Mrs. H. B. Welcott and Mrs. Thomas Morley and daughter, Miss Dorothy, attended the grand opera in Lincoln Wednesday.

Mrs. Lee Marshall was called to Douglas Wednesday morning by the serious illness of her father.

Guy Bowers and his mother of Greenwood came in Tuesday afternoon for a visit with his sister, Mrs. Jake Witt and husband.

Mrs. William Jameson, sr., and Mrs. Bert Jameson were in Omaha Monday and Tuesday paying furniture to furnish the Jameson bungalow on Eldon avenue.

Mrs. E. F. Marshall, Mrs. C. B. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Merle McKay, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Teegarden and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mohr were passengers on the Omaha flyer Wednesday morning. Grandma Fricke returned Monday afternoon from Elmwood and Wabash, where she had been visiting. She expects to spend the holidays at Guide Rock with her son, Henry, and her daughter, Mrs. Williams.

Don Valley of near Plattsmouth passed through here on the main line train Monday evening en route home.

He had been to Missouri, where he had a cancer removed from his hip.

Mrs. A. I. Ralston received the sad news Wednesday of the death of her oldest sister's husband at Trivoli, Illinois. Mrs. Ralston left this morning to attend the funeral. She was accompanied as far as Omaha by her daughter, Miss Elizabeth.

Ray Kreider returned from Omaha Monday night, where he had been looking after his little son, who has been in the hospital since he was so badly burned a few weeks ago. Mr. Kreider thinks the child is getting along nicely, but it will be some time before it can be brought home.

UNION.

Ledger.

Mrs. J. M. Patterson visited with her parents and other relatives in Plattsmouth Tuesday and Wednesday.

James T. Reynolds returned last Friday from Omaha, where he had spent a few days attending the Farmers' congress and visiting with his son, Will.

Roy Stine and wife, who were recently married, are now "living at home" in this village, occupying the Sam Luce property in the north part of town.

G. A. Tyson of Tobias, Neb., a brother of Mrs. Catherine Stine, has been here the past week visiting Mrs. Stine and other relatives and old-time friends.

Robert McQuinn and family left last Friday for Coleridge, and will make their home on a farm in that vicinity. Their many friends here hope they may be prosperous and happy in their new location.

Miss Mary Foster, county superintendent, spent Sunday here at home, and had as her guests Misses Claire Dovey, Ione Dovey, Amelia Martin, Hazel Dovey, Verna Cole, Mae Murphy and Helen Dovey, all from Plattsmouth.

Syl C. Hathaway and wife went to St. Joseph on Wednesday for the purpose of consulting one of the specialists in regard to Mrs. Hathaway's ailment, and it is very probable that she will have to remain there several days for treatment in a hospital.

Nelson Applegate arrived Tuesday night from South Sioux City, having been notified of the sudden death of his uncle, Mahlon Applegate. He had expected to arrive here to attend the funeral, but the remains of his uncle had been taken Tuesday morning to Villisca, Iowa, for interment.

The Union hotel opened up for business again Wednesday, after having been closed a few weeks, and is now under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Roy R. Burton, formerly of Nebraska City. They are thoroughly acquainted with all details of the business, and with the proper support by the business men and other citizens they will make a success of it, and without drawing the patronage that usually belongs to the restaurants.

EAGLE.

Beacon.

Don Dihel arrived home from Aledo, Ill., Thursday of last week to spend the winter with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Dihel.

F. W. Blomkamp has rented the Haas Wulf property on Main street, south of the M. E. church, and will move into the same the first of next week.

This is mighty fine weather for the ice man, and if it continues so for the next few days our dealers here will take advantage of it and lay in a good supply for next summer.

Mrs. George Trunkholz, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at the St. Elizabeth hospital in Lincoln, is getting along nicely, and expects to be able to come home by Friday of this week.

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church will hold a business meeting at the home of Miss Myrtle Bahr, northeast of town, Wednesday afternoon, January 6th. All members are requested to be present.

We are glad to report that Otto Kettlehut, who underwent a serious operation at his father's home in this city a couple of weeks ago, is able to be out and around again, although he is still forced to use crutches.

C. F. Caywood and family arrived here from Lincoln Saturday of last week to take charge of the Beatrice cream station. Mr. Caywood will appreciate any patronage that may be given him in his line, and assures courteous treatment to all.

We are in receipt of a letter from W. H. Morrow, stating that they reached Hendley Monday, December 7th, and are well pleased with their new home, although they miss their many friends that they made in Eagle during their residence here.

A deal was consummated the first part of the week whereby Tom Hawkins became owner of the Guy Adams property in the southeast part of town. We understand that Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins will move to town in the very near future.

LOUISVILLE.

Courier.

Miss Mae Steel of Grand Island is here visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Steel.

Judge Brobst is suffering from an affliction of the eyes that kept him indoors several days the past week.

Mrs. Scott McGrew has been quite sick the last few days, but is improving, which is good news to her friends.

Charles Hennings is here from Wibaux, Montana, for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hennings.

