FORMER PLATTSMOUTH GIRL IS MARRIED AT SOUTH OMAHA

On Saturday evening, October 3rd, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Catherine Lindsay Seybert, in South Omaha, occurred the marriage of a former Plattsmouth young lady, Miss Gertrude Lindsay and Mr. Charles E. Wagner. The bride is the second daughter of Mrs. Seybert and a granddaughter of Mrs. James Hickson, formerly residents of this city.

Promptly at 8:30 the wedding march was played in a most charming manner by Miss Ella Palmtag and the wedding party entered the parlors of the home and took their stations before the minister and a large number of friends of the contracting parties. The bride was beautifully gowned in baby blue silk with slippers to match, while Mrs. Lena Long, a sister of the bride, of Modale, Iowa, as matron of honor, was gowned in white satin with shadow lace. Miss Dora Lindsay, a bridesmaid, was gowned in pink silk with point lace. The groom and the best man, Thomas Lindsay, as well as the groomsmen, Gus Anderson, were attired in the conventional black.

The Last Bloom of Summer.

William Hinrichsen has at his residence in the north part of the city a most unusual sight in the shape of an apple tree in bloom that has made its first crop and is now ready to start in on the second crop. The blooms are perfect, but are quite likely to be nipped in a few weeks with the frost.

RIVER BOTTOM LAND IS AGAIN IN DISPUTE

The Squatters Right Claimed by Those in Possession and They Hold on Like Grim Death.

From Wednesday's Daily. The land along the river bottom east of the city is again about to be thrust into the limelight in another controversy over the question of the ownership which has long been disputed by the city with the parties who reside there or have it fenced up. The latest move in the situation on the bottom is the placing of a fence along the north of the land containing the base ball grounds by John Cory, who has had a tract south and east of the ball park fenced in for the past two years as a pasture. Mr. Cory states that the reason for his action in extending the fence was that his old fence on the west of the ball park was placed in such a position that he could not get to the gate leading into it in wet weather as the base ball association constructed a large ditch along there that made it impossible for him to get into the pasture satisfactory and consequently he decided to move the fence up to the south line of the road leading to the river which leaves the base ball park in the midst of the newly annexed territory. Mr. Cory stated to a Journal representative that he had gates placed in the fence for a driveway for those attending ball games and would construct a series of steps over the fence near the subway where the pedestrians could secure entrance to the park without the necessity of having to open and shut the gates.

Just what action will be taken by the parties interested in the land has not been fully determined. The base ball association has leased their park of the city for the past two years and the municipality will probably look after the interests of the association in the matter. The fact that the association has had this tract fenced in is claimed by many to give it a title while Mr. Cory has paid the taxes on the land which was ordered placed on the county tax list by the commissioners and he believes this gives him a clear and undisputed title to the land in question, but he asserts that he does not want to interfere with the ball playing as long as they respect his rights as he views them. The outcome of the case will be watched with interest as a very intricate question of title to the land is involved that will require some time to thresh out.

JUNIORS OF HIGH SCHOOL BALL TEAM DEFEAT THE COMBINATION TEAM

From Wednesday's Daily. There was quite a number of the students of the High school assembled at the base ball park yesterday afternoon when the base ball team representing the Juniors took on a combination of the Allies consisting of senior, sophomores and freshmen and wiped up the diamond with them by a score of 10 to 4. Winscott and Speck were on the firing line for the Juniors, while Cunningham and Wetenkamp did the battery work for the Allies but their artillery was not effective enough and the Juniors got away with the bacon. This was the second of a series of five games the first being played Monday to 10 to 10 tie score. The boys played good ball yesterday and the remaining games is certain to create a great deal of interest in the school circles that will only be rivaled by that of the world's series.

Will Oliver of Murray was a passenger this morning on the early Burlington train for Omaha where he was called to look after some business matters and to visit with his friends in that city.

Visits Here for Few Hours.

From Tuesday's Daily. Hon. John Mattes, Jr., democratic candidate for state senator from the second district of Cass and Otoe counties, was here yesterday for a few hours enroute from Omaha to Nebraska City. Mr. Mattes is meeting a great many of the voters of these two counties, and all whom he comes in contact with are at once impressed with his splendid qualifications for the office, as he is alert to every measure that is for the interest of the common people.

DAUGHTERS OF AMERICAN REVOLUTION MEET WITH MISS BERNICE NEWELL

From Tuesday's Daily. The members of Fontanelle chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held a very pleasant meeting last evening at the home of Miss Bernice Newell on Marble street. The ladies spent some time in the discussion of the plans for the advancement of the chapter and the principals they represent in the patriotic work of preserving the American institutions and the strengthening of the spirit of love of country. The movement to aid in the payment for the Continental hall in Washington, D. C. was also discussed by the ladies who decided to try the plan of each member contributing a penny a day to the cause which is being taken up all over the country by the members of the different chapters of the D. A. R. This hall is one of the handsomest buildings in the national capital, and was erected by contributions from the women of the country and on which a sum is still owing and it is to clear this indebtedness that the penny a day movement has been inaugurated.

