THOUGHT FOR TODAY.

What one wants is to be interested, and if one isn't, life is pretty much the same in a trolley car as in an automobile.—Ellen Glasgow.

Winter coming on apace. Now's the time to fill that coal bin.

Only three weeks from today till election. Keep on the move, boys.

There is one consolation left to the man in the ranks. Death comes but once.

It will be more patriotic still to use plenty of cloth in that cotton dress.

Moon changed yesterday. Maybe the next will be a dry moon. We can stand it.

The Palace of Peace would serve as an excellent asylum for the widows and orphans.

Attending to one's own business is the easiest thing in the world to do, which probably explains why it is seldom done.

Evidently, the motorcycleists about town think people would consider them bad ones if they did not keep their mufflers open.

The railroads of the country are crying for an increased rate, as they are lost. When they are gone, what about the rest of us?

California may also be able to sell more of its justly celebrated climate to tourists who formerly went to Europe for that commodity.

"Is your husband as noisy at home as he is down town?" a doctor asked this reporter's wife. Now, what's the idea of telling anybody's wife what use of telling anybody's wife what Every voter in Cass county should vote against the removal of the state university. If removal carries, it will simply "feather the nests" of a few real estate speculators in Lincoln.

 That's all.

Mike Kime, democratic candidate for representative, is one of the common people, and if he is elected the people of Cass county are sure to have a representative in the legislature who will guard well their interests. Mr. Kime is a man that deserves the support of the farmers and everyone else who wants the county represented by one who knows the real need of the people.

Thank goodness, there is no censor for the baseball news.

Every hour you spend on the main corner of the city is putting off making good.

Safety first wouldn't be a bad thing to teach the boy, even if he is not to be engaged in railroading.

Anyone can start a boom, but most of them are not loaded heavy enough to cause much of an explosion.

About the only thing that can be done with the Mexicans, it would seem, is to abandon them to their fate, and let them fight it out.

In voting for Frank J. Libershall for county clerk, you are voting for a young man who has been tried in the official duties of the office and not found wanting.

The republicans are making calculations to capture one or two congressmen in Nebraska. They had better make the effort of their life to keep what they already have.

The European war news has to take the back page for the great series of ball games. The great American game will create more excitement than anything else in this country.

If every man in this town would make a practice of devoting two hours a week to yard improvement, it would be but a short time when we would have the most beautiful community in the world.

According to reports from Washington, congress is arranging to adjourn next Saturday night. This will give members who are candidates for re-election a chance to fix up their fences.

Soon President Wilson will set forth his Thanksgiving Day proclamation. This country is at peace with the balance of the world, and this is something to be thankful for, besides the overflowing granaries to furnish food for the outside world.

Says the World-Herald: "The republican party promises encouragement of private development of water power. Its candidate for governor repudiates the promise in advance of his election and promises instead public development at public expense.
 He is at war with his party—and his party would be at war with him if he were elected."

Don't you think for a moment that the people of Nebraska are ready to trade a man who has been tried and true as governor, for one of inexperience in the management of state affairs. Governor Moorehead has proved himself a great man in the position, while R. B. Howell has nothing to recommend him but the millions of indebtedness he has saddled upon the taxpayers of Omaha.

There will be no republican campaign textbook this year, for lack of material. The predicted financial panic, the empty dinner pails, the smokeless factory chimneys, disturbed commerce, depressed business and pessimistic speeches have all gone into the discard. "We cannot attack the currency law," said one republican spellbinder, who voices the opinion of most of them. "for its worth has been proved within the last few weeks. It would be foolhardy to attempt to convince the people that they should return to the Payne-Al-would laugh at us.

STICK TO THE FARM.

With winter coming on, and the crops safely harvested and stowed away, many young men of the farms will be casting longing eyes toward the great cities.

They would leave the green fields and their pleasures and seek the glare of the electric lights and the allurements of the great white way.

They would taste of the greater life.

