Henry Cremer was an Omaha visitor Tuesday, returning home Wednesday morning.

D. J. Pitman was looking after business matters in Plattsmouth on Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. D. C. Rhoden has been spending a few days in Plattsmouth this week with relatives and friends.

Miss Laura Puls and Miss Isabelle Shradler were Plattsmouth visitors on last Saturday evening, returning home Sunday morning.

Miss Margie Taylor, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks, arrived in Murray from her home in Omaha last Saturday evening for a few days visit.

Mrs. Bert Hansell and children departed for their new home near Oak, Nebraska, Tuesday. Mr. Hansell loaded their goods and took up the westward journey last Friday.

Vance Todd and aunt, Miss Jessie Todd, departed Tuesday of this week for the Todd farms up in Canada. They will remain during the entire summer season looking after the land and crops in that locality.

J. D. Shradler, who has been out west for the past few days, returned to Murray and spent Sunday with his family, returning to Omaha Monday morning, where he has accepted a position with a seed house, and where he will make his future home. His family will move to Omaha in the near future.

The Journal regrets very much to learn that our excellent old friend H. L. Oldham, who has been sick for the past few weeks, is still confined to his home and not gaining in strength as rapidly as his many friends would like to see. He is able to be up and around the home, but cannot venture out.

"Made In America"

Fern Dill has been suffering with the measles this week.

Grandma Shridler has been on the sick list for the past week.

Mrs. John Marquardt, residing at Rock Bluffs, has been sick this week.

Leora Brown has been confined to her home this week with the measles.

Grandpa and Grandma Hendricks have been quite sick for the past few days.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Byers on Wednesday, March 17th a baby girl.

D. C. Rhoden was looking after some business matters in Omaha on Monday.

Letta, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cook is suffering with the measles.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Spangler, on March 21, a bright-eyed little baby girl. Mother and little one are doing nicely and Roy is the happiest "daddy" in the land.

Aug. Engelkeimer, jr., was in Murray Tuesday of this week, receiving all the fixtures for making his farm home modern in every particular, in the way of a water plant and bath fixtures.

Elmer Hallstrom, the genial assistant in the Murray State Bank, is at his post of duty again this week, returning Monday morning, after being at his home in Plattsmouth for a week suffering with the grippe.

Harry Massie, from the western part of the state, brought his fat cattle to the South Omaha market last Saturday, and took advantage of the opportunity to come on to Murray and make an over Sunday visit with his uncle, Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Gilmore.

James Loughridge, the boss village blacksmith, has been making some valuable additions to his shop equipment the past week. A new gasoline engine and disc sharpener has been added and Jimmie is now better prepared than ever to look after the large run of work this spring.

Mrs. Frank Young, jr., received a message Wednesday stating that the wife of her son Alba, had been seriously ill for the past few days and was being taken to Omaha where she will be placed in the hospital for a serious surgical operation. The grandchildren will be brought to Murray, where they will remain until the mother recovers.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Brendel closed the deal this week whereby they become the owner of the Baxter farm, just east of Murray, consisting of nearly 29 acres. This is an excellent piece of land and will make Mr. and Mrs. Brendel a fine home in the future. They will not move this season, but will remain on the Sporer place, where they have made their home for the past few years.

The first robin of the spring, nor the northward flying of the ducks do not at all times indicate that spring has sure set in by the Murray people, but when Walt Baldwin arrives from Missouri, they well know that the good old spring time has arrived. Walt came in Wednesday, now let us see if the oldest prophets of the village speak the truth. We hope so.

School closed in the grammar department Tuesday evening owing to the illness of the teacher, Mrs. Stanton, who was taken to her home in Union, Wednesday morning, where she will remain until she recovers sufficiently to again resume her duties. It is hoped that her illness will be of short duration, and it is expected that this department will reopen next Monday. Miss Mary Foster came up and returned with her sister Wednesday morning.

Mrs. W. B. Virgin is numbered with the sick this week.

Mrs. J. V. Pitman was an Omaha visitor last Saturday.

Mrs. Willis, the trained nurse who has been caring for Mrs. A. F. Nickels, was a passenger for Omaha Wednesday.

Mrs. V. A. Kennedy has been gaining in strength for the past few days, and the many friends hope that she will continue to improve.

H. L. Oldham has certainly been having excellent luck with his hogs, even without sunshine and pleasant weather, he has over seventy young pigs at this time.

The Journal representative was very much pleased to see our excellent old friend, J. A. Walker, able to be out on the streets of Murray again this week. His advanced age makes his improvement very slow, but he has been gaining for the past week.

Mrs. Wm. Royal has rented the Bert Root property in east Murray, where she will make her future home. She will remain in Murray for an indefinite time. The Murray people are certainly more than pleased to welcome her back to the old home, for she was a favorite when it was her home, and she has a great many friends.

R. F. Burton, who for the past few years has been following the profession of painting and paper hanging, has moved to Murray and will take up this line of work here for the summer. Mr. Burton has followed this line of work for some time, and understands the work thoroughly, and is in a position to give the people of this community the best of work, and will in all cases guarantee satisfaction.

