DAVE AMICK RETURNS FROM A TRIP DOWN THROUGH ARANSAS

From Saturday's Daily.

Last evening Dave Amick returned home from a trip into southeastern Arkansas, where he has extensive land interests, and he returns filled with delight at the conditions he found in that state. Amick's boy, Thede, has a large farm near Monticello, Arkansas, near that of his father, and is looking after the management of both of the places, and the result of his efforts will be a large crop of cotton, although the season there has been rather dry, but as Mr. Amick described it, "If it's dry they will have cotton and if the usual rainfall is secured there will be more cotton." The conditions there are strange to a man from the north, as the handling of the cotton crop is vastly different from the methods of farming used in Nebraska and the corn and wheat producing states. In that state the farmers from the north who have moved there find that the ideal crop is cotton, as the soil and conditions are peculiarly adopted to the raising of this crop and almost all the farms are devoted to this crop to the exclusion of others. Thede Amick will, as his father states, have a yield of at least one bale of cotton to the acre, and this will net from $50 to $60, while the cotton seed can be used in the making of stock food that will bring a good price in the northern markets. In Arkansas the labor on the plantations is performed almost exclusively by the negroes, as they seem to be the only persons fitted to handle the job of caring for and picking the cotton. The wages paid to the colored help in that state are very reasonable and it is an easy matter to secure all that is needed.

MRS. ANNA DOTY IS GRANTED LICENSE TO OPERATE A FERRY BOAT

At the recent meeting of the county commissioners the application of Mrs. Anna Doty for permission to operate a ferry over the Missouri river just below the Burlington bridge was passed upon and the application granted for a period of five years upon the payment of the license fee of $3 per year and furnishing a bond in the sum of $100. Mrs. Doty is the owner of the ferry at present and this is merely a renewal of the license to operate the concern. The ferry here is a good paying proposition, as the heavy increase in the use of automobiles has made it greatly in demand by parties going to and from this state into Iowa and from that state over here. John Richardson has the direct management of the ferry and looks after it in excellent shape.

Happy Over a New Son.

The news has been received her of the arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Reynolds of a fine bouncing nine-pound boy baby. The little man is doing nicely, as is the mother also, while Ed is considerably proud over the addition to the family. It is needless to say that "Grandpa" B. J. Reynolds is delighted over the new arrival, as it is the first grandchild and is therefore the object of much admiration. Both Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds are former residents of this city and their friends will heartily rejoice in their new happiness.

Nelson Jean and brother, Will Jean, were in South Omaha today, where they were attending a horse sale being held on the market there.

HORNETS CAUSE A SEVERE ACCIDENT TO WILL TAMS WHILE AT WORK

Will Tams, who was engaged in some carpenter work on the residence of Charles Miller in this city, met with quite a painful accident yesterday afternoon that will lay him up for a short time. He was working on a scaffold some twelve feet from the ground in a place on the house where a hornets' nest had been dislodged a short time before, and the aforesaid hornets suddenly returned to their former abode to discover the cause of their being deprived of their nest and began to hum dangerously near to Will, who stepped backward, and in doing so fell from the scaffold alighting with considerable force on the ground and bruising himself quite badly. He hastened to the office of a physician to have the injuries examined. A very severe bruise or contusion was found on the right arm and wrist, but it was impossible to find any sign of a fracture and it is thought that the patient will be all right in a few days. He will, however, enjoy a layoff from his duties for a time.

MRS. M. D. MARQUARDT OF AVOCA DIES FROM BURNS SHE RECEIVED

From Saturday's Daily.

A message was received in the city this morning from Avoca announcing the sad news of the death of Mrs. M. D. Marquardt of that place at 8 o'clock last evening as a result of the burns received by her Wednesday afternoon in attempting to light a gasoline stove. At the time it was feared that the injuries might prove fatal, but all that was possible was done without avail and she steadily grew worse until her death.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from her home in Avoca, and the interment will be made in the cemetery there. She was well known throughout the southern portion of the county and her death will come as a bitter shock to her many friends.