And therein lurks the most haunting peril that confronts our country today, for the nation is dependent upon the farmer.

Our population is increasing by leaps and bounds, and millions of additional mouths must be fed each year.

From the soil of the farms must come the produce which sustains life and body for the countless thousands who throng the cities.

And year by year young men of the country are leaving the farms to seek their fortunes in the human bee hives.

And each one who forsakes the farm reduces the producing capacity of the country, although our constantly increasing population calls for greater farm production.

Young men of brains are needed on the farm. Their presence there means much to their country—a thousand times more than they realize.

The city offers but one chance in a hundred for success, for every large city is already over populated, and for every job worth the having there are many applicants.

Today, as we write this article, every city in the country is groaning under the burden of its unemployed.
 Many hundreds of thousands of people are without bread, and wholly dependent upon charity. That is the condition of the great cities today—a condition which should not appeal to any intelligent young man from the farm.

The farm offers the young man a life of honor, and of peace, and of plenty.

The glare of the electric light of fers him all that he should not have.

Young men of wisdom should stick to the farm.

Fools have no wisdom to lose.

Falsifying will not get anything for the man who engages in it. Mark that!

No sooner does Mexico get through with a revolution than it must undergo a street car strike.

The better looking the woman the more eager she should be to don a cotton gown.

The movement to colonize Belgians in the United States is becoming more popular than ever in Belgium.

American fashions are being adopted by American women. Who says the United States is not patriotic?

While the descendants of Wellington and Ney are fighting together, the descendants of Blucher are on the other side.

Many of the belligerents signified a willingness to quit fighting. Will the rest of the world attribute it to divine influence?

A. J. Snyder, democratic candidate for recorder of deeds, has been very attentive to the duties of the office, so much so, in fact, that he has made many new friends by his gentlemanly deportment and efficiency.

They must have a queer attorney general down in Arkansas. He says that although the law exempts from the road tax all persons who are physically disabled, it does not provide that the certificate or oath of a physician shall constitute evidence of such disability. He recommends that persons refusing to work out or pay the tax be indicted by grand juries.
 But the grand jurors will be likely to supply the common sense to the law which the exceedingly technical official has been unable to find.

AN APPEAL TO DEMOCRATS.

An obligation as party men and as citizens rests upon the democrats of Nebraska and it is one that calls imperatively for immediate discharge.

The democratic state committee, charged with the conduct of the national and state campaign in Nebraska, is "broke."

It is in urgent need of funds with which to carry on the ordinary and necessary activities of the contest that is being waged to put Nebraska in the Wilson and Moorehead column on the third day of next month.

The appeal issued by Chairman Thompson and Secretary Sprague appears elsewhere in today's paper. The World-Herald urges all those of its readers who are in sympathy with the purposes of the democratic campaign to give to that appeal their prompt and generous response.

A great deal of money is not required. But a few thousand dollars may spell the difference between defeat and victory. There is work, a great deal of work, that ought to be done and is not being done, purely because of a lack of funds.

The campaign against Wilson and Moorehead is well financed. The republican headquarters at Lincoln are the scene of extraordinary activity.
 There is a plenty of money to hire a small army of clerks and to provide an immense amount of literature and letters with which the state is being flooded, containing unfair and untruthful attacks on democratic administration in both state and nation.

It is up to the democrats of Nebraska who indorse the administration of Woodrow Wilson, and the administration of Governor Moorehead, and who desire a Nebraska indorsement for both at the polls, to furnish the funds necessary for providing means to meet the republican attack.

There is no time to spare. Send in your contributions at once to Dr.
 P. L. Hall at Lincoln, treasurer of the state committee—or, if you prefer, mail it to the World-Herald and this newspaper will forward it to Dr.
 Hall. Send a dollar if you can spare no more. Make it five, or ten, or twenty-five dollars if you can afford it. It will be money devoted to a good cause—the cause of clean and honest and efficient government.— World-Herald.

