THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1914.

April 30 Day

PROLOGUE.

"It breaks the speed limit to smithereens."

- That's a candid opinion about this story. There may have Where should she be?" been swifter tales, but not recently. It's an aeroplane of a yarn, moving so fast that you tory that the answer slipped out before lose your breath while you follow it. But you don't need any eyes on reading of this kind.

Every man has his day of days. Yours may have come and you may be swimming in the full tide The police have caught Red November of fortune. If so, read how P. I'll worm the truth out of him within Sybarite found his. If your own twenty minutes, if I don't get it from ship is still in the offing, you will enjoy learning how the little spunky red headed bookkeeper won a fortune and an heiress, from the leaden, writhen lips of the old foiled all his enemies and had some of the most amazing adventures ever penned-all in less time than it takes the hour hand to round the clock dial twice.

CHAPTER XIII. Nemesis.

CUDDENLY it became plain to P. Sybarite that if in truth it was with her as he feared at least two persons knew what had become of the girl-two persons aside from himself and her hired kidnapers -Brian Shavnon and Bayard, his son. He gave the operator the address of Shaynon's town house and as the car slipped away from the hotel was sensihle of keen regret that he had left at ing will be Messers Roberts and y. "What have you done with Marian Walter Salsberg. Blessington?"

It may be each was afraid the "Mar-Marian!" the old voice iterother might have to give the ated. "Why, she"-the man pulled himself together with a determined ef. Thanksgiving party so to make sure fort-"she's in her room of course. there would be equality somewhere "Is that true?" P. Sybarite demanded of the butler in a manner so peremthe fellow realized it. "Miss Marian 'asn't returned as yet from the ball," he whispered. "'E-'e's camp fire. A good time? Yes indeed, breath, anyway, because you for- not quite 'imself, sir. 'E's 'ad a bit of and a backet of sandwiches was left Monday and Tuesday on business. get about respiration with your a shock, as one might s'y. I'd go easy after thirty had been fed. It was on 'im, if you'll take a word from me." 1:30 when the "Blue Bell" dipped But P. Sybarite traversed his advice her oars for the last time, and all without an instant's consideration.

> "Brian Shaynon." he called, "you lie you now. The game's up. Come!

What have you done with the girl?" For all answer, a low cry, like the plaint of a broken hearted child, issued man. He seemed suddenly to lose the strength of his limbs. His legs shook beneath him as with a palsy; and then, knees buckling, he tottered and plung. done. Theirs was no royal road, no ed headlong from top to bottom of the pleasant always easy way. We cannot staircase

Kneeling beside the body of Brian do know, what we have practice how Shaynon, where it had lodged on : broad, low landing three steps from and force. Is it not true that we the bottom of the staircase, the butler grow in usefulness and happiness turned up to P. Sybarite fishy, unemo- only by sharing what we have with tional eves in a pasty fat face.

"'E's gone." he announced. The little man said nothing. Resting a hand on the newel post. he looked down unmoved upon the life's bane "Dead," the butler affirmed, releas- bonored name upon history's pages. Tuesday for La Junta, Colo., to look ing the pulseless leaden wrist and ris- The future waits unknown, but the after their land at that place. Peter Kenny's at the time he changed ing. "I presoom I'd best call 'is doc- Literary training will be good for his clothing the pistol given him by tor, 'adn't I. sir? He'd 'ad a bit of thee no matter what profession you shock before you come in, sir.

PLATTSMOUTH SEMI-WEEKLY JOURNAL.

York, but he had better travel by train if he can. Begin to debate-and you will be getting on the train. Preaching at the church again in two weeks. In so far as is known at this writing the plan is to continue to hold English service in the evening Literary programs and news items, and German in the morning every two weeks regularly. The Sanday school hour will be 9:30 every alternate Sunday at the request of the The following officers will be elect- German congregation and 10 o'clock ed Friday evening, October 9. Be when no preaching service.

