

MR. AND MRS. R. H. FRANS AGREE-ABLY SURPRISED

Renew the Banns Solemnized Thirty-seven Years Ago in Plattsburgh by Judge W. H. Newell.

The following, taken from the Union Ledger, will be of much interest to the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Frans and wife, two of the most prominent residents of Union, who on the 14th celebrated their thirty-seventh wedding anniversary:

Our report of this marriage may seem rather late in getting into print, as it occurred thirty-seven years ago, Wednesday, October 14, 1877, in Plattsburgh, the ceremony being performed by Judge W. H. Newell, who still resides in that city; the contracting parties being Robert H. Frans and Miss Jennie V. Fitch, both residing at Rock Bluffs at that time, and for many years past highly esteemed residents of Union. The fact that Wednesday was their wedding anniversary escaped their minds, but their sons, Ray and Rue, were not so forgetful, and they quickly planned a surprise by inviting a number of neighbors to spend the evening at the Frans home, giving their parents the "surprise of their lives" when the crowd arrived at 8 o'clock. The visitors were given a cordial welcome and enjoyed the evening in social conversation and music, and a nice luncheon was served at the proper time.

Those present were Wm. Mueller and wife, M. H. Shoemaker and wife, W. B. Banning and wife, W. A. Taylor and wife, W. H. Mark and wife, John R. Pierson and wife, Dan Lynn and wife, G. P. Barton and wife, Matt McQuin and wife, Myron Lynde and wife, James Wilson and wife, Mrs. Vesta Clark, Mrs. Barbara Taylor, Mrs. Wm. Craig, Mrs. Fannie Eikenberry, Mrs. Athalia Delaney, Mrs. James Taylor, Miss Edith Frans, Miss Pearl Bramblet, Miss Zola Frans, C. L. Graves, Hollis Banning and John R. Pierson, Jr.

THE PLATTSBROUGH FOOT BALL TEAM WON ANOTHER GLORIOUS VICTORY SUNDAY

Before a large sized crowd yesterday afternoon at the ball park the Plattsburgh team was able to add their second victory of the season, when they took the Omaha Athletics into camp to the tune of 9 to 7. The game chewing with the referee as well as much rough playing in which the locals seemed to have the best of it, and during the course of the game the gridiron greatly resembled a battle field with the injured players scattered over it. Plattsburgh was able to put the ball over for a touchdown in the first of the game, but failed to kick goal. Beal later in the game distinguished himself as in the game on the preceding Sunday, when with only a few minutes of play to go on he placed a successful field goal that added to the list of points for the locals. The Athletics, principally through the cleverness of Moore, their star, succeeded in pushing the ball over for a touchdown on the use of the forward pass, and McLaughlin succeeded in placing the goal kick with success. This team representing the metropolis was much stronger than the one which made its appearance here on last Sunday and were much faster in handling the forward pass to which their good showing may be attributed to a great extent. The audience present was much larger than on the preceding game and indicates that the football spirit is being increased by the success of the locals.

The Right Man.
It isn't very often that a busy, progressive farmer of the caliber that our friend, Clarence Pool, is, can be persuaded to run for office. When he does consent to get out and make the campaign for an office that needs his services, it is up to the voters of his district to see that he is elected. Clarence is a candidate for state representative from Cass county on the republican ticket, and it will show mighty poor judgment on the part of the electorate here if he isn't the man that represents this county in the next legislature.—Weeping Water Republican.—Adv.

Cass County Woman Sues.
From Saturday's Daily.
Among the divorce cases filed in the district court at Lincoln this week is one that will be very interesting to the residents of the western portion of Cass county, as the parties interested for a number of years ran the hotel at Elmwood, where they were both well and favorably known. Mrs. Mary G. Hart is the plaintiff in the case, and Charles S. Hart the defendant. The plaintiff alleges in her petition that she was compelled to do all the work around the hotel in Elmwood which they had operated for the past.

BARN AND CONTENTS BELONGING TO JOHN GOUCHEUR DESTROYED BY FIRE

From Saturday's Daily.
John Goucheur, who is engaged in farming some four miles south of this city on the island, is considerably loser as the result of a very disastrous fire that destroyed the large hay barn on his place last Thursday night. Mr. Goucheur had been in town and started home late in the afternoon, as dusk was falling, and as he neared home noticed the blaze reflected and stopped to discuss the appearance of the fire with a neighbor who was out in his yard watching the blaze, and they all supposed that it was over in the Iowa bottoms, and it was not until he arrived home that John discovered that the fire was on his own place and that the hay barn was the object being consumed by the blaze. The barn was well filled with hay, there being close to one hundred tons stored there, and this was an entire loss, together with the large bailer used in putting up the hay. The hay was also sold at $12.50 a ton and was awaiting delivery to the purchaser, and Mr. Goucheur will face a loss of some $1,500 as the result of the fire. This is the second time that Mr. Goucheur has suffered a loss by fire, as last year the hay barn situated in the same spot was wiped out by fire, and this year the calamity is repeated. The origin of the fire is unknown to Mr. Goucheur, although many hold that it was caused by spontaneous combustion, but the real cause of the fire will probably never fully be known.

