Mrs. Lule Renard, who has been quite ill for the past few days, is improving.

Rev. Hutchman returned last week and was in the pulpit at the U. P. church Sunday.

Mark White went to Nebraska City Tuesday, where he purchased some grass seed for his farm.

One week from Sunday is Rally Day at the Christian church. Come and bring some one with you.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Roy Glue, on September 7th, a nine pound baby girl. All doing nicely.

Mrs. James Russell, who was so seriously ill for the past few weeks, is some better at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sporer have returned from their trip to Denver, and other western points. They report a very pleasant trip which was greatly enjoyed by both.

Dr. B. E. Brendel is expected home from the east next Monday. Mrs. Parr, Mrs. Brendel's mother will accompany him home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Brandel departed Wednesday morning for Zionsville, Indiana, for a three weeks' visit with relatives and friends.

A. L. Baker, of the hustling firm of Baker & Nickels, was taking in the State Fair for the past four days, looking after the many points of interest.

The high wind of Monday caused some fear in this section of Cass county. Near the Missouri Pacific several large trees were blown down.

By subscription of a few of the energetic citizens the new school house will be piped for lighting. This is a good movement if lights should ever be wanted at the school house, the pipes will be in readiness.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holmes, accompanied by Miss Margie Walker, left for Dallas City, Ill., Monday morning, where Jim has been having his Berg car overhauled and painted. The party of three will drive through from Dallas City with the car.

R. R. Nickels, who returned home from Savannah, Mo., a few days ago, where he underwent the second treatment for cancer of the hip and neck, is getting along nicely, and his many friends here hope that he will continue to improve.

John Hobscheidt and wife were Plattsburgh visitors Sunday. Tony Klemm was taking in the sights at Lincoln Wednesday.

R. R. Nickels made a trip to Savannah, Mo., Tuesday evening.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Tigner has been on the sick list for the past few days.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to all friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the illness and death of our dear mother, also for the beautiful floral offerings.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sterner, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Enburg, Gerda Peterson, Alpha Peterson.

In Search of Curios.

Prof. Stearns who is camped at Mr. Walker's grove, is doing some very extensive work along the Missouri river in solving the riddle of the first inhabitants of this county, with several large burial mounds, many house sites, and two buried villages to work in. Many interesting points in the mode of living can be arrived at by their pottery, flint and bone implements. In his opinion the county is the richest in the state for archeological research. He will spend several weeks in this part of the country.

FUNERAL OF MRS. J. A. ROOT AT MURRAY

The Community Mourns the Departure of One of Its Most Estimable Ladies.

The funeral of the late Mrs. J. A. Root was held Saturday morning at Murray from the home of the parents of the deceased lady, Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Kennedy, and was attended by a very large number of the sorrowing friends of this beloved young lady whose untimely death a few days before had cast such a shadow of gloom over the community where she had been almost a life long resident. The services were conducted by Rev. A. C. Douglass of Omaha, a minister of the Presbyterian church of which Mrs. Root had been a devoted member during her lifetime. The sermon was one that paid a high tribute to the worth of the lady who had been taken from the midst of her family and friends, while yet the bloom of youth was on her cheek. A choir composed of a number of the ladies from the Presbyterian and Christian churches of Murray rendered a number of the well loved old hymns during service that assisted in bringing comfort to the aching hearts of the husband and parents of the departed lady. The wealth of flowers laid on the bier attested in a language more eloquent than words the esteem and love in which Mrs. Root had been held by a large circle of friends. The interment was made in the D. A. Young cemetery north of Murray.

Agnes Kennedy was born at Plattsburgh, April 26, 1881, and resided here with her parents until their removal to Murray, where the family has since made their home. Miss Kennedy was for twelve years one of the most valued members of the teaching force of the county and for the last two years was a member of the teaching force of the Plattsburgh city school. She was married at Omaha, Neb., on April 20, 1914, to Mr. J. A. Root, with whom she had been reared and their friendship culminated in the marriage that proved most happy only to be terminated by the death of the wife on September 2, 1914, at the Methodist hospital in Omaha, where she was sent for treatment for a breakdown that was caused from her arduous school work. She leaves besides the husband, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Kennedy and two brothers, Chas. and Ralph Kennedy to mourn her death.

Card of Thanks.

We are taking this method of returning our heartfelt thanks to the many kind friends and neighbors, who were so thoughtful and kind during the illness of our beloved wife, daughter and sister, and whose sympathy at our hour of bereavement assisted us so much in bearing our grief.

Mr. J. A. Root, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Kennedy and family.

Notice.
