

SURPRISE THEIR MANY FRIENDS IN PLATTSMOUTH

Earl R. Travis and Miss Grace Newbranch Quietly Married in Omaha Last Saturday.

Saturday afternoon there occurred in Omaha, the wedding ceremony that made Earl R. Travis, district court reporter of this city, and Miss Grace Newbranch of Lincoln as one. The wedding was a very quiet one in compliance with the wishes of the young people and only the sister of the bride, Mrs. N. C. Abbott of Nebraska City was present to attend the ceremony. The wedding has been looked forward to for some time by the friends of the contracting parties here, and in Nebraska City, and in the culmination of their happiness they will be given the most hearty congratulations from their host of friends here.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Newbranch, and for the past few years has made her home in this city during the time she was engaged as one of the instructors in the high school here. She was graduated from the University of Nebraska in 1911, where she was given the Phi Beta Kappa honors. For the three following years after her graduation she was engaged as a teacher in the English department of the high school in this city, and was one of the most capable members of the teaching force there. Since the close of her school work here she has been making her home at Lincoln and Nebraska City.

The groom is one of the most popular and highly esteemed young men in the city where he has resided for the greater part of his life, and he is filling the position of court reporter for the second district under Judge Begley, having acted in that capacity for his father, the late Judge Harvey D. Travis and in view of his exceptional ability has been retained in that office and the friends of this splendid young man will be more than pleased to learn that he expects to make his future home here, having a cottage already ready for the reception of his bride and where they will reside.

The Journal extends to Mr. and Mrs. Travis their heartiest best wishes for their future prosperity and happiness.

FAST FOOT BALL TEAM GETTING READY TO WAL- LOP ALL COMERS

The opening of the football season of 1914 will be upon us in a very few weeks now as the football team is practicing almost nightly and will be in good shape for the opening contest with the team representing the Thirtieth Street Merchants of Omaha, reputed to be one of the fast teams of the metropolis, and which will be a good feature of the opening date Sunday, October 11th.

The team here is getting into fine shape and is one of the heaviest in weight, as well as fast in playing that has represented this city in recent years. The boys are devoting much hard work in getting into shape for the proper start and hope to finish the season in as good shape as the team of last year, which made such an enviable reputation for themselves on the gridiron. The football boys should be encouraged in their work by a generous patronage from the public who enjoys a good game of football and by this assistance, succeed in putting Platts-mouth on the map in this line of athletics. Remember the opening date and see what can be done to help out the team.

Will Be Operated on This Week.

George A. Meisinger was a passenger this afternoon for Omaha where he goes to visit his son, William, at the hospital where he is to be operated on this week for gall stones from which he has been suffering greatly for some time past.

Mrs. T. L. Murphy and daughter, Miss May were among those going to the metropolis this morning to spend the day with their relatives in that city.

Removed Back to Platts-mouth.

From Saturday's Daily.

C. L. Pitman and family, who have been making their home in Omaha for the past few years, moved down to this city yesterday and will reside here in the future. Mr. Pitman being employed in the Burlington shops here, Mrs. Pitman was formerly Miss Anna Kanka of this city and her large circle of friends will be pleased to learn of her return and that she is to make her home here.

DECISION IN MATTER OF THE UNION STATE BANK VS. BOGGS, ET AL.

A decision has been made by County Judge Beeson in the case of the Farmers' State Bank of Union vs. Frank Boggs, et al., in which the court gives judgment for the plaintiff in the sum of $567 to cover the suit for a note given by the defendants and the breach of contract made with the bank. The property involved is the Union restaurant that has had a most stormy career in the past year, and which was secured by the defendants who agreed to operate it and pay to the bank the sum of $25 per month with interest until it was purchased. They operated the restaurant a short time and then closed it up and started one of their own in another building, which they are still operating and the bank sued to recover on the note and contract.

THE ADDRESS OF JANE THOMAS, OF CHICAGO, AT METHODIST CHURCH

Miss Jane Thomas of Chicago, national secretary and one of the most able and brilliant orators working under the auspices of the national association for equal suffrage, addressed a good crowd in the First Methodist Episcopal church Friday afternoon.

