LIFE'S a game, and we are all players in it, to paraphrase Shakespeare. And the best two cards in any hand are illustrated above—first, the PAY ENVELOPE; second, the BANK BOOK. Without the pay envelope there can be no bank book. Without the bank book the pay envelope is robbed of its FULL VALUE. The BANK BOOK is the LOGICAL, SENSIBLE SUPPLEMENT of the PAY ENVELOPE.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE

MRS. P. S. HALL AT ROCK BLUFFS YESTERDAY

The funeral of the late Mrs. P. S. Hall was held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Rock Bluffs school house, where, despite the snow and cold, a large number of the old friends and neighbors gathered to pay their last tributes of respect to this grand, good woman called from their midst. The funeral cortage left the home at 2 o'clock and the services at the school house were conducted by Rev. A. G. Hollowell, pastor of the Christian church of this city, who gave a short sermon dwelling on the faithful Christian, upright life of the departed lady, and gave to the sorrowing family words of comfort and hopefulness of meeting in the hereafter with their loved ones. Mrs. Hall had been a member of the Church of Christ for many years, having joined that faith at Rock Bluffs on first coming to this county, and passed away firm in its teachings. Besides the husband and children she leaves four brothers, Ben Hoback of Union, Dow, William and Charles Hoback, all residing in California, and two sisters, Mrs. Minerva Read of Percival, Iowa, and Mrs. Emma Kiser of California. The interment was made in the cemetery at the old home in Rock Bluffs.

Card of Thanks.
We desire to express to our friends our most heartfelt thanks for their sympathy and kindness shown to us at the death of our beloved mother and wife and assure them we shall ever hold in grateful remembrance their kind deeds and helpfulness.

ONE OF THE EARLY BUSINESS MEN OF ROCK BLUFFS PASSES AWAY IN CALIFORNIA

Samuel R. Johnson, leader among Omaha's earlier business men, and father of Frank B. Johnson of the Omaha Printing Co., and Mrs. Edward Williams and William Johnson of Omaha, died Thursday afternoon at his ranch in the Santa Clara valley, not far from San Jose, Cal. He was 85 years old. Weakness incident to old age caused death.

The funeral was held at his California home Sunday. The time being so short, and the distance so great, his children in Omaha made no effort to attend.

Although he left Omaha for his California home in 1886, Mr. Johnson's name is still widely remembered here as one of the steady, able business men who helped put struggling Omaha on its feet.

Three times he crossed the plains to the Pacific coast in the '50s. The first time, in '53, he started farming in the Suisun valley, not far from San Francisco. He stayed there two years. Then he returned east to locate at Sidney, Iowa. Eleven years later he opened a wholesale grocery house in Council Bluffs, and then a branch in Omaha. The firm of Steels & Johnson became widely known in the west.

In 1884 he became the first president of the Cable Street Car Co. here. At the same time he was helping found the first Omaha water company and became its president. He was also president of the Nebraska National bank at its founding in 1882. All this time he kept a hold on the grocery business.

He is survived by his widow, by the three children living in Omaha and by another son, S. Edgar, living near San Jose.

Mr. Johnson was one of the early settlers of Old Rock Bluffs, in Cass county, and in an early day was one of the merchants of that place. The wife he leaves to mourn his death is a sister of J. W. Berger of Murray. He was well known to all the early settlers of this section.

MRS. P. S. HALL PASSED AWAY THIS MORNING AT HER HOME AT ROCK BLUFFS

From Tuesday's Daily
This morning at 3 o'clock, at her home near Rock Bluffs, Mrs. P. S. Hall, one of the pioneer ladies of this part of the county, passed away, after an illness of several weeks, due to pneumonia and other complications. The message announcing her death received in this city was very brief and little could be learned as to the real particulars. Mrs. Hall was something like 75 years of age and had made her home near Rock Bluffs for many years. The family resided near Queen Hill, just east of the old Rock Bluffs townsite.

Miss Elizabeth Hoback was born in Virginia in 1839 and came to Nebraska in an early day with her family, and had a great deal to do in the assisting of the welfare of this country in pioneer days, and her father, Robert Hoback, was the first representative from this county to sit in the Nebraska territorial legislature, and for years was one of the leading figures in the life of the county. She was married twice, and at the death of her first husband was left with the care of two young sons, John and Abner Hughes, who now reside at Bellevue, Nebraska, and Deadwood, South Dakota, and are left to mourn her death, together with her second husband and three children born of their union—Mrs. Annie Allen of South Omaha, Stanley Hall and Mrs. Minnie Bates, residing near Rock Bluffs. Ben Hoback is also left to mourn her loss.

The funeral of this good woman will be held tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock from the late home, and the interment made in the cemetery at Rock Bluffs.
