Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running ear, which is not serious, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and this tube, if not treated, will become permanently closed, and the hearing will be destroyed forever; this case can be cured by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous lining.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular free.

IN PLATTSMOUTH FORTY YEARS AGO

Items of Interest to Our Readers Gleaned from the Newspaper Files of Many Years Ago.

Our friend and neighbor, and one of the best neighbors in Nebraska, too, Charley Lazenby, sent us over the first mess of new potatoes Tuesday, and right good they were.

Mr. Hobbs had a runaway last Saturday a week. His team got frightened and started for home, spilling a trunk and some groceries in the creek and smashing the wagon up before they had gone far. The horses were stopped before they were injured any.

The case of Louisa Stohlman is a deplorable one; our officials seem to have done their best, but can find no law (as usual in real troublesome cases) covering her case. She ought to be taken care of and must be, somehow. * * * * * She has been sent to Lincoln as insane.

The body of Mr. Raney, who was drowned in the Platte last week, was found in the Missouri opposite the B. & M. depot, on Saturday. His people were sent for, an inquest was held and the body interred in the Plattsmouth cemetery.

The Herald obtained samples of wheat and corn, after the grasshopper raid, from the fields of E. Parmele, the poor farm (from Ross Varnatta), Andy Taylor, Uncle Jake Vallery and others, and forwarded them to Chicago as samples to show that we yet had something left in Cass county, and the Inter-Ocean acknowledges the receipt of the same, and publishes our letter in full.

Sick.

Dr. John Black is very sick. Dr. Donelan is slowly recovering. Mrs. E. E. Cunningham has been very ill; is getting better. Mrs. Snyder is very low. Edwin Davis is quite sick. Mrs. Wells is recovering. Mr. Nathan is still very sick. The Herald made a mistake last week in saying he had been up and about town. Keep your pluck, Nathan. Mrs. Burgess has been sick. Mr. Marthis was down, but is about again.

CONGRESSMAN-ELECT AND MRS. REAVIS NARROWLY ESCAPE DEATH

From Tuesday's Daily.

A special dispatch from Falls City, under date of November 23, says: An automobile in which Congressman-elect C. F. Reavis, Mrs. Reavis, their son, Jack, and a nephew, Joseph Reavis, were riding, turned turtle on the east of Barada Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Reavis sustained severe bruises and Mr. Reavis narrowly escaped death, the backs of the seats pressing on his neck and almost stopping his breathing. The boys were uninjured.

The Reavis party had driven to the Reavis farm near Barada on Sunday afternoon to investigate an outbreak of hog cholera, and started for home late in the afternoon. Jack Reavis was driving the car when the engine "died" on a hill near Frank Butler's farm. The brakes failed to work and the car started to roll backward down the steep hill. After it had run for forty or fifty yards and had gained considerable momentum Mr. Reavis, who was in the rear seat with his wife, reached over the top of the front seat and grasped the steering wheel, guiding the car into a bank at the side of the road. The car was checked, but turned turtle.

Joseph Reavis, who was in the front seat, jumped clear of the car and Jack Reavis was pinned down by the steering wheel, but later was able to extricate himself.

The fact that one of the rear doors flew open as the car turned over is thought to have saved Mrs. Reavis' life. She fell into the clear place left by the opened door and escaped with severe bruises.

While Mr. Reavis was pinned under the car with the edge of the front seat across his neck, Joseph ran half a mile to Jib Sailor's house to summon aid. While he was gone Jack Reavis managed to shift the car enough to release the pressure on his father's throat, which might have proved fatal within a short time.

The boy was unable to move the car enough to permit Mr. Reavis' escape, but the weight was shifted to his chest, where it remained until help arrived and the car was lifted.

D. D. Reavis, brother of the recently elected congressman, brought the party to Falls City in his automobile. Mrs. Reavis is still suffering from nervous prostration as a result of the accident.

ELLWOOD FENCE

and you have the longest lived fence in the world, the fence that stands up under stress of weather, strain of live stock and general wear and tear. You would not hesitate in making a choice of fencing if you could see the several kinds of fence in the field after several years of service. Time is the supreme test of a fence. Profit by the experience of others; get the durable Ellwood Fence on the start and save money, trouble and labor.
