THE CITY DADS HAVE A GENUINE HOT TIME

Session Was Very Brief on Account of Severe Heat and Adjournment Soon Taken.

From Tuesday's Daily.
The session of the city council last evening was one of the shortest that has been held for some time by that body and the heated atmosphere of the city hall made an adjournment almost necessary. All of the city legislators were present with the exception of Councilman Hallstrom of the Third ward, who is in the northern part of the state visiting, when the mayor called the meeting to order and they proceeded at once to get busy with the work that was stacked up before them. A petition was presented to the council from Rev. Father John Vleck and twenty-nine others asking that the city place a fire hydrant at the corner of Sixteenth and Granite streets, near the Holy Rosary church, in order to protect the property in that vicinity from danger from fire. This matter was referred to the fire and water committee to look into and be ready to report at the next session of the council.

The Missouri Pacific also asked that grading be done near their passenger station in the west part of the city in order that they could place a permanent walk there, as the city had requested them to do a number of times in the past. On motion the work was ordered done and the railroad will be able in a short time to start in on the work.

The fire and water committee stated that they had communicated with the Plattsmouth Water company in regard to the charges for the rental of the fire hydrant at the corner of Third and Oak streets, which was in what was claimed as poor shape for use for several weeks and the company refused to make any reduction in the charges for the rental.

Councilman Bajek moved to allow the sum asked for the rental of the hydrant, but this was defeated and a substitute motion of Councilman Johnson to deduct the sum of $10 from the bill of the company was passed.

The ordinance fixing the levy for the coming fiscal year was read, and on motion was placed on second and third reading and passed. This ordinance fixes the levy for the running of the different departments of the city and is the same as the estimate published in the Journal.

The ordinance creating curbing and guttering district No. 7 was read, and on motion was placed on its final passage. This is the district on South Sixth street which will be started in a short time. The council also passed the ordinance to re-locate the curb line in district No. 7.

Councilman Buttery of the Second ward introduced a motion that the street sprinkler could be secured by private parties after the city was through with it in the evening and that it could be used on the residence streets of the city when so desired if the water company was willing to allow the use of the water.

Mr. Buttery also called the attention of the council to the habit of automobile drivers in speeding up and down the avenues of the city, and requested that the police be instructed to see that there was a stop put to this speeding on the streets of the city.

Councilman Bajek called the attention of the council to the manhole in front of the Herger bakery, which is covered by a wire grating which is not in the best of shape, and on motion the clerk was ordered to notify the owner of the Coates' building to replace this with an iron cover, and without delay, as at present it is rather dangerous to the passers-by.

On motion of Patterson the city attorney and the members of the streets, alleys and bridges committee were instructed to put an engineer on the work on South Sixth street to look after the curbing and guttering. Also to secure estimates from special engineer on the work.

The finance committee of the council, after having duly investigated the following claims, recommended their payment: E. J. Richey, one car sewer tiling, $184.40; State Journal Co., docket for police judge, $16.50; Mural Parnele, street sprinkling, $48; Edward Svoboda, work at cemetery, $9; Plattsmouth Water Co., fire hydrant rental, $875; Mike Lutz, street commissioner, $36; G. W. Homan, helping surveyor, $2; John Zilka, street work, $6; Fred Clingy, same, $10; S. G. Stone, same, $12; George Ludlow, same, $4; Mike Mauzy, inspecting sewer, $45; Charles McBride, street work, $22; Alvin Jones, same, $23; Albert Jones, same, $24; John Swanson, same, $24; Walter Tromphaur, same, $44.

Councilman Buttery called the attention of the members of the council to the fact that the bridge at Seventeenth and Vine streets was out of commission and he asked that the clerk be requested to notify the street commissioner of the condition of the bridge.

There being nothing further to interest the city dads the meeting was adjourned, and wiping the sweat from their brows the city legislators wended their way homeward.

ANOTHER PLATTSMOUTH GIRL LEAVES LIFE OF SINGLE-BLESSEDNESS

From Tuesday's Daily.

Saturday morning in Denver occurred the marriage of one of Plattsmouth's fair daughter to a former Mills county, Iowa, young man, well known in this city. The contracting parties were Miss Nellie Brinkman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brinkman, of this city, and Mr. Harold LaChappell of Denver, but who for a number of years resided at Glenwood, Iowa.

The wedding was not unexpected by the friends of the young people in this city, as it had been surmised for some time that they were soon to be united in the holy bonds of matrimony, and on the departure of the bride-to-be on Thursday for Denver there were a great many of her friends who were awaiting to hear the news of the wedding. The ceremony was performed at the residence of one of the Presbyterian ministers in the Colorado city and as a very quiet affair, only the contracting parties being present.