SUPERVISORS OF MILLS COUNTY, IOWA, VISIT OUR POOR FARM

The splendid results of the management of the county poor farm, as well as the excellent buildings maintained there, has attracted a great deal of attention throughout the state, and all authorities concede that the Cass county farm is one of the best maintained as well as managed of any in this section of the country. The county supervisors of Mills county, Iowa, were here Wednesday to look over the farm and were well pleased with the way things looked there. The Mills county farm suffered the loss on Tuesday of the building used as a residence by the inmates, as it was burned to the ground, and their visit was to look over the building recently erected by the commissioners of this county. the visitors were delighted with the results secured at such a small outlay of money in the building put up by the county and were loud in their praise of the commissioners for their able management that secured for the good people such results. On looking over the management of the farm the Iowa gentlemen were still greater surprised to learn that the Cass county farm was self-supporting and under the management of Superintendent Tams a fine profit is accumulated each year. The Iowa supervisors will in all likelihood model their new farm building along the lines of the one in this city, as it is the most convenient and teh cheapest that it is possible to secure.

To Meet in Pacific Junction.

The committee of arrangements of the famous Wiles Family Reunion was in Pacific Junction on Wednesday, having in view to secure the city park for this year's reunion. The reunion is usually held the last Thursday in August. This family's annual gathering has become a well known affair, both in Cass county, Nebraska, and Mills county.—Glenwood Tribune.

THE MISSOURI PACIFIC'S UNGRATEFULLNESS TO RESIDENTS OF COUNTY

The residents of the county who live on the branch of the Missouri Pacific running from Avoca to Louisville are expressing themselves in no mild terms concerning the recent change in time on that line that makes it almost impossible for them to reach Plattsmouth and return without making a stopover either here or in Louisville. Under the new schedule the Missouri Pacific train from the south arrives in Louisville at 9:10 in the morning at the very minute when the Burlington train for Plattsmouth is scheduled to leave. The afternoon train from Omaha has been arranged so as to leave Louisville at 3:57 in the afternoon while the Schuyler train of the Burlington does not arrive until 4:10, too late to allow passengers from Plattsmouth to make the connections. The Burlington in their dealings with the people have been very fair and have shown a disposition to try and accommodate as far as possible the traveling public but the Missouri Pacific certainly does not propose to give the slightest improvement in their service to Plattsmouth and return, and on the contrary have arranged their schedules with the result that makes it almost impossible for anyone in the central part of the county to come here without taking almost as much time as it takes to reach Chicago. The matter is one that the state railway commission should take up in justice to the residents of the entire county.

THE C. R. S. GIRLS ENTERTAIN FOR MISS MYRA STENNER

From Saturday's Daily.

Last evening at the handsome home of Misses Coenna and Bess Handley the C. R. S. Girls' club entertained in a most charming manner in honor of Miss Myra Stenner, who is soon to leave for Lincoln to make her future home. There were in addition to the jolly crowd of young ladies a number of the young men who were schoolmates of Miss Stenner present to make the evening one of the rarest enjoyment. The evening was spent delightfully in games and music until a suitable hour, when delicious light refreshments were served that added greatly to the pleasure of the occasion. Those taking part in the pleasant affair were: Misses Myra Stenner, Vera and Margaret Moore, Ola and Mina Kaffenberger, Gladys McMaken, Lydia Todd, Sophia Hild, Della Frans, Florence Egenberger, Mildred and Lenora Snyder, Anna Hiber, Messrs. Arthur White, Harley Wiles, Leon Stenner, Edward Rebal, Emil Hild, Clifford Cecil, George Snyder, Chester Tuey, Philip Campbell, Ray McMaken, James Connors and Paul Handley.

Returns Home From Hospital.

From Saturday's Daily.

This afternoon William Plattgaster, who has been at the Immanuel hospital in Omaha for the past five weeks, was enabled to return home, feeling greatly improved in health over his former condition. Mr. Platgaster was compelled to undergo two operations at the hospital, one for appendicitis and one for a tumor, and his friends will be pleased to learn that he has recovered so nicely. He was a member of the Sons of Herman, which order looked after his interests while he was in the hospital.

E. P. Stewart and wife and little daughter, Frances, were among the passengers this morning for Omaha, where the little girl will meet her aunt and go to Hamburg, Iowa, for a short visit.
