

SURPRISE CLUB SURPRISE MR. AND MRS. FRICKE

And Assist in Giving This Worthy
Couple a Genuine Surprise, and Enjoy a Pleasant Time.

Saturday evening a most delightful time was enjoyed at the handsome new home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Fricke, when the members of the Surprise club, of which Mrs. Fricke is a member, came in unexpectedly and afforded their host and hostess a most delightful surprise. The occasion was somewhat in the nature of a house-warming, as Mr. and Mrs. Fricke has just moved into their handsome new home, which is one of the most cozy and pleasant in the city, and their friends decided to see that they were treated to an appropriate celebration of the event. The Fricke home was very tastefully arranged in the Hallowe'en colors of orange and black, which was used extensively throughout the different rooms in a manner that added greatly to the handsome appearance of the house. The main event of the evening was the tempting and delicious 6 o'clock dinner which was enjoyed to the utmost by the jolly crowd present, and the delightful repast will be most pleasantly remembered by the guests. The table had been decorated in a very artistic manner with the use of autumn leaves while in the center of the table a large pumpkin filled to overflowing with fruits of all kinds added greatly to the pleasantness of the event. After the dinner was disposed of the company proceeded to enjoy themselves in various Hallowe'en stunts for several hours and much amusement was derived at this until a late hour. The guests gathered at the midnight hour approached to tell a few ghost stories while the lights were turned down and a number of very thrilling stories were given, when a figure clothed with white gilded into the room and the lights were soon turned on and the ghost revealed as one of the friends who had successfully carried out this surprise of the evening on the surprisers. Those who were present were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Harris, Omaha; Messdames Annie Britt, Henry Herold, J. H. Donnelly, J. A. Donelan, R. W. Clement, Misses Mia and Barbara Gering, Verna Leonard, Dora Fricke and Julia Herman.

DAN KISER RETURNS FROM QUITE AN EXTENDED TRIP THROUGH SOUTH DAKOTA

Dan Kiser returned home Saturday afternoon from an extended trip in South Dakota and Minnesota in which time he was engaged in working through the wheat belt of those two states in assisting in the harvesting of the crop. At Watertown, S. D., Mr. Kiser made his principal stop of the trip and was here engaged for several weeks in stacking and pitching for the machines engaged in the harvest. He reports that the grain was exceedingly poor in that locality of the state and many of the farmers did not even cut their grain while the average will be but seven bushels per acre for the wheat with oats and barley averaging about twenty bushels to the acre. The potatoes throughout this section of country, Mr. Kiser states, has been very good and far better than the expectations of the farmers. In the localities at Castlewood the corn was unusually heavy, having an average of about forty bushels per acre throughout the different farms.

Christmas Special for East.
This morning a special train of five express cars passed through this city over the Burlington, bound for New York, where they will contribute their load of gifts to the cargo that will be put on board the Christmas ship bound for Europe with their offering of remembrances for the little folks in that war-stricken country. The movement is being aided in all sections and splendid contributions have been received.

Many Enjoy the Day.
Yesterday was one of the most delightful days of the fall season, and it was thoroughly enjoyed by a large number of our citizens and their families in outings out into the open. The temperature stood at 80 in the shade for the greater part of the afternoon, and the avenues and streets were filled with many out in their automobiles driving to take advantage of the delightful weather. This has certainly been a fall that is hard to beat in every way.

FRED EBINGER WILL ARRIVE IN PLATTSMOUTH FROM GERMANY TOMORROW

The many friends in this city of Fred W. Ebinger of Plainview, Neb., but who for years was a resident of Plattsmouth, will be delighted to learn that this gentleman has been able to return to the United States after a very protracted stay in Germany, where he was visiting when the war between that country and the Allies broke out. Mr. Ebinger had expected to return home in September, when he sailed from New York for the Fatherland, but the time passed pleasantly in the visit among the beauties of the old country, and before he was aware of it the war clouds came and it was impossible to get from Germany into the countries where passage across the sea could be secured. Mr. Ebinger arrived in New York Friday afternoon on the "New Amsterdam" and the relatives were at once notified of the arrival and it is unnecessary to state that it was most welcome news to them. He visited over Sunday at Buffalo, N. Y., with his relatives there and will arrive in Plattsmouth tomorrow morning for a short visit before returning home to Plainview. His safe arrival will lift a load of care from the minds of his friends who have been quite worried by the long continued silence as to his absence in Germany.

