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Schafer, Albert, jr., here, where he was taken on No. 6 to Chicago to take treatment at the Pastuer hospital in that city for a bite he received Sunday from a dog supposed to be suffering from the rabies. Mrs. Hennings accompanied the little lad to Chicago.

The boy was bitten in the left arm Sunday at his home, near Cedar Creek, by a dog belonging to a neighbor named Wagner, and as there was fear of the animal possibly being infected with the rabies it was killed and the head sent to Lincoln for examination. A message was received yesterday afternoon from Lincoln advising that no chances be taken with the case and preparations were made at once to send the little lad to Chicago, where the case can be handled by experts. The malady seems to have spread through the entire country and there is hardly a community that has not suffered from the ravages of the dogs infected with the rabies, despite all that has been done to prevent the spread of the disease.

MRS. J. E. JONES PASSES AWAY AFTER LONG ILLNESS

From Wednesday's Daily. This morning at 8 o'clock at her home in this city Mrs. J. E. Jones passed away, after an illness covering a period of seven months, having been a sufferer from a complication of diseases. Mrs. Jones was taken to the hospital in Omaha several months ago for treatment, but it was without avail, as her condition gradually grew worse, and while suffering from tuberculosis of the joints other complications set in that made her death only a question of time. Her father, Robert Stanaford, of Havelock, has been here for the past two weeks at her bedside, and was present when she passed away. She leaves a husband and two children to mourn her death, as well as the father. The death of Mrs. Jones will be greatly regretted throughout the city, where she has made many friends by her kindly ways and pleasant manner in meeting all whom she knew. To the bereaved husband, father and children the deepest sympathy of the entire community goes out in this, their hour of grief.

The First Thought.

In case of an accident or a sudden sickness much depends upon the first thought. It should always be Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine, because this preparation stimulates all organs to their natural activity and gives warmth and comfort to the body. It also relieves constipation, which is common in such cases, and aids digestion. In indigestion and poor digestion Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine is a valuable remedy, as also in constipation. Ladies, pale and sickly, should try this medicine, it often helps them quicker than any other. In intestinal troubles connected with pain this remedy should be recommended. At drug stores, Jos. Triner, Manufacturer, 1333-1339 So. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill. Those who need a medicine for rubbing painful parts of the body should try Triner's Liniment. It is strong and penetrating.
