A. S. WILL RETURNS HOME FROM A TRIP TO OLD MEXICO

Last evening A. S. Will returned home from a trip of several weeks into Mexico where he looked after his business interests there. Mr. Will was in the state of Senora principally and found that the wars of the past few years in which this state has been in the hotbed, has had a most depressing effect upon the business of the country, as there is always an uncertainty as to what the next move will be among the inhabitants of the country and until a stable government is established there, this condition will continue to exist. Mr. Will was interested in mines in that state, but for the past two years it has been impossible to do little work, but if the present government is able to pacify the Mexicans it will allow the country to be opened up for foreign investors who will develop the great resources. Swope Will, a brother of A. S., is here to pay him a visit coming from his home at Enid, Oklahoma, and stopped here en route to his old home in Virginia, and after a short stay in this city will continue on his way east.

Goes to Attend Conference.

Rev. F. M. Druliner, pastor of the First Methodist church of this city, departed yesterday for Lincoln to attend the annual conference of the church and stopped off in Omaha for a few hours to visit his son Tracy at the Methodist hospital, where the young man is getting along nicely. The conference at its session will assign the pastors of the different churches for the ensuing year, and the residents of this city are all very anxious to see that Rev. Druliner is returned here as he has made himself very popular not only with his church membership, but with the citizens in general and his return would result greatly in strengthening his church.

EARLY MORNING WEDDING AT ST. JOHN'S CATHOLIC CHURCH

This morning at St. John's Roman Catholic church occurred the marriage of Mr. William Leddy of South Bend and Miss Sophia Siczkowski, of this city. The nuptial mass of the church was performed by Rev. Father M. A. Shine, rector of the church who pronounced the solemn and impressive ceremony that made the two loving hearts as one, and with the beautiful service of the church made the occasion one of the greatest in impressiveness. There were a large number of the friends and relatives present at the church to witness the nuptials of these two young people. The bride and groom were attended by Mr. Frank Siczkowski brother of the bride as best man and Miss Julia Conway as bridesmaid. The bride was most charmingly gowned in pure white silk and wore the long flowing bridal veil which was held in place with a wreath of myrtle and orange blossoms. Following the ceremony the wedding party drove to the home of the bride's parents in the south part of the city where a reception was held. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Siczkowski of this city and has resided here for the greater part of her lifetime, and has made a host of warm friends who will join in wishing her success and happiness. The groom is a prosperous young farmer of near South Bend, and is a young man of the highest character and standing and who in his home is known and esteemed by a large circle of friends.

MARSHAL SEYBERT OF LOUISVILLE BRINGS MAN CHARGED WITH ROBBERY

Marshal C. M. Seybert of Louisville was in the city today for a few hours coming down to look after some matters in connection with the robbing of one John Stickler, an old gentleman living in that place. The trouble occurred last night and the marshal in company with the man assaulted, made a tour of the town and Stickler finally picked on a man whom he thought was the party, but all circumstances point to his being mistaken, as the man whom he had arrested was seen in a different place at the time the robbery was supposed to have been committed. The man who was identified by Stickler is an unfortunate one as he has been in trouble before, but has apparently straightened up and is quite industrious citizen now, and the general sentiment there seems to be that he is the victim of either mistaken identity or a "frame up" on the part of some persons who had it in for him. The case will be heard tomorrow before Judge Archer.

Isabel Richey's Writings.

We have a number of books of the writings of the late Mrs. Isabel Richey, and friends desiring a copy of these late writings can procure them at the Journal for $1.00 each.

MISSSES FLORENCE AND GARNET COREY ENTERTAIN QUEEN ESTHERS

The Queen Esther society of the Methodist church were entertained in a most charming manner on Tuesday evening by Misses Garnet and Florence Cory at the parlors of the Perkins house. It is unnecessary to state that the jolly crowd enjoyed themselves as is always a rare treat to be entertained by the Misses Cory and on this occasion they proved to be most delightful hostesses. The evening was spent in pleasant conversation and in discussing the plans of the society for the coming year. At a suitable hour a most tempting and delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses that served to further add to the pleasures of the members of the society. It was a late hour when the party departed homeward wishing that they might be present on many more such happy events. The Queen Esthers is a missionary society of the Methodist church under the direction of Mrs. E. C. Hill and their social gatherings aid greatly in their church work.
