

FORMAL OPENING OF THE PARMELE SEASON

By the Appearance of One of the Most Clever Musical Comedy Companies Ever in Town.

The formal opening of the Parmele theater for the season of 1914-15 last evening was attended by a fair sized crowd considering the storm that raged for some time previous to the performance. The company secured for the opening was one of the cleverest that has appeared here for some time and with their offering "Princess Roulette" made a big hit with the lovers of musical comedy. The company is headed by Milton Schuster, an exceptionally clever Hebrew comedian and the very appearance of the actor on the stage was the signal for a roar of laughter and his line of comedy was throughout exceptionally good. The chorus of the show is well balanced with some twelve or fifteen lively and sweet voiced singers who add materially in making the show most attractive. Take it through-out the production was very entertaining and well balanced. The musical program embraced a number of the popular musical hits of the past season and both by the principals and choruses and there was not a flaw in the show in any way although the company were up against hard luck both in the storm and the attendant disarrangement of the electric light service which caused a delay in the starting of the production. This evening the same company will present the clever musical treat, "The Girl from Brighton," which is claimed is even more tuneful and pleasing than the one given last evening and is a sure cure for the blues or a case of croup. Mr. Schuster is certainly a treat to enjoy and is one of the most clever comedians that has ever appeared here and his acting stamps him as one of the leaders in the burlesque comedy world today. The show should have a big house both at the performance this evening and on Saturday when they return to again present one of their musical offerings for the inspection of the Plattsburgh theatre-going public.

Keeps Your Liver Healthily Active

A man in Kentucky just told a friend that Foley's Cathartic Tablets were the most wonderful medicine that had ever entered his system. Said he would not be without them. Neither would you, if you had ever tried them. A thoroughly cleansing cathartic for chronic constipation or for an occasional purge. For sale by all druggists.

STOREHOUSE FEMALE EMPLOYEES ENTERTAIN MISS TUEY IN A FAREWELL

From Tuesday's Daily. Last Saturday evening the young ladies employed in the office of Storekeeper E. C. Hill at the Burlington shops, gave a most delightful farewell picnic party in honor of Miss Zelma Tuey whose marriage to Mr. J. W. Jennings occurs tomorrow evening at the M. E. church. The young ladies repaired to the river as the golden sun was sinking to its rest and under the towering bluffs of the river bank prepared a most delicious repast with prime broiled steaks and hot coffee that was thoroughly enjoyed by every one who was present. As a remembrance of the many happy hours they had all spent together, Miss Tuey presented with a large portrait of the group of ladies who had spent so many days together in the storehouse office and it is needless to say that this will be preserved during the years to come with the fondest memories by the recipient of the gift.

Henry Snoko in the City.

From Tuesday's Daily. This morning Henry Snoko, democratic candidate for the office of county commissioner from the third district came in from his home at Eagle to look after some matters in the probate court and incidentally to visit with his many friends here in the city whom he has not seen since the primary election. Mr. Snoko is a genial and pleasant gentleman and is fast making many friends wherever he goes. If elected as commissioner he can be depended upon to give the people a thoroughly business administration of the office.

MR. AND MRS. W. G. BROOKS ENTERTAIN IN HONOR OF BRIDE-TO-BE

From Tuesday's Daily. Last evening the handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Brooks was the scene of a very pleasant gathering when they entertained the members of the Methodist choir in honor of Miss Zelma Tuey, one of their most faithful members and who is soon to leave this city to make her home. There were twenty-five persons present at the event and all had one of the most pleasant times in their lives although the occasion was tinged with sadness with the thoughts of the parting with their friend and associate. One of the entertaining features of the evening was the reading of a story of the experiences of a young couple on their wedding trip which included being laid up by their train getting stalled in the snow and at this part of the story all the guests were invited out on the porch where a most tempting luncheon had been prepared for them, and to the delicious repast all did ample justice. A guessing game with the flags of the different nations as the subject proved a very pleasant feature of the evening and as the most clever in naming the flags, A. A. Barnett was awarded the prize, a handsome book. Music was furnished during the evening by the victrola. It was a late hour when the party departed for their homes wishing Miss Tuey and Mr. Jennings many years of happiness in their wedded life.

Citrolax.

Users say that it is the ideal, perfect laxative drink. M. J. Perkins, Green Bay, Wis., says: "I have used pills, oils, salts, etc., but were all disagreeable and unsatisfactory. In Citrolax I have found the ideal laxative drink." For sick headache, sour stomach, lazy liver, congested bowels, Citrolax is ideal. For sale by all druggists.

Notice to Rural Route Patrons.

