THE WOLF AT THE DOOR!

WAS Disraeli correct when he said, "Youth is a blunder, manhood a struggle, old age a regret?" Often, alas, this is ONLY TOO TRUE. What will YOUR old age be? You can prevent it being a wolf of REGRET snarling at your door if you use this sound, reliable bank in your money matters. For your own FUTURE good DO IT. Drive the wolf of regret away.

Four per cent interest on time deposits.

MURRAY STATE BANK

Edgar Creamer has been quite sick for the past few days.

Will Rakes, residing down near Union, has been numbered with the sick for the past few days.

A handsome little baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Taney on last Sunday. Both the mother and little one are getting along nicely.

Mrs. Patten, residing south of Murray has been on the sick list for the past few days, and her condition has been quite serious, but she is much better at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore were visiting with Murray friends for a few hours Wednesday. Mrs. Moore has not been in very good health for the past few weeks.

Rosa May Creamer, of Omaha, came down home last Saturday evening, and is making a few days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Creamer, east of Murray.

Miss Eda Marguardt, of Avoca, republican candidate for county superintendent of schools, has been in Murray and vicinity a few days this week looking after her political interests.

The Ladies Aid Society met Wednesday at the pleasant farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wiley, east of Murray. Mrs. Wiley is an excellent entertainer, and we are safe in saying that the large number of ladies present had a most enjoyable time. The usual very busy and profitable meeting for the society was held.

County Superintendent, Miss Mary Foster, was in Murray Monday of this week looking after her political interests in this locality. Miss Foster has a host of good friends in this locality who are going to remember that her name is on the ballot on election day. She has made one of the best officials Cass County ever had in the office of county superintendent.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Creamer were Plattsmouth visitors last Saturday afternoon.

Jos. Mrasek was looking after some business matters in the county seat last Saturday.

Miss Freda Beck, of Elmwood, is again on duty at the Murray Telephone Exchange, after a months vacation.

Mrs. W. S. Smith was a Plattsmouth visitor Monday evening, remaining over night at the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rawls.

The little village of Murray has been rather quiet for the past few days, which is sure something unusual, only at this time of the year, when all the farmers are busy gathering corn.

Walter Green spent last Saturday and Sunday in Plattsmouth, and returned home Monday morning with Mrs. Green and children, who have been visiting for the past few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Budig, in Plattsmouth.

J. G. Wunderlich democratic candidate for sheriff, was in Murray this week, interviewing his many friends in this locality. Mr. Wunderlich is one of the best men in Cass county, and if the people elect him to the office of sheriff he will do his duty.

Uncle George Shrader, residing east of Murray, has been enjoying a visit from two of his nephews, Pierce and Homer Shrader, from Virginia. The young men were enroute for the state of Oregon, where the father of Pierce Shrader resides. They departed Wednesday morning on their westward journey, and were accompanied as far as Omaha by Uncle George and son J. D.

J. D. Shrader was an Omaha visitor Monday.

Mrs. Kikendall went down to Weeping Water Wednesday morning, where she will spend a few days visiting among friends and relatives.

The Murray new school house is almost completed, and is sure going to be a dandy. The doors will be open for school on the first of the month.

Z. W. Shrader shipped a car of feeding cattle down from South Omaha Wednesday morning, having bought them on the market Tuesday. They were driven to his farm from Murray.

M. C. Baker, who has been in Murray for the past few days visiting with his son Arthur and family, departed last Saturday for Clay Center, Neb., where he will spend the winter with his daughter, Mrs. Burton.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Smith, who reside up near Wausa, Neb., are rejoicing this week over the arrival of fine new baby girl at their home a few days ago. The mother and little one are doing nicely, and Pete is the happiest old boy in north Nebraska.

Somebody played quite a trick on Dwyer Todd last Sunday evening, by running his auto into a hiding place that required some time to locate it.

This might prove a pretty dangerous proceeding to some one if it is kept up. The joke was taken in good humor by Dwyer, but it might not prove so funny for the next fellow.

The social dance given by Elmer Boedecker at the Jenkins hall, on last Saturday evening was a success in every particular. He will give another on next Saturday evening, Oct. 24th. The music will be furnished by the Jacobs orchestra of Omaha, and everybody knows well what to expect from this excellent musical organization.

The junior young ladies were very busy for a few hours last Monday evening, at which time they were engaged in their first halloween prank. They secured quite a quantity of soap from some source, and proceeded to soap most all the windows in the town. The task of removing the same the next morning was rather difficult, but the girls had a good time, so it did not make any difference.

The roads over southeast of Murray are in a terrible condition since the last rains, and we are informed that it is almost impossible for the public to travel them at the present time. The mail carrier tells us that if something is not done with them before the winter season sets in it will be almost impossible for him to carry the mail to some of his patrons residing in that locality. Some of it will be impossible to travel over. It is the duty of the commissioners to look after them at once.

The fine farm home of Mr. and Mrs. John Stones, now under construction on their farm northwest of Murray, is nearing completion, and is ready for the plasterers. This will be one of the finest farm homes in this part of Cass county. The heating plant, which will be one of the favorite Round Oak, will soon be put in by the firm of Baker & Nickels, the enterprising Murray hardware men. The carpenter work is being done by W. W. Hamilton and crew of workmen. Mr. Stones sure believes in having the best when it comes to a home, and we believe that he is getting it.

Mrs. Baxter was a Plattsmouth visitor last Monday.

