NOTICE OF INCORPORATION OF THE MIDWEST AMUSEMENT COMPANY.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that we, R. H. Shinnick, J. A. Petersen, Jr., do associate ourselves together for the purpose of forming and becoming a corporation known by the name of Nebraska, for the purpose of transacting within the state of Nebraska, and within any one of the states of the United States of America, the business hereinafter described.

First.—The name of the corporation is, and shall be, THE MIDWEST AMUSEMENT COMPANY.

Second.—The principal office and place of business of the Company shall be located in the city of Plattsmouth, in the County of Cass, and State of Nebraska, but the Company may create and locate subordinate offices for the transaction of its business anywhere within the limits of the states where it is authorized to transact business.

Third.—The nature of the business to be transacted by said corporation shall be to purchase, lease, own, sell, operate, manage and conduct, show enterprises, including the purchase, leasing or selling of any and all necessary real estate and buildings for the carrying on and operating such enterprises and amusements, in any state where the Company has a right to transact its business.

Fourth.—The authorized capital stock of the Company shall be twenty thousand ($20,000) dollars divided into two hundred shares of the par value of one hundred ($100) dollars each, and shall be non-assessable. The persons whose names are hereinafter set out are shareholders, and the number of shares respectively owned by each is set opposite to his name.

Fifth.—The Midwest Amusement Company shall commence its existence from the first day of August, A. D. 1915, and continue during a period of ten years.

Sixth.—The business affairs, stock, property and concerns of the Company shall be managed by a Board of Directors composed of not less than three nor more than five members, all of whom shall respectively hold office until their successors are elected.

Seventh.—The stockholders shall have power, from time to time, to make presidential elections and amendments to these articles, or the laws of the state of Nebraska.

Eighth.—The first Board of Directors shall consist of two members, and shall hold their offices until their successors are elected in the manner provided by the by-laws.

Ninth.—A majority of all Directors shall constitute a quorum.

Tenth.—The Board of Directors may be increased or decreased in number to not less than two nor more than five members by a vote of the stockholders of the Company at such time and in such manner as the by-laws may prescribe.

Eleventh.—The Board of Directors have power to lease, sell, transfer and convey any of the rights, privileges, franchises or property interests of the Company, for such consideration and on such terms and conditions as the Board of Directors may determine to be for the best interests of the Company, subject, however, to the restrictions of the statutes of the state of Nebraska, and the statutes of any state where the Company may be authorized to transact business.

The Board of Directors may from time to time borrow money and incur other evidences of indebtedness therefor, and from time to time provide for giving or securing such indebtedness in any greater amount than two-thirds of the aggregate of its capital stock, provided, that the power conferred by these articles shall not, nor shall any of them, be exercised by the Board of Directors except by a vote of two-thirds of the whole number of Directors.

Twelfth.—The officers of said corporation shall be a president, vice-president, and secretary. The officers herein named may hold any two of the offices herein created at the same time, and shall be elected by the Board of Directors and shall hold their office for a period of one year or until their successors shall be elected and qualified.

Thirteenth.—The Board of Directors shall be elected by the stockholders of the company at their regular annual meeting, and the manner of holding the meeting of the Board of Directors and the election of its Board of Directors and the method of conducting the business of the corporation shall be provided by the by-laws adopted by the stockholders.

Fourteenth.—The highest amount of indebtedness to which said corporation shall at any time be indebted shall not be more than two-thirds of the aggregate of its capital stock.

We, the undersigned, hereby agree to take and pay for the number of shares of the capital stock of The Midwest Amusement Company, as set out opposite our names respectively, subject to the provisions of these Articles of Incorporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, We have hereunto set our hands this 8th day of February