A Night of Terror.
Few nights are more terrible than during an attack of croup, and that of a mother looking on her child choking and gasping for breath nothing in the house to relieve it. Many mothers have passed nights of terror in this situation. A little forethought will enable you to avoid all this. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. Keep it at hand. For sale by all dealers.

Business in Probate Court.
Saturday a petition was filed in the county court asking that the estate of Mrs. Louisa J. Woddard, deceased, be admitted to probate and the property divided among the heirs. The petition was filed by George B. Woodard, a son. The deceased was seized of certain real estate and personal property of the value of some $1,200 in Elmwood precinct at the time of her death. The following children are the heirs of the estate: Eilly I. Buell, Louis M. Cox, daughter, of Murdock; George B. Woodard, a son, of Albany, Ore., and James M. Woodard, a son, of Council Bluffs. The hearing on the matter was set for November 17 by Judge Beeson.

Notice.
An invitation is extended to the members of the G. A. R. to attend the sessions of the District Convention of the W. R. C., which will be held in this city Wednesday, November 4, at the M. W. A. hall.
MRS. NANNIE BURKEL,
District President.

REV. MEYERS A BIG DRAWING CARD AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

First Meetings at Christian Church Well Attended — Three Added to the Church.

At the Christian church yesterday morning was begun the series of revival services, which are to be conducted during the month of November. Rev. Meyers, the evangelist, is a pleasant speaker, and one who speaks to the point, without any equivocations, eloquent and impressive in his delineation of the truth of the Gospel.

The subject which he chose to speak upon at the morning service was "A Work for Every Man." Taking his lesson from the rebuilding of the walls of Jerusalem by Nehemiah, where for each man there was something to do, and they were expected to do it. Citing the words used by Lord Nelson at Trafalgar, when he said that "England expects every man to do his duty," in the campaign that has just now begun, Rev. Meyers said that "the Master expects everyone to do his duty." That if they all did what they could, there would be a great ingathering, and enlistment in the cause of the Master.

In the evening the subject taken was "The Second Coming of Christ," was handled in a masterly fashion. Much interest was manifested in each service at both meetings, the house being well filled.

The meetings during the week will begin at 2:30 and will be concluded by or before 9 o'clock, that all may be home in good time.

Good music will be had, and an interesting discussion of the subjects handled, which will make the meetings entertaining. All are invited to attend these services and lend what assistance you can in the conducting of the same.

The subjects to be discussed during the week are as follows:
Monday night, "Eight Ways We Have of Knowing the Bible Is True."
Tuesday, "Rightly Dividing the Word."
Wednesday, "Six Kingdoms."
Thursday, "A Scriptural Repentance."
Friday, "Scriptural Conversion."
Saturday, "The Grain of Wheat."

CELEBRATE HALLOWE'EN PLEASANTLY AT THE HOME OF THEODOCIA KROEHLER

Friday evening the U. S. A.'s celebrated Hallowe'en by giving a masquerade party at the home of Theodocia Kroehler, and to say the young people had a fine time does not express it. They had "stacks" of fun. The club consists of girls, but as it was her brother, Robert's, birthday, Theodocia planned a surprise for him by inviting several of his boy friends, who came masked. The guests were met at the door by a "zoop," commanded to be quiet, and seated in a line to await the arrival of the last guest. When all were seated each one was told to guess who his mysterious companions were. The young lady in white, with her long braid, was a mystery to all. After unmasking, nuts were cracked, in which were stored fortunes of all kinds. Next each one, alone, was led into a dark room to look into the "magic mirror" to see his future mate over his shoulder. Everyone was "scared to go," but felt repaid after seeing his pumpkin head and three witch mates glancing at him out of the darkness. Putting a pumpkin into the cat's mouth, the wicker board, and guessing each other's eyes were other amusements, but drawing emblems of their future lives from a witch's cauldron, under which was a very realistic fire, cleverly arranged by means of electric lights, red paper and stick of wood, was the most fun of all. The climax to the evening's fun was sitting in a circle, eating popcorn and telling thrilling ghost stories. The semi-darkness of the living room, with its decorations of black and yellow crepe paper drappings, black cats, pumpkins, a giant ghost, and a witch's goose with shining eyes, lent to the "spookiness" of the occasion. The dining room, brilliantly lighted and decorated with autumn leaves and red berries, counteracted the weirdness of the witches' den and gave the young guests courage to go to their homes, tired but happy. The little guests were presented with little popcorn baskets filled with candies as souvenirs. Dainty refreshments, consisting of ices and wafers, were served during the course of the evening's entertainment.

