

NEHAWKA News.

George Sheldon and wife motored to Crete Monday to attend the graduation exercises there.

Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Tucker attended the graduation exercises in Crete, leaving here Monday.

Joe West and family of Belvidere arrived here Wednesday for a visit with D. C. West and family.

Mrs. Conrad of Oklahoma is visiting her mother, Mrs. Cunningham, who is on the sick list.

G. F. Switzer sold his quarter section of land, three and one-half miles southwest of here, to Malcom Pollard last Monday. The consideration was $28,000.

Mrs. J. D. Juifs and Mrs. Klein Tucker of Burr, who had been visiting at the home of Guy Rood for several days, left for their homes Tuesday afternoon.

John Bagley and Stanley Moore left Monday morning on the former's motorcycle for the harvest fields in Kansas. They arrived in Topeka at 6:30 the same evening, covering a distance of over 260 miles.

Mrs. Johnson of Pawnee City, who had been at the bedside of her mother who has been under the care of a physician for some time, left for her home Tuesday, but on arriving there received a call that Mrs. Pollard was worse and she returned to Nehawka at once.

The annual meeting of school district 39 was held in the school house Monday evening. Henry Wessel and J. J. Pollard were elected on the board to take the places of A. F. Sturm and H. F. Knapp. It was voted to levy $3,500 for school purposes for the ensuing year.

UNION Ledger.

Mrs. James O'Brien of Omaha was the guest of her friend, Mrs. L. J. Hall, east of town, for a few days last week.

D. W. Foster and wife returned Sunday from Circleville, Ohio, where they had spent two weeks visiting their relatives and friends.

Misses Jennie and Ada Talkington of Surprise, Neb., came Tuesday to make a visit among their numerous friends in this village and vicinity.

James Rainey and John Fight of the vicinity of Murray came in yesterday morning, arranging for Mr. Rainey's auction sale of a carload of horses and mules, which is to be held here Saturday, June 26.

Deane Lynde and wife arrived Wednesday from Springfield, Mo., to make a few weeks' visit with Mr. Lynde's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Lynde, and other relatives and numerous friends in this village.

The dance at Becker's hall last Friday evening was a very pleasant affair and greatly enjoyed by the participants, as well as a number of interested spectators. The music for the occasion was furnished by Holly's orchestra of Plattsmouth.

L. R. Upton's rheumatism gave him a respite last Saturday and he was able to come to his store, but the exertion was too much for him and a relapse sent him to the bed again. He has suffered much pain the past few days, but now seems to be slowly improving.

Art O. Pearsley and wife came home Monday from Omaha, bringing their little son, who has been cared for in a hospital for several weeks following an operation for appendicitis. We are pleased to report that the child's condition is improving and in due time health will be fully restored.

A deal was closed a few days ago whereby William Mueller, who for the past several years has owned and operated the south elevator in this village, disposed of the same, the purchasers being the local organization of the Farmers' Union. The change takes effect on or before July 10, but under the contract it is understood that Mr. Mueller will, if the purchasers desire it, remain and manage the business for them until they make arrangements for a permanent manager.

WEeping WATER Republican.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Neilson, north of town, Saturday, June 12, and left a fine baby girl.

On June 10th the stork paid a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James

Berry, four miles west of town, and left a fine baby boy.

Mrs. A. C. Welch left Thursday morning of this week for Hartwell, Haigler and Wray, Colo., for a two or three weeks' visit with her daughters and her son.

Miss Alice Crozier left Wednesday morning for Red Cloud and other points in the western part of the state. She will spend about a month visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pool and baby came down from Wabash Sunday morning. Mrs. Pool and the baby are spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hitchman.

Chris Nelson was hauling material from the George Voss yard last week for a large barn he is building on his farm a mile north of town. The building will be 32x60 with 22-foot posts.

Mrs. Miller of Minneapolis returned home this (Thursday) morning, after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cherry. She was accompanied as far as Omaha by her mother.