The groom is a son of Joseph LaChappell and wife of Ashland, and for several years resided with his parents at Glenwood before their removal to Ashland. It was here that he first met the lady who has become his bride. He has been in Denver for some time past, having the position there as manager of the telephone company in that city, and is a young man of splendid talents. The bride is a young lady who possesses a large number of friends in this city, where she has lived almost her entire lifetime, and her charm and gentility of character has won her a host of warm friends who will extend to her their best wishes for her future happiness. The newly wedded couple will make their future home in Denver.

To Visit With Relatives.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Mrs. Earl R. Blish, formerly Miss Ida Weideman of this city, arrived yesterday from her home at Buffalo, N. Y., to make a visit of several weeks at the home of her mother, Mrs. Emma Weideman and with her other relatives and friends in this city. Mrs. Blish is feeling much improved in health and this fact will give her many friends here much pleasure.

JOSEPH PERRY DIES SUDDENLY FROM PARALYSIS

Starts Down Town and Falls in the Yard, Becomes Unconscious and Never Recovered.

From Tuesday's Daily.

The friends of Joseph Perry were greatly shocked last evening to learn that he had passed away at the home of his parents in the west part of the city quite suddenly. The death of Mr. Perry occurred about 5 o'clock and came as a result of what seems to have been a stroke of paralysis that came on him yesterday morning almost instantly. Joe had been around the house all morning and about 11:30 started out with the apparent intention of coming down town, and had only taken a few steps from the doorway when he fell to the ground without a sound. Mrs. Perry, the mother of the young man, seeing him fall, rushed to his side and found him in an unconscious condition. It was impossible to arouse him and the other members of the family, who were down town, were telephoned for, as well as a physician, and the unfortunate young man was carried into the house. Upon the arrival of the physician it was found that the attack had apparently paralyzed the jaws of the young man, as it was impossible to get them open to allow the giving of medicine. He remained in this condition until the end came late in the afternoon, gradually growing weaker and sinking minute by minute until death mercifully came to his relief.

Joseph Perry was born in Plattsmouth twenty-seven years ago and had made his home during all his lifetime here, receiving his education in the schools of this city. He was a young man well liked by all who knew him best, and of a generous and kindly nature, and it may well be said of him that no one ever received an injury from him in any word or deed. His sorrowing parents and family will receive the sympathy of the community in their bereavement, but have the consolation of knowing that they have done all that was possible to minister to the wants of their son and brother in his suffering and death. He leaves besides the parents and brothers and sisters, wife and two small children.

The funeral of Mr. Perry will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 from the home of the parents on West Marble street, and interment will be made in Oak Hill cemetery.

TOM WALLING, JR., WINS THE BICYCLE RACE SATURDAY EVENING

In a gruelling three and a half-mile race over the course commonly known as "around the horn," Thomas Walling, jr., Saturday evening, emerged as city bicycle champion by defeating Johnnie Sattler by a scant ten seconds. Walling made the course in sixteen minutes and ten seconds, while Sattler, who was handicapped a minute and a half, made it in sixteen minutes and twenty seconds. As first prize Walling received an electric horn, while Johnnie received a luggage carrier. The race proved a great success, and in the near future another will be held over a more difficult course. The entries and their official time was as follows: Tom Walling, 16:10; Johnnie Sattler, 16:20; George Russell, 18:50; W. M. Hall, 18:35.

Floyd Kubney, who has for the past few months been employed at Butte, Montana, is in the city visiting with relatives and friends.

A Very Successful Plan.

The results that have been secured by parties carrying the registered key rings of the store of C. E. Wescott's Sons of this city is most gratifying to the parties who have lost their keys at different times in the past few months. Yesterday the fourth bunch of keys to be lost was received from Union, which place they were found by Hon. W. B. Banning a few days ago, and looking up the register number it was found they were the property of T. H. Pollock of this city, who had lost them while out on an automobile trip. The firm keeps a register of the number of each key-ring and tag and by this can locate the owner in a few minutes.

WOODMAN CIRCLE EN- JOY A FINE MEETING LAST EVENING

From Wednesday's Daily.

The Woodman Circle last evening held a very pleasant session at the A. O. U. W. hall, that was enjoyed to the utmost by a large number of the members of the order present. The new candidates, secured through the splendid efforts of Deputy Mrs. Joseph Droegge, and the members of the lodge, were taken through the mysteries of the order by the crack drill team of the lodge, and will thoroughly appreciate the value of woodcraft in the future. The consistent and steady growth of the local lodge reflects great credit upon the efforts that all the membership has put forth in building up the lodge, and in this they have been most fortunate in having the assistance of a trustful deputy, in Mrs. Joseph Droegge of this city, who is untiring in her efforts for the betterment of the order. After the close of the regular session of the lodge refreshments were served and a very pleasant time enjoyed by the large crowd present.

