

DOUBLE VOTE OFFER ENDS TO-NIGHT

Hustling Candidates Given Opportunity to Make Big Gain—Help Your Favorite Now by Paying Your Subscription

Tonight at nine.

You have a few hours to turn in your new subscriptions in clubs of five and receive double votes on each subscription whether it be for six months or five years.

Candidates who expect to be winners of one of the eight valuable awards cannot afford at this stage of the race to allow any opportunity of getting extra votes pass by.

Chances Are Equal.

Each day is adding more interest to the contest. No one is handicapped, for the contest will be run until Saturday, August 1.

four full weeks yet in which to see their friends and to run up their votes. Anyone that is eligible to enter the contest has a fair and equal chance.

Do you know you can accumulate a large number of votes by paying subscriptions extended? If you already have turned in a new six months' subscription to the daily or one year to the semi-weekly, and get it extended, or rather receive another payment to make the entire subscription one year or more you will receive the difference in votes to make the subscription just as if it was all turned in at one time.

CREATION DRAMA MAKES HIT

Pastor Russell, Association's President, Was In Attendance at Each—In Discourse He Discussed, "Church of Christ a Living Temple"—Solomon's Temple a Type of Temple of God, the Church of Christ—Quarry Under Site.

PASTOR RUSSELL

Clinton, Iowa, July 5.—One of three big conventions of the I. B. S. A. closed its sessions of eight days here today in the Coliseum with an address by Pastor Russell in the afternoon and the exhibition in the evening of Part IV. of the Pastor's famous Photo-Drama of Creation.

The Photo-Drama of Creation, which has already been exhibited in over one hundred cities at home and is now running abroad also, was an interesting feature of the evening sessions of the three Conventions. Creation's Drama depicts Solomon's Temple in its various stages of preparation, showing the stone quarries under Jerusalem, the cedar forests in Lebanon, and the incidents to its erection and dedication.

The Pastor declared that both St. Paul and St. Peter are our authority for saying that the Church which is the Body of Christ is the Temple of God, and that His Temple is holy. God, who condemned the whole world in Adam, and who has declared that He will have no fellowship with sinners, has provided a way by which these sinners can come back into harmony with Him.

After every living stone has been placed in the great antitypical Temple, the glorification of the Temple will follow. In the type, King Solomon, type of our Lord Jesus, offered the sacrifice, and God accepted it; then the glory of the Lord filled the Temple. So in the antitype, the Church in glory will not be the Temple of God until the Heavenly Father Himself shall have recognized it.

The Pastor then showed the purpose for which this glorious Temple of God is being constructed. Back in the Law Dispensation the required information was pictorially set forth in types and shadows. The Prophet Isaiah had foretold that God's House was to be called a House of Prayer for all nations.

Then the process of cutting, chiseling and polishing the "living stones" of the Temple was explained. Each consecrated Christian has had experiences of such a nature as to separate him from the world. It was a difficult matter to block out character and to bring each to the place where he would be separated from his surroundings.

going on. As the Scriptures express it, the Bride makes herself ready. Each living stone polishes others.

The Pastor here drew a lesson for those who are following in the steps of Jesus. He pointed out that while various severe experiences, trials and tests may come from the world, yet the very finest polishing is produced by contact with the brethren.

Construction of Antitypical Temple. Next the construction of the antitypical Temple was discussed. Eighteen hundred years ago the foundation was laid—in Heaven—the Top Stone, as the Apostle says. All the other stones must be fitted up into Him, according to St. Paul. In describing the antitypical Temple the Apostle here uses the figure of the pyramid, the top stone of which is a miniature pyramid, all remaining stones being fitted to come into line with it.

To the Pastor's understanding of the Scriptures, the building of the antitypical Temple will be done at the close of this Gospel Age. Just as in the construction of Solomon's Temple, all the materials were first prepared, and then the building began, so it will be with the antitypical Temple.

Elsewhere the Apostle calls the bodies of those begotten of the Holy Spirit tabernacles. The difference between a tabernacle and a temple is that the former is a temporary structure, while the latter is permanent. So St. Paul calls the present condition of the Church, in which the Holy Spirit dwells merely in our hearts, a tabernacle condition.

The Pastor concluded his address with an exhortation to those who realize themselves to be living stones in process of preparation for a place in the antitypical Temple of God. He urged these to appreciate the privilege of present discipline. Much chiseling and polishing are necessary to prepare these stones for their future position.

While each faithful follower of the Lord looks forward longingly to the glories of the future, when the glory of the Lord shall fill the Temple, yet each should remember that unless he is submissive to the chiseling and polishing of the present he will be set aside as a living stone, and his place given to another.

Another Old Testament picture which the Pastor explained was that of the typical priesthood. The Priests of this new Temple of the future will be both King and Priest—"a Priest upon His Throne"—after the Order of Melchizedek. Our Lord is not yet upon His Throne, but remains waiting at the right hand of the Majesty on High, until the antitypical Temple is completed.

Other Pictures of the Temple. Various New Testament references to the Church of Christ as a Temple were then explained. One of these was St. Paul's question addressed to the Corinthian Church: "What? Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit which is in you?"

Pastor Russell then pointed out that beyond the veil the Church class will receive the Holy Spirit without measure, when all the "living stones" constituting the Temple of God will have been glorified. But on this side of the veil, those who give up their will to the Lord and who are accepted and begotten of the Holy Spirit as New Creatures in Christ, receive that Spirit in measure, and so the bodies of these may be said to be the temples of the Holy Spirit.

Elsewhere the Apostle calls the bodies of those begotten of the Holy Spirit tabernacles. The difference between a tabernacle and a temple is that the former is a temporary structure, while the latter is permanent. So St. Paul calls the present condition of the Church, in which the Holy Spirit dwells merely in our hearts, a tabernacle condition.

The Pastor concluded his address with an exhortation to those who realize themselves to be living stones in process of preparation for a place in the antitypical Temple of God. He urged these to appreciate the privilege of present discipline. Much chiseling and polishing are necessary to prepare these stones for their future position. Therefore each should thankfully welcome whatever experience of this kind the Master Workman shall see fit to permit him to have.

PROTEST FILED BY WISHART Driver of Mercer Car Says Not Given Lap Entitled To.

Sioux City, Ia., July 6.—Spencer Wishart, who finished second in the 300-mile automobile race here, filed a protest against the scoring with officials of the Sioux City Speedway association. The driver of the Mercer car alleged he had not been given a lap he was entitled to, which would land him in first place, thus putting Eddie Rickenbacher, the winner, in second place.

Wishart's protest as to being short a lap was not sustained, but Rickenbacher, driver of the winning Daeseberg, seeing an endless controversy in sight, consented to move his second car, driven by Ralph M. Mulford, from third to sixth place. Cyrus Patschke was moved from fifth to third and Billy Knipper from sixth to fifth. Gil Anderson held on to fourth place. By the agreement the winners of third, fourth and sixth positions pooled their money, each taking down $1,700.