From Old Missouri.
Mr. and Mrs. Hans Kemp, from near Lockwood, Mo., arrived in Plattsmouth last Friday for a few days' visit with their many friends in Cass county. Mr. and Mrs. Kemp were residents of this city for many years prior to the time they moved to Missouri a few years ago, and have a host of friends who are always pleased to see them. Mr. Kemp is well pleased with his Missouri home and has been enjoying life and prosperity since moving there.

HOLLOWE'EN PARTY GIVEN THE PUPILS OF THE CENTRAL SCHOOL BY TEACHERS

From Saturday's Daily.
Some two weeks ago the teachers of the third floor of the Central school building, where the Seventh and Eighth grades are located, thought it would be in order to give their pupils a Hallowe'en party, and accordingly Misses Annie Heisel, Pearl Staats, Mrs. Mae Morgan and Mr. Frans, the teachers of these grades perfected the arrangements for the party that culminated last evening in one of the most pleasant treats of the school year. The A. O. U. W. hall was secured and the pupils invited to be present on the occasion, and the crowd was so large as to fill the hall to its utmost capacity, there being some 200 of the children estimated as being present, and while a number of very interesting games had been arranged for by the teachers, it was found necessary to abandon them on account of the large number present. One guessing game was attempted as to the identity of the members of the party, many of whom were disguised as ghosts, but this too was given up, as the crowd made it impossible to pick the winners, and the large boxes of candy that were to have been given as prizes were given out to the jolly crowd to be divided equally. A delicious supper had been arranged for by the girls, each of whom contributed to its success, and as they came in for supper learned their future in the little verses that were given out to each one. The occasion was very pleasant throughout and was certainly a very happy thought on the part of the teachers to provide a delightful entertainment for their pupils.

HUNTER'S GO OUT FOR A LITTLE SPORT AND KILL A LARGE COYOTE

Talk about shooting, how's this? Yesterday morning Lou Hinrichsen, a brother of "Old Hickory" who is here visiting from South Omaha, and James Andrews started out for a little sport in shooting and visited the wooded land of Fitzgerald & Schlater above the pump house, and while they were walking along through the woods looking for game they spied a large coyote and Lou proceeded to take a shot at the animal. He was armed with only a 22-rifle, but this was sufficient, as with one of the prettiest shots that could be imagined he dropped the coyote in his tracks, the bullet entering the head of the animal just behind the ear and putting him out of condition. The shot is one that is seldom made with a gun of this caliber, and Mr. Hinrichsen can certainly feel well pleased with the showing of his marksmanship. The two hunters also secured a number of squirrels on their trip and covered several miles along the Platte bottom in their hunting expedition. They were later joined by "Old" Hickory and Gus Swanson, who were out for a hike along the Platte, and they assisted in carrying the game home. The coyote weighed some sixty pounds and from its appearance was evidently 4 or 5 years old.

Believes in the Duroc-Jersey.
W. B. Porter of Mynard returned home from Scribner, Neb., last Friday evening, where he purchased a fine Duroc-Jersey male hog that will be placed at the head of his fine herd. Mr. Porter has for some time believed that this particular breed of swine is just about right for the farmer to raise, and has been constantly increasing the blood strains in his herd until he has some of the finest strains in the state. The sire of the new individual that has just been added to his herd was grand champion at the Nebraska state fair this year, and consequently he thinks he has something that is about the best.

Senator Henry Bartling, Ex-Mayor Richardson and Mr. Fass came in this afternoon from Nebraska City to spend a few hours here looking after some matters in regard to the Fort Kearney armory.