Alvo Notes

C. R. Jordan went to Plattsmouth Monday.

Leander Friend was in Lincoln Wednesday.

incoln Tuesday. the young ladies and gentlemen, S. Jno. Murtey went to Omaha Wed-S. classes gave a moonlight picnic on nesday on No. 14. the lake shore last Thursday even-Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Barrett were ing. Games, toasting weenies, marshin Lincoln Monday. mallows, making coffee around a big was silence on the shore. Literary.

Cedar Creek

Maybe you have never debated, but that is no reason why you should car load of sheep feeders Tuesday. not be heard in the Cedar Creek Literary society. We are all beginmen were once found in primary ners but we know our ablest statesclasses. We know too, they learned through long practice how to use the tools with which their work was ope to share with others what we to express ourselves with clearness others? There are no Patrick Henries.

Abraham Lincolns or a Douglas-in east side of Main street. Cedar Creek, but if we make a united effort and work for the success of Sunday with his daughter Mrs. C. C.

mortal wreck of him who had been his this society we may develop some of Bucknell and family. our boys to be greater than any

ET BAKING POWDER CO

You don't save money when you buy cheap or big-can baking powder. Don't be misled. Buy Calumet. It's baking powder. Don't be milited. Day Commen-more conomical more wholesome gives best results. Calumet is far superior to sour milk and soda.

MURDOCK.

CHICAGO

Lincoln Thursday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Curyea went to Lincoln Tuesday on No. 17.

John Woods received double deck Albert Foreman was in Omaha from Friday till Tuesday on business. Carl Stein of Lincoln took dinner Tuesday with J. A. Shaffer and wife. Mrs. Ike Wolf and daughter Mrs. L. D. Mullen were trading in Lincoln Friday.

Miss Nellie Quinn of Manley is visiting her aunt, Mrs Dan McCurdy this week.

W. C. Cavanaugh of Fairbury, visited from Saturday till Monday with Herbert Moore.

P. J. Linch and Herman Stroemer are laying their cement walks on the

Paul Froehlich of Lincoln spent

R. A. Stone and son Jordan left The Mother's Council held a reception for R. A. Stone at his home last Saturday evening. A dainty lunch was served.

Nickels, Murray, Neb.

Inquire of A. O. Ramge, Route

WANTED-Girl for general house work. No washing, 4 in family,

Inquire of Mrs. George Faller

FOR SALE-Two fine Chester

White' male hogs, Inquire of rey as good as new, cost, $200,

A bargain, T. H. Pollock, Tel.

21g. Plattsmouth, 10-5-11-dw

9-10-Hwkly

9-10-1fwkly.

4, Plattsmouth, Neb.

or call Phone No. 394.

James Loughvidge.

taken soon. Address Miss Etta

PAGE 7.

Mrs. Jefferson Inche, together with the greater part of his fortuitous fortune. In five minutes the car drew up in front of one of those few old fashioned brownstone English basement residences which today survive on Fifth avenue below Fifty-ninth street. elbowed and frowned down upon by beetling hives of trade.

Laying hold of an obsolete bellpull. P. Sybarite yanked it with a spirit in tune with his temper. Immediately and considerably to his surprise the doors were thrown open, and on the threshold a butler showed a face gray with the strain of a sleepless night. "Mr. Shaynon?" the little man demanded sharply.

"Mr. Bayard Shaynon 'as just gone not five minutes ago, sir."

"Gone where?" "To his apartments, I presume, sir."

"Then I'll see Mr. Brian Shaynon." "I'm afraid, sir, Mr. Shaynon is 'ardly likely to see any one at this hour." "He'll see me," replied P. Sybarite. "He hasn't goue to bed, I gather?" "Not yet, sir, but 'e's goin' imme diate.

"Very well. You may as well let me in."

Suspicious, but impressed, the servant shuffled aside, and P. Sybarite brushed past him into the hallway. "Where is he?"

"If you'll give me your nime, sir, I'll tell him you're 'ere."

