The bride is well known here where she has been a frequent visitor at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnson, and the friends of this charming young lady and her family will be pleased to learn of her new found happiness:

The marriage of Miss Josephine Johnson of Omaha to Donald Tracy Bagnell was solemnized at 8:30 o'clock last night at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McCoy, 1226 Rose street, the Rev. S. Mills Hayes officiating. The decorations were yellow and white and green. Goldenrod and the yellow and white daisies with a background of palms and asparagus ferns formed the canopy under which the ceremony was pronounced. The daisies and goldenrod and palms were featured throughout the house. The bride entered upon the arm of her father, J. E. Johnson of Omaha and was preceded by the ribbon stretchers, Melaine Egan and Marguerite Mulholland, the bridesmaid, Miss B. Johnson, the matron of honor, Mrs. Louis Hagensick and the ring bearer, Ruth Jane Johnson. The bridegroom accompanied by his attendant, Richard Thornton, met the party under the goldenrod canopy. Miss Jude Devo sang Albinson's "Song of Thanksgiving" before the professional, Miss Ruth Bagnell at the piano played the "Lohengrin" wedding march and after the ceremony, Mendelssohn's march. The reception which was attended by more than one hundred guests followed. Mrs. A. Bagnell assisted by Mrs. J. S. McCoy and Mrs. J. A. Egan, introduced the guests to the receiving line. Mrs. O. V. A three-piece orchestra played during the evening. The gift room was presided over by Miss Nell Bagnell and Mrs. R. F. Taylor. Miss Florence Campbell had charge of the guest room.

The bride wore imported crepe de chine en train trimmed in rose point lace with a cascade tunic and a lango cap with tulle veil. She carried a shower bouquet. The matron of honor wore her wedding gown of white broadened satin en train, and the bridesmaid's dress was of yellow with silk shadow lace. After the business session the remainder of the afternoon was devoted to social conversation, and various other amusements which made this meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary a most delightful one. Pleasing features of this afternoon's entertainment were vocal solos by Rev. H. G. McClusky and Miss Matilde Valley and piano solos by Miss Maribel Straight and Helen Roberts. THE BASKET DINNER AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH A PLEASANT AFFAIR

From Wednesday's Daily. The basket dinner held yesterday noon at the Christian church in this city proved one of the most interesting and pleasant affairs that has been held in that church for some time. The dinner was, however, only a small part of the treat of the day, as a number of the strong men of the church were present to take part in a general discussion of the situation of the church in the state and the "missions" that were maintained by the organization for the spread of the doctrine of the Christian church. The speakers made very interesting statements to the members of the church in this city covering the work that is needed in the future to uphold the structure of this church through the length and breadth of the state. Rev. H. H. Harmon of Lincoln, pastor of the First church of that city, Rev. Leon of Hastings, Rev. J. W. Cobble of Omaha were among the clergymen speaking at the dinner, while the lay portion of the church workers was represented by E. E. Snavely of Lincoln, a prominent attorney of that city. The occasion was one filled with much benefit to the members of the congregation of the church here, and they will enter into the work of the church with a greater enthusiasm than shown heretofore.

He spent most of his time in Ohio at Portsmouth, where he was the guest of his old comrade David Combs, and together they renewed the friendship of years gone by.

On the return trip Mr. Newell stopped at Cincinnati, Louisville, Kentucky and Kansas City and arrived at St. Joseph, Missouri Sunday evening and spent yesterday there looking after some business matters. Mr. Newell was accompanied to Ohio by his son James W. Newell of Chicago who visited at the old Newell home for a short time, returning to Chicago last Thursday.

From Wednesday's Daily. The ladies of St. Mary's Guild were entertained yesterday afternoon in a most delightful manner at the hospitable home of Mrs. A. L. Tidd on Oak street at their regular meeting. The ladies came with their sewing and for several hours engaged themselves in the making of dainty articles of needlework that will be displayed at the bazaar of the society to be held sometime in November. Social conversation also served to pass the time very pleasantly until an appropriate hour when the hostess assisted by Miss Alice Eaton served very delicious and tempting refreshments that came as a fitting climax to a most charming and delightful afternoon of both pleasure and profit to the ladies of the guild.

INTERESTING CONTEST IN CHRISTIAN CHURCH SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Christian Sunday school is having a most interesting contest on now for an increase in the membership of the school, and for this purpose the scholars are getting together in an effort to land the different prizes offered. SAMUEL M'CALLAN, FOR- MER PLATTSMOUTH BOY, MARRIED IN OMAHA

The announcement has been received in this city by friends of the marriage in Omaha on Wednesday, September 16th, of Mr. Samuel McCallan and Miss Kathryn Barry. Has Done Good.

This is what Mr. John Repid says in his recent letter. "I wish to thank you heartily for Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine which I received in perfect order. I must say that it has done me good, because it kept my stomach in good order all the time. John Repid, F. F. D. No. 1, Vancouver, Wash." This is natural, because Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine is a great aid to digestion and because it never allows waste matter to stay in the intestines and poison them. It consists of red wine and selected herbs and has good results in maladies of the digestive organs, especially when they are complicated with constipation. At drug stores, Jos. Triner, Manufacturer, 1333-1339 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Triner's Liniment is very effective in relieving rheumatic and neuralgic pains. Price of Triner's Liniment 50c, by mail 60c.

Returns From Western Trip.

Frank Valley and family have returned home from an extended automobile trip through the western part of Nebraska, and eastern Colorado, during which time they traveled 1,800 miles and a great part of this through sandy roads. On the return trip Mr. Valley made 100 miles on 17 gallons of gasoline, so he states, and this is certainly an economy in fuel that is hard to beat. Mr. Valley while in the west secured a car of horses that he will offer for sale at his home here, and they are some very fine specimens of horseflesh that will meet the approval of anyone desiring fine horses.
