LOUISVILLE YOUNG LADY MARRIED IN OMAHA TO A NELSON YOUNG MAN

The following from the World-Herald of yesterday morning gives the account of the wedding of one of Cass counties fair daughters, the ceremony occurring in Omaha last Saturday. The friends of the bride in this county will extend to her the best wishes for a long and happy married life.

PLATTSMOUTH YOUNG PEOPLE GO TO COUNCIL BLUFFS TO GET MARRIED

Saturday afternoon in Council Bluffs two Plattsmouth young people stole a march on their friends by being married in that city. The contracting parties were Mr. Robert T. Bilslein and Miss Mary Semerad, and the nuptials of the young people came as a great surprise to their friends here, although they have been on the outlook for some time for the event. The groom is at present employed in Omaha, and is a young man well known here; as he was born and reared in this city, and he possesses a large circle of friends here. The bride has been employed here for a number of years in the Masonic Home and is very highly esteemed by a large number of friends, who will join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Bilslein a long and happy married life in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker have gone on a trip through Colorado, and after August 15 will be at home at Telluride, Colo. Following the ceremony luncheon was served. The centerpiece was a mound of bride's roses and ferns, while the rooms were attractively decorated with bride's roses and ferns.

There was nothing doing in the line of scoring until the seventh inning, when the visitors came to bat with W. Collins up, who was struck out by Pike; Yost retired on a grounder to first base, and then Andy Graves, the center fielder and sometimes pitcher of the Armours, came to the plate and was able to get one through second for a safety, and on the hit of C. Ryan to left field he came home with a score on what looked pretty rank to the majority of the spectators, as he jumped into the hand of Neitzel, who was catching, and spiked it, knocking the ball out of his hands. The inning was finished by W. Ryan retiring. Arries to Herold, on a grounder.

John Wunderlich in Town.

This morning John Wunderlich, one of the democratic candidates for sheriff, motored up from his home to spend a few hours here looking after some matters of business in the city, and while here visited with his friends in this city. Mr. Wunderlich is making many friends in the campaign by his pleasant manner of meeting everyone.

FIRM FOUNDATION

Nothing Can Undermine It in Plattsmouth.

People are sometimes slow to recognize true merit, and they cannot be blamed, for so many have been humbugged in the past. The experience of hundreds of Plattsmouth residents, expressed publicly through newspapers and other sources, places Doan's Kidney Pills on a firm foundation here.

Herman Tiekoetter, contractor, Ninth and Day Sts., Plattsmouth, says: "My kidneys caused me much trouble and I had a dull, tired feeling across my loins. If I stooped or straightened, my back hurt me and in the morning I was all tired out. I heard so much said about Doan's Kidney Pills that I finally got a box. They promptly relieved every symptom of the complaint. At that time I publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills and I am now glad to confirm all I then said. The trouble has never returned."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Tiekoetter had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

AN EXCITING BALL GAME SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Eleven Inning Game Won by the Armours by a Score of 2 to 1 Yesterday.

Again the Armours, the terrors of the stock yards of South Omaha, won in their contest on the diamond with the Red Sox of this city, but the game was one that the locals need feel no cause of gloom because of the defeat, as two close decisions at home were what settled the issue of the game, and in these the visitors were fortunate enough to profit. Pike, the slab artist for the locals, was in fine form, and his work against the visitors was all that could be asked, and thirteen of the doughty warriors of the Magic City were compelled to fan the air in an effort to hit the ball, and throughout Pike had perfect control of the situation. Guerness was able to strike out only seven of the Sox and was touched up constantly during the progress of the game and only the fast fielding of C. Ryan at short and W. Ryan at first base held the score down, and when the smoke of battle at the end of the eleventh inning rolled away it was found that the Armours were winners by a score of 2 to 1.

The Red Sox, thirsting for revenge, got busy in the eighth and tied the game up by scoring one. Pike, who opened for the locals, placed a nice hit over third base, and advanced to second on the sacrifice of Neitzel; Arries hit safe over second and scored Pike, and later, when C. Smith bunted the ball, raced to the plate with what seemed a score, although called out. Herold was struck out by Guerness, ending the agony.

The battle was then tied, 1 and 1, and through the ninth and tenth inning there was no change made, as both teams were on their mettle and covered every possible chance to score off their opponents. The struggle was ended in the first of the eleventh inning, however, when Corcoran, the first of the beef stickers to come to bat, laced one over the left field fence for a home run. There was nothing doing on either side after this score and the contest ended 2 to 1 in favor of the visitors. The Sox were all in good form and played a fine game of ball throughout, and really should have been given a victory over the visitors, who throughout were constantly chewing the rag and arguing with the umpire over the decisions. The tabulated score of the game was as follows:
