

"THE WIZARD OF WISELAND" SURE A GREAT SHOW

One of the Finest Comedy Companies That Ever Played in the Parmele Theater.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Some idea can be formed of the magnitude of the outlay required to get "The Wizard of Wiseland" ready for production by considering the item of costumes alone. Over 400 are used during the performance and these embrace messaline costumes, Irish boy and girl type, sailor, brigand, Indian, cowboy, fairy costumes, animal costumes, etc., and the beautiful and latest creation, the moon costume. The latter is worn in Act II during the serenade solo, "Coming of the Moon," when, in answer to the impassioned tones of the singer, the stage becomes suddenly thronged with pretty girls wearing picturesquely startling costumes, each showing an illuminated full moon. As the figures glide gracefully to and fro on the stage amid gloomy shade and join in singing one of Lancelle's harmonious choruses, the effect unwittingly carries the beholder himself, to the mystic surroundings of the "Isle of Wiseland," where things vary so strangely with those of Mother Earth.

The design of the costumes in toto is that of Monsieur Florenti, the well known Parisian expert, whose creations are in great demand for all the great spectacular productions in continental Europe.

The initial appearance here of the musical extravaganza, "The Wizard of Wiseland," will be given at the Parmele theater on Saturday night, February 6.

MRS. J. H. DONNELLY ENTERTAINS THE LADIES OF ST. MARY'S GUILD

From Wednesday's Daily.

Yesterday afternoon the ladies of St. Mary's Guild were entertained in a most charming manner at the home of Mrs. J. H. Donnelly on Vine street on the occasion of their regular business session, and the greatest of pleasure was derived by the members of the Guild in the discussion of the business affairs of the organization, as well as in the making of many articles of needlework, for which the ladies had come prepared, and in pleasant social conversation, which served to pass most pleasantly the passing hours. A very tempting and highly appreciated luncheon was served at a suitable hour by the hostess, assisted by Misses Marie Donnelly and Catherine Dovey, and which proved a most pleasing feature of the happy occasion and added greatly to the enjoyment of the large number of ladies present, and at the close of the afternoon all departed homeward to eagerly await a future opportunity to gather at this hospitable home and partake of the pleasant hospitality afforded them there.

The ladies of St. Mary's Guild are expecting to hold in the near future a parish party at Coates' hall, to which all the members of St. Luke's parish are expected to be present, and the occasion is looked forward to with the greatest of pleasure by every member of the church, as it will be an occasion when all can get in closer touch with each other. The ladies, at their meeting, outlined plans and will be in a position shortly to announce the date for the event.

Rain Now the Program.

More of the different brands of weather that have been prevailing throughout this community swept down upon us last night and allowed the weather to change into a nasty, disagreeable rain that made the lot of the traveler on the streets far from pleasant by any means, but had the one advantage that it removed a portion of the snow, even though it was to make things sloppy as could be. These conditions are reported to be prevailing throughout this section of the state.

From Wednesday's Daily.

The board of county commissioners are in session today at the court house looking over the business affairs of the county and allowing the different claims that have arisen since their last session. LADIES' AUXILIARY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH ENTERTAINED BY MRS. ALLISON

From Wednesday's Daily.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church held their regular meeting yesterday afternoon, and on account of the measles at the Quinton home, were entertained by Mesdames Mary B. Allison and J. W. Johnson, at the cozy home of Mrs. Allison, in the north part of the city. There was a large number in attendance, who spent a most delightful and profitable afternoon, as there was nothing left undone by the thoughtful hostesses for the entertainment of their guests. During the afternoon a very interesting business session was held, at which time $16 more was turned into the manse fund, which makes a total of $75 in this fund collected by the ladies. Another plan discussed was that of holding a rummage sale this spring, but this plan will be discussed further at their next meeting. The ladies then adjourned for a social time and engaged in social conversation and other amusements calculated to make the occasion a most enjoyable one. The hostesses served some most delicious refreshments at this time. At the usual hour the ladies dispersed, very much indebted to the hostesses for the splendid afternoon's entertainment afforded them and for their kind hospitality.

BASKET BALL GAME AT GERMAN HOME TOMORROW NIGHT

The basket ball game that is to occur in this city at the German Home on Friday evening gives promise of being a most pleasing treat to the lovers of this form of sport. Definite arrangements have been closed with the Malvern, Iowa, team to be here, and the Iowa boys come with a record of a number of straight victories that will put the representatives of the Turners on their mettle to overcome, but they are hopeful of making a fine showing and carrying off the honors of the occasion from the visitors. The squad of the Turners, composed of Ames, B. Arries, Marshall, M. Arries, Beal, Hunter, White and Noble, are constantly practicing for the big event that will take place Friday evening. After the game a short social dance will be enjoyed and will be given for the visitors and the young people of the city. A most pleasant time is anticipated by the young people in this event. As a curtain-raiser for the main event of the evening the boys from the grade schools will take on the Junior Turners for a short game, which will commence at 7:30 sharp.

COUNTY TREASURER FOX ON PROGRAM FOR SPEECH AT THE STATE MEETING

The program for the meeting of the state association of county treasurers, which will be held at Hastings on Tuesday and Wednesday, February 9 and 10, has been issued, and among the various speakers on the program for the opening day appears the name of County Treasurer W. K. Fox of Cass county, who will address the meeting on the subject, "Should Assessments in Nebraska Be Made on a Cash Basis?" County Treasurer Fox, on account of his long experience in the office of the treasurer, is well qualified to speak on this interesting question and should be able to afford to the members of the state association many interesting facts in support of the question he has been assigned. The meetings of the state association are largely attended and the county treasurers from almost every county in the state will be present to assist in the interchange of ideas that may prove of great helpfulness to the general good. The people of Hastings are making many preparations to entertain the visitors while there at the convention.

THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS FAVOR IMPROVEMENTS AT COURT HOUSE

The county commissioners, at their meeting this morning, had before them the proposition of placing a new concrete floor in the toilet rooms in the basement of the court house, as a proposition to do the work at a very low price was offered by Mr. James Burnie and his company. This floor is quite badly in need of repairs and the opportunity afforded the commissioners is so cheap that they cannot well afford to pass it up. The replacing of the floor at this time will result in the saving of a neat sum to the county, for if it is put over it will require a great deal more work and expense to get it in shape for service.

ENTERTAINS MUSICIANS AT SIX O'CLOCK DINNER

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Beeson entertained a number of the Plattsmouth musicians at their home on North Sixth street at a charming 6 o'clock dinner. This occasion was in honor of Miss Augusta Mengedoh, of Omaha, and who is an instructor of violin, who comes down to this city once and twice a week to instruct her large class in the study of the violin, and in order that Miss Mengedoh might meet a number of the musicians of this city, they were invited to the Beeson home on Saturday evening. After the serving of a delightful dinner the guests repaired to the music room, where they sure enjoyed a rare musical treat, as they were most delightfully entertained by a number of selections on the violin by Miss Agnes Knofieck, who has just recently returned home from Prague, where she has been engaged in the study of the violin for the past two years. She was accompanied by Miss Kittie Cummins on the piano, and her selections, assisted by Miss Cummins, were certainly most highly appreciated by those fortunate enough to be present and hear them. Each number consisted of some of the most difficult ones and denoted much careful study and interest on the part of both pupil and instructor. It was one of the most enjoyable social events of the winter season, and on their departure for their homes the guests expressed their heartiest thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Beeson for their kind hospitality and the splendid evening's entertainment afforded them. Covers were laid for twelve.
