

EAGLE. Beacon.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wenzel, Wednesday, December 9th, an eight and one-half-pound girl.

Eugene Setz of Plattsmouth visited a couple of days the latter part of last week at the A. H. Vanlandingham home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Pettit, who now reside at Lincoln, are the proud parents of a fine baby boy which arrived at their home one day last week.

Cecil Pettit, who has been acting as agent for the Missouri Pacific at Manly, Neb., came home Wednesday evening for a two days' visit with home folks.

H. L. Swanson, agent for the Missouri Pacific at Wyoming, Neb., came up the latter part of last week for an extended visit with relatives here. Mr. Swanson is taking a couple weeks' vacation.

We are glad to report that Mrs. A. H. Vanlandingham, who fell a few weeks ago and fractured her ankle, is slowly recovering, although it will be some time before she will be able to be out and around.

Mrs. George Trunkenbolz was taken to St. Elizabeth's hospital at Lincoln last Thursday afternoon and operated on for appendicitis Friday morning. At the time of going to press she was reported to be getting along nicely.

The village board met in regular session Monday night. The pool halls, it was voted, should close from this time on at 10 o'clock p. m., and all minors under the age of 18 are prohibited in their places of business.

Mrs. Dave Hursh, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at the St. Elizabeth hospital at Lincoln, returned home Thursday afternoon of this week. She will remain in Eagle at the home of relatives a few days before going out to the farm.

ELMWOOD. Lender-Echo.

John Smith, who was operated on Tuesday of last week for appendicitis at St. Elizabeth's hospital in Lincoln, is improving rapidly.

Pearl Woodard, who recently underwent an operation at Lincoln for appendicitis, was able to come home last Saturday and is gaining strength very rapidly.

Mrs. Ellen Smith returned home from Lincoln Tuesday, where she had been at the bedside of her son, John Smith, who underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. C. Conbert went to Lincoln on Monday and underwent an operation at one of the hospitals. She has recovered from the operation nicely and at last report was improving rapidly.

John G. Wunderlich and M. G. Kime of Nehawka were in Elmwood last Friday and while here were calling upon their friends. They were on their way to Lincoln and were accompanied to that place by L. F. Langhorst.

One day this week someone entered J. H. Rogge's cellar and carried away his winter's supply of potatoes. His fine Mearshum pipe was also taken from the lumber office. It looks as though he had been singled out this week.

John Morford was a passenger for Omaha Thursday morning, being accompanied by his mother. They went to be at the bedside of Mr. Morford's sister, whom he said would undergo a very critical surgical operation at one of the large hospitals there.

On Monday a deal was put through whereby Ed Gustin disposed of his fine bunch of thirty-five head of steers to Jesse and Watson Jones. This was a fine bunch and will make some "lunkers" for the fat cattle market a little later on. The Jones boys will feed them this winter for the market.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Ferguson left last Tuesday for Seadrift, Texas, and will spend the winter there. They have a tract of land there with a nice little house upon it and only a few blocks from the shore. They will live on this place while there. They will spend the winter there enjoying the mild climate and will return to Elmwood in the spring.

NEHAWKA. News.

Frank Boedeker, who has been under the weather somewhat of late, is back at work again.

We understand Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Townsley of Hall City, Florida, are the parents of a big baby boy, born recently.

Hans Stoll, who is taking treatment for rheumatism at Excelsior Springs, Missouri, is reported to be getting along nicely.

Uncle John Garber never forgets when his newspaper expires and has our thanks for his renewal. His health is a great deal better than it was in the summer.

Mrs. J. E. Banning and the two children left Thursday morning for their home in Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey accompanied them as far as Lincoln.

E. A. Kirkpatrick left Monday for Hot Springs, South Dakota, where he will take treatment for rheumatism, from which he has been a sufferer for some time.

J. T. Royer of the Avoca neighborhood was a caller at this office yesterday. He informs us that his son, John, has moved back from Missouri and will occupy the Dodson place, at present occupied by Mr. Arnold.

Mrs. E. A. Kirkpatrick attended the state suffrage meeting in Omaha last week as a delegate, and extended a cordial invitation to the ladies to meet in Nehawka next year. The offer has not been accepted as yet.

Harry Higgins has ordered one of the largest size Krupp guns with a twenty-year solemn binding guarantee, from one of the popular mail order houses, and when it comes will mount and train it in the general direction of the blithering idiots who have been shooting promiscuously around his place in an effort to scare rabbits to death. He says the family was under fire all day Sunday.