P. Sybarite hesitated. He was in no mood for joking, yet a certain dour humor in the jest caught his fancy and persuaded his better judgment.

"Nemesis," he said briefly. "Mr.-name-what? Beg pardon, sir!"

"Nem-e-sis," P. Sybarite articulated distinctly, "And don't mister it. He'll understand."

"Thenk you," muttered the servant blankly and turned.

On impulse P. Sybarite strode after him.

"On second thoughts, you needn't announce me. I'll go up with you." "I'm afraid I can't permit that. sir," observed the butler, horrified. "If I was to permit that, sir, it might cost me my position." "Well"-

P. Sybarite drew back, relenting.

But at this juncture, from a point directly over their heads, the voice of Brian Shaynon interrupted them. "Who is that, Soames?" he called impatiently, without making himself it for upwards of an hour, be'ind closed crowd together with.

visible. "Has Mr. Bayard returned?" "No, sir," the butler called, distressed. "It's-it's a person, sir-insists on the head of the stairs; now without nothin' after this. Don't ever you dark- to beautiful the town. If you should acompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. P. ladies devoted the few remaining ing lessons on the violin. his furred great coat, but still in the en my doorstep agin.' 'e says. And Mr. ask me how he keeps the lawns so Rouse. evening clothes of Elder Respectability | Bayard, sir, 'e ups and laughs fiendish | -Respectability sadly rumpled and in 'is father's own fice. 'You've got maltreated.

"I don't seem to know you." he said open; 'you're in this business as deep dark. His accents quavered queruiously. went in a rige." and P. Sybarite, with a flash of scorn. "So that was the way of it?" P. Syb- with only slight skill in expressing put his condition down to drink. arite commented dully. "Far from it." he retorted ruthless- So Mrs. Inche had sought the father to limp from San Francisco to New Journal office.

may choose. "Yes?" murmured P. Sybarite absently. "Yes, sir, a bit of a shock, owin' to 'is 'avin' quarreled with Mr. Bayard.

sir." P. Sybarite interrogated with his eyes alone.

"It was a bit odd. come to think of it -the 'ole affair, sir. Must 'ave been over an hour ago, Mr. Shaynon 'ere, 'e ome 'ome alone from the dance. 'E Saturday. 'adn't more than got inside the house. sir, w'en a lidy called on 'im. Properly speakin' she wasn't a lidy at all-but a woman. I mean to s'y, a bit flash." "I understand you. Go on."

"Well, sir, I didn't 'ave a chance to over'ear w'at 'er business were, but it seemed to work on Mr. Brian there somethin' 'orrid. They was closeted in the library upstairs not more than in the country or a country boy in Thursday traveling in all about 100 twenty minutes, and then she went. the city?

If you haven't a copy why not Attendance at Sunday school, Oct.

, 65. Collection $1.64. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schneider are visiting in Omaha this week. When the tennis court is finished any one may use it. Get your racket Mrs. Warren is entertaining a is very ill. His condition continues serious. Which is the dumbest-a city boy autoed to Sterling and Tecumseh last supper by Mrs. Walter Schneider and ice cream and cake were served. Saturday evening. Mrs. Geo Curyea entertained at

Indiana.

Yes, we'll urge our people to go over Shaw October 22.

Keep borrowing the books from the dinner Monday evening Mrs. Frank ibrary. Return them promptly. Some Uptegrove and son Edward of Colo- visitor Monday. one may be waiting for your book. rado, Mrs. Bina Kitzel and daughter the new light in front of the hotel, Curyca and daughter Lillian. of town. Who will be the pext? Miss Verla Schneider and Ralph his studies in medicine. Mrs. Thura- day visiting relatives and friends.

evening.

If Louisville can have a cartoonist why can't Cedar Creek or will Miss Wright do our posters, etc.? We are glad you are coming for our enterainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Schneider, Mr. and Grandma Broadbeck. and 'e rung for me and to bring 'im brandy and not delay about it. 'E us know when to expect them if they Jordan and Della Sutton. nearly emptied the decanter, too, before Mr. Bayard got 'ere. And the have a message for Cedar Creek, and doors, sime as like with the lidy. But w'en Mr. Bayard 'e come to got sir, the old gent follows 'im to the landin'- perfect-"I should answer-I should head ... "And it's most inopportune- I'll double cross you, and through the suade ourselves that even today it is departed this morning for their home tendance. the hour. I fear you must excuse me." newspapers too.' And with that, out 'e possible to get along fairly well at Manley.

ourselves. It is possible for a cripple | Blank books of all kinds at the in the metropolis for a few hours milked. Carl says that it is the Homer Kennedy, C. R. I. & P. agent at Lincoln and R. L. Brown agent supervisor at Fairbury, were in town a short time Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Alton of South Omaha visited Wednesday and Thursday of last week with Mrs. Alton's uncle, J. P. Rouse and wife.

Masters Clark and Clifford King of sister and brother-in-law from Lincoln came down on No. 14 Saturday to visit until Sunday evening Mr. John Peter Keil of Plattsmouth with Herbert Moore and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo Curyea accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Murtey miles.

A reception for Rev. Keith was to Plattsmouth to hear Dr. Anna held at the M. E. church Friday evening. Some fine music was Miss Tieman was entertained at rendered by Alvo's best musicians nesday. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Tool were Omaha visitors Tuesday.

"Beautiful Evening Star"! No it's Mrs. E. M. Stone and Mrs. Clarence Omaha visitor Tuesday. and it certainly brightens that part Paul Thurason left on No. 14 Sun- visiting his brothers here Monday. day evening for Chicago to resume

Mesinger in company with Miss son and little daughter went to Hendricks and Iven Meisinger attend- University Place on No. 17 Sunday frage meeting in Omaha Tuesday. ed the play at Plattsmouth Saturday evening to visit relatives and will > nesday. before returning to her home in Chicago.

Among those going to Omaha to attend the Ak-Sar-Ben Wednesday were: Messrs and Mesdames Kuehn,

Mr. and Mrs. Ault and Grandma Hary Appleman, Robert Johnson, G. Wolff entertained at dinner Oct., 4, P. Foreman, sr., Mike Lee, Dr. Muir Mrs. Wm. Schneider and family, the ter, Mrs. Joe Richardson, R. W. made Elmwood work for what they up a lot of wheat and will soon Misses Hendricks and Freeman and Stewart, Ray Stewart, Roy Bennett, got.

Louie Luestgarten, Ed. Casey and Why don't Plattsmouth people let Mr. and Mrs. E. Evens. Misses Eva

From Wednesday's Daily. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rouse of The Ladies Auxiliary of the next week. Walter is a splendid minute they came together it was 'am- we'll toot a bigger horn for them, Nelson, Nebraska, came in Saturday Presbyterian church held their remer and tongs. 'Ot and 'eavy they 'ad than they have ever tried to call the to visit the former's brother J. P. gular meeting yesterday afternoon Rouse and wife. Tuesday they drove and were entertained by Mrs. J. T. down there.

Sometime we may write of Cedar to Greenwood taking dinner with Geo. Baird and George K. Staats at the A fine boy. the first is reported Creek's pretty residences. We were Pierson and sister Jonnie, and visit- home of Mrs. Baird. A very interest- at the home of John Kearney seein' you-says 'is nime's Nemmysis." just where 'e was when he spoke to royally entertained the other evening ing their former homes and looking ing and enthusiastic business session south of town. The youngster There was a sound of heavy, drag- you, sir, before 'e 'ad the stroke; and by Mr. and Mrs. Roberts in a home over the country. Mr. and Mrs. Frank was held, which was opened with a made his appearance. Salurday ging footsteps on the upper landing, 'e says to 'im, says 'e: 'Remember, I which certainly reflects credit to his Rouse left Wednesday for the Ak- vocal selection by little Jane Rund- morning and of course Grandpa and Brian Shaynon showed himself at cawst you off. Don't come to me for -the lumber business, and adds much Sar-Ben carnival at Omaha and were strom. After the business session the Balfour will soom have him tak-

Ladies Auxiliary Meet.

slowly, with a weary shake of his as we,' he says, 'and if you cross me Sometimes we foolishly try to per- here visiting with friends in this city enjoyed by the large number in at- pray for one of those old fash-returning on No. 2 last evening. | only thing that will kill the fly.