Twelve degrees below Monday morning with a snow and a north wind emphasized the fact that Old Man Winter has arrived. We're for him, as violets and Christmas candy don't mix like Mocha and Java.

E. Palmer went to Omaha to see his son, Attorney H. O. Palmer, who was confined to his room with an attack of tonsillitis. A. L. Palmer has also been under the weather with an attack of the gripe at the home of his aunt, Mrs. L. J. Mayfield, but was able to return to his legal duties in Omaha Wednesday.

Mrs. William Clarke of Lincoln came down Wednesday to visit her brother, F. H. Nichols and family, and to bid her mother, Mrs. Frank Echols, good-bye. The latter left Thursday for her home in Virginia, after an extended visit with her son and daughter. She was accompanied as far as Omaha by Mr. Nichols.

August Joachim, sr., met with a severe accident some time ago, while cutting up a stick of timber at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George Vogler. Dr. Dwyer was called in consultation, and a trained nurse from Omaha placed in attendance. At this writing the old gentleman is reported slightly improved.

Last Sunday the first rabbit snow of the season covered the outdoors and the curtain lowered forever on the happiness of many a cottontail, with now and then a jack added for variety's sake. Speck Wilcox, Geo. Applegate and Fat Wilcox and the two Courier offsprings made up a party that in five hours bagged 54 fat rabbits.

NEHAWKA.

News.

There seems to be quite an epidemic of chickenpox around here now. Railroads never have a wreck any more. Once in a while they have a "derailment."

We have been reading up on electricity lately and believe we could distinguish a kilowatt from a what-ever at a glance.

The electric light poles are all set and quite a bit of wiring done. It looks like Pollard will be ready to turn on the juice about January 1st.

Mrs. Dr. Thomas was hostess last Thursday for the usual crowd of ladies at the weekly Kensington. Refreshments were served and the usual delightful time was had.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Sheldon left last Thursday for Ellensburg, N. Y., and other points east for a visit with relatives. They expect to be back about January 1st.

V. Y. Craig, who was superintendent of the schools here last year and year before, was down from Lincoln over Sunday visiting the Ray Norris family. He is a student at the state agricultural school this winter.

Chris Ross is a firm believer in insurance. The first of this week, through their local agent, Henry Kropp, the Union Central paid him $5,057.90 for a twenty-year policy of his that had just matured. Mr. Ross has four boys that are carrying policies in this company for like amounts, and several more that will carry them as they become old enough.

E. M. Pollard has opened an office in the Palmer building on the north side and will have on display a line of electric appliances in connection with his light plant. Patrons are invited to call and inspect his line, and they may also find out approximately what it will cost them to install the service. The office will be open at all times and the public is invited to come in and be as inquisitive as they like.

ELMWOOD.

Leader-Echo.

Mr. Bedson of Lincoln is visiting at the home of his son, A. J. Bedson, and his daughter, Mrs. E. C. Burke, this week.

E. J. Jeary went to Lincoln Thursday to bid his sister good-bye. She starts for California points today to spend the winter.

Mrs. E. D. Harrison, a sister of A. McFall of Nueburg, N. D., arrived here and will spend the winter with her brother and family.

M. W. Waltz went to Lincoln Tuesday to see Mrs. Waltz, who is confined in a hospital there, and whom we are glad to know is greatly improved.

Mrs. J. B. Elliott left on Tuesday for Tolono, Illinois, in response to a message announcing the serious illness of her mother at that place. She expects to be gone several months.

Mrs. W. J. Robertson and daughter, Miss Viola, of St. Paul, Minn., are visiting at the home of their son and brother, Orville Robertson. They will remain for several weeks visiting in this vicinity.

L. F. Langhorst returned Thursday from a business trip to the western part of the state. Lou says it was cold and bleak out there and he was glad to get home again to a good looking town.

J. E. Hoover shipped another car of hogs to the Nebraska City Packing company Wednesday morning. The cold weather and the exceedingly low price kept a number of farmers from selling now, and the load was not a big one.

James Hettrick was taken to Lincoln Friday evening and there operated upon for appendicitis. His case was one of the worst type, the parts affected being in a very aggravated state. This sudden attack of that now very common malady came as a surprise to the friends of young Mr. Hettrick, and we are glad to be able to report to them that he is doing nicely at this writing.

OF LOCAL INTEREST

Some People We Know, and We Will Profit by Hearing About Them.

This is a purely local event. It took place in Plattsmouth. Not in some faraway place. You are asked to investigate it. Asked to believe a citizen's word. To confirm a citizen's statement. Any article that is endorsed at home

Is more worthy of confidence. Than one you know nothing about. Endorsed by unknown people.

Louis Kroehler, proprietor hardware store, Elm street, Plattsmouth, says: "Some time ago I had pains in my back. I was so lame that I couldn't stoop. My kidneys were weak. I had a tired, languid feeling all the time and headaches were common. I got Doan's Kidney Pills from Gering & Co.'s Drug Store and they soon relieved me. I am pleased to recommend them."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Kroehler had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