HALLOWE'EN VERY PEACEFULLY AND JOYOUSLY OBSERVED BY MOST KIDLETS

Hallowe'en in this city was observed very peacefully Saturday evening with but little to indicate that this was an event to be celebrated and while the police are sometimes kept very busy with the calls from localities where the youngsters are up to their pranks they enjoyed a quiet time Saturday. Of course, there is the usual number of buildings and wagons that suffered from the celebration of the occasion, but nothing of any consequence was reported in the west part of the city, however, reports a very harrowing experience with the youthful marauders. He stationed himself in a small shed that he feared would be turned over by the boys and decided to wait and attack the enemy in force when they should appear. He was armed with his trusty shotgun and was prepared in every way to make war. After several hours' wait the man began to tire as well as grow dry and irritated and the thought of a cold bottle in the house impelled him to desert his post and go to the house for a moment. He had only just started to enjoy the beverage when a loud crash sounded and he rushed to the door to see the long guarded building heaped over on its side and not a sign of the parties doing the mischief, although he scoured the place over vowing to have revenge.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Majors Entertain.
Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Fred Majors delightfully entertained about twenty of their friends at their home. For the occasion the rooms of the Majors home had been made very attractive, yet weird, with decorations of the Hallowe'en season. The principal amusement was derived from progressive high five, which made the hours pass all too rapidly. After the games, delicious refreshments were served, and at a late hour the guests dispersed, declaring Mr. and Mrs. Majors excellent entertainers.

Karnival! Karnival!
Commencing Saturday evening, November 7, at Fairview school house. Remember the date! Remember the date!
"Laugh and the world laughs with you."
Come out Saturday night and have your share of the fun, for you know "a little nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men."
The Cotton Pickers have brought the whole show.

On Midway you will find Old Aunt Dinah, who can tell you the past as well as the future.

The Minstrel Show from the land of sunshine and cotton will furnish music and singing throughout the evening. The confetti man will be on hand, also.

Professor Squeechy and his flying machine.

Come prepared for a big evening of fun and frolic.

Bring the kiddies and let them feed the monkeys and ride the elephant. As all will no doubt be hungry, ladies will please bring boxes which will be sold separately.

Leo Welsh was an over Sunday visitor in Omaha yesterday at the home of his parents in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Leddy of South Bend came down last Saturday evening to spend Sunday with Mrs. Leddy's parents in this city.

C. R. Frans and wife were visitors in the metropolis today for a few hours looking after some matters of business.

George Bruhl, wife and two sons were visitors in the city over Sunday, returning this afternoon in the metropolis.

Hugh Riley was among the passengers this morning for Omaha, where he was called to look after some matters of business.

Mrs. J. M. Eades was a passenger this afternoon for Omaha, where she will visit for a short time at the home of her daughter in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Foster and children of Union motored to this city yesterday morning and spent the day with L. G. Larson and family.

N. A. Power and wife were among those going to Omaha this morning, where they will visit for the day looking after some matters of business.

Philip Hild, L. H. Puls and Fred Lutz of the vicinity of Murray were here yesterday for a few hours looking after some matters of business and visiting with their friends.

F. A. Fairchild and wife of Fort Crook, Neb., who were over Sunday visitors in this city with their relatives and friends, departed this morning on the early Burlington train for their home.

Declare War on Colds.
A crusade of education which aims "that common colds may become uncommon within the next generation" has been begun by prominent New York physicians. Here is a list of the "don'ts" which the doctors say will prevent the annual visitation of the cold:
"Don't sit in a draughty car."
"Don't sleep in hot rooms."
"Don't avoid the fresh air."
"Don't stuff yourself at meal time. Overeating reduces your resistance."
To which we would add—when you take a cold get rid of it as quickly as possible. To accomplish that you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy most excellent. Sold by all dealers.

Shirts—

Our shirt department is a sort of 'hobby' with us, we give it special attention; we always show the new styles as they come out, keep our stock well filled out, and as a result have always had a nice big shirt business. Just now you'll find us ready to show you the new novelty stripe patterns in mushroom pleat, small tucks and plain negligee, starched or soft turn back cuffs. Price $1 00, $1.25, $1.50, $2.00 and high as $3.50.

Collars—

You like nice snug fitting collars, that will hold their shape.