It is no uncommon occurrence now-a-days to hear a voter make the remark: "The office of county coroner should be filled by a physician". This is certainly true, the line of work going with the duties of a coroner, is the profession that has been a life study for the doctor and physician. If this is true, when you vote for Dr. Brendel you are surely voting for the right man for the office of coroner. Dr. Brendel comes from Murray and certainly is deserving of the support of the voters of East and West Rock Bluffs precincts.

PRETTY OCTOBER WEDDING NEAR ROCK BLUFFS

Uniting of Mr. William Oliver, Jr., and Miss Winnie Frances Hutchison.

From Tuesday's Daily.

One of the pretty fall weddings was that which was solemnized Thursday evening, October 15, at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hutchison, when their daughter, Miss Winnie Frances, was united in marriage to William Oliver, Jr.

The rooms and porch of the Hutchison home had been beautifully decorated for the occasion in pink and white. Promptly at 8 o'clock Mrs. Fred Rampe, Jr., a cousin of the groom, sang very sweetly "I Love You Truly." At the close of the song Mrs. John Hendricks played the "Lohengrin" wedding march, as the bridal couple, preceded by Miss Marie Hutchison as ring bearer, the Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union, Miss Elizabeth Oliver as bridesmaid and Mr. Harry Henton as best man took their places on the porch where the marriage lines were read by Rev. Taylor.

After the congratulations a delicious two-course luncheon was served by the Misses Buelah Sans, Elsie Gopen, Flossie Hutchison, Mr. Freese and Messlames Carl Cole, Will Carey and Muri Shaw. Miss Jessie Barrows and Hazel Sullivan presided at the punch bowl.

The bride was beautiful in a gown of white shadow lace over white satin with silver trimmings. She carried a large bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Elizabeth Oliver, sister of the groom, was gowned in pink crepe chiffon over pink and carried bouquet of pink roses. The groom and best man wore the conventional black.

The wedding presents received by the young people were many and beautiful in the extreme.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hutchison, and is a young lady highly esteemed and loved by all who know her. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Oliver and a young man of high character, and who has a host of friends who will join in wishing him and his charming helpmate a long and happy wedded life.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver left Friday morning for Janesville, Wis., where they will spend two weeks at the home of Frank Oliver, brother of the groom. They will also visit with the bride's brother, Roy Hutchison, at Minneapolis, Minn., and will return home by way of Randolph, Neb., for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Will Hutchison. They will be at home to their many friends after November 28 on the farm, two miles east of Murray.

Dance at Murray.

There will be another one of those social and good time dances given at Jenkins' hall in Murray, on Saturday evening, October 24, given by Elmer Boedecker. The music will be furnished by the Jacobs orchestra of Omaha, and a general good time is in store for all.

Duroc Jersey Hog Sale.

Elsewhere in this issue of the Journal will be found an advertisement announcing the first annual sale of Duroc Jersey hogs, by H. L. Oldham. Mr. Oldham has been a great admirer of this particular breed of swine for many years, and has never lost an opportunity to increase the value of his strains when presented to him, and at the present time he really believes that he has some individuals that will bear the closest inspection, and will prove valuable additions to any breeder's herd. Look over his advertisement and attend the sale, as here you might find just what you are in need of.

CHURCH NOTES.

United Presbyterian Church
Mrs. C. W. Gilmore, Mrs. Eliza Young, Miss Neva Latta and Mr. S. G. Latta are our delegates to the Weeping Water convention.

The men's bible class held a meeting at the home of the president, Chas. Spangler, on Tuesday evening. Owing to the impromptu nature of the meeting some of the members had not been notified.

Mrs. M. G. Kime, of Nehawka, was a visitor in the church last Sabbath. The Woman's Missionary Society will hold their annual Thank Offering service next Sabbath at 11:00 o'clock a. m.

A Surprise to Mrs. E. R. Queen.

The brothers and sisters of Mrs. E. R. Queen gave her a very pleasant surprise Sunday morning, when they all arrived with well filled baskets to assist her in celebrating her birthday. The day was well spent in visiting and enjoying the elegant feast spread for the occasion. Mrs. Queen received many handsome gifts. Those present were: Mrs. R. H. Fitch, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. James Fitch, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Fitch, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Fitch, Mr. E. A. Frans, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Riggs, and Edwin Riggs.

LIBRARY NOTES.

Mrs. S. O. Pitman and Miss Pauline Oldham returned home last Friday evening from Pawnee, where they attended the State Federation meeting that met in that place from Tuesday until Saturday morning. At the meeting a number of resolutions were adopted, among them was that concerning peace. They asked that all clubs in the state have programs on peace. Other resolutions were for Political Equality, and living wages for Nebraska women, and civil service reform in Nebraska public institutions. A complete report will be given at the regular library meeting Tuesday evening.

The library is opening with a full quota of members; a number of new members coming in for the filling of the vacancies made.

Be prompt in returning books, as others are waiting to read them and a number are needed in the high school work.

The library is for every one, big, old and little. Be perfectly free to use it. It is for you.

Regular library meeting Tuesday evening, October 27. This might be called Federation night, as the reports of the convention will be given at this meeting. All interested in library work are invited to attend.

Mrs. Loughridge Returns Home.

Mrs. James Loughridge returned home from her visit in Canada last week. She has been gone for the past two months, and has been visiting at the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Brown, at Strathmore. She reports Mr. and Mrs. Brown enjoying good health, and being well pleased with that part of the world. Mrs. Loughridge thinks that part of Canada a fine place to live, and would be glad to join her brother in their new home, if "Jimmie" could be induced to think as much of the country.
