

PLATTSMOUTH LADIES PLEASANTLY ENTERTAINED

Plattsmouth Ladies Entertained at Luncheon by Members of the Plattsmouth Club.

From Friday's Daily.
Yesterday at Lincoln a number of Plattsmouth ladies who were in attendance at the state convention of the P. E. O., were entertained in a most delightful manner at a luncheon at the Lindell hotel by the Plattsmouth club. This club consists of a membership of some forty ladies, former residents of Plattsmouth, who are now residing in the capital city. The occasion was a most enjoyable one to all who gathered around the tables, and the Plattsmouth ladies in attendance felt deeply the splendid hospitality shown them by their old friends.

The tables were in the form of a closed square, in the center of which palms and ferns were placed most artistically and the table was decorated in the flower of the P. E. O. society, the margarites, in honor of the occasion, bringing the Plattsmouth ladies to Lincoln. Mrs. George Chaburn, formerly Miss Anna Murphy of this city, presided over the tables as hostess and called upon the different ladies to respond. Mrs. Elizabeth Travis and Mrs. E. D. Cummins of this city responded most pleasantly with a few short remarks, while Mesdames Stephen Davis, Nellie Agnew, Jacob Koch, Charles Sherman and Con O'Connor of Lincoln gave short talks on the happy days they had spent in Plattsmouth, and the deep feeling entertained for the former home, as well as the interest and welfare of the old friends and of the foundation of the Plattsmouth club to keep the old home town in the thought of the members. As the luncheon hour arrived each visitor was escorted to the dining room by a Lincoln lady, where the delicious five-course dinner was enjoyed to the utmost.

Those who were present from Plattsmouth at the delightful gathering were: Mesdames Elizabeth Travis, E. D. Cummins, Fannie Dickson, A. L. Tidd, T. H. Pollock, Marvella Howland King of Superior, and Miss Helen Pollock.

LEONARD BORN, SR., CELEBRATES HIS SIXTY-EIGHTH BIRTHDAY

On last Sunday, June 14, it being the sixty-eighth birthday of Leonard Born, sr., his children decided it would be fitting that the occasion be observed in proper shape, and accordingly arranged a surprise, and it was certainly all that they hoped for and the delight of the gentleman was unbounded when he finally recovered from the shock of the surprise. While he and Mrs. Born were at church the children all gathered at the home in the west part of the city, with well filled baskets, and had the table all prepared with all the delicacies of the season when they returned home. Those taking part in the pleasures of the day were: George Born, Mrs. Born being absent at Creighton; Philip Born, wife and daughter; Agnes; Henry Born, wife and children; Elvera, Leonard, jr., and Donald; Louis Born, wife and children; Edna, Ethel, Florence and Freda; Charles Stoehr, wife and children; Elmer, Verma, Clifford, Carl and Leonard; Adam Stoehr, wife and children; Mildred and Weldon; Miss Minnie Born, and the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Born, sr. They all returned home in the evening, having had a jolly time and wishing Mr. Born many happy birthdays in the future.

Ships Two Cars of Stock.

George Snyder, one of the successful farmers of the vicinity of Mynard, this morning shipped to the South Omaha market two carloads of fine fat cattle which he had been fattening at his farm. The stock is of the finest quality and consists of the Black Polled breed. Those who have seen the cattle claim that they are among the finest that have been shipped out of Mynard in years.

Talbot Forces Carry the Day.

From Saturday's Daily.
The Journal this morning received the following message from one of the delegates in attendance at the head camp of the Modern Woodmen of American, being held at Toledo, Ohio:

Toledo, Ohio, 3:50 a. m.
Complete Talbot ticket elected by 150 majority.

The victory of the administration came after a long and bitter struggle between the two wings of the Modern Woodmen, and will result likely in the loss of a large number of members of the order and certain of the insurgent leaders favor invoking the law to prevent the control of the order by Talbot and his associates.