FOOT BALL TEAM ARRANGING FOR CONTESTS WITH STRONG TEAMS

The football team here has arranged a schedule with a number of very strong teams this season, and the season will open up next Sunday with the team representing the Thirteenth Street Merchants of Omaha, and which numbers some of the leading football players of the metropolis in the ranks. This team comes well recommended and will make a formidable opponent for the machine of Coach Straight to go up against, but the boys are confident they can get away with the Omaha bunch of beef and muscle. Other teams secured for the season up to November 1st, include the Athletics of Omaha, on October 18th. The California Athletic Club on October 25th and the Fontanelle Park's, on November 1st. It has not been decided whether or not to play here on Thanksgiving day, but should the boys decide to do so some strong first class team will be secured for that date. All lovers of foot ball should be out Sunday and witness the contest at the Red Sox ball park.

A NEW FRONT FOR ADOLPH GEISE'S GLOBE SALOON

The front of the building on the corner of Fifth and Main street, occupied by Adolph Geise, proprietor of the Globe Bar, is receiving some improvements, mention of which was made in the Journal several months ago. The front of the saloon room has been torn out and a new modern one will replace it. It is the intention of the Vogel Investment Company, the owners of the building, to brick the front up some four feet and shorten the space occupied by the windows as well as generally improve the looks of the exterior of the building. This front has been in the building for a number of years and was badly in need of repairs and the owners decided to do the job and complete the work of improvement at one operation.

RECEPTION TENDERED REV. AND MRS. DRULINER

Three Hundred Members of the Church Were Present to Welcome Their Popular Pastor.

Last evening the members of the congregation of the First Methodist church of this city tendered a reception at the parlors of the church to Rev. F. M. Druliner and his charming wife on their being returned to take charge of the church work for another twelve months. The reception was one of the largest gatherings of the church that has been held in the last year as several hundred of the members gathered to do honor to their pastor and wife. The parlors had been transformed into a bower of beauty for the occasion by the use of autumn leaves, ferns, palms and potted plants placed in position throughout the rooms.

The event had been planned by the entire church membership and a most interesting program arranged for the occasion that proved a most delightful feature of the evening's entertainment. A mixed quartet composed of Mesdames E. H. Westcott, Mae Morgan and Messrs Jennings Seivers and W. C. Brooks gave several most pleasing numbers while vocal solos were contributed to the evening's entertainment by Mrs. Ferris York Jelinek and Mr. Don C. York both of whom were much enjoyed. Mrs. A. O. Eggenberger gave a very difficult piano number on the program and Miss Anna Burkle of Portsmouth, Ohio, responded most delightfully with a reading that was greatly appreciated.

At a suitable hour Hon. R. B. Windham addressed a few remarks on behalf of the church and congregation to the new "old" pastor and assured him of the hearty good feeling that existed between the members of the congregation toward him and his estimable family. Rev. Druliner responded most feelingly to the remarks of Mr. Windham and assured his friends that while sometimes the return of a pastor to a charge was not always pleasing in his case it was more than pleasing and that both he and his wife were very much delighted to again reside here for the coming year.

DEATH OF CHARLES H. WILKINS, FORMER PLATTSMOUTH YOUNG MAN

The sad news was received in this city yesterday by friends of the death at his home near Boehry, South Dakota, of Charles H. Wilkins, a former Plattsmouth young man who possessed during his boyhood days in this city a host of warm friends whose hearts will be grieved to learn of the passing of this splendid young man in the flower of his life time. Mr. Wilkins removed from Plattsmouth in March 1909, together with his parents and family and located in South Dakota on a claim there which has since been improved into a most fertile farm, and here Mr. Wilkins was very successful and met with the greatest of success. Shortly after removing to South Dakota Mr. Wilkins was united in marriage to Miss Mable Burch, who together with the parents Mr. and Mrs. Matt Wilkins and one sister and two brothers are left to mourn the passing of their beloved husband, son and brother. A few years ago the first signs of the dread malady, tuberculosis laid its mark on Mr. Wilkins and since that time his health has gradually failed and despite all that medical skill and loving hands could do for him he gradually grew weaker until death ended his suffering on Sunday October 4th, when he sank into the sleep that knows no awakening on this earth. There were few finer young men than Charles Wilkins and his death comes indeed as a shock to those who knew him best in this city during his lifetime. Mr. Wilkins was 32 years of age at the time of his death.

Clark Oberlies.