Dr. M. M. Butler went to Union Tuesday afternoon to meet his sister, Mrs. Libby Rice, of Summitville, Indiana. She was returning from an extended visit in California and was stopping off here for a visit.

Harrison Miller and wife of Lincoln attended the burial of his sister, Mrs. Bert Patrick, here Friday. Harrison's friends were somewhat surprised when he introduced his wife, as it was not generally known that he was married last Thanksgiving.

ELMWOOD Leader-Echo.

A. Wallinger sold a team of good young horses to a farmer near Murdock, which brought $375.

Attorney DelesDernier was a passenger west-bound Wednesday noon, going to Lincoln and Central City on legal business.

Mr. and Mrs. George Voss of St. Joseph, Missouri, visited here Sunday evening and Monday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Weichel.

Mrs. E. J. Jeary and children left Wednesday for Imperial, Neb., where they will spend several months visiting with Mrs. Jeary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Dettman.

John P. Cobb motored to Omaha Wednesday in company with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Streeter of Cheiasha, Oklahoma, who are visitors at the Cobb and Aldrich homes in this city.

Miss Willa Minford arrived home Tuesday evening from Des Moines, Iowa, where she has just finished the term as a student in Drake university. Miss Minford will return to the university next term to finish her course.

Mrs. Joe Neely was taken Monday from the Dr. Neely home in this city to the Methodist hospital in Omaha for treatment. Mrs. Neely's home is in Wyoming. Mention of her serious illness has heretofore been made in these columns.

C. G. Shreve had quite an experience last Saturday. While catching some chickens a rather unruly rooster attacked him, and as a result the top of one of his hands was severely spurred. He was unable to do much for several days.

Mrs. McAlpin of Bloomfield, Neb., arrived Monday evening for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. B. Gaylord. Mrs. McAlpin says that the past winter and spring has been the worst ever experienced in northern Nebraska. Fruit was all killed by late frosts and rains and floods have been the rule, not the exception. She will later visit her daughter and son, Prof. and Mrs. Weaver, at Minneapolis, Minnesota.

EAGLE Beacon.

A. Giebenrath and wife of Davey, Neb., were in town Sunday attending the funeral of Ernst Huebner.

J. Connell of Burnham was in town Tuesday with the view of opening up a harness and repair shop here.

Freda Mueller arrived here from Keukok, Iowa, Thursday evening for a few days' visit at the G. J. Reitter home and other relatives.

Mrs. Rex Young arrived here from Texas the latter part of last week for a visit with her mother, Mrs. A. B. Headley, and other relatives in and about Eagle.

Mrs. A. H. Vanlandingham returned home from Monroe City, Missouri, Friday night of last week, when she was called on account of the death of her brother's wife.

Glenn and Grace Knapton left last Friday for Weldona, Colo., to spend the summer with their aunt, Mrs. Russell. Glenn will assist his brother, Orris, in the beet fields.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Vansickle, of Fort Collins, Colo., arrived in Eagle Thursday afternoon for an extended visit at the home of Mr. Vansickle's sister, Mrs. O. Keel and family.

J. S. Dysart shipped two carloads of cattle to the South Omaha market Monday morning. These cattle averaged over 1,600 pounds and have been on feed for several months. Mr. Dysart has quite a number of younger cattle still on hand which he expects to feed out.

Otto Kettlehut went to Lincoln Thursday to be with his sister, Mrs. Frank Knadle, of Mondamin, Iowa, who underwent a very serious operation at the St. Elizabeth hospital. Otto returned home this (Friday) morning, and reports that she was resting easy. Although her condition at this time is very grave, it will be two or three days before a change for better or worse can be determined.

LOUISVILLE Courier.

Ora Merrill is here from Crookston, Minn., visiting at the home of his aunt, Mrs. J. J. Twiss.

We congratulate Otto Sprieck on the fine new Mitchell car he has recently purchased through the agency of John Gauer.

William Lehnhoff was down from Lincoln for a few days last week, visiting relatives and attending to business matters.

