From Wednesday's Daily.

Last evening C. F. Reavis, republican candidate for congress, paid a visit to Plattsmouth, remaining here over night to meet the citizens in the interest of his candidacy. Mr. Reavis is making a thorough campaign of the first district and finds great encouragement in the attitude of the voters toward his candidacy. While here Mr. Reavis found time to drop in at the Journal headquarters for a short social call, which was very much enjoyed, as he is one of the most genial men in the world, and it is always a pleasure to meet with him. He states that everything is looking fine in the direction of his success, and he feels that the voters are responding to his candidacy in good shape and that he will be able to put M. C. after his name after the 4th of March. He has been in all the counties of the district, while Congressman Maguire has not as yet been in the district, being at Washington, where congress is in session.

From Wednesday's Daily.

A committee from the membership of the Christian church, consisting of G. P. Eastwood, Bert Norr and B. A. McElwain, were in Omaha yesterday taking up the matter of securing a new piano for the use of the Sunday school and church. In the recent contest at the H. M. Seennichsen store the church won the second prize, a certificate good for $250 on the purchase of a new piano, and to this Mr. Seennichsen donated $50 in cash to be applied on the purchase of the piano, and with this the church members added sufficient funds to purchase the instrument. The committee selected a piano while in Omaha, and the instrument will arrive Friday to be used in church work.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank the many kind friends and neighbors who by their sympathy assisted us in bearing the grief at the death of our two little daughters and sisters, and for the beautiful floral remembrances at the funeral. May the same sympathy be shown them in their hour of trouble as our heartfelt wish.

The Logical Candidate.

From Wednesday's Daily.

A. F. Sturm, republican candidate for state senator for Otoe and Cass counties, was born of German parentage on a Cass county farm just a mile and a half from Nehawka. At 24, after spending a short time in the study of law, he started in the lumber business at Nehawka. That was in 1887 and he has been there ever since. His whole record is there and is open to all. Reared on the farm, he has the farmers' interests at heart. Experienced in business, he has the training necessary to make an efficient lawmaker. Such a combination of these essential qualifications in the one candidate is seldom found, and it would seem that Mr. Sturm is the logical man for the place.—Adv.

AUTOMOBILE COLLISION NEAR MURRAY WITH BUT LITTLE DAMAGE

From Tuesday's Daily.

A collision between two automobiles is reported to have occurred on the road near Murray yesterday afternoon. It seems that one of the machines was coming into Murray from Union and was just turning west onto the main road into Murray, while the other car was running from Murray to this city. As the machines neared each other the drivers both started to turn out for each other and as they did so saw that a collision was about to occur and they attempted to turn back into the roadway at the same time, when the two cars were side-swiped, inflicting a good deal of damage to the machines, but not injuring the parties in the cars. The one coming into Murray was driven by Don C. Rhoden, and had the fender mashed up, as well as the axle of one of the wheels twisted up some, while the car of Harve Manners was only injured in the breaking of a lamp and a few bumps on the fender. The affair was purely accidental and no blame is attached to either driver, as both were endeavoring to get out of the way of each other when they came together.

JUDGE ARCHER MARRIES A YOUNG OMAHA COUPLE

From Wednesday's Daily.

Yesterday afternoon Harold William Whitney of Omaha and Miss Ruth Loretta Case of Florence moved down from the metropolis and, calling at the office of the county judge, secured a license that would enable them to enter into the matrimonial state. After securing the license the young people departed for the ceremony that was to make their happy hearts as one was performed in the usual pleasing manner of the justice. The wedding was witnessed by Mrs. Edith Wright and Mrs. Stella Kendrick, both of Omaha, who had accompanied the young people to this city from the metropolis. Following the wedding the party left for the vicinity of Murray, where they will visit at the home of some friends there.

Ladies' Auxiliary Meet.

From Wednesday's Daily.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church held their regular meeting yesterday afternoon and were entertained at the home of Mrs. C. E. Hartford, with Mrs. Hartford and Mrs. G. L. Farley as hostesses. There was no program, but quite an extended, interesting and enthusiastic business session was held, at which time the ladies decided not to give any chicken pie suppers during the coming winter months, but that each member would be given 25 cents with which to invest in something with which to see how much they could realize therefrom, thereby raising funds by individual effort. Mrs. J. H. Wise of Omaha was present and gave a short talk on what the ladies' society of an Omaha church, which has a membership of 300, was doing, this talk being very much appreciated and enjoyed by the ladies. Delightful refreshments were served, which were most thoroughly appreciated by the large number in attendance. An hour devoted to a social time brought to a close a very pleasant meeting.