J. W. Holmes has traded his residence property in Murray to Rex Young, for the forty acres of land that Mr. Young has owned for a short time, known as the old Calkins place, northeast of Murray. The consideration for the land was $150.00 per acre, and the residence property of Mr. Holmes was taken in at $3,100.00 on the deal. Mr. Holmes will remain in Murray and will rent the property for the present of Mr. Young.

The Murray Commercial Club organized a few days ago are getting right into the harness for the good of Murray and vicinity. The second meeting was held on Wednesday evening, and all members seem to be taking hold of the needs of the community with the vim that sure means success. It is the duty of all the business men and all interested in the future welfare of Murray to do all in their power to push this movement along and attend all the meetings.

Housecleaning Time is Here!

Housecleaning time is here and I am ready to do your Spring painting and paper hanging.

OBITUARY.

The death of Mrs. A. F. Nickels occurred at the home Tuesday, March 23, 1915, at 7:40 a. m. She had been sick for the past year and confined to her bed since last December suffering from consumption. Mrs. Nickels became unconscious Monday evening and sank peacefully to rest as the new day was breaking into being.

Catherine Caroline Klaurens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Klaurens, was born June 10, 1875, and at the time of her death was aged 39 years, 9 months and 12 days. The father, Peter Klaurens, passed away some twenty years ago, and while the subject of our sketch was a mere child the mother was called home to her final reward. She was married March 24, 1898, to Mr. A. F. Nickels, who, with three sons and one daughter, are left to mourn the death of the wife and mother. The children are as follows: Perry, aged 16; Alvdor, aged 14; Jean, aged 8, and Alice, aged 11 years. One sister, Mrs. C. E. Schwab, and two brothers, John Klaurens, of Minlo, Kansas, and Nicholas Klaurens, of Murray, are also left to mourn her death.

Funeral services were held at the late home Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. W. A. Taylor conducting the services. The Christian choir of Murray were present and rendered a number of the old familiar hymns. Interment was made in Lewiston cemetery.

John Jenkins Wins Again.

The wrestling match held at the Puls & Gansemer hall on last Wednesday evening was quite well attended. The match was between the Cass county champion, John Jenkins and Harold Rosenberg, of Nebraska City. In the first fall John simply played with the little man from Oteo, and put him on his back in 12 minutes, but in the second round, he went after him for time, and his opponent was placed in the losing position in just one and one-half minutes. The crowd in attendance were well pleased with the finish, and while the Oteo county lad did his best, it was very evident that he was no match for the heavy little man from Murray. John will be compelled to look for some better stock in order to find his match to even make the game interesting to the spectators.

Enthusiastic Meeting.

The Library Association met at the library rooms Tuesday evening, with Mesdames Barrows, Virgin and Wiley as hostesses. There was quite a lengthy program given. The music by Mrs. Pitman, Miss LaRue and Mr. Lange was extra fine. Mrs. Tutt and Mrs. Kikendall read papers that were greatly appreciated, and the five minute talks by Mrs. Gape, O. A. Davis, H. B. Hutchman and Lee Kniss were very interesting. The business houses of Hiatt & Tutt, Baker & Nickels, Puls & Gansemer offered prizes for the best kept lawns and alleys. The prizes will be awarded on the first of October. The library rooms were crowded, and much enthusiasm was displayed in these meetings. It is evident that Murray will join the ranks for a clean town.

United Presbyterian Church Notes.

A special program of music is being prepared for the evening of Easter Sabbath, with the hope that there may be a union service at that time.

Several of our members have been ill recently. We hope that they may be able soon to attend the church services.

The Every Member Canvass committee have only a short time to complete their work. Let us help them all we can.

INCUBATOR SPECIAL.

One dollar less than factory prices; any make; delivered to your town. Write us for catalog, mailed free. Johnson Bros., Nebraska City.

Death of Little Girl.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Gussie Pullen, near Union, was visited by the grim messenger of death on Friday last and their little baby daughter, Edna Marie, aged 1 month and 16 days, passed away. The little one had an attack of the measles and failed to recover from the malady. The funeral services were from the home and were conducted by Rev. W. A. Taylor, and burial made at Lewiston.

We desire to express to the friends and neighbors our deepest appreciation of their kindness to us during the illness and at the time of the death of our little one, and for the beautiful floral offerings.

Mr. and Mrs. Gussie Pullen.

Will Wehrbein has been having a very sick horse, but it is greatly improved at this writing.

Don't forget that the Cosmopolitan club will give a dance next Saturday night, March 27th. You are invited to attend.

FRECKLE-FACE

Now Is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots.

Do you know how easy it is to remove those ugly spots so that no one will call you freckle-face?

Simply get an ounce of othine, double strength, from your druggist, and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of freckles and get a beautiful complexion. The sun and winds of February and March have a strong tendency to bring out freckles, and as a result more othine is sold in these months. Be sure to ask for the double strength othine, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove the freckles.

DANCE SATURDAY.

There will be a dance at Coates' hall Saturday night, March 27th, given by the Cosmopolitan club. You are cordially invited to attend. The best of order. Music by Holly's orchestra.

Now Up and Around.

Bennett Chriswiser, who has been confined to his home for the past three weeks suffering from the grippe and other complications, has recovered to such an extent that he is able to be out of the house and down town for a short time, but still feels very weak and shaky as a result of his illness, but his friends are well pleased to see him around again, as his illness was quite serious.