OTTO LUSHINKY AND MISS LIZZIE VAN FLEET MARRIED IN COUNCIL BLUFFS

From Wednesday's Daily.

This morning in Council Bluffs occurred the marriage of two Plattsmouth young people, Mr. Otto Lushinsky and Miss Lizzie VanFleet. The wedding was a very quiet one and the young people stole a march on their friends by boarding No. 4 this morning, and going to Pacific Junction, where they caught the train for Council Bluffs. It has been thought for some time that Dan Cupid had ensnared these two young people, and their friends will not be greatly surprised to learn of their marriage and will join in wishing them a happy married life free from care and trouble. They will make their home in this city, where they have grown to manhood and womanhood and where their friends are legion. They expect to return home this evening on No. 14 over the Burlington.

Mrs. Pollard Very Ill.

Word comes from Nehawka that Mrs. Isaac Pollard, who has been ill for some time, is sinking rapidly. Her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Hilborn, of this city, returned to Lincoln from her mother's bedside a week ago but was soon called back. The other daughters, Mrs. H. Willis and Mrs. Lottie Shotwell, both of Seattle, were expected to reach Nehawka last evening.—State Journal.

Ralph Duff of Nebraska City was here today for a few hours looking after some matters of business. Mr. Duff is interested in the perfecting of his new carborator and is meeting with marked success in this line.

DEATH OF AN- OTHER CASS COUN- TY PIONEER LADY

Mrs. Isaac Pollard Passes Away at Her Home in Nehawka, After Lingered Illness.

Another of the pioneer women, who in the early days of Cass county assisted nobly in moulding out the destinies of the then sparsely settled portion of the state, has been called away from her family and friends to her eternal reward, as this morning at 5 o'clock, at her home in Nehawka, Mrs. Isaac Pollard, one of the noble and grand women of the county, passed away. Mrs. Pollard had been quite sick for some months past, having been suffering from a complication of diseases that made her recovery almost impossible, and her sorrowing family has been constantly at her bedside ministering to her wants, knowing that her recovery was almost despairing.

Mrs. Pollard had resided in Cass county since the early sixties, coming here shortly after her marriage in Windsor county, Vermont, on March 11, 1861, to Isaac Pollard, then a young man just coming into prominence in Cass county, and she accompanied her husband west to the new home he had prepared for her there. Since that time this worthy couple have saw their estate grow until great acres of the finest land of the county bears the Pollard name, and here, in the beauty of the country home Mr. and Mrs. Pollard reared their family and this grand good woman, now called away, leaves behind her as a lesson to her children and friends a beautiful, useful life, whose example will long serve to guide the steps of others in their daily walks of life.

Five children are left, with the aged husband and father, to mourn the passing of Mrs. Pollard, as follows: Mrs. H. Willis and Mrs. Lottie Shotwell of Seattle, Washington; Mrs. H. A. Hilborn of Lincoln; ex-Congressman Ernest M. Pollard and Raymond Pollard of Nehawka.

At the time of going to press the hour and date for the funeral had not been fixed upon.

BLACK KATS BATTLE WITH THE RED SOX SUNDAY AFTERNOON

One of the most successful of the amateur base ball teams in Omaha, this season has been the Black Kats, and this speedy organization has been secured as the attraction for Sunday next at the Red Sox park, when they will attempt to grab one from the locals to add to their list of victories. The Black Kats have the reputation of being good, clean-cut ball players, and their appearance here is certain to attract a large number of the fans. With the showing that the Red Sox have made against the strong teams from the metropolis they have an even break on the chances of winning with any of the visiting teams and will be able to give a good account of themselves. At first it was thought that one of the teams from the Cass County league might be secured for Sunday, but a majority of the fans seemed to favor the Omaha ball tossers.

George Everett and daughter, Miss Vivian, of near Union, drove up this morning from their home to look after some business matters here for the day. Miss Everett is attending the teachers' examination at the office of the county superintendent.

Rainfall in County Good.

Reports from the southern and central parts of the county this morning indicate that a general heavy rain was received in these localities. At Louisville and clear into Eight Mile Grove precinct quite a heavy rain fell. South of here, near Nehawka and Avoca, the downpour was quite extensive, but as the rain traveled north it grew lighter until in this city the ground was just dampened by the rainfall. The moisture, however slight, was very welcome.

