"MUTT AND JEFF" CHRISTMAS PARMELE ATTRACTION

Fine Comedy, Latest Songs and More Pretty Girls Than Ever Sew Before in One Show.

The best evidence a theater manager can offer his patrons as to the actual merits of an attraction that he is offering for your approval is undisputed facts concerning its success elsewhere. What is said here concerning the success of Gus Hill's production of Bud Fisher's great cartoon play, "Mutt & Jeff in Mexico," coming to the Parmele theater Thursday night, December 24, can easily be verified in the news columns of almost any newspaper. More than five hundred prominent newspapers throughout the country are running the clever Fisher cartoon daily. That newspaper is paying a big bonus or the privilege of getting the Fisher cartoons, because they attract its readers, because they have proven the biggest success since cartoon pictures have become a feature in daily papers. Millions of people open their morning paper at the "funny page" to see what new stunt "Mutt and Jeff" are up to. You can then imagine with what pleasure the people look forward to seeing those two funny fellows in real life, depicted by clever flesh and blood actors, who are physically fitted to properly portray every movement that Bud Fisher has conceived to be funny. "Mutt & Jeff" has actually created a sensation never before known in theatrical history. In New York City, where the play ran to record business at the Grand opera house; and at the Manhattan opera house; in Chicago where it ran fifteen weeks to actual capacity, and in every large or small city in the entire country, and wrung from the most conservative critics the enviable title of being the greatest financial and artistic success in a quarter of a century. You don't want any better evidence than this, do you? The big New York company, with all of the arguments that won its success will be here. Get seats now. At the Parmele Thursday night, December 24.

California Woman Seriously Alarmed.

"A short time ago I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs and caused me a great deal of annoyance. I would have had coughing spells and my lungs were so sore and inflamed I began to be seriously alarmed. A friend recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, saying she had used it for years. I bought a bottle and it relieved my cough the first night, and in a week I was rid of the cold and soreness of my lungs," writes Miss Marie Gerber, Sawtelle, Cal. For sale by all dealers.

"THE BROKEN ROSARY" AT THE PARMELE CHRISTMAS

Christmas night, December 25, at the Parmele theater, will be seen the greatest of all modern dramas, "The Broken Rosary," by Kirkpatrick Boone, which comes to this city under the direction of the Syndicate, fresh from a series of triumphs in the east. The play deals with the marriage game, and the sale of beautiful young girls to wealthy men by their mothers. It is a wonderful protest against conditions as they exist today, and the playwright has pointed out the remedy by making the principle character of the piece a priest, who, in the charge of his clerical duties prevents a great crime from being committed.

PROMPT IN PAYING THEIR INSURANCE POLICIES

The Degree of Honor lodge received Saturday from the head office of the order a warrant for $1,000, in full for the insurance on the life of the late Mrs. Fred Ramge, jr., and the warrant was turned over at once to the beneficiary, Mr. Ramge, and the transaction speaks well for the rapidity with which the Degree of Honor does business. Mrs. Ramge died on November 22, and proof was sent in to the head office, the warrant arriving here Saturday and was at once delivered to Mr. Ramge. The promptness with which the claim was handled is very pleasing to the members of the order in this city who have been active in the work of the lodge, and the payment of the claim inspires them to greater work for the Degree of Honor.

Dance Is a Fine Success.

The dance Saturday evening at Coates' hall, given by the Cosmopolitan club, was attended by a large crowd of dancers, who spent several hours there most delightfully in the enjoyment of the new dances. The feature of the evening was the giving away of the fine ten-pound turkey, which was secured by No. 49, held by C. H. Lohman of Omaha. The drawing of the number was made by little Miss Margaret Sherwood, and the winner was able to return to his home in the metropolis with the basis for a good Christmas dinner.

FIRE COMMISSIONER RIGDELL CAUTIONS PEOPLE TO BE CAREFUL ABOUT FIRES

The near approach of the Christmas season is bringing out the usual notices from the state fire commission in regard to the dangers of fire starting from Christmas tree decorations and the use of candles to decorate the trees with. This danger is especially great where there are large trees with a Santa Claus to distribute presents, as Santa Claus quite often gets his whiskers singed or burnt by the candles used and many a very severe fire is started in this manner that causes quite a loss. In these modern days a great many have adopted the plan of using small varicolored electric lights for the use of tree decorations and this does away with a large element of danger that has existed so much in the past. The trimmings that are used in the work of decorating are also manufactured with a view of making them fire proof but still we often hear of a Santa Claus and tree that has gone up in smoke and the state commissioner desires to impress upon the public the great danger from this source and their timely warning should be heeded by all those who are thinking of fixing up a Christmas tree and the decorations made as near fire proof as possible.
