Drink a Little Beer Occasionally

IT'S one of the things I often prescribe. It will do you good if you use it moderately, as all men do who know what real temperance is.

Beer is refreshing, exhilarating, nutritious, and a tonic. It promotes digestion and is a wholesome food beverage. When a man drinks beer he drinks and eats at the same time, just as when he eats a bowl of soup. The terms "eat" and "drink" are inconsistently used in pointing out the difference between what is merely quenching our thirst and what is actually consuming nourishment.

In my opinion, a man might more properly be said to eat beer than to eat certain kinds of soup, or indeed watermelon.

Drink beer and eat moderately. The moderate beer drinker and eater is in a far better position than the total abstainer, who often consumes an excess of solid food. Beer builds tissues, restores waste, furnishes heat, and produces energy.

IN PLATTSMOUTH FORTY YEARS AGO

Items of Interest to Our Readers Gleaned from the Newspaper Files of Many Years Ago.

Mr. Good Oldham, of Queen City, Mo., and a former resident of this place, came up and spent Thanksgiving with his father, Mr. J. G. Oldham. He left for his home Monday afternoon.

J. M. Eddy, J. N. Converse and D. H. Wheeler were delegates from Nebraska to the Southern Pacific railroad convention held at St. Louis last week.

Robert Maxwell, formerly of this place, a young lawyer, and brother to Judge Maxwell, has been stopping with us for days again. We wish "Bob" success wherever he goes.

Will Stinchcomb, young, handsome, ambitious and double extra on a yarn, paid us a visit in behalf of the Omaha Republican, this week.

Wm. Eikenberry of Three Groves made glad the heart of the printer.—Good boy William.

Capt. Jno. O'Rourke paid the Herald a visit this week for the second time in our new office. Come again Cap.

Foresooth, a bridge at Plattsmouth, "discriminates against Omaha." Don't build it, Mr. Perkins, don't; Omaha might move away, commit suicide, or something. Don't ask it citizens of Cass and the South Platte; don't stand up for your interests. Dr. Miller might call you cut-throats and robbers.

Married—Bignell-Peters—On the 25th of November, at the residence of the bride's brother, Mr. James Ritchie, by the Rev. Mr. Burgess, Mr. Edward Bignell, of Plattsmouth, and Miss Valerie J. Peters, of Beatrice. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for a wedding trip to Chicago, and other points.

We had quite a little breeze in town yesterday. An Iowa chap grabbed Mr. Hatt's pocketbook, containing $40, while Hatt's back was turned, and scotched for the river. As soon as Hatt discovered his loss, he gave the alarm and a posse of men headed by Sheriff Cutler, Dick Straight and John Shannon made for the river bank and headed him off. When the Herald saw him he was being marched up to jail by Cutler and Shannon on horseback and Straight on foot, revolver in hand. He claims to have been from Glenwood. Mr. Martin says he was there some years ago and is a dead beat of the first water. He stood Muskrat off for a shave and Stadelman for a dinner. Haines has got him now and he can't get a change of venue.

George Hall came up Saturday from Falls City, where he is employed by the Missouri Pacific, and spent Sunday here with relatives and friends.

E. H. Schulhof was among the passengers this morning for Glenwood, where he will spend a few hours looking after some matters of business.

Miss Winifred Parmelee was among the passengers this morning on the early Burlington train for Glenwood, where she goes for a short visit with friends in that city.

Robert Sherwood, sru., came up Saturday from Nebraska City, where he is engaged in business, and visited here with his son, Herbert. He departed this morning for Omaha to look after some matters of business.

Declare War on Colds.

A crusade of education which aims "that common colds may become uncommon within the next generation" has been begun by prominent New York physicians. Here is a list of the "don'ts" which the doctors say will prevent the annual visitation of the cold:

"Don't sit in a draughty car."

"Don't sleep in hot rooms."

"Don't avoid the fresh air."

"Don't stuff yourself at meal time. Overeating reduces your resistance."

To which we would add—when you take a cold get rid of it as quickly as possible. To accomplish that you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy most excellent. Sold by all dealers.

CALLED TO A BIGGER CHARGE AND INCREASED SALARY

Rev. L. W. Gade, Formerly of This City, Goes Up Higher as His Ability Truly Deserves.

The many friends of the Rev. L. W. Gade, former pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city, will be pleased to learn that this able minister and gentleman is steadily advancing forward since leaving this city some two years ago, and has just received a call to a greater field of opportunity. The Journal has received a copy of the Willmar, Minnesota, Tribune that contains the following in regard to the departure of Rev. Gade from that city:

At the morning service last Sunday at the Willmar Presbyterian church, Rev. L. W. Gade, D.D., announced that the session had joined with him in asking the Presbytery to dissolve the pastoral relations between himself and the Willmar Presbyterian church, the same to take effect sometime before the latter part of December.

This announcement was received with great surprise by a large part of the congregation, for Dr. Gade had endeared himself to the people as a faithful and kind pastor. Since his coming to Willmar, the Presbyterian church has steadily pushed to the front among the Presbyterian churches of the state, it being now next to the largest in membership outside of the Twin Cities and Duluth. The budget plan has been adopted and is proving very satisfactory in meeting the expenses of the church and missionary boards. Through the efforts of the pastor a male quartet has been organized and a large chorus choir adds much to the evening service. Unusually large congregations have greeted the pastor and the evening congregations have taxed the capacity of the church.

At the congregational meeting held Monday evening, November 9th, it was voted to comply with the request of Rev. Gade, releasing him that he might go to his new field in Virginia, Minn.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted at this meeting and sent as a night message to the Virginia session:

"Resolved, That we, the members of the church and congregation of the First Presbyterian church of Willmar, Minn., do greatly appreciate the faithful work of Rev. L. W. Gade, D.D., during his two years' stay among us. We attribute our growth numerically and financially to his untiring efforts and believe that the spiritual life of our church is as good as could be expected. It is with regrets that we part with our pastor, nevertheless we congratulate the Cleveland Avenue Presbyterian church of Virginia, Minn., in securing the services of Rev. L. W. Gade, D.D., and pray that God's blessing may rest upon both people and pastor."

Virginia, to which place Rev. Gade goes, is a city of 15,000 population. The Presbyterian church has a beautiful manse costing between $6,000 and $7,000. The Willmar congregation can but rejoice with their beloved pastor in that he has been called to this field of larger opportunities.

Will Move to Plattsmouth.

C. M. Lowe, who has been conducting a skating rink here, will move to Plattsmouth next week. He will begin tearing down to move on Tuesday, and Monday is his farewell day. During his stay in this city he has conducted a clean and most orderly place, something that never has been done here before. He has won the respect of all in his manner of doing business and the orderly place he has kept all of the time. The News takes pleasure in commanding him to the good people of Plattsmouth and say that while a skating rink is conducted by him nothing but the best of order will prevail and it will be a place where any mother can be safe to send their children and they will be looked after as well, if not better, than at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowe have made many friends during their stay in this city and all regret to see them take their departure.—Nebraska City News.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one method of treatment that is effective, and that is the application of the means found in the ELLWOOD FENCE. This will restore the hearing, including the ringing sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is to be restored, and the ear will be restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; also, cure out of the ear, as it is the only way to obtain an improved condition of the mucus surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any evidence of the cure of deafness, and the money will be given to the Chamberlain Cough Cure Fund for cures, free.