It has for some time been the custom of many patrons of the rural mail routes running out of Plattsburgh to place their letters or mail matter in their boxes without stamps, in the place of which placing in the box the required amount of pennies or coin to pay the postage. This is a violation of the postal rules and regulations, which plainly states that all mail matter placed in the boxes must have the required amount of stamps thereon. While we, the undersigned carriers on the routes leading out of Plattsburgh are more than anxious to do everything in our power to accommodate and please the patrons along our routes, we must insist upon the cessation of the penny postage business as it takes up a great deal of our time and is entirely too much trouble for the time it saves our patrons. After two weeks notice to this effect, allowing all patrons to provide themselves with postage, we will leave all money and mail in the boxes. We can provide you with stamps in any quantity at all times.

THE DISTRICT COURT IN SESSION FOR SHORT TIME ON WEDNESDAY

The district court enjoyed a short session yesterday as Judge Begley came down from Papillion to dispose of several matters that demanded his attention. In the case of the Manley Co-Operative Grain Co. vs The Missouri Pacific Railroad company, a motion for a new trial by plaintiff was submitted without argument to the court and the defendant given forty days to prepare bill of exceptions. In the case of Matthew Gering vs C. Lawrence Stull, plaintiff was given leave to file petition in case and defendant given thirty days to file answer to present to court. In the matter of Maud Fuller vs Alfred D. Jones, a suit to quiet title a hearing was had to the court and finding was for the plaintiff awarding quieting title to the real estate as prayed for in the petition of the plaintiff.

FRED WARREN GOES TO COLORADO FOR THE BENEFIT OF HIS HEALTH

The friends here in this city of Fred Warren, who is at present located in Omaha but who was born and reared here in this city will be greatly grieved to learn that this gentleman is suffering from quite a serious sickness from a cold secured during the recent primary campaign. Mr. Warren was the Socialist candidate for congress in the Fourth district and during the campaign made a large number of speeches in the night air and as a result received a very severe cold that settled on his lungs and upon the advice of physicians will be sent to Colorado where it is hoped that the climate will benefit his health. It is to be hoped that Mr. Warren will be speedily restored to his former state of health and be able to resume his duties in this state.

Cost Kept Down—Quality Kept Up

No better medicine could be made for coughs, colds, croup, hoarseness, tickling throat, bronchitis, etc., than Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. That's why they can't improve the quality and war or no war, the price remains the same. No opiates. Don't take substitutes, for Foley's Honey and Tar is the best. For sale by all druggists.

William Starkjohn and Fred Baumgard were passengers this morning on the early Burlington train for Lincoln where they go to take treatment in the sanitarium for rheumatism from which they have been suffering for some time.

Harris Cook was a passenger this morning for Omaha where he spent a few hours looking after some matters of business in that city.

H. H. Sinclair, superintendent of the water company, was among the passengers this afternoon for Omaha where he was called to look after some matters of business.

The Curse of Modern Times.

It may be said that constipation with its complications is the curse of modern times in all parts of the world. It is especially the city people that is suffering from it on account of its sedentary habits. There are, in fact, only few families with all their members exempt. They use different remedies for relief, but often create a pernicious habit. We advise them to use Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine, which has good results and the dose of which need not be steadily increased. It is very good in many diseases of the stomach, the liver and the bowels. Use it in loss of appetite, in distress after meals, in sleeplessness, in constipation and its sequelae, in nervousness. At drugstores, Jos. Triner, Manufacturer, 1333-1339 S. Ashland ave., Chicago, Illinois. Pains in the muscles and joints will quickly yield to Triner's Liment. Price 50c; by mail 60c.

Pays a Short Visit Here.

From Wednesday's Daily. Carl Ebinger came in yesterday afternoon from Plainview, Nebraska, and paid a short visit here at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Emma Weidman and family, departed last night on the midnight Missouri Pacific train for Kansas City where he was called on some business matters. He reports that no word has been received from his father, Fred Ebinger, who was paying a visit to his old home in Germany, since the war opened up there, and it is thought that he may be compelled to remain there until conditions become settled one way or the other.

WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS ENTERTAINED AT HOME OF MRS. F. G. EGENBERGER

From Wednesday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon the ladies of the Woman's Relief Corps were entertained in a most charming manner at the beautiful home of Mrs. Fred G. Egenberger on Pearl street at which time some forty-five of the ladies of the society were present to enjoy the delightful hospitality afforded them. The ladies came prepared to enjoy a pleasant afternoon and their hopes were fully realized in the delightful program which was given during the course of the afternoon. Two very pleasing readings were given by Mesdames William Baird and A. J. Beeson which proved to be most delightful and thoroughly enjoyed. Miss McGregor, who is visiting in the city from Sargent, Nebraska, afforded a rare treat to the ladies in two very pleasing piano numbers that were among the most thoroughly appreciated features of the program.