REPRESENTATIVE OF AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT AFTER HESSIAN FLY

From Wednesday's Daily.

W. M. Pennington of Washington, D. C., representing the agricultural department of the United States government, was in the city yesterday to look after the spread of the Hessian fly, a pest that has been destroying quite a good deal of the crops in localities of the wheat belt of the west. The Hessian fly this year has been somewhat checked by the dry weather of the past two months, but still has done considerable damage in small localities. Mr. Pennington made a trip to the vicinity of Murray yesterday to investigate the situation there in regard to the Hessian fly.

SYNOPSIS OF THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM ADOPTED AT COLUMBUS

Resolutions passed by the democratic state convention said in brief:

"The democratic party has reached its highest service under the leadership of President Wilson and William J. Bryan, secretary of state.

"The new currency law is the greatest example of constructive financial legislation ever enacted by our government.

"Senator Hitchcock has reflected luster upon our state and has distinguished himself as one of the leading members of the United States senate.

"Congressmen Lobeck, Stephens and Maguire have our congratulations and appreciation of their fidelity.

"The able business administration of Governor Morehead and wisdom displayed by our democratic legislators meet our approval and warrants us in appealing to the voters of Nebraska for continued confidence.

"We pledge the enactment of a public warehouse law, legislative reforms, judicial reforms, non-partisan school superintendency and new workmen's compensation law if the old is rejected this fall by the voters.

"Promise aid to flood water activity in state and to use of waste water in irrigation projects in western Nebraska.

"Indorsed the three constitutional amendments to be voted upon this fall, the taxation reform measure, the jury reform and the raise in salaries for state officials."

Son Born at Lincoln.

The friends in this city of the Pepperberg family, who were residents of Plattsmouth for a great many years, will be pleased to learn that a fine new son and heir made his appearance Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. Pepperberg, 2035 South 18th street, Lincoln. The little stranger will be warmly welcome by the proud parents, as well as the grandfather, J. Pepperberg.

George F. Smith of Cheyenne, Wyoming, who has been here for a short visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Smith, returned yesterday to his home in the west.

WAR IN CASS COUNTY BASE BALL LEAGUE

Manley and Cedar Creek Teams Get into a Battle Royal Sunday at Cedar Creek.

The Cass County league, that for the first few weeks of the base ball season seemed to flourish and looked like a sure winner, is about to be numbered among the things that were, as the result of the disorder and "rough house" methods that has prevailed among the different teams of the league.

Two weeks ago Sunday the Cedar Creek and Manley teams came together at Manley in a game and at the close of it, so the members of the team claim, Rockwell, a member of the Manley team, attacked John Wolff, one of the Cedar Creek team, hitting him several times. Wolff, so it is claimed, warned the Manley lad not to come over to Cedar Creek, as he would surely get in bad with the good people, and also with a man named Wolff. The Manley team, however, did not heed the warning, and Sunday moved into Cedar Creek, Rockwell accompanying the team. All went well until after the game, which Cedar Creek won by a score of 7 to 6, and as the Manley team started to leave the grounds, the dogs of war became released, and for a few minutes the Austria-Serbian trouble appeared small compared with that which prevailed among these usually peaceful Cass county citizens. Wolff, so it is alleged in a warrant secured this morning from Judge Archer by Leo Tighe and William Rockwell, proceeded to place the left "lamp" of Rockwell out of business by several well placed blows, and the appearance of the young man here today bore out his contention. Tighe was put down and out by receiving what he claims was a blow on the back of the neck from a base ball bat in the hands of some of the Cedar Creek bunch.

The warrants issued by Judge Archer were served on Messrs. Wolff and William Schneider, who were named as defendants by the Manley boys, and they appeared in court this afternoon to answer to the charges against them, but on account of the absence of their attorney from the city were compelled to take a continuance.

The case will be set for tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. It is likely that the trial will prove most interesting, as the defendants will probably fight the case.

CEDAR CREEK BALL CASE IS CONTINUED TO MONDAY, AUGUST 3

The case covering the fight that occurred at Cedar Creek Sunday afternoon, following a game of base ball between Cedar Creek and Manley, and in which several members of the different teams were involved, was supposed to have had an airing this morning before Justice Archer, but it was impossible for all the parties interested to reach her and the case was continued until Monday morning, August 3, at 10 o'clock. It is quite probable that there will be a large number from both towns in attendance at the hearing of the case. John Wolff and Claude Rand are charged with assault and battery on one Floyd Rockwell, and Walter Schneider with assault and battery on the person of Leo Tighe. There was quite a number to hear the case this morning, who were disappointed at its being continued.