Miss Thomson gave an analytical talk, not only discussing and refuting the arguments of anti-suffragists, but also giving reasons why equal suffrage right would be of great benefit to this state.

When asked "Why Women Should Vote," her reply:

"Women should vote because they are human beings who are citizens under our democratic form of government. There is nothing in a woman's work that is not related to the economic, industrial and social interests of our community, state and country. Justice is the simplest reason."

"Since the Negro, Chinaman, Indian and aliens have the ballot, why deny it to the mothers, teachers, nurses and other women who share in all the burdens of mankind. We need it to represent our own interests."

Mrs. Draper Smith of Omaha followed Miss Thomson in a short pleasing talk that interested the audience very much. Both speakers were frequently and heartily applauded.

Mr. E. H. Wescott introduced the speakers, Mrs. Clara Wescott and five others very sweetly and enthusiastically rendered an equal suffrage selection.

CAR OF MERCHANDISE BROKEN OPEN ON BUR- LINGTON TRAIN NO. 76

From Saturday's Daily.

Last evening when Burlington freight No. 76 arrived in this city the conductor reported the breaking open of a car of merchandise which was to be set out here to be transferred to train No. 29, the car being consigned to points between Cullom and Ashland. The discovery of the condition of the car was made just after the train left Gibson and it is supposed that it was open there by some parties who had evidently made a good haul as there was apparently a great many articles missing from the car, but just what they were it was impossible to tell until the contents of the car had been checked over with the way bills.

S. J. Reames, of Cedar Creek, was looking after some business matters in the county seat today.

CELEBRATE SILVER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Many Friends Assembled at the Home to Assist Mr. and Mrs. Kaffenberger to Celebrate.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. George A. Kaffenberger of this city enjoyed the celebration of their silver wedding anniversary and on the occasion some seventy-five families of their old friends gathered with them to enjoy the occasion and to refreshen the memory of the couple of the happy event that was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Kaffenberger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Becker west of this city on September 26, 1889, when they plighted their vows of matrimony.

For the occasion of the reception Saturday, the Kaffenberger home was beautifully decorated with an artistic arrangement of white asters and foliage that made a handsome setting for the joyous occasion and here in the midst of the floral beauty and surrounded by their friends the bride and groom of twenty-five years ago received the congratulations of their old friends and neighbors. During the evening a short program was given consisting of vocal solos by Mesdames E. H. Wescott and Mae Morgan and Mr. Adam Burkle of Ohio, and a number of readings by Miss Annie Burkle of Portsmouth, Ohio, and Miss Alice Tney which added very much to the enjoyment of the guests, as these parties are among the most talented musicians and elocutionists in the city and their offerings to the evening's enjoyment was artistic and pleasing in the extreme. The vocalists were accompanied in their solos by Miss Katie Cummins on the piano.

During the evening very delicious light refreshments were served to the company while fruit punch was served during the course of the reception by a bevy of charming little Misses.

Mr. and Mrs. Kaffenberger were the recipients of a large number of very handsome and costly gifts of silver in memory of the happy event that will be treasured by them in the years to come with the happiest of feelings of the notable event that brought them these tributes from their host of friends. It was the universal wish of everyone present at the anniversary Saturday, that they might all gather with Mr. and Mrs. Kaffenberger on the golden wedding anniversary.

One of the features of the silver wedding that appealed to the bride and groom was the presence of the same best man and bridesmaid W. A. Becker and Mrs. Philip A. Horn, formerly Miss Ficht as well as some thirty guests who were present at the wedding day twenty-five years ago.

Returns From Kansas City.

Mrs. Galen Rhoden, who has been in Kansas City for the past seven weeks, receiving medical treatment at the Thornton & Minor Sanitarium, returned home yesterday evening. While Mrs. Rhoden has not yet been restored to perfect health she feels much better than in many years, and the treatment received did more in repairing her health than any she has received during her many years illness. The many friends sincerely hope that she may continue to improve.

