

Gold Fish Free!

FRIDAY, -AND- SATURDAY, -APRIL 23- -APRIL 24-

After 3 p. m. Friday and 2 p. m. Saturday, we will give FREE—TWO BEAUTIFUL GOLD FISH and a globe to every purchaser of one of the following articles:

Rexall Tooth Paste.....25c
Rexall Tooth Powder.....25c
Rexall Talcum Powder.....25c

We have divided the gold fish into two lots—Lot No. 1 will be given away after 3 p. m. Friday, and lot No. 2 will be given away after 2 p. m. Saturday.

NOTICE!

Only 2 gold fish to a customer.
No orders will be accepted over the telephone.
Free gold fish with cash purchases only.

No gold fish from lot No. 2 will be given away until after 2 p. m. Saturday.

We will have an assortment of larger fish, also a few globes that we will dispose of at a low price.

SEE OUR WINDOWS FRIDAY

F. G. Fricke & Co.

186 TELEPHONE 186

ELMWOOD. Leader-Echo.

Al Wallinger is having his country home fitted up with a water works system, and will have it modern.

Miss Lillie Hoffman departed Wednesday morning for Plainview, Neb., near which place she expects to spend the summer with her brother, John.

Reynolds DelesDernier moved from the Bickert property the latter part of last week to the hotel, where Mrs. DelesDernier will have charge of the cooking department.

John Woods and daughter, Grace, left on Thursday for Hot Springs and will make an extended visit there. They will also visit various points in Ohio before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rosenow of near Murock are rejoicing because of the arrival of a fine baby boy at their home on last Saturday. The little fellow weighed ten pounds.

M. L. Gollaher departed Saturday for Colorado Springs, Colo., to visit his wife, who has been there for some time in the interest of her health. The many friends of Mrs. Gollaher will be pained to learn that she has not improved very much.

Miss Lottie Lean returned Wednesday morning to Lincoln to resume her studies at the state university after a few days' enforced absence on account of an affection of her throat. She was accompanied by her brother, Roy Lean, who returned on the late passenger.

Attorney William DelesDernier returned Thursday morning from a visit to his daughter (more particularly his new granddaughter) at Manilla, Iowa. Mr. DelesDernier was in Omaha Tuesday on legal business, when he decided on a surprise visit to William Pennerman and family in the Iowa town. He found them well and doing nicely.

The senior class of the High school announce that they have been successful in securing Chancellor C. A. Fulmer of Wesleyan university to deliver the commencement address this year. This is good news to all, as he is one of the best school men in the state and has a splendid reputation as a commencement orator.

LOUISVILLE. Courier.

Misses Butler and Wright visited their parents at University Place over Sunday.

Mike Trietsch of Plattsmouth was in town Tuesday shaking hands with old-time friends.

Mrs. C. F. Rathbun and daughter, Dora, visited Mrs. J. O. McClain at Lincoln a few days this week.

Mrs. John Schlater and Mrs. Jacob Reichart went to Shellrock, Iowa, last Thursday morning. They will be accompanied home by their mother, Mrs. Rannat, who will make an extended visit.

Gust Rutenbeck, chief deputy game warden, was in Louisville Friday investigating the dynamiting of fish ponds. It is said that he picked up some evidence that is liable to put some people in a very bad light ere long.

Melvin Schleifert had the misfortune to badly injure one of his fingers the other day by getting it caught in the seeder while sowing oats. The finger was badly mashed and the nail was torn off, causing him a great deal of pain.

The friends of Mrs. Frank Matzke will regret to learn that she was taken back to Omaha to the hospital Friday, as she has not been improving since her recent operation as well as could be hoped. She was accompanied by her husband and her mother, Mrs. Frank Wheeler.

James Ingram is here from the Parmele ranch near Broken Bow. Jim wears the same old-time smile and pays his friends the same compliments as in the good old days when he played ball with the old Louisville Blues. It always seems good to see Jim's face, if it is a homely one.

Nearly all of the oats in this section are in, the winter wheat is all rolled, and farmers are now bending all their energies towards getting their corn ground ready for planting. A great deal of home-grown seed corn will be used this year, most of the corn last year being of a good quality and having matured properly.

WEeping WATER. Republican.

John Domingo has been very sick with bowel trouble the last week, but is decidedly improved as we go to press.