Tritch place east of town, where Mr. Tritsch will feed them for the market. The bunch represent- FOR SALE-Scoleh Coffie pups. ed about $8,000 in real money. Last week Jess McGrew got a six-pound cat fish on his line, but the big boy succeeded in breaking the cord and took to deep water. A few days later Ed Schlater captured him on his throw line and kindly returned Jess his lost hook. Its fortunate sometimes to find lost articles, but Charley Reichart says there's an exception. Someone had lost a screw driver on the Plattsmouth road and the hind tire of Charley's gar "found" it FOR SALE-Rubber tire surone night this week when he was cturning from that city, While crossing a plank femporarily laid at the old bridge, Chas

ARPET WEAVING-10c per yard. deletered and the second second second second with a second Mrs. B. B. Warthen, Plattsmouth, * accident. One end of the plank Neb., Phone 369 W. 🚯 (Special Correspondence.) 🚯 gave way and Charley was precipitated to the ground some ten E. V. Everett was in Omaha Wed- feet below. Further than a slight sprain no damage was done,

News. Miss Ida Wieshiet was an Omaha

Frank Sheldon shipped a car Russell Hornbeck of Oklahoma was of hogs to South Omaha Tuesday, heard at Coates Hall Saturday night. John Murdoch is driving a The best dance in town. Will Boetter was home over Sun- brand new Buick that he purchased through the agency of Robert Mrs. I. D. Jones was up to the Sur- Willis.

Miss Isadore Hall is here from Mr. and Mrs. Will Rush were Ak- Duvall, Wash., making an ex-remain in Nebraska about 2 weeks Sar-Ben visitors Tuesday and Wed- tended visit to her many relatives and friends.

Miss Nora Eveland returned Sun-John Wunderlich confesses that day from Iowa, where she has been he is making a house to house visiting relatives. canvass, and that the people are

The Elmwood High - school girls taking very kindly to his candi-Joe Ryan, Thos Stout. Elmer Klyver, played our High school girls last Fri- dacy. Well, why shouldn't they day in game of basket ball, and the Max Shafer has moved back fully, and satisfaction guaranteed. score being 6 to 13 in favor of Elm- from Lincoln and has started its P. Foreman, sr., Mike Lee, Dr. Mulr and family. Mrs. Ellistt and daugh- wod's favor. That's alright girls, you Nehawaka mill up. They will grind Farm Sales a Specialty have a slock of flour and feed on hand.

Watter Schwartz will begin as Make Dates at the Plattsmouth State heiper at the depot the first of young fellow, and it ought not take long to master the details moments in a delightful social time Carl Stone was in this office and stitching on dainty fancy work. Wednesday with a sample of Hesanother guess comin'.' 'e mocks 'im tell you"-he works if need be after Father William Higgins and mother Dainty refreshments were served, sian fly infected wheat. According Mrs. W. D. Higgins, who have been which was likewise most thoroughly to what Carl says we all want to > toned winters like we used to have where a fire had to be built under T. E. Todd and wife were visitors the cows before they could be 10-6-1tdltwkly To feel strong, have good appetite and digestion, sleep interimpetering interimpetering soundly and enjoy life, use Burdock Blood Bitters, the family system tonic, Price $1.00. All the latest dance hits will be

-The Plattsmouth Auctioneer-

will look after your public sale business. All business handled care-

Rates Reasonable

Bank or Telephone 296-J.

The Best Flour on the Market

DREST R

202020202

WAHOO MILL CO

WAHOO, NEB.

FOREST ROSE

FLOUR