Guardian Is Appointed.
In the county court Saturday the matter of the appointment of a guardian for James S. Rough, incompetent, was brought up and on the showing of the petitioners, John D. Rough, a son, was appointed as such guardian. The appointment was made necessary by the fact of the old age and feeble condition of James S. Rough, and his inability to look after his business matters properly. He is possessed of some $5,000 worth of personal property, consisting of stocks and notes as well as money in the bank. A bond of $7,000 will be furnished by the guardian appointed.

CANDIDATES ARE SOMEWHAT NUMEROUS IN THE COUNTY SEAT TODAY

From Saturday's Daily.
The candidates for county offices were quite numerous in the city today interviewing the voters and laying their cause before them. The two candidates for representative, M. G. Kime of Nehawka, democratic candidate, and Clarence E. Pool of Wabash, republican candidate, were here bright and early visiting their friends while John M. Creamer, republican candidate for county clerk, accompanied Mr. Pool in his visit to get acquainted with the Plattsburgh people. John Wunderlich of Nehawka, democratic candidate for sheriff, was also in the city to look over the situation.

DEATH OF LITTLE BABE OF MR. AND MRS. SPECK AT COLUMBUS, NEB.

From Saturday's Daily.
The body of the little 2-week-old baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Speck of Columbus, Neb., arrived here last evening on No. 14 and was taken to the home of Mr. Speck's mother, Mrs. Clara Speck, on Locust street, where the funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The sympathy of the many friends here will go out to the sorrowing father and mother in the loss of their little one who was taken from them so soon after her advent into the world and whose loss will be keenly felt by them. The taking away of one so young and innocent, while it leaves an aching void in the heart of the father and mother as well as of the other relatives, is proof of the all powerful love of the Master who shields the little ones from the dangers and temptations of the world and lets their little lives bloom forth glorified in eternity.

THE DEATH OF MRS. ROY CASTLE NEAR MYNARD LAST SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Yesterday afternoon, at her home near Mynard, Mrs. Roy Castle passed away after a short illness due from inflammation of the bowels. The death of the lady comes as quite a shock to her husband, who has been employed on the farm of J. R. Vallery, near Mynard, for some time past and where the family made their home. Mrs. Castle was a young woman in the prime of life, being only 27 years of age, and her death comes as a grievous blow to the husband. The body was brought to this city this afternoon to be shipped to the old home of the Castles at Oakland, Ia., for interment.

Suffering From Sprained Ankle.
Glen Edwards, one of the star players of the local football team, is limping around today nursing a sprained ankle as the result of his participation in the football game yesterday. The sprain is not a particularly severe one, but will compel Glen to be on the retired list for a few days.

Here to Attend Wedding.
From Saturday's Daily.
Quite a number of the relatives of Miss Ellen Pollock, whose wedding to Mr. Lynn O. Minor occurs this evening, have arrived in the city to be present at the ceremony. Among those here today were Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. King, Waukegan, Ill.; Miss Helen Clark, Omaha; Miss Isadora Sheldon, Nehawka; Miss Doris Patterson, Chicago. The wedding will occur this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Pollock, parents of the bride.

MRS. W. E. MAXON DEPARTS FOR PANAMA ACCOMPANIED BY HER FATHER AND MOTHER

From Saturday's Daily.
This morning Mr. and Homer McKay and their daughter, Mrs. W. E. Maxon, departed on their long looked forward to trip to the Panama canal zone, where they will spend the winter. There was a large number of their friends at the Burlington station to bid them God-speed and a safe journey to the southern land. Mrs. Maxon lives at Panama and has been here on a visit during the summer months, and takes her parents back for the winter to the warmer climate. The party will leave New York on October 22 on the government steamer bound for the canal and expect to reach Colon on Wednesday, October 28. En route to New York they will visit a number of the larger cities on their way and expect to have one of the times of their lives on the trip. It is certainly a trip of a lifetime and will include viewing one of the greatest engineering feats of all time in the great waterway that unites the Atlantic and the Pacific oceans.

A FINE SOCIAL DANCE GIVEN BY KATHOLITKY SOKOL SOCIETY SATURDAY EVENING

The Katholityk Sokol society Saturday evening gave a splendid social entertainment at their hall in the west part of the city that was attended by a crowd that filled the large hall to its utmost capacity, and for several hours the fun held forth in full sway. The order of the evening was dancing and the "Weary Willies" furnished the music for the event in their usual pleasing manner that delighted the merry dancers. Their selections numbered several of the most popular hits of the day and were warmly applauded by the delighted auditors. During the evening the ladies served a most pleasing luncheon in the balcony of the hall that was partaken of by the large crowd with relish and appreciation of the culinary art of the ladies who prepared the "feed." It was a late hour when the tired but happy dancers wended their way homeward rejoicing at their good fortune in being present. This society is enlarging their hall by placing a basement in the building that will add greatly to their capacity in caring for the large crowds that attend their social events.

Returns to Headquarters.
David G. White, United States forest assistant, who is connected with the government forest service at Washington, has returned to his headquarters after an extended trip on an industrial wood investigation through the southern part of the United States. Mr. and Mrs. White are former Nebraskaans. Mrs. White was Miss Gertrude McKinley of Crete and was well known in Lincoln.—State Journal.

Enjoys Fine Time Yesterday.
The T. J. Sokol society yesterday had a most enjoyable old-fashioned time at their hall in the west part of the city with dancing and other amusements. The "Weary Willies" gave a large assortment of the favorite Bohemian tunes during the afternoon and evening that served to furnish the means of enjoying the dance for the day. Everyone present reports having a royal good time.