A FORMER PLATTS-MOUTH YOUNG LADY IS UNITED IN MARRIAGE

The news of the wedding of a former Plattsmouth girl has just been received in this city by friends, the wedding having occurred on Wednesday, June 17, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Neill, near Bassett, Neb. The bride is Miss Emsie Edna O'Neill, who was born and reared in this city, and where her friends are legion. The groom is Mr. Frederick Edward Jeffrys, of Bassett. The ceremony that made these two happy hearts as one was performed by Rev. Harvey of Long Pine, in the presence of the relatives and a few intimate friends of the contracting parties, and the bridal couple were attended by Raymond O'Neill, brother of the bride, as best man, and Miss Jennie Reynolds, of Pacific Junction, Iowa, as bridesmaid. The bride and bridesmaid were very charmingly gowned in costumes of white with embroidered drapings, carrying white and pink roses. Mr. Jeffrys is a prosperous young farmer of near Bassett and stands very high in the community where he makes his home, and has a large number of friends there, where the young people will make their future home. Following the wedding ceremony a very elaborate wedding dinner was served to the immediate family and a few intimate friends of the contracting parties.

FAREWELL PARTY IN HONOR OF MISS HILDA JULIAN

From Friday's Daily.
Yesterday afternoon the friends of little Miss Hilda Julian gathered together and gave her a farewell surprise party at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barwick, in South Park, as Miss Julian, with her mother, Mrs. T. N. Julian, will depart on Monday for Clovis, New Mexico, to join her father, who is employed there in the Santa Fe shops, and where they will make their future home. Miss Julian has been attending the schools in this city for a number of years, so that the friends and schoolmates feel a deep regret in seeing her leave. After playing for several hours the well loved games of childhood on the beautiful lawn, the little folks placed themselves in a circle beneath the shade of the trees in picnic style to enjoy a most tempting lunch which they had brought with them, and were served by Mrs. Barwick, assisted by Mesdames William Burke, William Graybill, D. D. Berthoff of Seymour, Indiana, and Miss Edna Pratt of Winterset, Iowa. At a late hour they all wended their way homeward, wishing their friend farewell. Those who were present were: Misses Gracie Russell, Clara Lamphere, Marjory Rinker, Dorris Vroman, Mable, Bertha, Caroline and Leona Toogood, Mable Adams and Miss Julian.

Funeral of Mrs. J. E. Jones.

From Saturday's Daily.
The funeral of the late Mrs. J. E. Jones was held yesterday afternoon from her late home on South Fifth street, and was attended by a large number of sorrowing friends of this most estimable lady, who was taken from their midst while yet in the bloom of womanhood. The services were conducted by Rev. Walter Self of Nebraska City, pastor of the Latter Day Saints' church of that city, of which faith Mrs. Jones had been a most devoted member for years. The body was laid to rest in Oak Hill cemetery.

THE PLATTE RIVER ROAD IS NOW IN FINE CONDITION TO BRIDGE

From Saturday's Daily.
The Platte river road leading to the automobile bridge, north of this city, which has been in very poor shape for the past few days owing to the extremely heavy rains, has been worked over and is now in the best of shape for travel. The flood water and general wetness caused by the heavy rains has had a decided tendency to check travel over this road, as the mud made it extremely hard to get through, but that has now been overcome. This morning a large gang of men were out bright and early working to place the road in proper shape, and their efforts resulted in placing it in proper shape for travel again and automobilists desiring to travel from this city and Omaha may do so without the least fear of getting stuck in the miry roads along the bottom. The Plattsmouth-Omaha road is one of the most popular for travel in this section of the state and the time that the road was out of commission was very inconvenient to the auto owners and drivers. Mr. Pollock, the owner of the auto bridge, as soon as he learned of the condition of the road, got busy and the work was soon commenced on repairing the damaged condition of the roadway, he being on the ground to supervise the job of putting the road in shape.

GEO. HAMES RETURNS HOME FROM NOTRE DAME, INDIANA, FOR VACATION

From Saturday's Daily.
Nicholas Halmes and C. S. Nelson of Weeping Water came in this morning in the touring car of Mr. Halmes, who returned yesterday from Notre Dame, Indiana, where he had been attending school. George is taking up a course of electrical engineering in that institution, after having spent three years at the University of Nebraska at Lincoln, and will take the full four years' course at Notre Dame. This college is one of the leading institutions of its kind in the country and Mr. Halmes is well pleased with the instruction received there in his course. He will spend the summer vacation with his parents at Weeping Water, returning in the fall to take up his school.

