

MORRIS HEADS NORMAL BOARD

Kearney Man Elected President Over Viele of Norfolk.

MAJORS IS VICE PRESIDENT.

Ransom Refuses Office of Public Defender and Ralph West Is Reappointed. Edward G. Maggi Will Be Reappointed Member of Pardon Board.

Lincoln, June 24.—The state normal board elected Dan Morris of Kearney president of the board. The vote stood four for Morris and three for A. H. Viele of Norfolk. Tom Majors was elected vice president and Secretary Caviness was re-elected, receiving one majority.

A resolution was adopted by the board to the effect that in the future, in order that the public may have reliable information and not unfair and unauthorized statements in the newspapers there should be a committee on publicity appointed.

Business of a minor importance took up the attention of the board most of the forenoon, contracts for the furnishing of electric supplies for the Peru and other schools being let in small amounts to the Westinghouse company branch at Omaha.

The matter of change in rules was brought up by Majors, but there was enough uncertainty about the feelings of the board that consideration of the matter was put off until the board members who were not acquainted with the law governing the matter could have time to look it up. The rules placed the principal of each normal president of the faculty, as now, with general supervision of the school, but created a department of records and a department of physical plant.

Question of Payment of Salaries.
The question whether the state board of control has authority to pay salaries to employees of the new furniture factory at the state penitentiary is likely to cause the board some trouble. Up to date these salaries have been paid from the appropriation made by the legislature for the purchase and equipment of an industrial plant, and it is a question whether salaries can be paid from this fund. The board holds that it can do this, while others contend that it cannot.

West Named as Public Defender.
Governor Morehead appointed Ralph West of Omaha as public defender for Douglas county. The governor had previously named Frank T. Ransom, but the latter declined to serve. The salary is $1,200 a year. West is employed in Ransom's office and has had the latter's indorsement from the last legislature.

Want Home Firms to Do Work.
The printing firm of Hammond & Stevens at Fremont has sent a request to the printing board that in the future in the letting of contracts and the calling of bids the board confine itself to allow only Nebraska firms to compete, thus carrying out the slogan of "Patronize Home Industries."

Maggi Will Be Reappointed.
Governor Morehead announced that he will reappoint Edward G. Maggi of Lincoln as a member of the pardon board. The term expires July 1 and is for three years. Maggi is now serving his second term, the first being for one year at the time the board was created.

FARMS COVERED WITH SAND

Republican River Cuts a New Channel at Cambridge.

Cambridge, Neb., June 24.—The continued storms of the last ten days did thousands of dollars of damage to property in and around Cambridge. Hundreds of acres of corn was washed out. Many farmers have already replanted three times. The hail totally destroyed many acres of grain. Luckily the farmers had most of their grain insured.

The Republican river cut a new channel south of the state road bridge. A number of farms are worthless. They are now covered with two feet of sand which was washed in by the river.

The city park, which has always been the beauty spot of this section of the state, is now a total loss. The Medicine creek rose two feet in fifteen minutes on one occasion and completely submerged the park.

Southwest Nebraska Fair Organized
Maywood, Neb., June 24.—The organization of the Southwest Nebraska Fair association was completed at a meeting held here. The district is composed of that part of the state south of the Platte river and west of Kearney and Franklin counties. The site that has been purchased for the fair grounds lies between the Burlington railway and Maywood lake. The first fair probably will be held in October.

Conventions at North Platte.
North Platte, Neb., June 24.—The Kearney district of Nebraska Epworth leagues and the convention of the Tenth district of Christian churches met here this week. The Epworth league convention closed with the business session today. The Christian church convention is to continue until tomorrow.

KENSINGTON CLUB ENJOY A VERY PLEASANT AFTERNOON

Yesterday afternoon the ladies of the Kensington club were entertained in a most pleasing manner at the home of Mrs. Val Burkel on lower Main street, and the occasion was one that was thoroughly enjoyed by the members of the club and their guests who were present at the event. The afternoon was spent, as usual, in the making of dainty articles of needlework, as well as in very pleasant social conversation, which passed the time most pleasantly. At a suitable hour a very dainty and delicious three course luncheon was served, that added very much to the pleasures of the occasion. As guests of the club Mrs. F. E. Gobelman, Mrs. Florence Waddick and Mrs. August Mumm of Missoula, Montana, were present.

