

IN PLATTSMOUTH FORTY YEARS AGO.

J. T. Lloyd called and "saw" the Herald last week.

Mrs. Hatt, wife of A. G. Hatt, has been very sick, we regret to learn.

Miss Louisa Shryock is among us again, her school having closed last Friday.

Prof. Geer and sister, Miss Wight, from Tabor, Iowa, are attending the musicale.

Sam Barker, our "Uncle Sam," shipped 110 head of fat cattle to Chicago last week.

The Rev. Mr. Hudson of the Eight Mile Grove Baptist church, called on the Herald lately.

We are pleased to learn from Mr. Wettenkamp that his boy, who was taken to Indianapolis some time ago, is much better.

Pronger had a large stove and a large stick, putting the large stick in the stove, it hit the door, which, coming in contact with George's front-piece, left a sore mark. He is out of danger.

Mrs. Captain Marshall met with a severe accident on Sunday by losing her balance while standing on a chair and falling on the back heavy enough to completely demolish the chair. We understand she is improving.

Mr. Hascall, working the Stocking farm on the Platte bottom, was in town yesterday; he is just getting up from a bad dislocation of the knee, caused by a horse falling on his leg. We are glad to see him out again.

Mr. Fox, of the firm of Fox & Glover of Louisville, also one of the proprietors of the Cass County Chronicle, has been in town for several days attending the musical convention. He is a very pleasant, clever gentleman.

As Fred Reith was driving on High School Hill on Tuesday one side of his spring seat gave out, throwing him out, the horses brought up against Mr. Marth's fence, where the school boys secured them. Mr. R. was uninjured.

Well! We won't say anything about it, but there is an old saying that "actions speak louder than words." Julius Pepperberg, esq., councilman, has bought the residence formerly owned by Charles Luzenby; rather suspicious, ain't it? We shall be sorry to lose Charlie for a neighbor and citizen, but will have to submit, as he will probably go to Colorado within thirty days. We hope he may be benefited physically and financially by the change.

Our usually quiet city was roused by quite a sensational occurrence. An employe of Mr. Hatt, the butcher, dunned a colored gentleman for 80 cents due for meat. The dunning was repeated several times, the colored gentleman stating he had no money. Snyder's pugilistic propensities were finally aroused and he undertook going through the darkey, who threw Snyder instead, and finally whipped out a razor and inflicted a few slight gashes. The next heard of said colored man Mr. Hatt saw him crossing the R. R. bridge into Sarpy county.

The papers from Dan Wheeler just begin to come in. Dan "hissif" is home safe, fat and hearty.

John Fitzgerald, esq., and family returned home on Monday from Wisconsin, where they have been for some time.

Frank Kendall was in town Tuesday. He reports barley good, wheat and oats short, and corn good in his neighborhood.

Mr. Merges, brother of Peter Merges, has been very sick—congestion of the brain. Peter Merges is absent at the centennial.

Rev. Mr. Dougherty was married to Miss Emma Windsor on Tuesday at Trinity church, Omaha, by Rev. Bishop Clarkson.

V. Weckbach, esq., and M. Schnellbacher went to Omaha Wednesday to buy gods and things. Mike has stock for three blacksmith shops.

Charles Bunce, jolly joker man, called on the Herald on the day of the Presbyterian excursion. Success to Presley, the Omaha newspaper man.

Henry DuBois, one of Cass county's best farmers, and the best horseman in the county, called on the Herald Monday, prior to leaving for New York state.

General John R. Clark was here last week and until Tuesday of this. The surveyor general's office will be open for transaction of regular land business from now on.

John Mutz, well known in this county as one of our oldest farmers, has moved to Peru, in this state, where he has some town property. His health has been very poor and he desires to recruit that, and also to get the advantages of the Normal school located there. The boys run the old home farm.

Elam Parmele has moved into town and deals in horses now. He brought 16 head of very fine horses here not long since, and has disposed of them all to good advantage and leaves for another carload this week.

Nearly or quite two years ago Streight & Jones, livery men, then in partnership here, lost a horse by the hands of a man called Dr. Roberts. Neither man nor horse were heard from until last week, when Dick Streight spotted him at Omaha and had him arrested and brought down here. Roberts claims he had to cross the Platte and sent the horse home by another man. Dick wants to see that other man or have Roberts produce the horse, and we guess he'll have to do it or go to prison. Justice may be slow, but she's sure, in this country on horse thieves. Remember that, boys, when you fasten on to one end of a halter with a horse at the other.

FRECKLES

February and March Worst Months for This Trouble—How to Remove Easily.

There's a reason why nearly everybody freckles in February and March, but happily there is also a remedy for these ugly blemishes, and no one need stay freckled.

Simply get an ounce of othine, double strength, from your druggist and apply a little of it night and morning, and in a few days you should see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the light ones have vanished entirely. Now is the time to rid yourself of freckles, for if not removed now they may stay all summer, and spoil an otherwise beautiful complexion. Your money back if othine fails.

Writes From Illinois.

From Tuesday's Daily The Journal has just received a letter from our old friend, Jesse R. McVey, from Windsor, Illinois, where he is staying at the present time. He states he is getting along nicely and that the weather in that country during February was fine, but that March so far was very disagreeable and that it had been snowing a great deal there since the first of the month. There are a great many people there down with the smallpox, but Mr. McVey has so far escaped the malady. He will remain in Windsor for some time he states, and sends his heartiest greetings to his old friends in this city.