The story visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Noell Saturday, April 10, and left a fine daughter to glad their home.

Rev. W. M. Elledge was called to Wellington, Kansas, Wednesday to preach the funeral sermon of Mrs. J. T. Herrick, one of his former parishioners.

Mrs. D. E. Jones is suffering from a broken rib. While cutting kindling last week a board flew up and struck her, causing the fracture.

Frank Anderson, proprietor of the Weeping Water Stone Co., shipped seven cars of crushed stone Monday. He is keeping a force of thirty men busy at the quarry now.

Mrs. J. W. Swindle went to Omaha Monday to meet her daughter, Miss Estelle, who was returning from Leavenworth, Neb., where she has been teaching school the past year.

George Timblin and son, Ferg, left Saturday for their new home in the northwest part of the state. His son, Joe, left with the car Friday night. Mrs. Timblin and her daughter will go later. They are all on the sick list this week.

News has been received here that Miss Opal Lewton, who has been teaching at Shelby, has received a position in one of the Lincoln schools for next year. Miss Lewton will close her fourth successful year at Shelby and was wanted for another year.

Richard Cromwell and bride arrived from North Carolina on the afternoon train today (Thursday). The happy couple were married at Edenton, N. C., the bride's home city, on April 8th, and are on their wedding tour and a visit at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Cromwell, of this city, where the groom grew to manhood. Richard is one of the faculty at the agricultural experiment station at West Raleigh, N. C.

UNION. Ledger.

Mrs. Ida Applegate returned on Tuesday from Lincoln, where she had been visiting her sisters, Mrs. Hale and Mrs. Baker.

W. B. Banning went to Lincoln Saturday morning to participate in a meeting of Shriners that was held there that evening.

J. C. Sherwood arrived home from Coleridge last Saturday, where he had been making a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Virgil E. Rose and family.

Mrs. Nancy McNamee departed on Tuesday morning for Brush, Colorado, where she will spend some time visiting her son, Charley McNamee, and her daughter, Mrs. A. R. Eikenbary, and their families.

Lee Faris went to Lincoln on the Tuesday evening train to visit his wife, who has been in a hospital in that city the past few weeks. It is with great pleasure that Mrs. Faris' many friends learn that her condition has been improving.

John Thomason of Murray was in town Tuesday evening, returning home from Lincoln, where he has been attending to the building of a nice new residence, and he and his wife will move to that city as soon as it is completed.

The "finishing touches" on the new electric light plant have been delayed a few days on account of some little apparatus being broken in shipping. The most reliable "dope" we can obtain is that the lights will be turned on tonight.

Mrs. Thede Frans and Mrs. Perry Dukes went on the Monday afternoon train to Omaha to bring home little Peter Reberoy, who has been in a hospital for treatment. We are pleased to report that the boy has almost recovered, and of course his parents rejoice at the result.

L. Roy Upton and D. Ray Frans were a pair of disappointed Masons last Saturday, just because a train happened to be a few hours behind schedule time. They had planned to participate in a Shriner banquet in Lincoln that evening, and had put on their "loudest rags" at 2:30 to go on the afternoon train, but lacked forty-eight and one-half miles of going, for the train arrived here just when they ought to have been eating soup in Lincoln. Disgusted? Some.

Local News

From Friday's Daily.

Philip Stoehr of Cedar Creek was attending to business matters in this city today.

Attorney W. C. Ramsey of Omaha was in the city today for a few hours looking after some legal matters.

Mrs. Fred Haffke came in this morning from her home, west of this city, and was a passenger on the early Burlington train for Omaha.

Attorney William DelesDernier of Elmwood came in this afternoon to spend a few hours here looking after some legal matters.

Mrs. John Gradoville departed this morning on No. 15 for Omaha, where she will visit for a few hours looking after some matters of business.

Philip and Adam Stoehr of the vicinity of Cedar Creek were in the city today looking after some trading with the merchants for a few hours.

Cameron Cathey and M. G. Churchill autoed up this morning from their home at Murray to spend a few hours here looking after some business matters.

Henry Hirz, jr., wife and little daughter, Helen, were among those going to Omaha this morning, where they will visit for the day with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Foster and children of Union motored up to this city yesterday afternoon for a short visit at the home of Mrs. Foster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Larson.

Mrs. Oscar Larson of Randall, Kansas, arrived last evening on No. 14 and will enjoy a short visit here with her sister, Mrs. C. S. Johnson, and other relatives and friends.