At the annual school meeting Monday afternoon C. M. Seybert and William Ossenkop were elected members of the school board to serve a period of three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fetzter returned home Tuesday from a five weeks' visit with relatives in Wisconsin. They report a very pleasant trip, but say the weather was disagreeably cold.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Diers and family left Tuesday for a ten days' visit with relatives and old friends at St. Olaf, Iowa, which is Mr. Diers' birthplace, and where the old Diers' home-stand stands.

Asa Dow Scott, of Edgar, Neb., was here over Sunday visiting at the home of his brother-in-law, J. R. Mayfield. Mr. Scott edits and publishes three newspapers, the Edgar Sun, the Glevish Globe and the Dewesse Booster, and is necessarily a very busy man.

F. H. Ossenkop resigned his position as local manager of the Duff Grain company, and M. L. Williams took charge Tuesday. Mr. Williams has had a great deal of experience in the grain business, having owned and operated the elevator now owned by the Farmers' Elevator company.

George Applegate and Miss Mary Suiter, both of Louisville, went to Omaha Thursday morning, where they were married. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Suiter and has many friends in Louisville who will read this item with interest and will join the Courier in wishing the happy pair all the joy and happiness that is possible to be crowded into an ordinary lifetime.

Plattsmouth will celebrate Saturday. Free Band Concert and Unicycle act. Concert at 1:30. Come in and have a pleasant afternoon.

A. W. White was among those going to Omaha this morning, where he was called to look after some matters in the wholesale houses in that city.

Mrs. Joseph Cook of Murray was a passenger this afternoon for Omaha, where she goes to meet her sister, Mrs. A. R. Young of Velen, S. D., who comes here for a visit with relatives.

Miss Gussie Koehler of Omaha, who has been here for a few days as a guest of Miss Delia Tartsch, departed this afternoon for her home in the metropolis, going to that city on the afternoon Burlington train.

Fritz Fricke departed yesterday for Ashland, from where he expects to start with a number of friends on an automobile trip to Alexandria, Minnesota, where they will spend some time in fishing at the lakes there.

Dr. J. W. Dean of Marysville, Missouri, who has been here visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. E. Douglass and family, departed this morning for Lincoln to spend a few days at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. E. C. Steinh and family.

Mrs. Emma Morrison and daughters, Miss Edna Morrison and Mrs. George L. Morrison, were among the passengers this morning for Omaha, where they will visit for the day, looking after some matters of business. Mrs. George Morrison is here for a visit of several weeks from her home at Topeka, Kansas.

ALVO NEWS ITEMS

Charles Snavelly was in Lincoln Wednesday. Operator Monroe was in Lincoln Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Snavelly was in Lincoln Tuesday. J. A. Shaffer visited his son, Castle, in Lincoln Sunday.

Henry Ruelofsz was in Omaha Wednesday on business. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Rouse were Lincoln visitors Monday.

Harry Parsell returned Monday from a trip to Chappell, Neb. Mrs. Lydia Howe and children came down from Lincoln to visit relatives for a few days.

Mrs. W. E. Casey and cousin, Miss Trumble, were passengers to Lincoln Tuesday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Pat Mudd of Greenwood spent Monday night with Fred Prouty and family.

Mrs. L. B. Lackey of South Bend spent Sunday evening and Monday with her cousin, Mrs. J. A. Shaffer. Mr. and Mrs. Simon Johnson and Miss Lydia Mares spent Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Prouty.

Major Ed Evans announces the birth of a ten and three-quarter-pound daughter, born June 22 at Lincoln, Nebraska. Miss Ruth Bailey was in Lincoln Monday, where she is taking treatment for her ankle, which was broken last spring.

Mellie Kear left Thursday for Lincoln, thence to Weston and Wahoo, where he went on business, returning home Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell, son, Floyd, and daughter, Fern, of Rockey visited Monday and Tuesday with Mrs. Campbell's sister, Mrs. Fred Prouty and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Casey attended the funeral of Mr. Bickert at Elmwood Wednesday. Mr. Bickert died at Exter, Neb., and was formerly a resident of Elmwood. The Misses Marie Prouty, Alma Godbey, Esther Rosenow and Bertha Bucknell went to Elmwood Tuesday afternoon as delegates to the Epworth League convention held at that place this week.

