

THE CUT IN TRAIN MILEAGE MEANS A CUT IN THE FORCES

Burlington's Economy Move to Be Felt by the Men in Train Service.

From Friday's Daily.

Reduced passenger train mileage will affect a number of Lincoln men in the employ of the Burlington. The taking out of service of the morning train to the west, known as No. 1, and of No. 10, eastbound, will mean the reduction of two crews on this division and the reduced mileage on the west end will mean that one crew now at Mead will be moved back to Lincoln, making the total reduction of crews on this division three, according to present estimates. These crews work between Hastings and Omaha. The change means that seniors will have the choice of runs, and that newer men in the service will be the first to be let out.

Freight business in and out of Lincoln is much less than it was one year ago. Railroad men say this is in part offset by reduced expense in handling business, a greater number of tons being moved per train on main lines than a year ago. In this territory tonnage per train has been steadily mounting, due in part to road improvements and heavier motive power. Railroad trackage point out that in heavier tonnage per train, as well as in less of tonnage because of dull business, they suffer. Where tonnage per train is increased a less number of trains will handle the business.

Train mileage reduction will be offset by all railroads in this territory on new cards being prepared and soon to become effective. The new cards on the Burlington and Union Pacific became effective Sunday.

PLEASANT THANKSGIVING GATHERING AT THE HOME OF CONRAD MEISINGER

From Friday's Daily.

One of the pleasant Thanksgiving day gatherings occurred here yesterday at the comfortable home of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Meisinger on North Fourth street, when a number of the neighbors gathered there to celebrate the day with these two most estimable people, and the day will be long very pleasantly remembered by all. A lunch fit for a king had been prepared for the occasion, and to this everyone did the most ample justice. Those who gathered at the festive board to enjoy the delicious repast were: Mrs. Geo. Stecher, El Reno, Oklahoma; George Stecher and family, Elmwood; George H. Meisinger and family, Nyran; Ed Meisinger, J. E. Meisinger and wife, Cedar Creek; J. C. Meisinger and family, Cedar Creek; P. A. Meisinger and wife, Plattsmouth.

WELL KNOWN PLATTSMOUTH WOMAN MARRIED IN OMAHA SATURDAY

From Monday's Daily.

Saturday afternoon in Omaha occurred the marriage of one of Plattsmouth's fairest daughters, Miss Pauline M. Kallweit, to Mr. Paul V. Outland. The friends of the young people have for some time surmised that this happy event was soon to take place, but the exact date was not given out by the young people. Miss Kallweit was born and reared in this city and possesses a host of the warmest friends, who will be delighted to hear of her new happiness and who will trust that the years to come may be filled with the choicest blessings for Mr. and Mrs. Outland. The groom is employed as an expert accountant in the metropolis and it was while he was here engaged in the work of checking over the different county officials a few months ago that the young people first met, and their acquaintance soon ripened into love and the marriage comes as a fitting sequel to the romantic story. The groom is a splendid young man and will make a fitting helpmate for the charming little lady he has won for his wife. Mrs. Outland is the oldest daughter of Mrs. F. P. Buttery of this city and is a young lady whom to know is to be numbered as one of her warmest friends. The newly wedded will make their future home in Omaha, where the groom has a very incertain position and is highly respected by all who know him.

Moving to Iowa.

From Saturday's Daily.

Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Hungate, who, as has been previously announced, plan to give Mr. Wiles possession December 1st of their residence, have been making preparations this week for their departure to their new home in Iowa. They expect to load their car Friday and get away the first of next week. Their new home is at Hiteman, Iowa, where the doctor has accepted the position of contract physician for the Wapelo Coal Mining company, and in addition will attend to a private practice. Hiteman is a suburban town of 3,000 adjacent to the city of Albia and is in one of the largest coal mining districts of Iowa. Dr. and Mrs. Hungate, while no doubt regretting to leave this city, which has been their home for nearly a quarter of a century, will, we think, go to their new home with high hopes of finding that also a good place to live. And nothing less than this is our wish for them. We understand that they have a delightful cottage and office for them to move into and they expect to soon be at home in their new home town.—Weeping Water Republican.

A VERY LIVELY TIME AT THE GERMAN HOME ON LAST WEDNESDAY NIGHT

From Friday's Daily.