Joe Lawrence, a young lad who has been making his home with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor, south of this city, departed this morning for Omaha, where he will have his eyes treated.

C. E. Metzger, W. F. Gillespie, Nelson Jean and A. S. Will motored to Omaha this morning, where they will attend the meeting of the grain dealers that is being held in that city.

Mrs. Henry Born and children and Mrs. Ed Tritsch and daughter were among those going to Omaha this morning, where they will visit for the day and look after some matters of business.

Mrs. Mary McHugh of Falls City, who has been here visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Thom. Walling and family, for a few days, departed yesterday afternoon for her home at the Richardson county capital.

Mrs. Jacob Domingo and daughter, Mrs. S. Ray Smith, and son, Frank Domingo, came over last evening from their home at Weeping Water and were passengers this morning for Omaha, where they will visit for the day.

Dr. C. A. Marshall departed Thursday morning for San Monica, California, where he will join his wife in a visit there at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Everett Eaton and family. He will be gone some six weeks.

Bruce A. Rosencrans returned home this morning from Council Bluffs, where he was in attendance last evening at the performance of "The Knights of the Full Moon," an organization of the business men of that city.

From Friday's Daily.

R. C. Harshman and wife of near Avoca spent a short time here Friday evening, having driven up in their auto.

Fred and Alvin Ramge drove in this morning from their farm home to look after some trading with the merchants.

P. A. Horn and wife drove in this morning from their home near Cedar Creek to look after some matters of business.

Miss Ruth Cline came up from Union this morning to take an examination at the county superintendent's office.

W. F. Gillespie of Mynard came up this afternoon to look after some matters of business, as well as to visit with his friends.

Miss Beulah Sans of near Murray was here today for a few hours attending the teachers' examination at the court house.

J. W. Stones of Mynard was attending to some business matters in this city today and was a pleasant caller at this office.

Father M. A. Shine departed this morning for Omaha, where he will spend a few hours looking after some matters of business.

C. H. Cobb was among those going to Omaha this morning, where they will visit for the day looking after some matters of business.

C. C. and J. A. Hennings of the vicinity of Cedar Creek were here today looking after some matters of business with the merchants.

Adam Kuffenberger was among the farmer visitors in the city today from the vicinity of Cedar Creek to look after some trading with the merchants.

Dallas Gibson came in this afternoon from his home at Missouri Valley, Iowa, to visit here at the home of his mother, Mrs. H. C. VanHorn, and family.

W. T. Adams and little son departed this morning for Omaha, where they will visit for a few hours with friends and in looking after some matters of business.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heil, jr., and daughter, Edna, and son, Glen, of Eight Mile Grove motored to this city yesterday for a short visit with friends and to attend to business matters.

Lester Barcus and wife departed this morning on the early Burlington train for Council Bluffs, Iowa, where they will visit over Sunday with friends.

Louis Kirschenblatt departed this afternoon for Pagosa Springs, Colorado, where he will enter on a home-stead, and expects to make his home there for the present at least.

F. P. Schultz and wife were among the passengers this afternoon for Omaha, where they will visit for a few hours and meet Miss Janet Brantner of Pender, who is coming here for a short visit.

J. E. McCarroll and daughters, Misses Angie and Fannie, and Miss Vivian Everett, of Union, motored to this city today, the young ladies coming up to take the examination at the county superintendent's office.

From Monday's Daily.

Mrs. William Higgins of Manley came in Saturday and will be the guest of friends here for a few days.

Attorney C. E. Tefft of Weeping Water came in last evening to be present this morning at the session of the district court.

Marshall C. M. Seybert of Louisville was a visitor in this city today for a few hours, looking after some matters in the district court.

Dean Cummins was an over Sunday visitor in this city with relatives and friends, returning home this morning on the early Burlington train.

W. H. Verner of near Mynard was in the city today for a few hours, looking after some business matters, driving in from his farm home.

Peter Meisinger and wife of near Cedar Creek came in this morning from their home to be present at the funeral of Mrs. J. M. Meisinger.

Attorney C. S. Aldrich of Elmwood was among the visitors in the city today, looking after some matters in the district court for a few hours.

Adam Hill came in this morning from his home west of Mynard to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. J. M. Meisinger, which was held this morning.

