GREAT FIRE SALE

of the Egenberger Stock at Fanger's Department Store!

Bought for 50c on the $1, and will be sold to the people of Plattsmouth and vicinity at a great sacrifice in price. Most of the goods are not damaged at all. Sale opens

Tuesday, January 12th, at 2:00 p. m.

Our entire store has been re-arranged to handle this stock of goods. The Groceries are on display in the west room, while the fire stock of Dry Goods will be found in the east room of our store. In both of the rooms will be found the greatest array of bargains ever offered the people of this locality. Not only the Egenberger stock will be offered to you at fire prices, but if you are in need of anything in the line of Clothing, Cloaks and Coats, or, in fact, anything in the line of wearing apparel, here is the golden opportunity to buy at almost your own price. The large line carried by the department store will be found on sale at almost as equally low prices as the fire goods. Remember, the sale opens Tuesday afternoon, January 12th, at 2 o'clock. Be on hand early and get your choice.

Pure Patent Flour, at. $1.48
Sunkist Flour, at. $1.58
Gold Medal Flour, at. $1.75
Nekota Flour, at. $1.75

This stock of goods was bought at a great sacrifice, and after a thorough examination it took me but very few moments to close the deal, well knowing that there were great values in it for the people of Plattsmouth and vicinity, after allowing me a small profit for the handling. The stock invoiced a short time ago $5,900, and the same was purchased by me at $2,400. This is why you can secure bargains as long as the goods last. The stock was slated to be shipped to Beatrice. The larger portion of the goods are not damaged at all, and just as good as when shipped fresh from the market, not even a drop of water touching them.

OUR GUARANTEE

No doubt there will be all kinds of knockers during this sale. You will hear that the goods are ruined by fire, water and smoke. Here is where we want to hand you a guarantee. Buy anything in the grocery line that we tell you is not damaged, such as Canned Goods, Bottled Goods, Sugar and Flour, in fact, all the necessities of life, and if you fail to find it perfect in every particular bring it back and your money will be returned. Where can you find a stronger guarantee? And we mean just what we say.

WE WILL REMAIN IN PLATTSMOUTH

There have been many rumors afloat in Plattsmouth that the Fanger store was going to leave Plattsmouth. In place of leaving we are adding more, and are in a position to buy many more such stocks of goods as the Egenberger stock should the same opportunity be offered us. We are simply employing modern methods of merchandising in preference to the old way of all hands sitting around the stove awaiting for customers to call and beg for goods. We are selling goods and we will continue in the same channel.

TO THE BAWBOTH. Protecting hedge; fruit nourishing For man, and tendris flourishing For deer and cow. What means thy star-flower which adorns Thy wood which formed the Crown of Thorns? On Jesus' brow, And staff upon which Joseph braced? What mean thy fragrant branches, gleaned, For Hyman's altar, Where youthful eyes with love afire Glow promises of high desire? In song and psalter? Assisting all and pointing up, What art thou but the sign of Hope? What but the gold, Beneath the bow's auspicious form Emerging at departing storm Of story old?

SAMUEL SIEGEL, OF CHICAGO, A GUEST AT THE GEO. DOVEY HOME

The general committee appointed by the pastors of the various churches of the city met yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock for preliminary discussion of the project of the religious campaign. Rev. Leele presided and a short talk was made by the pastors and laymen present in relation to the moral conditions existing in our city and what might be done to improve them. The meeting was enthusiastic and harmonious from the beginning and adjourned at 4:30 to meet again next Sunday afternoon.

A Fresh and Complete Stock of Groceries!

I wish to impress upon the minds of all my friends and patrons that I have received and opened up a new fresh and complete line of groceries in the Gorder building, opposite my old stand on Main street, where I am ready and willing to supply the trade with any and everything in this line. I will conduct my business in this location awaiting the completion of the repairs on my former business place. I will be pleased to meet all my old friends and patrons, also all new ones who care to favor me with their patronage.