The Beatrice Sun winds up a long editorial in reference to Howell, who is trying his best to be governor of Nebraska, as follows: "Mr. Howell cannot claim the votes of republican partisans, because he opposed the republican candidate for president; he cannot claim the votes of the Roosevelt wing of the party, because Mr.
 Roosevelt has declared for Mr. Sackett; he cannot ask for democratic support, because he cannot lay a finger upon any fatal error of Governor Moorehead's; he cannot ask the support of the independent voters whose only interest is in getting honest and efficient government, because it has not shown that a change in the governorship is needed to gain that end. Therefore Mr. Howell's name is pants."

An effort is to be put forth by the members of the G. A. R. everywhere to organize the Sons of Veterans.
 We approve of this move because it will not be many years till the last survivor of the civil war will be consigned to the silent tomb. Why not also include in the organization of the Sons of Veterans Daughters of Veterans, also? The daughters of the old veterans could assist in many ways in making a success of local organizations. We would like to add this suggestion.

Senator La Follette is a pretty shrewd guy. He is not to be seduced into giving up a good job to make an uncertain race for another.

 duced the passing parade to wear

CASTORIA

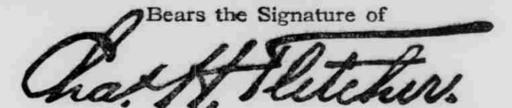

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher and has been made under his personal goric, Drops and Soothing Syrup. It is pleasant. It

Perpetual Motion: Madera chased

 Carranza the boot.

Governor Moorehead is addressing large crowds throughout the state, and his speeches are listened to with strict attention. The great mass of people of the state are for the governor, which is indicated by the great crowds that turn out to welcome him.

Don't forget that Henry Snoke is the democratic candidate for commissioner from the Third district, and that he is excellently well fitted for the position. Henry is a well-to-do farmer and lives near Eagle, where he has resided many years. He understands the wants of the taxpayers, and he will prove ready to serve them in the most practical manner.

Governor Moorehead has been a shrewd, careful business man all his life. In every position he has held this has been proven. In his own private affairs he has been successful as well as in positions of trust tendered by the people he has proven a most careful public servant. His record as a genuine business man is demonstrated by his past two years' service in the governor's office, in which position he has taken the same interest in the affairs of the state as though they were his individual interests. He is a friend of the people at large, and careful guarding of their interests has been his watchword. The people have cause to feel proud of Governor Moorehead, and his election is beyond a doubt.

How could a railway president be expected to remember such a trifle as a $1,501,000 note?

If Mr. Bryan and Senator Hitchcock would come to some understanding and get those appointments off their hands, it would help the democratic ticket amazingly. They know this as well as we or anybody else—then why not move and move quickly?

W. B. Howard is the only man that has control of the state auditor's office that has made an effort to discharge his duty in its entirety.
 There is due the state from several counties the sum of $96,000 for the care of insane prior to 1891, and Auditor Howard puts it up against former state auditors, including Silas L.
 Barton, and it becomes necessary for those former auditors to explain this neglect. Mr. Howard has demonstrated that he is one of the most competent officials the state has ever had.

PHYSICIAN WITH THE TREY O'HEART FILM COMPANY

It is an interesting fact, and one that is not generally known, that in view of the musical dangers that attend the production of "The Trey o' Hearts" series, the company is not allowed to leave the studio grounds at Hollywood for the purpose of staging scenes in the serial unless it is accompanied by one of the company physicians from the hospital at Universal City. With him goes an emergency kit complete enough for him to set up a temporary field hospital, should the occasion arise.

So far as can be ascertained, this is the first time on record where such a precaution has been deemed necessary. The wisdom of the unusual procedure, however, has been demonstrated a number of times, for scarcely an installment is completed that has not been attended by some accident of more or less seriousness, calling for the immediate services of a physician. That none of them have been serious is, of course, partly due to the character of the actors who are willing to run such risks. But it must be admitted that luck seems to have played an important part in the happy termination of several of them.