Captain C. W. Shaffer returned from Denver, Colorado, Friday and went to Lincoln to attend the school of officers in the Nebraska National Guard, which is being conducted at Lincoln this week at the state fair grounds. In honor of her son, Bert's, birthday, which occurred June 17, Mrs. Bina Kitzel gave a delicious dinner to the following guests: Mrs. M. P. Stone, Mrs. E. M. Stone, Rev. Keith and Major Ed Evans. Bert received a number of nice tokens.

Mr. and Mrs. William Elliott of Lansing, Michigan, who have spent several weeks with their daughter, Mrs. Kamm, and Mr. Kamm, left Friday for their home, stopping en route to visit a son in Omaha. Mrs. Kamm accompanied them home. Grandma Bird and sons, Roscoe and Arthur, and granddaughter, Miss Ethel Hardnock, and grandson, Lee Hardnock, who left in their auto last week for a few days' visit with relatives near Mankato, Kansas, have been kept there by the high water which also delayed train service.

Tuesday morning Fred Prouty left in his auto for Colorado Springs, Colo., for his health. He goes to the M. W. A. camp for tubercular members at that place. He was accompanied by Pat Mudd of Greenwood, who also goes for his health, and Joe Gerig, an electrician, of Omaha, who is on a two weeks' vacation. Mr. Gerig was a shipmate of Mr. Prouty's son, Paul, while in the U. S. navy on the battleship Tennessee. The many friends of Mr. Mudd and Mr. Prouty sincerely hope that they may soon regain their usual health.

Plattsmouth will celebrate Saturday. Free Band Concert and Unicycle act. Concert at 1:30. Come in and have a pleasant afternoon.

A Good Help.

Mrs. Cath. Newman wrote us the following letter: "I am using your excellent remedy called Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine, with the best results. This remedy helped me in my stomach trouble, but even now I take an occasional dose as soon as I do not feel right. My daughter is suffering from asthma and I gave her this remedy. It gives her good relief. Mrs. Cath. Newman, 2829 Calumet ave., Chicago." Mrs. Newman is doing exactly what we are recommending, to keep our remedy on hand and always use it as soon as the first symptom of an indisposition is noticed. In stomach troubles and intestinal irregularity Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine always brings a speedy relief, as also in nervousness, weakness, constipation, flatulence. Price $1.00. At drug stores. Jos. Triner, Manufacturer, 1333-1339 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago.

In all cases demanding a good rubbing or massage, Triner's Liniment will give satisfaction. Keep it on hand for emergencies. Price 25c and 50c. By mail, 35c and 60c.

Claude Shoemaker was among the passengers this morning for Omaha, where he was called to look after some matters of business for a few hours.

ALBERTA CORSETS. Wear them for a natural figure, style, comfort and goodwearing qualities—$1.00 up. Your correct model is here. MRS. EMMA PEASE Plattsmouth, Nebr.

Cedar Creek

John Busche spent Monday Plattsmouth. Harry Meisinger visited in Omaha Friday.

Philip Thierolf spent Friday in Omaha. James Johnson spent Thursday in Omaha.

Phillip Alberts was in Plattsmouth Saturday. George Hennings was in Omaha Thursday.

Adam Fornoff and wife Sundayed at Philip Stokes'. Miss Gertrude Meisinger visited in Plattsmouth Friday.

Coon Meisinger was trading in Plattsmouth Saturday. Mrs. John Schrew shopped in Plattsmouth Monday.

C. A. Gauer and son, John, spent Saturday in Plattsmouth. Philip Treitch shipped four loads of stock from here Friday.

John Baughman came home Friday evening to spend Sunday at home. Lloyd Schneider and Walter Solsburg spent Friday in Plattsmouth.

Master Elmer Lohnes visited at the G. P. Meisinger home Sunday. Pete Core went to Plattsmouth Friday to have some dental work done.

Dora Gauer is visiting her sister, Mrs. Solsburg, in Mynard this week. The Cedar Creek Lumber Co. are making some improvements in their yard.