Ed Rummell came in this morning from his farm home near this city and spent the day here looking after some business matters with the merchants.

Malcolm Pollard of near Nehawka came in last evening to attend the session of the district court, where he will serve as a member of the jury panel.

Carter Albin of the vicinity of Union drove up this morning from his farm home to spend a few hours looking after some trading with the merchants.

J. D. Bramblett of near Union came up this morning from his home to be on hand at the opening of district court, being a member of the jury panel.

Frank Wheeler, a former resident of this city, but at present residing at Louisville, came in this morning to look after some matters in the district court.

Mrs. S. G. Smith was among those journeying to Omaha this morning, where she will visit for the day in that city and look after some matters of business.

C. F. Reihart of Louisville came in this morning from his home to be present at the opening session of the district court, being a member of the jury panel.

George Reitter, Louis Hanson and August Lau came in this morning from their home in the west portion of the county to attend the naturalization hearing in the district court.

E. B. Taylor, one of the prominent residents of Weeping Water, motored up this morning from his home to spend a short time here looking after some matters in the county court.

Miss Janet Brantner came in Saturday from her home at Pender, Nebraska, for a visit here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cory, and other relatives and friends.

Simon Clark and wife spent Sunday at Cedar Creek at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Robert Stivers and family, returning home this morning, accompanied by their little granddaughter.

Forest Rose Flour. Every sack guaranteed. Try a sack today.

Concrete Work Guaranteed!

We could not do that if we were not sure every time we do a piece of concrete work that it is done right.

We Know How

or we would not take a chance on rebuilding our work. We know how to mix concrete and how to put it in, and every job we handle is there to stay.

Silo, Water Tank, Water Storage Tank, Walls

—all built by us under an absolute guarantee to be of first-class material and workmanship and we stand back of it.

Come in and See Us

if you are thinking of building anything this year. We have a number of new ideas about building that will interest you.

Just south of Postoffice on Fifth Street.

Concrete Construction Co.,

Plattsmouth, - - - Nebraska

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

STATE OF NEBRASKA,
Cass County, ss.

In County Court.

In the Matter of the Estate of John Peter Keil, Deceased:

Notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased that hearings will be had upon claims filed against said estate, before me, County Judge of Cass County, Nebraska, at the County Court room in Plattsmouth, in said County, on the 8th day of May, 1915, and on the 9th day of November, 1915, at 9 o'clock a. m. each day for examination, adjustment and allowance.

All claims must be filed in said court on or before said last hour of hearing.

Witness my hand and seal of said County Court, at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, this 7th day of April, 1915.
(Seal) ALLEN J. BEESON,
County Judge.
4-12-4wks

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

STATE OF NEBRASKA,
Cass County, ss.

In County Court.

In the Matter of the Estate of Archibald M. Holmes, Deceased:

Notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased that hearings will be had upon claims filed against said estate, before me, County Judge of Cass County, Nebraska, at the County Court room in Plattsmouth, in said County, on the 10th day of May, 1915, and on the 10th day of November, 1915, at 10 o'clock a. m. each day for examination, adjustment and allowance.

All claims must be filed in said court on or before said last hour of hearing.

Witness my hand and seal of said County Court, at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, this 10th day of April, 1915.
(Seal) ALLEN J. BEESON,
County Judge.
4-15-4wks

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LIQUOR LICENSE

Notice is hereby given to all persons interested and to the public that the undersigned, J. L. Russell, has filed his petition and application in the office of the city clerk of the City of Plattsmouth, County of Cass, and State of Nebraska, as required by law, signed by the required number of resident free-holders of the said city, setting forth that the applicant is a man of respectable character and standing and a resident of the State of Nebraska and that he desires to be licensed to sell malt, spirituous and vinous liquors for the period of one year from the date of the hearing of said application in a building situated on the west half (7/2) of lot five (5), in block thirty-four (34), in the Fourth ward of the said City of Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

April 8, 1915.
J. L. RUSSELL,
Applicant.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LIQUOR LICENSE.

In the Matter of the Application of Henry H. Wiedeman for Liquor License:

This is to certify that Henry H. Wiedeman, of the Village of Greenwood, Cass County, Nebraska, filed a petition in the office of the village clerk on April 13, 1915, as required by the statutes of the State of Nebraska and the ordinances of the Village of Greenwood, to sell malt, spirituous and vinous liquors for the coming municipal year, in the building situated on lot No. 277, fronting on Second street, in said village.