The bar docket for the coming term of the district court is being prepared to be turned over to the printers, and it contains twenty-nine equity cases, twenty-seven law cases and nine criminal cases. SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS OFF FOR THE WEEPING WATER CONVENTION

There were quite a number of the Sunday school workers of the city this morning who left for Weeping Water, where they go to attend the Cass County Sunday School convention there today. Miss Ella Margaret Brown, one of the leading workers of the state, is to be present at the convention and give a number of lectures in regard to the work in other lands. There will be a larger number motor down this afternoon to attend the convention and be entertained by the good people of Weeping Water, who have prepared to take care of their visitors.

JAMES MURPHY, STATE FOOD INSPECTOR, IN PLATTSMOUTH TODAY

James Murphy, state inspector of the dairy, food and drug department of the state, came down this morning from Lincoln to look after his duties among the different business houses of the city. Mr. Murphy has made a fine record in economy in the conduct of his office during the time he has held it that has placed his department in fine shape in marked contrast to that of the previous republican administration. Mr. Murphy was a resident of Table Rock previous to his appointment to the office he now holds by Governor Morehead and has since removed to Lincoln. While in the city Mr. Murphy called at the Journal office for a few minutes to pay his regards to the editor.

HON. JOHN MATTES VISITS A SHORT TIME WITH HIS PLATTSMOUTH FRIENDS

From Wednesday's Daily.

Hon. John Mattes of Nebraska City candidate for state senator on the democratic ticket for this district, was in the city for a short time yesterday while en route for Omaha, and, of course, stopped here for a few minutes to visit with his friends. Mr. Mattes has not been able to make as thorough a campaign of the district as he would like to, and will not be able to meet as many of the voters personally as he would like to, but the people of the Second senatorial district can rest assured that the heart of John Mattes beats in sympathy with the common people at the time and that his services, if elected to the legislature, will be devoted to seeing that the interests of the taxpayers and his constituents are looked after in the proper shape. Mr. Mattes is a broad-minded gentleman who will hold the interests of both Cass and Otoe counties as sacred in the discharge of his duties as state senator.

BE A LITTLE MORE CAREFUL IN SWEEPING YOUR DIRT INTO THE STREETS

There is a practice among a great many people of sweeping everything from their walks into the street and, regardless of what it is and whether it will do any damage or not. For some time there has been considerable complaint of the large number of acks and small nails that after being used to fasten up signs or posters are dropped on the walks and hence are swept into the street to become a nuisance and a danger to the horses and automobiles going up and down the main street of the city. Only yesterday one of our citizens offered a puncture to the tire of his auto purely through the carelessness of people sweeping these tacks into the street and quite a loss of time as well as the expense of repairing the untire was occasioned when it would have been just as easy in the first place to have gathered up the tack and thrown it where it would not occasion any damage or inconvenience to passers by. There should be an effort made to stop this practice, if the safety of the automobiles going along the street are to be considered, and they certainly have some rights that should be respected.

Cleanliness.

A clean man, even if poor, commands the respect of everybody, while an unclean person drives you away from him. You are afraid of him. Everybody should and can keep clean, not only externally, but also internally. If we allow undigestible particles of food to remain in our body and to poison our blood, we are inviting disease. THE ELECTION BALLOT IS ONE OF IMMENSE LENGTH

The form for the ballot at the coming November election has been received at the office of County Clerk Frank J. Libershal from the secretary of state and will certainly be a lengthy one, as in addition to the long list of candidates for the different offices there are a number of constitutional amendments and propositions brought up under the initiative and referendum act to be passed upon by the voters. The Fort Kearney Memorial armory appropriation will be submitted to the will of the voters as well as the employers' liability law and the proposed suffrage amendment to the state constitution. The proposition for the relocation of the state university at the state farm is to be submitted to the voters of the state on a separate ballot as well as will be also the non-partisan judiciary ticket which contains the names of the candidates for supreme, district and county judges. The clerk will prepare the list of county candidates to be placed on the ballot and it will then be ready for the printer to get in readiness for the election. The length of the regular ballot and the different small ballots to be given out to the voters will make the task of voting a strenuous job this fall.