WEEPING WATER. Republican.

L. C. Murray is dangerously sick at his home in Sweedtown. His nine sons have all been here this week to see him.

Paul Marshall of Elmwood was a visitor in town today. He said the work on the electric plant for their town was progressing.

Mrs. L. L. Caygill and little daughter were visiting her mother, Mrs. Waltz, who is at the Shoemaker hospital in Lincoln, Saturday.

Wallace Philpot, George Dennis and Les Gregory returned Friday from a few days' visit and a hunt at the Philpot ranch in the sand hill country.

George Towle returned today from Furnas county, where he had been looking after his land interests. He reports more snow out there than here.

Wednesday was a sorry day for the rabbits, it being the first tracking snow of the season. The hunters were all out and succeeded in bagging a large number of the bunny tribe.

Mrs. O. V. Boone returned Saturday afternoon from Lincoln, where she had been with Mrs. T. R. Boone, who underwent a surgical operation one day last week, and is getting through the ordeal nicely.

Dr. W. H. Tack attended the meeting of the Nebraska Veterinary association held at the Lindell hotel in Lincoln on the 8th and 9th. He reports an enthusiastic meeting. He also said he had a visit with Dr. Jensen of Kansas City, whom he met at the meeting.

Constable R. D. McNurlin had a busy day of it Monday. His first duty was that of levying under an execution for M. J. Wickersham on the plumbing stock of P. F. Rosselle. His next official duty was suing A. Y. Caddell and attaching his automobile for W. S. Bateman to satisfy a claim for amounts due him.

LOUISVILLE. Courier.

John Ossenkop is slightly under the weather suffering from a severe cold, which he says has hung on for over a month.

Fred Petersen returned Saturday evening from Pierce, Neb., where he had been for the past two months visiting with his brother, Otis.

Mrs. Louis Stander and little daughter, Genevieve, left for their home near Archer, Neb., the first of the week, after a two weeks' visit with relatives in this vicinity.

We are sorry to report the illness of Mrs. E. A. Stander, and her many friends hope soon to hear that she is able to be up again, as she was bedfast at last report.

John Twiss was at Plattsmouth last Saturday consulting Dr. Livingston in regard to his ankle, which he had injured several years ago while at work in the sand stone quarry south of town. It has given him considerable trouble of late.

Miss Mary Sutter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Sutter, is at the St. Joseph's hospital in Omaha, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis last week. She is getting along nicely and will probably be able to return home some time next week.

Miss Lora Garrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Garrett, of this place, was married to Edwin Barry of Wahoo, at Omaha, Wednesday, December 9. The happy couple will make their home on a fine farm owned by the groom near Wahoo, Neb. The Courier extends congratulations and best wishes.

Fred Wegner is attending to business matters at his ranch near Dunning, Neb. He expects to bring two carloads of horses and cattle to the Omaha market next week. He will be accompanied home by his son, Fred, jr., and wife, who will remain until after Christmas for a visit.

R. D. Bishop, timekeeper at Murphy's quarry, will leave Monday for New Orleans, where he expects to spend the winter. Mr. Bishop is looking forward to a pleasant winter, as he has spent several in New Orleans and has many friends and acquaintances in that quaint southern city. He will return when the quarry opens up in the spring.

UNION. Ledger.

Wade Windham of Lincoln was here last Friday looking after his insurance business.

D. Ray Frans was in Omaha on Monday, attending to business for the mercantile firm.

John McNurlin of Plattsmouth was here last Friday, visiting his brother, Otis McNurlin.

T. M. Patterson and wife were here from Plattsmouth to make a Sunday visit with their son, J. M. Patterson, and wife.

Gene Barton and wife and Roy Herpet and wife, of Falls City, were here Saturday and Sunday to visit G. P. Barton and family.

Richard Smith took a carload of his fat cattle to the Kansas City market the first of the week, arriving home Wednesday morning.

Duke Frans of Auburn came up last Friday and spent a few days with his relatives and friends in this town, and vicinity, returning home on Tuesday.

Sant M. Gifford, who spent several days here and at Cedar Rapids, Neb., departed on Sunday for his home at West Plains, Mo. While at Cedar Rapids he became owner of a farm near that town, getting it in exchange for his Missouri land, and in the near future he and his family will complete their preparations for returning to Nebraska.

Henry Albers, the young gentleman who was assistant cashier of the Farmers' Bank until it sold out to the Bank of Union last week, will leave today for Pierce, Neb., where he will visit his parents until after the holidays, then he will accept one of the several propositions that are open to him. Mr. Albers has made many friends here, all of whom wish him well and cheerfully recommend him as a young man of excellent character and ability.