One of the leading attractions at the Cass County Sunday School convention to be held at Weeping Water on October 22 and 23 will be Clark Oberlies, the famous Sunny Jim of Nebraska Sunday schools. Besides being a most facile and entertaining speaker, Mr. Oberlies is a singer of exceptional ability. Aside from this Mr. Oberlies is treasurer of the Nebraska State Sunday School association, and with a most successful business man of Lincoln. Don't fail to hear him at Weeping Water on October 22 and 23rd. Remember this will be a great meeting.

GUST JOHNSON RETURNS FROM A TRIP TO POLK COUNTY, NEBRASKA

From Wednesday's Daily. Last evening our friend, Gust Johnson returned home from a visit of several weeks in Polk county, near Stromsburg, where he visited at the home of his brother-in-law, E. M. Tureen and family there. Mr. Johnson is making fine progress in recovering from the effects of his broken hip and while still getting around with a crutch was able to enjoy a good time on his visit to Polk county. He brought with him a fine specimen of the corn raised in that section and it certainly looks good for the big corn crop through that section of Polk county. Clifford Tureen, a nephew, accompanied Mr. Johnson home and will enjoy a short visit here. The continued improvement in Mr. Johnson's health will be noted with the greatest of pleasure by his host of friends in this city.

DEATH OF A FORMER PIONEER CITIZEN AT ALTURAS, CALIFORNIA

From Wednesday's Daily. The sad news was received in this city yesterday by Mrs. David Kneep of the death at Alturas, California, on September 21st, of her husband who has made his home there for several years. Mr. Kneep was a resident here prior to removing to California to look after property interests there and while there was stricken down and unable to return here while the feebleness of his wife would not permit of her joining him. At the time of his death, Mr. Kneep was some eighty years of age, and in his passing his widow will receive the deepest sympathy of a large circle of friends here in Plattsmouth where she has made her home for years. In speaking of his death the Plain View of Alturas, California, says: "Sunday night another of Modoc's pioneers passed to his reward after years of suffering from partial paralysis, when David Kneep, aged eighty years passed away."

The deceased came to Surprise in the sixties, but later removed to Alturas, where he remained almost continuously up to the time of his death. Some four years ago while visiting in the east he suffered a stroke of paralysis from the effects of which he never recovered. Soon after his return to Alturas he recognized that his recovery was impossible and gave Sheriff Smith $100 to defray the expenses of the funeral. This was characteristic of the man, and we might say of the pioneer's self reliant and independence to the last. The charge was faithfully performed by Sheriff Smith and Tuesday the old pioneer was laid away in the Alturas cemetery. A few of the old friends and pioneer residents of the city followed the body to its last resting place, where let us hope David Kneep will find rest and peace.

Mrs. Kneep in addition to the papers received a personal letter from Mr. and Mrs. Smith, conveying the news of the death of Mr. Kneep and of the grief that the passing of this truly good man had occasioned in the large circle of friends in that city.

MANY AUTOMOBILES PUT OUT OF COMMISSION

The People Who Went to Omaha by Auto Route Yesterday Had a Time Returning.

Last evening while George M. Mark of near Weeping Water was returning in his auto from Omaha he met with an accident near the Platte river bridge that necessitated the sending of a message to this city for assistance in getting his machine into town. While going through the mud the engine was pulling quite heavily in an effort to carry the machine out of the sand where it had sunk almost to the hubs and in doing this the gear pin of the machine broke putting the car out of commission for the rest of the trip. Harve Manners, from the Manners & Splitz garage, made a trip to the bridge and secured the machine towing it back here where it was placed in the garage for repairs. Sam Pitman of Murray also had a close call from a serious accident near the Masonic Home when his large Case touring car broke through the roadway beneath which water mains had just recently been laid and had it not been for the quickness of the driver the car might have received serious damage, but as it was escaped without being damaged. While the cars were still at this part of the road, a hack coming from the Missouri Pacific depot came along and in an instant was in the hole where the mains were laid and it was necessary to unhitch the horses and call for the assistance of all the men present to get the hack out of the place where it had sunk. The garages of the city were crowded to their utmost capacity with the machines coming from Omaha as the owners decided not to risk further danger of traveling in the rain and mud.

THE LATE MRS. MARTHA HAYWARD IS LAID AT REST

The funeral of the late Mrs. Martha Hayward was held yesterday from the home of her nephew Q. K. Parmelee on South Seventh street and was attended by a large number of the friends of former years who gathered to pay their last tributes of respect to a lady long known and loved by them during her lifetime in this city. The services were in charge of Rev. H. G. McClusky of the First Presbyterian church who spoke words of comfort to the sorrowing family and held out to them the example of the Christian life of the departed lady. There was a wealth of floral remembrances laid on the bier of the departed lady that expressed stronger than words the esteem and affection in which she had been held here by the old residents of the city who had known her in the summer of her life. The interment was made in Oak Hill cemetery in the family burial lot beside that of her first husband Willett Pottinger who passed away here a number of years ago.