Mrs. Jerry Frey, who has been visiting at Lewis Myers', returned home Monday.

Misses Mable and Dora Meisinger visited Verla and Helen Schneider Sunday.

Mrs. Anna Karger returned Tuesday from York, Neb., where she has been attending school.

Robert Stievers and family and William Schneider and wife Sundayed at Walter Schneider's.

Levis Hennings and wife, John Hennings, jr., and George Hennings visited in Nebraska City Wednesday.

G. G. Meisinger and wife of Plattsmouth, who have been visiting here for a few days, returned home Wednesday.

Hans Franke returned home from the hospital at Omaha Saturday, where he had been for the last three weeks.

Irven Meisinger, Gertrude Meisinger, Helen Schneider and Mrs. Harry Meisinger motored to Plattsmouth Wednesday.

Miss Louise Lohnes, who went to York, Neb., last Wednesday to see Miss Karger, who has been going to school there, returned Tuesday.

In spite of the rain Saturday night the ice cream supper given by Miss Gertrude Meisinger and Verla Schneider, for the benefit of the Sunday school, was well attended, $1.40 being realized.

Mrs. Lyle was remembered on her birthday, Wednesday, June 16, when the ladies gathered at her home and enjoyed a good time. Mrs. Lyle received a number of fine presents. Those present were: Mesdames William Dasher, John Wolf, William Schneider, Jake Schneider, Walter Schneider, Mrs. Duff and Mrs. Steiv-ers. A fine lunch was served, after which the ladies went their way, wishing Mrs. Lyle many returns of the day.

A Good Help.

Mrs. Cath. Newman wrote us the following letter: "I am using your excellent remedy called Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine, with the best results. This remedy helped me in my stomach trouble, but even now I take an occasional dose as soon as I do not feel right. My daughter is suffering from asthma and I gave her this remedy. It gives her good relief. Mrs. Cath. Newman, 2829 Calumet ave., Chicago." Mrs. Newman is doing exactly what we are recommending, to keep our remedy on hand and always use it as soon as the first symptom of an indisposition is noticed. In stomach troubles and intestinal irregularity Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine always brings a speedy relief, as also in nervousness, weakness, constipation, flatulence. Price $1.00. At drug stores. Jos. Triner, Manufacturer, 1333-1339 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago.

In all cases demanding a good rubbing or massage, Triner's Liniment will give satisfaction. Keep it on hand for emergencies. Price 25c and 50c. By mail, 35c and 60c.

Claude Shoemaker was among the passengers this morning for Omaha, where he was called to look after some matters of business for a few hours.

Do It Before the 4th

Get your house in a holiday appearance. For house painting we believe this midsummer season is the best time to do it and we would recommend that you secure the paint that you require for the job from us. We say this because we believe by patronizing us you will save money.

FRANK GOBELMAN, Hotel Riley Block, Plattsmouth, Neb.

GET RID OF THE GOPHERS!

The

Cinch GOPHER Trap

is guaranteed to catch if you will follow the instructions.

This is something new and worth investigating.

G. P. EASTWOOD

Base Ball and Tennis Goods

Bicycles and Motorcycles

Indian Motorcycle

High Quality Goods Guaranteed!

Gasoline and Lubricating Oils—Wholesale and Retail.

Plattsmouth Cycle Co.

Palm Beach Suiting

This Cloth is in great demand just now—comes 36-inches wide, at per yard, 50c.

Brown Linen Suiting!

36-inches wide, at per yard, 15, 25, 35 and 40c

Plain and Embroidered Voile!

36-inch plain Voile, per yard, 30 and 35c. 36- " embroidered Voile, per yard, 50c

36-inch Flowered Chiffon, 50c yd. 42-inch Flowered Silk Chiffon, $1.00 yd.

New Middy Blouses Here!

Another shipment of Middies just in, mostly plain white—$1.00 Each

E. A. WURL

CORNER SIXTH AND MAIN STS. PLATTSMOUTH, NEB.