T. M. PATTERSON SUFFERING FROM AN INFECTED TOE AND LEG

From Wednesday's Daily.
T. M. Patterson, the cashier of the Bank of Cass County, is suffering an infected toe on the left foot, as well as his leg is infected, which is proving very painful as well as annoying. The infection grows out of a slight abrasion of the skin on the left leg while he was on the motor trip to Kansas some two weeks ago. While he and his son, Dwight, were traveling along in Kansas the car, which was running over a crowned roadway, slid out of the roadway and Mr. Patterson jumped from the car to assist in getting it back in the road, and in doing so struck his left leg on the side of the car, but nothing was thought of the matter, as the blow had merely removed a small portion of the skin, but after returning home the injury became quite painful and shortly afterwards, in putting on a new pair of shoes the toe of the left foot was also infected by the rubbing off of the skin, and this has now made the attention of a physician necessary, and the genial cashier finds the going rather hard, as the foot and limb give a good deal of annoyance, but it is hoped it will soon be improved so that he can move about without suffering from the injured member.

MRS. ELIZABETH TRAVIS HONORED AT THE P. E. O. CONVENTION

At the meeting of the Nebraska grand chapter of the P. E. O. society held at Fullerton last week, Mrs. Elizabeth Travis of this city was selected as one of the delegates from Nebraska to the national chapter of the society, which will meet at Los Angeles on October 12 to 15. Mrs. Travis has been one of the most able members of the society in advancing its interests and her selection is one that comes well deserved. The delegates to the grand chapter will leave Kansas City on the morning of October 8th over the Santa Fe and en route will be given opportunities of enjoying the scenery of the southwest through which they will pass, as stops will be made at Albuquerque, New Mexico, as well as the Grand Canyon of the Colorado river and San Diego, en route to Los Angeles. While in that city the guests will be entertained by drives through the different points of interest in that section of California and will have their headquarters at the largest hotel in the city. The train conveying the party will consist wholly of the finest equipment and fitted to give the ladies a rare treat.

The Sure Fit Truss for Rupture.

B. M. Heflin, of Fremont, Nebraska, the expert truss fitter, will be at the Perkins House June 24, 25 and 26, with the Sure Fit Truss for rupture. This truss has a manipulating pad which works with body, holding ruptured parts in such a manner that it strengthens the weakened muscles and in time closes up the opening. No leg straps, rubber or steel bands to contend with. This truss will last a lifetime. Hundreds are wearing this truss satisfactorily. If you want a truss which will hold your rupture constantly, see me at the Perkins House June 24, 25, 26. 6-23-2td

L. D. Hiatt and wife of Murray came up last evening from their home to attend the wedding of Miss Clara Wohlfarth and Mr. Frank Downing, which was held last evening.

THE RECITAL AT THE GASS HOME LAST EVENING

One of the Most Delightful Musical Events of Season, as Both Ladies Are Artists in Their Work.

The recital given last evening at the home of Mrs. Bell Gass by Miss Carrie B. Hoyt of Davenport, Iowa, and Mrs. Ralph White of Victoria, Texas, for the benefit of St. Luke's church of this city, proved one of the most delightful musical events of the season, as both of these ladies are artists in their musical work, and those who attended the recital were charmed by the delightful manner in which the program was carried out. There was a large number of the music lovers of the city present at the Gass home and the pleasure of these was most profound in the delightful selections afforded them.

Miss Hoyt has a beautiful voice, and the sympathetic rendering of the different numbers, as well as the clear enunciation of the songs given allowed the fullest enjoyment of the selections and was a most pleasing feature of the evening's entertainment. The selection given by Miss Hoyt embraced the highest standard of music from the masters of the music world, and each gave the vocalist a fine opportunity of displaying the wonderful voice with its pleasing range.

Mrs. White, in her piano numbers, displayed a pleasing technique and beauty of touch which gave to the excellent numbers selected a great beauty and a feeling that carried out to the fullest the inspiration of the composers. Both of the artists were given a demonstration of the hearty appreciation of the delight of the audience and compelled to respond to the encores of the audience.

Miss Kittie Cummins acted as accompanist for the vocal numbers on the program and her splendid support of the voice in the accompaniment served greatly to make the program one most pleasing. During the evening delicious refreshments were served, which proved a very much enjoyed feature of the occasion and one thoroughly enjoyed by the guests present. The recital was most inspiring and the people of Plattsmouth certainly should feel grateful of the opportunity of hearing these talented ladies.

SUPERINTENDENT W. J. BROOKS MAY GO TO HASTINGS

From Wednesday's Daily.

The situation in the long-standing controversy over the superintendency of schools at Hastings seems to have been reopened by the resignation of Superintendent C. W. Barr from his office, as a result of the failure to carry out plans of the superintendent to enlarge the school, and now the selection of a superintendent is facing the citizens of that place. The name of Superintendent W. G. Brooks of this city is mentioned as the most prominent for the office, as the friends of Mr. Brooks have urged his name, although he is not an active candidate himself for the position, and as at the previous selection, the opponents of the late superintendent seem to have fixed on Mr. Brooks as the leading candidate for the position made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Barr. Mr. Brooks has been elected here for another term, and it is not known whether he would accept the position at Hastings, although it is a much more lucrative position from both the position of advancement and salary.