FINE REMITTED PROVIDED HOBO WOULD LEAVE TOWN, AND HE "GOT"

From Saturday's Daily.
Last evening Chief of Police Rainey was informed that there was a man lying in the grounds at the High school building in a state of intoxication, and who had threatened what he was going to do and of his intention to make anyone interfering with him resemble a sieve by filling them with large holes from a firearm he had on his person. The chief visited the locality where the man was resting, and he failed to get his artillery in operation before the chief swept down on him and gathered him into the fold, taking him to the bastille, where he was locked up to await his appearance in court. This morning when brought before Judge Archer he gave his name as George Collins, and stated he had no residence, being engaged in traveling a la hobo, and after considering the case the judge fined him $5 and costs, but agreed to let him go providing he departed at once for greener fields, and the man got himself hence without delay.

Called to Madison, Neb.

Rev. Frank M. Druliner, pastor of the First Methodist church, yesterday received a telephone announcing the death of one of his former parishioners at Madison, Neb., and asking that he come to that city to preach the funeral sermon. He departed yesterday afternoon on the 1:58 train for Madison to be present at the funeral. His place in the pulpit was taken last evening by Rev. H. G. McCluskey of the First Presbyterian church.

Henry Hirz, sr., was a visitor in this city Saturday, and he made this office a pleasant call.

Death of George A. Fitzgerald.

The news of the death of George A. Fitzgerald, an actor, well known in this city, at Omaha a few days ago, has been received here. Mr. Fitzgerald will be remembered as having been here with the Quaker medicine show at the Parmele about four years ago, he being at that time engaged in team work with Percy Fields, and had continued on the road with great success until his death from a general breakdown of the system.

BERNARD G. WURL FILES FOR COUNTY CLERK OF CASS COUNTY

From Saturday's Daily.
This morning Bernard G. Wurl filed in the office of the county clerk his intention to seek the office of county clerk from the suffrages of the voters and for the nomination on the democratic ticket for that office. Mr. Wurl is well known throughout the county, where he has traveled extensively in the interest of his cigar factory in this city, and possesses a great many friends. He has been engaged in the cigar business for a number of years, first in partnership with his brother, Otto A. Wurl, but for the past several years has conducted the business alone and has been quite successful in this line. He has just completed serving three years as city clerk of Plattsmouth and retired from that office with the reputation of having been the most competent gentleman to have filled that position in years, and his record through is clean as a dye. His filing makes two candidates on both sides, as John M. Creamer of Wabash and Louis Anderson of Union are candidates for the republican nomination, while County Clerk Libershat is seeking re-election on the democratic ticket.

MR. AND MRS. HENRY BOECK CELEBRATE 50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

From Saturday's Daily.
Yesterday, June 19th, marked the completion of fifty years of wedded life for our worthy friends, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Boeck, of this city, and in honor of the event they entertained a few out-of-town relatives at a very pleasant luncheon at their home here. The delicious repast was served at noon and it was a most pleasant event for all present, as they gathered with this splendid couple who have, during their long residence here, endeared themselves to the residents of this community. The day was spent in visiting and the enjoyment of a general good time, closing with an auto ride in the evening around the surrounding country for several hours. Mr. and Mrs. Boeck were remembered by many of their out-of-town friends with best wishes for many more years of happiness, and the Journal desires to add their hearty wish that this splendid couple may live to observe their diamond anniversary with the friends, who esteem them so highly.

EVANGELIC LUTHERAN CHURCH SOCIETY OF EIGHT MILE GROVE

From Saturday's Daily.
The German Lutheran church, situated on the Louisville road, five or six miles west of this city, has been incorporated in the name of the Evangelical Lutheran Church Society of Eight Mile Grove. The articles of incorporation were filed yesterday with the county clerk and the incorporators include the pastor, Rev. Julius Huebner, Louis Friedrich, August H. Engelkemeier, Chris Parkening, Phillip A. Hild and J. G. Meisinger. This church is one of the most progressive in Cass county and has a handsome church edifice, as well as a comfortable parsonage on their property, which is a credit to the splendid congregation belonging, and which numbers among its members some of the leading citizens of this section of the county.