FRED EBINGER WILL SOON RETURN HOME FROM GERMANY

Mrs. George Weidman and family are in receipt of a letter from Fred Ebinger, who has been visiting for the past few months in Germany, in which he states that he will sail for home on the seventeenth of October, which will place him home about the first of November. This is certainly good tidings to the relatives and many friends of Mr. Ebinger in this city, as there has been considerable anxiety as to his welfare in the old country since the war broke out, as they were unable to receive any word from him for many weeks. He states that he is well and in perfect safety.

IMPROVED TRAIN SER- VICE ON M. P. BEING AGAIN DISCUSSED

The matter of improved train service over the Missouri Pacific railroad from the county into this city still continues to be an extremely live issue with the business men and the members of the Commercial club, and they still are stirring up the question. A short time since one of the members of the transportation committee of the club was in St. Louis and took advantage of the occasion to call upon President Bush of the Missouri Pacific and his assistant Mr. Robertson. The officials received him most courteously, and listened to the recital of the needs of this county and city for improved service and gave assurance that they would do all in their power to afford relief, although the prospects of putting on a new train on the road did not receive the greatest encouragement from the president as the railroads of the country are favoring a plan of retrenchment and economy throughout their lines and did not believe the revenue recured from another train would pay for its operation.

They were much interested in the situation here and asked many questions concerning the city and county as to the amount of travel and the general feeling of the people on the subject of the need of additional service. The only real prospect of relief seems however to have come through a readjustment of the present schedules and even then the advantages will not be greatly improved over what they are at present.

A Very Pleasant Meeting.

From Friday's Daily.

The Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church held a very pleasant meeting in the parlors of the church, yesterday afternoon at which time they were entertained by Mesdames Amelia Swift, Gertrude Morgan and Miss Jeanette Morgan. The large number in attendance, there being some fifty ladies present, declare this meeting one of the best they have held in some time, and that the hostesses were splendid entertainers. The regular business session was held at which time the annual election of officers was held and resulted as follows: Mrs. Val Burkel, president; Miss Ella Kennedy, First Vice-President; Mrs. Nellie Carlson, Secretary and Mrs. Margaret Mauzy, Treasurer. Following the election of officers the ladies discussed various plans for the year's work. The hostesses served a dainty luncheon and then, an hour or so devoted to a most enjoyable social time brought to a close, a delightful afternoon's entertainment.

Mrs. James Sage and Mrs. O. M. Straight were passengers this morning for Omaha where they will spend the day looking after some business matters.

DEATH OF A PIONEER CASS COUNTY CITIZEN

Christian G. Duerr, Passes Away at the Age of 73 Years. at His Home Near Louisville

We are again called upon to chronicle the loss and death of a pioneer settler of Louisville, Cass county, Christian G. Duerr, who passed away at his home one mile south of Louisville at the age of 73 years, four months and thirteen days. Mr. Duerr had been failing in health for a long time, suffering from complication of diseases and old age, and despite all that could be done for him by skilled medical aid, was summoned and constantly at his bedside ministering to his wants, were told that his recovery was almost despaired of and he kept gradually sinking until Sunday morning, September 30, when he passed away at 3 o'clock, surrounded by his sorrowing wife and children.

The funeral services were held on Wednesday, conducted by Rev. C. L. Norman of the Methodist church, with a short prayer at the home, and the funeral procession then wended their way to the Methodist church, where services were held, and the body was then borne to its last resting place in the Louisville cemetery. The deceased was a kind and loving husband and father, and well liked by all who knew him.

Christian G. Duerr was born May 7, 1841, in Maygold, Germany, and here he received his education and grew to manhood, and at the age of 24 years in 1865 emigrated to America to make his home. He first located at Greenville, Ohio, and three years later was married there to Miss Mary Huber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob F. Huber. In 1869 Mr. Duerr and wife came west and located near what is now Louisville, and at this time the line of the Burlington had not been put through there. There were eight children born to this union, four of whom died in infancy, and the following, together with the widow, mourns his passing: Mrs. Lucy Zarr, Louisville; Philip Duerr, Alto; and two brothers, Gottlieb Duerr of Greenville, Ohio, and Henry Duerr of Dalton, Ohio, who on account of the distance and their age were unable to attend the funeral services of their brother.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy shown us, and also for their assistance and beautiful floral offerings received in our late bereavement in the death of our beloved husband, father and grandfather, Christian G. Duerr.