Thanksgiving day did not pass without several who cannot but feel that the day was not one that could well be observed in the proper manner, as their celebration on Wednesday evening was of such a nature that made it necessary to point out to them a sterner object lesson. Louis Thomas was among those who called at Judge Archer's this morning to answer to a charge of fighting at the dance on Wednesday evening at the German home, as well as did also William Andrews, who was fined with the last for battle, but the cooling effect of the brand of justice of the judge relieved Thomas of 25, while Andrews forked over 88 to recompense the feelings of outraged justice. Charles Morning was one of those to face the judge on the charge of being intoxicated and he acknowledged that the charge against him was true and that he was willing to face the music and the judge handed him a neat little package labeled "25 and," which he paid and went his way rejoicing over the kindness of the magistrate. Charley is a farm hand employed in the country and seemed to be mighty glad to be given the opportunity to roam over the farm where he is employed.

R. H. FRANS & SONS IS NOW THE STYLE OF A WELL KNOWN STORE

From Saturday's Daily.

A change was made last week in the membership of the mercantile firm of R. H. Frans & Son, by the addition of Rue H. Frans as one of the partners in the business, the firm now consisting of Robert H. Frans and his sons, D. Ray Frans and Rue H. Frans.

Robert H. Frans has been in the mercantile business in Cass county the past thirty-one years, having started in 1883 in the then little town of Factorville, two miles southwest of here, and in 1887, after Union was placed on the map, Mr. Frans had a large frame building erected on the corner now occupied by the Farmers' bank building and brought his stock of goods to this village and was our first postmaster. About twelve years ago Mr. Frans found that the growth of the town and business required larger and up-to-date quarters, and resulted in the erection of a modern two-story brick building 50x70, and warehouse 20x50. In 1908 D. Ray Frans became a partner with his father and assumed active management, and two and a half years ago Rue H. Frans graduated from Plattsmouth High school and accepted a clerkship in the store with his father and brother at a salary until admitted to a full partnership last Friday.—Union Ledger.

A NARROW ESCAPE FROM WHAT MIGHT HAVE TERMINATED IN QUITE A FIRE

From Monday's Daily.

The home of J. C. Peterson, on lower Main street came near being the scene of a very serious fire on last Saturday evening, and it is a matter of good fortune that the blaze was discovered in time to prevent its spreading. The family were entertaining a number of friends during the evening, and when the guests departed they were accompanied to the hall, where the carpet and one of the stoves of the stairway were discovered to be blazing right merrily, and in a very few minutes would have resulted in a serious fire. Water was at once procured and thrown on the blaze, which by this time was constantly gaining headway, and it required several buckets of water to finally subdue the blaze. The fire was started by the throwing of a lighted cigar on the carpeting of the hall, where it had smoldered for some time before getting a good start, but it required a very few minutes to get to burning the wood of the steps. Mr. Peterson and family feel very fortunate in escaping having had a most serious fire. There was no alarm turned in, as the family got busy and tried the fire-fighting stunt themselves.

U. S. AGRICULTURE EXPERTS WILL ADDRESS NEBRASKA CO-OPERATORS

From Saturday's Daily.

The programs that have been issued for the twentieth annual convention of the county commissioners, supervisors and clerks of the state, which meets at Fremont on December 8, 9 and 10, includes a short address by County Commissioner Julius A. Pitz of this district, who is scheduled to speak on Wednesday afternoon, December 9th, when he will talk on "The County on a Cash Basis." Mr. Pitz has been a most efficient member of the board in this county and will be able to give the members of the association a great many valuable points on the management of the finances of the county that they can apply in their own particular districts. This convention includes representatives from every county of the state and a great deal of interest is taken in the gathering. Last year the meeting was held in Omaha, while this season the Dodge county metropolis will be given the honor of acting as host for the commissioners.

J. W. Shorttill, secretary, urges every member of the co-operators' organization to attend this convention. More than 300 locals in the state will have delegates present. Mr. Shorttill announces that subjects of importance to farmers which will be discussed on the floor are: "A Warehouse Law," "Storing Grain," "Future Trading," and "Contemplated Legislation." The meeting is of so much importance that every branch is asked to send three or more delegates. Further information may be secured from the Bureau of Publicity, Omaha.

Changes in Train Time.

From Saturday's Daily.

In the train schedule just issued by the Burlington the time of No. 6, the early Denver-Chicago train, due here at 7:52, is placed up some ten minutes earlier and will arrive at 7:42 after Sunday, November 29th. This change in time should be noticed by the traveling public, as No. 6 is a well patronized train and carries many to and from this city.

