OMAHA, NEB. - Sept. 23, 1914

The Simons Co.,
Plattsmouth, Nebr.

Gentlemen:-

Pursuant to the request contained in your letter of Sept. 15th, relative to a shipment of a lot of good from Weston, Nebr., to yourselves at Plattsmouth, Nebr., wish to advise that we have investigated the matter carefully and find that this shipment moved from Omaha via the Mo. Pac. on Sept. 18, 1914. Although this shipment encountered some delay in transit we hope that you received it in sufficient time to dispose of it without any loss.

Yours truly,

W. H. Hancock
Freight Claim Agent.

If we would not add one word to above letter, the people of Plattsmouth and vicinity would know that this will be the greatest sale ever held or heard of. The goods coming in this late cramps us up more and more for room, as our Fall and Holiday goods is loading in on us now, and we must let loose of the Weston stock and will stop for nothing to obtain our desire to turn the stock into money and make room. We can afford it. We bought it at a fraction of its first cost. To make this an event you will never forget, we include in this sale all the new goods, so it will give you a chance to fill your winter wants at

Always Recovers.

We received, about a year ago, a remarkable letter from Mr. A. Belza; "I, the undersigned, wish to give my best thanks to Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine, which always cured me. As soon as I feel pains in the stomach, I take that remedy and next day the pain usually disappears and at once I get a good appetite. This medicine deserves the best credit in the whole world. W. truly, Alois Belza, 1735 W. 12th St. Blvd., Chicago." We feel very thankful for such a letter. Our remedy regularly gives speedy relief in such cases. You should use it in every indisposition from the stomach or in constipation. At drug stores, or Triner, Manufacturer, 1333-1339 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill. Tired muscles should be rubbed with Triner's Liniment.
