FUNERAL OF GARNET

HARTLEY, THE MAN KILLED BY FALL INTO A WELL

The funeral of Garnet Hartley, the gentleman who was killed by falling into a well on the William Nickels farm, near Murray, Saturday morning, was held Sunday afternoon from the undertaking rooms of Straight & Streight in this city. The state of the injuries of the gentleman made the necessity of holding the funeral at once, as it was impossible to preserve it longer. The funeral was attended by a number of the close friends of the gentleman who, by their presence, attested their deep feeling of regret at the tragic death which had taken him from them. At the grave a short burial service was held by Elder Alstrand of Omaha of the Latter Day Saints' church, after which the body was consigned to its last resting place in Oak Hill cemetery. The family of the gentleman were unable to attend the funeral, as they reside in West Virginia, and the journey could not be made in time to be present. The death of Mr. Hartley came as a great shock to everyone in the city and especially to those who knew him best, as he was a man whom everyone that knew him esteemed very highly.

TWO VALUABLE FARMS IN CASS COUNTY SELL FOR $64,000.00

From Wednesday's Daily.

Yesterday afternoon one of the largest land deals that has been consummated in this city for some time was closed by T. H. Pollock, the real estate man of this city, when he conducted the negotiations that resulted in the sale of the fine 200-acre farm of Henry C. Long, a mile and a half west of Murray, to Ralph M. Wiles for the sum of $30,500. This farm is one of the finest in that section of the county and is well improved in every way.

Glen S. Wiles also secured a fine farm, having purchased the farm of Ralph M. Wiles, two miles southwest of this city, for $33,000. The farm of Mr. Wiles consists of 240 acres and is finely improved. In making these deals there was some $64,000 involved, and Mr. Pollock naturally feels well pleased over the success of the sales, and both the sellers and purchasers of the farms feel that they have been treated most fairly in every way.

All those interested in the Wm. Young cemetery are requested to meet at the cemetery on Tuesday morning, September 1, for the purpose of clearing off the grass, straightening up tombstones and beautifying the grounds. Please bring your dinners and come prepared to stay all day. By order of the president, S. G. Latta.

COMEDY COMPANY THAT SURELY

FILLS THE BILL

Every Member an Artist, Giving Nightly Performances That Are Worthy of Patronage.

The Moore-Eddings Stock company last evening more than pleased the large audience with their production of the beautiful story of Mary J. Holmes, "Leona Rivers," and the manner in which the different characters were carried out reflected great credit upon the members of the stock company, who are as good as any that have yet appeared in this city, and despite the fact that they are showing in the open air, gave fine expression to their acting. This is always a very pleasing play, and in the hands of the clever ladies and gentlemen composing the stock company was most interesting from start to finish. The extremely cool weather of the past few days has had a tendency to keep many from attending the Air Dome, but those who have not seen the stock company should make it a point to attend before the engagement is terminated here. On Friday evening they will produce their feature play, "St. Elmo," one of the well known American dramas that has thrilled millions of American theatergoers. The vaudeville numbers given between acts last evening at the show were all first-class and the best that has been given so far and the members of the company contributing to this part of the evening's entertainment are to be congratulated on their cleverness. The company will remain here for the balance of the week.