To Give Away Turkey.

At the dance next Saturday evening at Coates' hall by the Cosmopolitan club a fine turkey will be given away. With each 50-cent admission will be given a number that entitles the purchaser to a chance on the fowl, and the number drawn will receive the turkey, which will come in handy for Christmas time. All persons holding the tickets should be in the hall at 10:30, when the drawing will be had, as in case of the holder of the number first drawn not being there it will be necessary to continue the drawing until someone secures the turkey.

Make Your Wants Known

Advertisements under this heading five cents per line each insertion. Six words will be counted as a line and no advertisement taken for less than ten cents.

STRAY boar taken up at my place. Black with white spots. Louis Friedrich. 12-7-tfw

We are in the market to buy your cream every day in the year. Highest prices at all times. Zuckweiler & Luth. 12-7-2wks-w

TAKEN UP—Black Holstein heifer. Owner may have same by calling at my place and paying for this advertisement. Wm. Wehrlein. 10-7-tfw

FOR SALE—A few more of those light Brahmas. Inquire of Mrs. Wm. Gilmour, R. F. D. No. 1, Plattsmouth, Neb. 12-10-3tw

FOR SALE—I have 20 or 30 pure bred S. C. Rhode Island Red Cockerels for sale. Prices from $1.00 up. W. B. Porter, Mynard, Neb. 11-16-d&w

DISPLAY AND SALE OF USEFUL GIFTS for Christmas

Art Needlework!

Nice, large line to choose from: Pillows, front and back, with 6 skeins of silk and lesson sheet, all for .25c Library Scarfs, with 6 skeins of silk and lesson sheet, for .50c Stamped Guest Towels, ea. .25c Stamped Pillow Cases, per pair, .60c and 50c Slipper and Laundry Bags, at .25c and 50c Richardson's Grecian Embroidery Floss, Skein, .4c Peri-Lusta Embroidery Cotton and a big line of Mercerized Crochet Cotton.

Ribbons!

for Christmas Packages

Holly and Merry Xmas Ribbons, in 5-yard bolts, per bolt .10c All the new fancy Ribbons, such as Black and White Stripe, Roman Stripes and flowered Ribbons, at, per yard .25c, 35c and 40c Moire or Watered Ribbon, in the wide width, per yard .35c and 40c

Display of Handkerchiefs!

You will find on display a most varied line of Handkerchiefs for Men, Women and Children. One, two, three, four or six in fancy Holiday Boxes, at most reasonable prices— One in a box, at .5c, 10c, 15c and 25c Two in a box, at .10c, 15c, 20c, 25c, 30c, 60c Three in a box, at .15c, 20c, 25c, 30c, 60c Four in a box, at 60c, 75c, $1.00 Six in a box, at $1 and $1.50 Most of the Handkerchiefs all linen this year, fine values .10c to 25c Men's and Women's Initialed Handkerchiefs at .15c and 25c Gift Hosiery!

A practical gift and always acceptable to anyone, young or old. Gift Boxes if desired. Exceptional values are offered here in pure thread Silk Hose for Women, at, per pair .81 Fibre Silk Hose, at .25c, 35c, 50c Gauze Lisle Hose that wear— four pairs in a box guaranteed four months, for $1.00; pair 25c Men's Half-Hose, linen heel and toe; colors, grey, tan and black, two pairs for .25c Gauze, Lisle or Silk Half-Hose, all colors; per pair .25c

Corner 6th and Main St., Plattsmouth, Neb. E. A. WURL, PHONE 56

Local News

From Friday's Daily. Frank Grauf of near Murray was here yesterday for a few hours looking after some matters of business with the merchants.

Mrs. J. H. Teegarden of Brock, Nebraska, is in the city today for a short visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith.

Ben Horning was among those going to Omaha this afternoon, where he was called on some matters of importance for a few hours.

Anyone having left any articles at the Parme theater can secure same by calling at this office and paying for this advertisement. 12-11-1fd

Fred Oldenhausen, jr., was among the passengers yesterday afternoon for Omaha, where he was called on some matters of business for a few hours.

D. A. Young of the vicinity of Murray was in the city today for a few hours looking after some trading with the merchants and visiting with his friends.

County Commissioner Julius Pitz returned this afternoon from Omaha, where he has been in attendance at the meeting of the county commissioners and clerks in that city.