APPROACHING HOLIDAY SEASON ENCOURAGES THE MATRIMONIAL MARKET

From Saturday's Daily.

The marriage license department of the county judge's office has been experiencing quite a brisk run of business the past few days, as the holiday season has brought on the desire for forsaking the state of single blessedness and joining together in wedlock.

August Lundgren and Mrs. Hilda Oliva Arvidson, both of Louisville, were united in the bonds of matrimony by Judge Beeson, who performed the ceremony with his accustomed pleasing manner.

A license was also issued to Riley Watkins, aged 26, of Lincoln, and Miss Andis Lincer Leoberg, aged 18, the bride in Louisville. The young marriage last evening at the home of the bride in Lincoln. The young couple will make their home in Lincoln in the future.

CHANGES OF TIME ON BURLINGTON PASSENGER TRAINS NOT VERY SATISFACTORY

From Saturday's Daily.

In discussing the proposed changes on the Burlington that has resulted in No. 9 on that road being abandoned and No. 1, the former Chicago-Denver train, which passed through this city at 5:59 a. m., transferred to the running time of No. 9, which reaches Omaha by way of Council Bluffs at 11:15, it has been stated that one reason for the change was the light business done by No. 1 through this state. On a recent trip from Omaha to Hastings only three passengers were secured, and while the dinner was put on the train at Omaha, only three meals were served there, which certainly is ample reason for switching the train schedule around. The taking off of No. 10 will be felt probably more than any other train, as it was used a great deal by traveling men residing in Lincoln to come home for Sunday from the west, and also by visitors from this city in the state capital, as the train reaching here at 1:40 a. m. was very convenient.

HOW THE RED CROSS SEAL FIRST ORIGINATED

The Mothers of the Patriots of the American Civil War Were the Originators of the Idea.

Nearly $1,900,000 has been raised by Red Cross Christmas seals in the last six years, and yet many people who will buy these holiday stickers at the seventh annual sale do not know how the charity stamp idea originated.

It was war that brought forth the charity stamp—our civil war of '61 to '65. Some of our grandmothers first played "postoffice" with stickers similar to Red Cross Seals way back in 1862, when they conceived the idea of selling stamps at fairs for the benefit of the relief funds for the soldiers' hospitals in Brooklyn, Boston and elsewhere. Nearly $1,000,000 was raised in this way before 1865. After the war this method of raising money was discontinued in this country for a generation, although it found vogue in Portugal, Switzerland, Austria, France, Spain, Denmark, Norway, Russia, Sweden and other European countries. There are now several thousands of different types of charity stamps used in all parts of the world, as many as forty being used in Austria for children's hospitals alone.

Stamps on seals were first used to get money for the anti-tuberculosis crusade in Norway and Sweden in 1904. To Jacob Riis, the well known social worker of New York, and to Miss Emily P. Bissell, the energetic secretary of the Delaware Red Cross, jointly belong the honor of originating our American Red Cross Christmas Seal. In 1909, Mr. Riis' interest was aroused by the receipt of a Christmas tuberculosis stamp on a letter from Norway. He published an article about this queer-looking stamp in the "Outlook," and suggested some possible uses for it in this country. Miss Bissell at once saw an opportunity here and prepared a stamp, from the sale of which her society realized $3,000 for tuberculosis work. So impressed was she with this success that she induced the American Red Cross to take up the seal in 1908 on a national basis. With very little organization and with hardly any attempt at careful advertising the sale that year brought in, nevertheless, over $135,000 for anti-tuberculosis work in various parts of the United States. In 1909, with more thorough organization, the sale was increased to nearly $210,000; in 1911 to over $300,000, and in 1912 to over $400,000. Last year the sale was increased to nearly 45,000,000 seals, netting $450,000 for the anti-tuberculosis campaign.

It is fitting to note that war, inhuman and cruel, was the mother of the Red Cross Seal, and that now war for humanity against disease brings it back to its fullest usefulness.

These Christmas Seals, in the good cause of the Red Cross society, will be placed on sale in a few days in several of the stores of the city, where they can be secured.

Mrs. Joseph Droegge returned this morning from Chicago, where she has been for the past few days visiting with relatives and friends.

John A. Whiteman, one of the whole-souled and genial residents of Nehawka, came in from his home this morning and departed on the 8:16 Burlington train for Omaha to visit for the day there looking after some matters of business.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a ringing sound or buzzing in the ears, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give the Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness cured by Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Sent for free circulars, free.