The ladies spent some time in the making of dainty needlework articles until a suitable hour when they were served with a most delicious two-course luncheon that served to add further to the pleasures of the jolly gathering. The threatening weather caused several to have to leave before the delightful entertainment was over but the event was one that will long be pleasantly remembered by all who were present. The presence of Mrs. J. E. McDaniel and Mrs. Val Burke who have just returned from a two months visit in the west was also a great pleasure to the ladies of the corps as their absence has been keenly felt in the social gatherings of the order. Mrs. Jennie Palmer of Tacoma, Washington, who is here visiting her sisters, Mrs. Thomas Wiles and Mrs. H. C. Van Horn, was a guest of honor at the gathering.

FORMER CASS COUNTY LADY PASSES AWAY AT NORFOLK, NEBRASKA

Mrs. Amelia Hagel died at her home at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon from gall stone trouble. Rev. E. F. Hammond of Gibbon, Neb., formerly a pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city, will conduct the funeral services at 2:30 Saturday afternoon. Interment will be made in Prospect Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Hagel was well known in and around Norfolk. She was born in Waterloo, Wis., fifty-two years ago. Her husband died five years ago. The surviving children are: Edward Hagel of Osmond; Mrs. Laura Tritsch of Louisville, Neb.; Robert, Grover and Ida Hagel of Norfolk.—Norfolk News.

Mrs. Hagel was a former resident of Cass county where the family resided for a number of years and the many friends of the family throughout the county will learn with the greatest regret of the death of this estimable lady who was so long a familiar and well loved figure in the large circle of friends and to the bereaved family their heartfelt sympathy will be extended. Mrs. J. W. Tritsch, the daughter returned home yesterday from Norfolk where she was attending the funeral. Mrs. Hagel was a sister of Mrs. John Ficht and Mrs. Fred Wetherbein of this city, both of whom were in attendance at the funeral services.

The Cow and the Moon. A one dollar musical comedy for 50c, at the Parmele theatre Saturday, September 5th.

"THE COW AND THE MOON" NEXT SATURDAY NIGHT

The Parmele Theatre Should Be Filled to Overflowing to Witness This Production.

"The Cow and the Moon," which Mr. Chas. A. Sellon offers for public approval at the Parmele theatre next Saturday night, a companion play to "The Cat and the Fiddle," is truly a quick course in geography as well as offering still more evidence of this clever producer's ability in producing the best of laughable extravaganzas. It begins its extravagant story at prosaic Notmeh-Ville, Indiana, where dwells the heroine, Miss Innocence, in complete and happy ignorance of aught but sister beings.

There she leads a simple humdrum life in a ladies' seminary, little reckoning the kaleidoscopic fate soon to befall her. Here enter most of the actors in the story, about 26 by count, and from the chaos resulting from the sudden meeting of so many and divergent characters at one time, an abduction of the aforesaid beautiful maiden occurs which is executed solely by Great Domo, on whom is cast the onus of doing the heavy work through the whole of this laughable concatenation. Proceeding thence across the continent to Francisco and from there to Japan, the audience receives new surprises, each moment as to the possibilities of intelligent stagecraft, until the climax occurs, and they are completely lifted off their feet by a trip to the Moon in a flying machine. There, those who have retained command of their faculties and have allowed none of the hundred tricks, incidental to this whirlwind of action, color and song, to affect their grasp of the real logic of events are treated to their presupposed idea of a happy ending of all the trouble. Miss Innocence is rescued from Great Domo's naughty grasp; all are wed who show the slightest inclination for conjugal felicity; the Cow jumps the Moon, while Happy and the Good Genii, Hans and Mike, together with a tremendous well trained chorus, unite in songs of thanksgiving that all their efforts have not been in vain and that everything has ended happily for all concerned. Remember, at the Parmele Saturday night, September 5.

CASE OF JOHN F. WEHRBEIN AGAINST FRED HERZ AND ORVILLE KURTZ

The case of John F. Wehrbein vs Fred Herz and Orville Kintz, came up for hearing yesterday afternoon in the court of Judge Allen J. Beeson and intense interest was shown in the hearing of the cause by the friends of both the plaintiff and the defendants and it was impossible to force a way into the court room so crowded was the capacity of the room. This is the case in which the plaintiff sues to recover $1,000 for the loss of his garage, automobile and other articles by fire last spring when the garage was burned through the effects of some gasoline catching fire from the lantern carried by the defendant Herz in securing some gasoline from the car of Mr. Wehrbein. Herz and Kintz ran out of gasoline for their auto near the Wehrbein home and Herz went to the house to secure some and they claim were told by Mrs. Wehrbein to go to the garage and secure it and were given the lantern to see with. The case was continued until tomorrow morning when it will again be resumed.