J. D. Shrader of Murray came up this morning from his home and departed on the early Burlington train for Omaha, where he goes to spend the day looking after some matters of business.

Mrs. B. F. Crook and daughter, Mrs. R. J. Staller, of Salem, Neb., who is here visiting her mother for a short time, departed this morning for Omaha, where they go to visit for the day with relatives and friends.

L. H. Puls, wife and family and Mrs. W. H. Puls motored in this morning from their home west of Murray and were passengers on the early Burlington train for Omaha, where they will visit for the day.

Henry Kurtz of Lincoln, who has been here visiting at the home of his father, Adam Kurtz, and wife, for the past few days, departed this afternoon for his home in the state metropolis.

Jack Patterson and wife of Union were among those making a trip to the metropolis this morning, going on the early Burlington train. They came up last evening from their home and visited here with relatives over night.

From Saturday's Daily. Ben Beckman of near Murray was here for a few hours yesterday looking after some trading with the merchants and visiting with friends.

Ed H. Tritsch and wife were among those going to Omaha this morning, where they will spend the day looking after some matters of business.

Mrs. Bert Satchell of Stanton, Neb., who has been here visiting at the C. M. Beverage home for the past few days, departed this morning for her home.

Adam Kaffenberger, one of the substantial farmers of near Cedar Creek, came in this morning to look after the week-end shopping with the merchants.

Fred Kaffenberger and wife were among those going to Omaha this morning, where they expect to visit for the day with relatives and friends in that city.

Henry Born, wife and children departed this morning on the early Burlington train for Omaha, where they will visit for the day taking in the sights there.

Peter Halmes, one of the prosperous farmers from west of the city, was a visitor in the metropolis today for a few hours, returning home this afternoon on No. 23.

George M. Hild of the vicinity of Mynard came in this morning from his home to spend a few hours in this city with friends and to look after the week-end shopping.

Ira Bates came in this morning from his home south of this city and was a passenger on the early Burlington train for Omaha, where he will visit for the day.

Mrs. Tabitha Thacker was among those going to Omaha this morning to spend a few hours looking after some matters of business and in viewing the Christmas sights.

Mrs. Mark White came in this morning from her home south of this city and was among the numerous passengers on No. 15 for Omaha, where she will spend the day.

Rev. J. M. Eades of the Liberty church, south of this city, was among the passengers this morning for Omaha, where he will visit with his daughter and family for the day.

George A. Kaffenberger, wife and little daughters were among the passengers this morning for Omaha, where they will visit for the day looking after some matters of business.

James Newasek and little daughter were among the passengers this afternoon for Omaha, where they go to spend a few hours looking after the treatment of the eyes of the little girl.

Rev. McLaughlin, president of York college, York, Nebraska, came in last evening from his home to attend to some matters in regard to the evangelistic meetings that are being held south of this city.

L. H. Vallery and wife of Los Angeles, California, came in yesterday to enjoy a short visit here at the home of Mr. Vallery's mother, Mrs. Jacob Vallery and family. This is the first visit of Mr. Vallery in two years and one that is greatly enjoyed.

Subscribe for the Journal.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe his remedy is the best for all cases of Catarrh of the bladder, prostate and urethra, and is the only reliable remedy for these ailments. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

New Son Arrives. From Friday's Daily. Last evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mart Stevens on South Tenth street was gladdened by the arrival of a fine new baby boy, who will in the future make his home there. The youngster was the object of much admiration from the proud and happy parents, who say he is the finest little man in the world, and they are busy receiving the congratulations of their friends and neighbors on the new arrival.

How to Bankrupt the Doctors. A prominent New York physician says, "If it were not for the thin stockings and thin soled shoes worn by women the doctors would probably be bankrupt." When you contract a cold do not wait for it to develop into pneumonia, but treat it at once. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds, and has won a wide reputation by its cures of these diseases. It is most effectual and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers.

Office supplies at the Journal office.

A Fine Line of Useful Xmas Gifts can be had at this store!

A very fine stock of the latest patterns of Casseroles and Baking China for $2.50 to $7.50 Percolators of all kinds $2.50 to $5.50 Community Silverware Pocket Knives and razors Carving Sets Roller and Ice Skates and a thousand and one other articles. Come in and look and we think you will have no trouble in selecting a useful and fitting present.

G. P. EASTWOOD,

Plattsmouth, : : : Nebraska

Don't forget to get the coupons for your favorite contestant. The contest is creating a great deal of interest and is still a good opportunity for any one.