COMMERCIAL CLUB ENJOYS A FINE MEETING

Notwithstanding Band Concert There Was a Very Fair Attendance.

From Friday's Daily.
Despite the fact that last evening was the starting of the band concert season, there were quite a number present at the meeting of the Commercial club at Coates' hall to discuss matters of interest to the city and its residents. The committee that has been out soliciting funds for the maintenance of band concerts reported that they had met with very good success so far in the work of raising the money for the concerts, but still lack considerable amount enough to carry out the summer's program, but still have the Burlington shops to canvass, where they boys have very generously responded in the past few seasons.

One of the chief matters of interest before the meeting was the discussion of the matter of having houses erected in the city that could be used for rental purposes, as the demand for places is far greater than the supply, and every day there is inquiries at the different real estate offices for places of this kind, and the new residents moving in here find themselves up against it for a place to live. The matter was thoroughly discussed and a committee appointed to take the matter up with the men in the city who desire to make an investment and to interest them in the matter of putting up several cottages for rental. There is no doubt that a large number of houses could be erected at a very satisfactory figure that would insure to the person erecting them a handsome return for their investment.

The transportation committee of the club was also authorized to take up with the head offices of the Missouri Pacific at St. Louis the question of better train service for the county over that road. The Missouri Pacific has been operating their train over the Weeping Water-Louisville line to connect at the last-named place with the Burlington train into this city, but this is far from what is desired and now this railroad company has applied to the state railway commission for permission to return to their old schedule that would cut out the Burlington connection. The matter has been discussed several times with the minor officials of the company, but without result, and it has been determined finally to apply to President Bush himself in an effort to secure relief of some sort to the county so as to allow the passengers to reach Plattsmouth with greater ease, as at present it takes two days from some localities to make the round trip, owing to the poor service.

On the matter of the paving of the alleys in the business part of the city the large majority of the members were unanimous in declaring for this much-needed improvement, and as the question was agitated some time ago, it was decided to revive the petition and see what could be done in the way of fixing up the alleys in proper shape, as under the present conditions they are, in muddy weather, almost impassable in spots, and with paving there this could be largely overcome. This is one thing that has long been needed; the sooner the paving is carried out the better for the improvement of the business section and for the better handling of the draying and delivery of goods, a great deal of which is done in these alleys.

The club also discussed for several minutes the desirability of having the sewers on Chicago and Washington avenues extended, as well as taking steps to see what could be done in the way of having the avenues paved and placed in shape for travel in all kinds of weather, and this proposition should be taken up and pushed by the council and citizens residing along these thoroughfares.

MRS. W. P. HUTCHINSON AND DAUGHTER ENTERTAIN THE SOCIAL WORKERS

From Friday's Daily.
Mrs. W. P. Hutchinson and daughter, Miss Winnie, entertained the Social Workers' club at their home, south of this city, on Wednesday afternoon in a most charming manner. The afternoon was whittled away in attending to the business of the club and in social chat until an appropriate hour, when a tempting two-course luncheon was served. The guests present were: Mrs. Carl Cole of Mynard and Mrs. E. O. Furlong and children of Steamboat Springs, Colorado. The members of the club present were: Mrs. William Gilmour, Mrs. Robert Wohlfarth, Mrs. James Marasek, Mrs. Peter Mumm and daughter, Miss Clara; Mrs. Mark Iles, Mrs. Albert Murray, Mrs. Joseph Sans and daughter, Miss Boulah; Mrs. Nelling and daughters, Grace and Ellen; Mrs. Arthur Sullivan, Hazel, Raly and Newton Sullivan and Nellie Smith.

M. P. TRYING TO SEE HOW DISAGREEABLE THEY CAN BE WITH PATRONS

In providing accommodations for those desiring to come to Plattsmouth from out in the county the Missouri Pacific certainly seems to try and see how disagreeable and inconvenient they can make their train schedules, but the matter is to be taken up with the headquarters of the road at St. Louis in a few days by the Commercial club and the matter threshed out with President Bush of the railroad company to try and secure at least half-way accommodations for those desiring to come to this city from the interior of Cass county.