C. E. CALFEE,
Village Clerk.
April 13, 1915.

S. C. Rhode Island Red.

Eggs for hatching. Farmer price, 75c for 15 at home, or $1.00 for 15 by express.

Duroc-Jersey swine for sale at all times. The very best strains.

See me at Mynard or call Plattsmouth 'Phone 2221.

W. B. Porter.

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE COUNTY OF CASS, NEBRASKA.

In the matter of the estate of Delilah Schwab, deceased.

Notice is hereby given to all persons interested in the estate of Delilah Schwab, deceased, that on the 29th day of March, A. D. 1915, Charles E. Schwab, as the executor of the last will and testament of Delilah Schwab, deceased, filed his petition in this court, together with his final account, asking that the same be approved and allowed, and that the residue in his hands be distributed to such persons as are by law entitled thereto, and alleges that the only heirs and legatees of said deceased are as follows: John Schwab, Sarah M. Mason, Samuel Schwab, James Schwab, Charles E. Schwab, and the heirs of a deceased son, Andrew Schwab, Ella Schwab, his widow, and Nellie Schwab and Zena Schwab. That a hearing will be heard upon the allegations of said petition and upon said final account at the office of the County Judge, in the Court House, at Plattsmouth, Cass County, Nebraska, on the 29th day of April, A. D. 1915, at ten o'clock, A. M., and if no objections or exceptions thereto be filed before said time the prayer of said petition will be granted.

Dated this 29th day of March, A. D. 1915.
By the Court,
ALLEN J. BEESON,
County Judge.

RAWLS & ROBERTSON, Attorneys.

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE COUNTY OF CASS, NEBRASKA.

In the matter of the estate of Harvey D. Travis, deceased.

Notice is hereby given to all persons interested in the estate of Harvey D. Travis, deceased, that on the 26th day of March, A. D. 1915, Earl L. Travis, administrator of said estate filed his petition asking for the approval of his final account and settlement of the estate of said estate to such persons as are by law entitled thereto, and alleging that he had no funds in his hands, or no property subject to the payment of the debts with which to pay the claims allowed against said estate.

You are further notified that a hearing will be had on said petition on the 26th day of April, A. D. 1915, at ten o'clock, A. M., and if no objections or exceptions thereto be filed before said time, the prayer of said petition will be granted.

Dated this 31st day of March, A. D. 1915.
By the Court,
ALLEN J. BEESON,
County Judge.

RAWLS & ROBERTSON, Attorneys.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

State of Nebraska,
Cass County.

IN THE COUNTY COURT.

In the matter of the estate of Agatha Stull, deceased:

Notice is hereby given that the creditors of said deceased will meet the administrator of said estate before the County Judge of Cass County, Nebraska, at the county court room in the city of Plattsmouth, in said county on the 23rd day of April, 1915, at ten o'clock of the day of April, 1915, and on the 23rd day of September, 1915, at 10 o'clock a. m. each day, for the purpose of presenting their claims for examination, adjustment and allowance.

Six months are allowed for the creditors of the said deceased to present their claims, and one year for the administrator to settle said estate from the 2nd day of March, 1915.

Witness my hand and the seal of said County Court at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, this 24th day of February, 1915.
(Seal) ALLEN J. BEESON,
County Judge.

D. O. DWYER, Attorney.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LIQUOR LICENSE.

Notice is hereby given to all persons interested and to the public, that the undersigned, Gus F. Mohr, has filed his petition and application with the village clerk of the village of Avoca, County of Cass, and State of Nebraska, as required by law, signed by the required number of resident free-holders of the said village, setting forth that the applicant is a man of respectable character and standing and a resident of the State of Nebraska, and praying that a license may be issued to the said Gus F. Mohr for the sale of malt, spirituous and vinous liquors for the municipal year ending May 2, 1916, at his place of business, situated on the west two-thirds of lot five (5), in block thirteen (13), in said village of Avoca, Nebraska.

April 12, 1915.

GUS MOHR, Applicant.

ATTACHMENT NOTICE.

Louis Obernouch will take notice that on the 31st day of March, 1915, M. Archer, a justice of the peace, of Plattsmouth, Cass County, Nebraska, issued an order of attachment for the sum of $40.00, in an action pending before him