We are sorry to learn that our excellent old friend, Mr. J. A. Walker is still confined to his home with illness, but is improving some at this time.
Miss Rose Creamer visited home folks Sunday, returning to her duties on the evening train. She is employed at the Olson Photograph company as stenographer.
Mr. and Mrs. John Royer are re-joining this week over the arrival of a fine baby girl at their home on last Monday evening. The mother and little one are doing nicely.
H. C. Long, who has been confined to his home for the past week suffering with an attack of the gripe, has been improving, and will soon be himself again.
Miss Margaret Spangler, the eleven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Spangler, celebrated her birthday anniversary, at the home of her parents, last Tuesday evening. Her school class-mates were the invited guests, and all the little friends present certainly had a most enjoyable time. They were treated to an excellent luncheon prepared by Mrs. Spangler, and the hours were whiled away in the usual manner of the little folks.

Elmer Hallstrom, the genial assistant in the Murray State Bank, has been on the sick list for the past few days, and since Monday evening has been at the home of his parents in Plattsmouth.
The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Terryberry fell against a hot stove last Saturday and was quite severely burned. The little one is improving from the burns.
W. H. Puls will move his family to Murray on Thursday of this week, taking up his residence in the north part of town. This will make Murray a much more pleasant place to live for Mr. Puls.
Bert Hansell, who was delayed in moving to the western part of the state on account of his children being down with the measles, will depart this week for Oak, where they will make their future home.
From all appearances Frontier Day in Murray last Saturday was a grand success. It is said that the rough riders were very much in evidence, and this is all that it takes to make a frontier day a howling success.
Our mighty good old friend, H. L. Oldham, who has been sick for the past few weeks has been gaining strength, and we are pleased to note will soon be restored to his former health. He has been able to be up and out of the house on a few occasions during the past few days.

United Presbyterian Church Notes.
The W. M. S. held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. J. W. Edmunds last Friday afternoon. There was a good attendance. The officers for the new year are: President, Mrs. James Loughridge; vice president, Mrs. W. H. Kikendall; secretary, Mrs. Ozre Virgin; treasurer, Miss Margie Walker.
On Saturday afternoon, although their teacher, Mrs. V. A. Kennedy, was detained at home because of sickness, the girls of the junior class met with Catherine Brown at the Berger hotel and had an enjoyable meeting.
The men of the adult bible class have reorganized for their second year. The class now numbers fourteen in membership. Two members were lost during the past year, one by removal and one by death. We wish the class a successful year.

In Honor of Otto Schafer and Bride.
There was a very pleasant gathering of friends at the old Schafer homestead, six miles west of Murray, on last Saturday evening, the occasion being given in honor of one of the brothers, Otto Schafer and his new bride. Everybody in this section of Cass county well knows the hospitality of Mrs. Schafer and her excellent family, and of course most everyone on the invited list made an effort to be present, although the bad roads kept some away. The evening was enjoyed in the usual manner in games and music of various kinds, and at the customary hour an excellent supper was spread for the visitors. It was a very pleasant occasion for all. Murray was well represented, also the entire surrounding country.

Be Sure and Attend.
There will be another meeting called at Puls & Gansemer on Friday evening of this week for the purpose of organizing a commercial club in Murray. The people are bound to have an active commercial club, and they want to see a large attendance at this meeting. A live commercial club can do more for the advancement and improvement of a town than any other one organization. Let everybody attend.

This, with the hogs already owned by Mr. Oldham make the highest breeding possible to have in any herd. The hog cost the round sum of $78.00.

PARODY ON "TIPPERARY."

(By M. G. Churchill.)
World is full of trouble, little pleasures through the day;
Less you're rich you're handicapped, so all the people say,
Working hard for pennies, while the rich will stand and stare;
Crossing the river Jordan, will we see them standing there?

CHORUS.

It's a long way to Eternity,
It's a narrow, straight track,
It's a long, long, hard road to travel,
But there is no coming back;
A long, long hard journey,
But a trip you'll take,
So prepare now while it is early
Before it's too late.

There's no complimentary tickets issued for this place;
You can gain your entrance only through your faith and grace;
There anyone can enter who's good enough to pass;
There's an extended invitation—there's no first, no last.

CHORUS.

It's a place that I am going, if I don't slide back;
It's an easy road to travel if firm on the track,
If you feel you're slipping, I will tell you what to do,
Just be careful with your steering and I'm sure you'll go through.

LAST CHORUS.

When I enter there will I see you? Will we meet at the gate?
Or will I find that you have missed it, And the other road did take?
Be careful in your steering,
Sure about your track;
For it's only once you travel it,
And never come back.

- House Is Destroyed.
From Wednesday's Daily.
The house occupied by John Hable, near the Burlington bridge, yesterday afternoon about 1:30 was discovered to be in flames, and in spite of all that could be done the house was destroyed. About half of the furniture in the house was removed and saved from destruction by the flames. The fire is supposed to have started from a defective flue, which started the fire in the partition separating the dining room and kitchen, and before anything could be done had gained great headway. The loss will amount to several hundred dollars. The house was owned by A. J. Trilety and was partially insured.

GRAND MILLINERY OPENING AT THE STORE OF MRS. EMMA PEASE

The millinery opening at the store of Mrs. Emma Pease, held on Friday and Saturday, was very successful in every way and a large number of the ladies of the city took advantage of the occasion to call and inspect the new spring styles and shapes which were offered for their inspection at this store. The showing was most pleasing and every style that will be in demand this spring and early summer was shown to the ladies and were among the most handsome ever shown here, embracing a large variety of styles and modes. To the ladies calling handsome carnations were presented that served as a most pleasing feature of the opening and were certainly a handsome and dainty souvenir of the event. The ladies who attended the opening were loud in their praise of the splendid variety of lines carried at this establishment, and the most discriminating can easily be satisfied in the many beautiful models shown. The trimming department is fully equipped to look after the wishes of the ladies in preparing their spring millinery, and a call at the Pease store is most convincing of this fact.

A Long Suffering.

Mr. Jos. Kocsis of Westville, Ill., has been suffering from his stomach for thirteen years, before he found a relief. He tells about it as follows: "I was suffering awfully with my stomach for thirteen years before I found relief in Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. I was using it for some time, because I felt so much better when I took it. Many thanks. Jos. Kocsis, P. O. Box 2, Westville, Ill." Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine has a decided effect on a sore, weak stomach and on inactive bowels. It will clean out the intestines, by which the cause of the sickness or weakness will be removed. It will also strengthen the digestive organs, create new appetite, relieve constipation and its complications. Price $1.00. At drug stores. J. J. Triner, 1333-1339 S. Ashland, Av., Chicago, Ill.

Whenever you will feel pain in any part of your body, try Triner's Lintment. Rub it well into the skin and relief will come soon. Price 25c or 50c; by mail 35c or 60c.
